Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

The information described below under Item 2.03 is hereby incorporated by reference into this Item 1.01.

Item 1.02. Termination of a Material Definitive Agreement.

On August 24, 2015, in connection with entering into a new unsecured revolving credit facility (as more fully described in Item 2.03 below), CarMax, Inc. (the Company) terminated its previous unsecured revolving credit facility and the related Credit Agreement dated August 26, 2011 (as amended from time to time), among the Company, CarMax Auto Superstores, Inc. (CASI), certain other subsidiaries of the Company, Bank of America, N.A., and the other lending institutions named therein (the Previous Credit Agreement). On entering the credit facility described below, the liability of the Company and its subsidiaries with respect to their obligations under the Previous Credit Agreement was discharged. The Previous Credit Agreement had been scheduled to terminate on August 26, 2016. No early termination penalties were incurred as a result of the termination.

Item 2.03. Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant.

On August 24, 2015, the Company, CASI, and certain other subsidiaries of the Company, entered into a Credit Agreement (the 2015 Credit Agreement or Agreement) for an unsecured revolving credit facility with Bank of America, N.A., as a lender and as administrative agent, and the other lending institutions named therein. The revolving credit facility under the 2015 Credit Agreement replaced the revolving credit facility under the Previous Credit Agreement.

The Agreement provides for aggregate revolving borrowings of up to $1.2 billion, with an option to increase the aggregate commitment by up to $500 million by requesting an increase in commitment from the existing lenders or by adding additional lenders. Borrowings under the Agreement are available for working capital and general corporate purposes and all outstanding principal amounts borrowed under the Agreement will be due and payable on August 24, 2020. The borrowings and other obligations under the Agreement are guaranteed by the Company and certain of its subsidiaries.

The Company may elect interest rates on its revolving borrowings calculated either by reference to LIBOR or to a Base Rate, as defined in the Agreement, in each case plus a margin based on the Company's consolidated leverage ratio. Interest will generally be payable on the first business day of each calendar month. A commitment fee, based on the Company's consolidated leverage ratio, will accrue on the unused portion of the commitments under the facility.

The Agreement contains customary representations and warranties, conditions, and affirmative and negative covenants, including requirements to maintain a minimum coverage ratio and to avoid exceeding a maximum leverage ratio. The Agreement also provides for customary events of default, including non-payment of principal, interest or fees, violation of covenants, bankruptcy, change of control and cross-defaults to material indebtedness.

In addition to participation in the Agreement, certain of the lenders, and their respective affiliates, provide other services to the Company, CASI and certain other subsidiaries of the Company, including cash management and treasury services, asset-backed securitization services, retail installment financing to the Company's customers, derivative transactional services, and other corporate finance services.

The Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 and is hereby incorporated by reference into this Item 2.03. The foregoing description of the Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the attached Exhibit.
