Marriott and Starwood Announce Achievement of Key Milestones

in Antitrust Review of Marriott's Proposed Acquisition of Starwood

Bethesda, Maryland and Stamford, Connecticut, March 1, 2016 Marriott International, Inc. (NASDAQ: MAR) and Starwood Hotels & Resorts Worldwide, Inc. (NYSE: HOT) announced today that yesterday the waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended (the HSR Act), expired in connection with Marriott's proposed acquisition of Starwood through a business combination. The expiration of the waiting period means the parties have cleared the premerger antitrust review in the United States, satisfying one of the closing conditions of the pending combination transactions. In addition, the companies announced that the premerger waiting period under Canadian law has expired and that the Competition Bureau of Canada has issued a no-action letter in respect of the proposed transaction. The companies are continuing to cooperate with competition authorities in other jurisdictions worldwide to obtain regulatory approvals for the transaction.

As previously announced, both companies set March 28 as the date of their separate special stockholder meetings to approve the combination transactions. The companies expect to close the transaction in mid-2016, subject to stockholder approvals, receipt of additional regulatory approvals, Starwood's divestiture of its vacation ownership business, and satisfaction of other customary conditions precedent.
