On April 14, 2014, Motorola Solutions, Inc. (the Company) announced that it had entered into an agreement to sell the Company's Enterprise business to Zebra Technologies, Inc. for $3.45 billion in cash. The transaction is expected to close by the end of 2014. Based on the terms and conditions of the agreement, certain assets and liabilities that have been historically reported as part of its Enterprise business operating segment, including the Company's iDEN infrastructure business, will be excluded from the sale transaction. As a result of its entry into the agreement, beginning in the second quarter of 2014, the results of operations of the portions of the Enterprise business included in the transaction will be presented in the Company's financial statements as discontinued operations. Certain corporate and general costs which have historically been allocated to the Enterprise business will remain with the Company after the sale of the Enterprise business.

Beginning in the second quarter of 2014, the assets and liabilities of the Enterprise business will be presented in the Company's financial statements as assets and liabilities held for sale.

To assist in the understanding of the Company's continuing operations, the Company has prepared pro forma sales and operating earnings information giving effect to the discontinued operations treatment of the Enterprise business for the Company for fiscal years 2012 and 2013 and for the first quarter of 2014. The pro forma financial information is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1.
