On August 11, 2015, upon the recommendation of the Nominating and Governance Committee of Dril-Quip, Inc. (the Company), the Board of Directors of the Company increased the size of the Board from five to six directors and appointed Steven L. Newman to fill the newly created directorship. Mr. Newman will serve as a Class III director of the Company until the expiration of his term on the date of the Company's annual meeting of stockholders in 2018, or until his successor is duly elected and qualified. Mr. Newman will serve on the Audit Committee, the Nominating and Governance Committee and the Compensation Committee of the Company.

Mr. Newman, 50, was President and Chief Executive Officer and a member of the Board of Directors of Transocean Ltd., a global offshore drilling company, from March 2010 until February 2015. From 1994 to 2010, Mr. Newman was employed by Transocean Ltd. in various management and operational positions. Mr. Newman is also a director of Bumi Armada Bhd, a Malaysian-based company that provides offshore production and support vessels to the oil and gas industry worldwide. Mr. Newman holds a Bachelor of Science degree in petroleum engineering from the Colorado School of Mines and an MBA from the Harvard University Graduate School of Business.

There are no arrangements or understandings between Mr. Newman and any other person pursuant to which he was selected as a director. The Company is not aware of any transaction in which Mr. Newman has an interest requiring disclosure under Item 404(a) of Regulation S-K.

Mr. Newman will be compensated for his service on the Board of Directors under the Company's standard arrangement for non-employee directors described in its proxy statement for the 2015 annual meeting of stockholders.

On August 11, 2015, the Company entered into an indemnification agreement (the Indemnification Agreement) with Mr. Newman pursuant to which the Company agrees to indemnify Mr. Newman, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, from and against any and all losses, liabilities, claims, damages and certain expenses arising out of an event or occurrence related to the fact that he is or was a director of the Company or is or was serving in another position at the request of the Company. The Indemnification Agreement is substantially similar to the Company's indemnification agreements with its executive officers and other directors. The foregoing description is qualified by reference to the terms of the Indemnification Agreement, a copy of the form of which is provided as Exhibit 10.1.
