CEO Comments

Sales declined year-over-year, with continued negative impact from North America and Japan. All segments showed margin improvements.

The main reason behind the decline in sales is, as previously communicated, lower revenues from two large mobile broadband coverage projects in North America, which peaked in the first half of 2013, and the impact from reduced activity in Japan. This was partly offset by growth in China, Middle East and Latin America. The decline in sales impacted segment Networks as well as the Global Services network rollout business.

Our focus on profitability is paying off with gross margin improvement YoY, both including and excluding restructuring. All segments also showed improved operating margins. The business mix in the quarter was predominantly driven by mobile broadband capacity projects. In addition, some of our customers invested more in software to improve network performance and user experience.

Operating cash flow amounted to SEK 9.4 b., compared to a negative operating cash flow of SEK -3.0 b. in the first quarter last year. The payment from Samsung, related to IPR licensing, as well as lower sales had a positive effect on cash flow. Our continued efforts to reduce working capital through a better order-to-cash process are progressing well.

North America is currently characterized by operator investments in capacity and quality enhancements. At the same time we continue to strengthen our position in strategic areas. We are pleased to have been named partner to AT&T for their Domain 2.0 initiative which aims to simplify and scale their network utilizing Network Function Virtualization (NFV) and Software-Defined Networking (SDN).

In region North East Asia we are executing on previously awarded 4G/LTE contracts in mainland China. In addition, we have been awarded important 4G/LTE contracts in Japan and Taiwan.

In Europe, we have been awarded a five-year contract as part of Vodafone's Project Spring. It includes upgrades and expansions of Vodafone's 2G and 3G networks, and build-out of 4G/LTE along with professional services.

There is continued demand for our services offering and in the quarter we have won new managed services business in several regions.

With seven additional operators announcing trials of the Ericsson Radio Dot System we see strong interest in the solution. The innovative small-cell indoor solution will be commercially available later this year.

With current visibility, key contracts awarded will gradually impact sales and business mix, mainly in the second half of the year.

Political unrest prevails in parts of the Middle East and Africa and is still impacting sales. There is also an increased political uncertainty in Russia and the Ukraine. In 2013 Ericsson had SEK 5.9 b. in sales in Russia and Ukraine. The current political uncertainty has not impacted sales in the first quarter.

In a transforming ICT market, Ericsson continues to evolve through investments both into its core business and in new and targeted areas. Through our technology and services leadership we are well positioned to continue to stay relevant as our customers move to capture new market opportunities.

Net sales

Sales decreased YoY and sequentially.

The YoY sales decrease was primarily driven by North America and Japan where large mobile broadband coverage projects peaked in the first half of 2013 and are now near completion. IPR revenues grew YoY following the new Samsung license agreement reached in January 2014.

Sales declined sequentially following a strong Q4, with significant decline in China.

Gross margin

The gross margin increased YoY. This was primarily due to a business mix with a large share of mobile broadband capacity projects with higher hardware margins. Lower restructuring charges, increased IPR revenues and lower Network Rollout sales also contributed positively to the gross margin.

The gross margin decreased sequentially following a strong fourth quarter 2013 with SEK 4.2 b. related to the Samsung IPR license agreement. Excluding the license agreement the gross margin was 32.9% in Q413. A higher share of mobile broadband capacity projects in the quarter contributed positively to the gross margin QoQ.

During the quarter a currency revaluation effect of SEK -0.4 b. was recognized mainly related to currency depreciation in emerging markets.

Restructuring charges

Restructuring charges for the Group decreased both YoY and QoQ. The execution on the service delivery strategy, to move service delivery local resources to global centers continued, although at a slower pace in the beginning of the year.

Operating expenses

Total operating expenses increased SEK 0.2 b. YoY mainly due to the added Modems and Mediaroom businesses, while restructuring charges decreased.

Table of Contents

Other operating income and expenses

The hedge effect on other operating income was SEK -0.1 b.

Operating income

Operating income increased YoY driven by mobile broadband capacity sales, IPR revenues and lower restructuring charges but negatively impacted by reduced sales and increased expenses. Currency continued to have a negative impact on operating income YoY and QoQ.

Financial net

Financial net improved YoY mainly due to currency revaluation effects.

Net income and EPS

Net income and EPS diluted increased following the improved operating income.

Restructuring charges	-0.1	-1.3	-93%	-0.3	-71%

Net sales

Sales decreased YoY. The anticipated decline in mobile broadband coverage projects, primarily related to North America and Japan was not fully offset by growth in China, Middle East and Latin America. The capacity business continued to show good growth. Sales declined QoQ following a strong fourth quarter 2013 and lower business activities in North East Asia. CDMA sales continued to decline by -71% YoY and -65% QoQ to SEK 0.4 b.

Ericsson's LTE business maintained steady YoY while the related adoption of Voice over LTE (VoLTE) contributed to sequential growth in both IP Multimedia Systems (IMS) and User Data Consolidation (UDC), required to support multi-access converged network services.

Operating income and margin

For the third consecutive quarter operating margin was 10% or above. The YoY improvement was supported by a larger share of mobile broadband capacity business, higher IPR revenues and solid development in the underlying business with continued focus on cost adaptation and portfolio efficiency. Lower restructuring charges contributed to the YoY improvement. The operating margin declined QoQ as a result of lower IPR revenues.

Business update

The momentum for the multi-application router, SSR 8000, continued with 109 contracts signed since the launch in December 2011. During the quarter 13 new contracts were signed of which 5 were for fixed networks. To further strengthen IP-optical capabilities, a strategic agreement with Ciena (a top three optical networking supplier) was announced in the quarter.

Net sales

YoY sales increased in 7 out of 10 regions. Sales declined however due to reduced mobile broadband activities in North America and Japan. As anticipated the Network Rollout revenue decline accelerated after a period of high sales. Professional Services sales increased YoY although Managed Services sales declined slightly.

Global Services sales declined QoQ after a strong Q4 and due to reduced activities in Network Rollout.

Operating income and margin

Operating margin for Global Services improved YoY as a result of lower sales and reduced losses in Network Rollout. In the quarter, Network Rollout operating income was negatively impacted by temporary additional project costs in North America as well as losses in the Network modernization projects in Europe. As expected, activities and losses in the European modernization projects continue to trend down. Professional Services margin remained flat.

Business update

The market demand for Professional Services continues to be strong with several new contracts in the quarter.

Net sales

Sales increased YoY. The acquired Microsoft Mediaroom business and increased sales in OSS had a positive impact on sales. Sales declined QoQ after a seasonally strong Q4 and the positive effect from the Samsung IPR-licensing agreement.

Operating income and margin

Operating income and margin was flat YoY. Operating margin declined QoQ due to lower sales.

Business update

During the quarter the acquisition of Azuki Systems was completed and customer interest in the acquired portfolio is strong. The integration of Mediaroom is progressing according to plan.

In the OSS and BSS area Ericsson announced important contracts with CenturyLink in US for Service Agility solutions and with TeliaSonera in Sweden for the Customer Experience Management solution.

Background

Since August, 2013, Ericsson has an LTE thin- modem business with industry leading technology and intellectual property. The operation was integrated into Ericsson after the split-up of the joint venture ST-Ericsson last year. Modems are part of Ericsson's vision of 50 billion connected devices and the ambition is to be a top-three supplier in the thin-modems market. The first product, Ericsson M7450, was released for commercial use in the fourth quarter last year. Work is ongoing with a tier one smartphone manufacturer to integrate M7450 in their devices. Net sales are expected in the second half of 2014.

Operating income

Operating expenses for the modems business in 2014 are estimated to approximately SEK -2.6 b., of which SEK -0.7 b. in the first quarter.

North America

Lower mobile broadband coverage project activity resulted in a Networks sales decline as well as lower network rollout sales, partly offset by network quality and capacity expansion sales. Network ICT transformation drives a strong professional services business, including the modernization of OSS and BSS.

Latin America

Sales increased YoY driven by operators' investments to increase 3G network quality as well as LTE deployments in Chile and Brazil.

Northern Europe and Central Asia

Sales continued to grow YoY mainly driven by mobile broadband infrastructure investments in Russia. The positive development in Professional Services continued YoY driven by operator focus on network quality. The non-operator business in the Nordics showed stable growth.

Western and Central Europe

Sales were stable YoY. Network performance drives investments in 3G and LTE as well as services. Support Solutions increased YoY with the inclusion of Mediaroom, and increases in OSS and BSS.

Mediterranean

Sales declined YoY as major network modernization projects peaked early 2013. Business activity was lower in Italy and Spain, primarily due to operator consolidation discussions. There is an increasing demand for professional services, driven by managed services.

Middle East

Sales continued to grow YoY mainly driven by mobile broadband infrastructure deployments in Iraq, Pakistan and Saudi Arabia. In the quarter activities in Turkey were low and 4G deployments are delayed. Demand for professional services continued as operators seek network performance quality and operational efficiencies.

Sub-Saharan Africa

Network sales declined due to reduction in capex spend by a major customer. The negative development was partly offset by continued strong sales in OSS and BSS.

India

Sales grew YoY mainly due to network traffic growth in response to increasing smartphone penetration and data usage. Spectrum auctions were concluded in the quarter with operators securing necessary spectrum in their existing circles.

North East Asia

Sales decreased YoY as a result of lower network investment levels in Japan and the continued structural decline of GSM in China. The decline was partly offset by execution on previously awarded 4G/LTE contracts in China.

South East Asia and Oceania

Sales in the region declined YoY as major mobile broadband coverage projects in Indonesia and Australia peaked. Demand continued for professional services, both systems integration and network design and optimization. The smartphone penetration is increasing from an overall low level in the region. During the quarter Ericsson announced a contract in Myanmar, which is a new market for the Group.

Other

Licensing revenues showed good development YoY, following the Samsung agreement. Broadcast services continued to grow. Sales of power modules and other businesses are also included in Other .

Cash conversion (%) <sup>1)</sup>	290%	-186%	117%

1) Reconciliations of non-IFRS financial measures to the most directly comparable IFRS financial measures can be found on page 31.

The positive cash flow from operating activities was driven by the initial IPR-licensing payment from Samsung and lower working capital. Working capital improved mainly as a result of improved business mix.

Investing activities relates primarily to normal capex investments of SEK 1.0 b.

Short-term investments with maturity more than 3 months have increased by SEK 6.8. b., primarily as a result of transferred liquidity from Cash and cash equivalents.

Cash flow from financing activities was impacted by repayment of debt of SEK -6.0 b.

Payments for ongoing restructuring amounted to approximately SEK -0.5 b. in the quarter.

Working capital KPIs,

number of days	Jan-Mar 2014	Jan-Dec 2013	Jan-Sep 2013	Jan-Jun 2013	Jan-Mar 2013
Sales outstanding	112	97	109	103	108
Inventory	72	62	72	73	76
Payable	62	53	53	55	55

Despite substantially reduced trade receivables, days sales outstanding increased. The main reason is lower sales in the quarter.

Inventory and payable days increased as an effect of the preparation for coming mobile broadband deployments.

Efforts to reduce working capital through a better order-to-cash process continue.

Other information

Antitrust investigations against Ericsson

In March 2013, Ericsson filed a patent infringement lawsuit in the Indian Delhi High Court against Micromax Informatics Limited. As part of its defense, Micromax filed a complaint with the Competition Commission of India (CCI) and in November 2013 the CCI decided to refer the case to the Director General's Office for an in-depth investigation. In January 2014 the CCI announced they had opened another investigation against Ericsson based on claims made by Intex Technologies (India) Limited. Ericsson has made numerous attempts to sign a license agreement with Micromax and Intex on Fair, Reasonable and Non-discriminatory (FRAND) terms.

Ericsson and Ciena in strategic global agreement

On February 14, 2014, Ericsson and Ciena announced a strategic global agreement to develop joint transport solutions for IP-optical convergence and service provider software-defined networking (SDN). As part of this agreement, Ericsson offers Ciena's Converged Packet Optical portfolio, including the 6500 Packet-Optical Platform and 5400 switching platform family. Ericsson will benefit from Ciena's best-in-class optical technology leadership, including its WaveLogic coherent optical processors and global market presence. The strategic agreement is effective immediately, and go-to-market activities and solution integration efforts are underway.

Ericsson acquires Azuki Systems

On February 6, 2014, Ericsson announced it had entered into an agreement to acquire Massachusetts-based Azuki Systems, Inc., a provider of TV Anywhere delivery platforms for service providers, content owners and broadcasters. Azuki Systems extends Ericsson's leading TV and media portfolio which includes the recent addition of Mediaroom from Microsoft. Through the acquisition, Ericsson will accelerate the availability of new and compelling viewing experiences across a variety of devices and screens. The acquisition brings a team of highly skilled software engineers from Azuki Systems. Azuki Systems was founded in 2008 and is based in Acton, Massachusetts, USA. The company has 49 employees. The acquisition was concluded in February and will be incorporated into Business Unit Support Solutions.

POST-CLOSING EVENTS

Changes in Ericsson leadership team

On April 14, 2014, Ericsson announced that Douglas Gilstrap will resign from his role as Senior Vice President and Head of Group Function Strategy and leave Ericsson's Executive Leadership Team. Gilstrap joined Ericsson in his role in 2009 and has been responsible for developing Ericsson's business strategy and driving the company's M&A activities during this time. He has also played a key role in dissolving the ST-Ericsson joint venture and integrating the thin modems business into Ericsson. Since 2013 he also served as Chairman of Business Unit Modems.

DISCLOSURE PURSUANT TO SECTION 219 OF THE IRAN THREAT REDUCTION AND SYRIA HUMAN RIGHTS ACT OF 2012 (ITRA)

During the first quarter of 2014, Ericsson made sales of telecommunications infrastructure related products and services in Iran to MTN Irancell and to Mobile Communication Company of Iran, which generated gross revenues

(reported as net sales) of approximately SEK 307 million. Ericsson does not normally allocate quarterly net profit (reported as net income) on a country-by-country or activity-by-activity basis, other than as set forth in Ericsson's consolidated financial statements prepared in accordance with IFRS as issued by the IASB. However, Ericsson has estimated that its net profit from such sales, after internal cost allocation, during the first quarter of 2014 would be substantially lower than such gross revenues.

Risk factors

Ericsson's operational and financial risk factors and uncertainties along with our strategies and tactics to mitigate risk exposures or limit unfavorable outcomes are described in our Annual Report 2013. Compared to the risks described in the Annual Report 2013, no material, new or changed risk factors or uncertainties have been identified in the year.

Risk factors and uncertainties in focus short-term for the Parent Company and the Ericsson Group include:

Potential negative effects on operators' willingness to invest in network development due to uncertainty in the financial markets and a weak economic business environment, or reduced consumer telecom spending, or increased pressure on us to provide financing;

Uncertainty regarding the financial stability of suppliers, for example due to lack of financing;

Effects on gross margins and/or working capital of the product mix in the Networks segment between sales of upgrades and expansions (mainly software) and new buildouts of coverage (mainly hardware);

Effects on gross margins of the product mix in the Global Services segment including proportion of new network buildouts and share of new managed services deals with initial transition costs;

A continued volatile sales pattern in the Support Solutions segment or variability in our overall sales seasonality could make it more difficult to forecast future sales;

Effects of the ongoing industry consolidation among our customers as well as between our largest competitors, e.g. with postponed investments and intensified price competition as a consequence;

Changes in foreign exchange rates, in particular USD, JPY and EUR;

Political unrest or instability in certain markets;

Effects on production and sales from restrictions with respect to timely and adequate supply of materials, components and production capacity and other vital services on competitive terms;

Natural disasters and other events, affecting business, production, supply and transportation.

Ericsson stringently monitors the compliance with all relevant trade regulations and trade embargos applicable to dealings with customers operating in countries where there are trade restrictions or trade embargos are discussed. Moreover, Ericsson operates globally in accordance with Group policies and directives for business ethics and conduct.

Safe harbor statement

All statements made or incorporated by reference in this release, other than statements or characterizations of historical facts, are forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements are based on our current expectations, estimates and projections about our industry, management's beliefs and certain assumptions made by us. Forward-looking statements can often be identified by words such as anticipates, expects, intends, plans, predicts, believes, seeks, estimates, may, will, should, would, potential, continue, and variations or negatives and include, among others, statements regarding: (i) strategies, outlook and growth prospects; (ii) positioning to deliver future plans and to realize potential for future growth; (iii) liquidity and capital resources and expenditure, and our credit ratings; (iv) growth in demand for our products and services; (v) our joint venture activities; (vi) economic outlook and industry trends; (vii) developments of our markets; (viii) the impact of regulatory initiatives; (ix) research and development expenditures; (x) the strength of our competitors; (xi) future cost savings; (xii) plans to launch new products and services; (xiii) assessments of risks; (xiv) integration of acquired businesses; (xv) compliance with rules and regulations and (xvi) infringements of intellectual property rights of others.

In addition, any statements that refer to expectations, projections or other characterizations of future events or circumstances, including any underlying assumptions, are forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements speak only as of the date hereof and are based upon the information available to us at this time. Such information is subject to change, and we will not necessarily inform you of such changes. These statements are not guarantees of future performance and are subject to risks, uncertainties and assumptions that are difficult to predict. Therefore, our actual results could differ materially and adversely from those expressed in any forward-looking statements as a result of various factors. Important factors that may cause such a difference for Ericsson include, but are not limited to: (i) material adverse changes in the markets in which we operate or in global economic conditions; (ii) increased product and price competition; (iii) reductions in capital expenditure by network operators; (iv) the cost of technological innovation and increased expenditure to improve quality of service; (v) significant changes in market share for our principal products and services; (vi) foreign exchange rate or interest rate fluctuations; and (vii) the successful implementation of our business and operational initiatives.

Accounting policies

The Group

This interim report is prepared in accordance with IAS 34. The term IFRS used in this document refers to the application of IAS and IFRS as well as interpretations of these standards as issued by IASB's Standards Interpretation Committee (SIC) and IFRS Interpretations Committee (IFRIC). The accounting policies adopted are consistent with those of the annual report for the year ended December 31, 2013, and should be read in conjunction with that annual report.

As from January 1, 2014, the Company has applied the following new or amended IFRSs and IFRICs:

Amendment to IAS 32, Financial instruments: Presentation, Offsetting Financial Assets and Financial Liabilities. This amendment is related to the application guidance in IAS 32, Financial instruments: Presentation, and clarifies some of the requirements for offsetting financial assets and financial liabilities on the balance sheet.

IFRIC 21, Levies. This interpretation of IAS 37 Provisions, contingent liabilities and contingent assets sets out the accounting for an obligation to pay a levy that is not income tax. The interpretation addresses what the obligating event is that gives rise to the need to pay a levy and when a liability should be recognized.

None of the new or amended standards and interpretations has had any significant impact on the financial result or position of the Company. There is no significant difference between IFRS effective as per March 31, 2014 and IFRS as endorsed by the EU. However, IFRIC 21 is not yet endorsed by the EU.

In the interim reports of 2013 disclosure was given in relation to IFRS 7 about fair valuation of financial instruments. Due to that the amounts are not considered material this disclosure will not be given in the interim reports as from the first quarter of 2014. Should amounts become material quarterly disclosure will be given as from then.
