Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On April 1, 2016, Virgin America Inc., a Delaware corporation (Virgin America or the Company), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement) with Alaska Air Group, Inc., a Delaware corporation (Parent), and Alpine Acquisition Corp., a Delaware corporation and a wholly-owned subsidiary of Parent (Merger Sub), pursuant to which, subject to satisfaction or waiver of the conditions therein, Merger Sub will merge with and into Virgin America (the Merger), with Virgin America surviving as a wholly-owned subsidiary of Parent. The Merger has been approved unanimously by the board of directors of Virgin America.

Equity Treatment

Pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, at the effective time of the Merger (the Effective Time), each share of Virgin America voting common stock, par value $0.01 per share (the Voting Common Stock), and Virgin America non-voting common stock, par value $0.01 per share (the Non-Voting Common Stock and, collectively, such shares of Non-Voting Common Stock together with the shares of Voting Common Stock, the Shares), issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time, excluding Shares owned by stockholders who have properly exercised appraisal rights under Delaware law, treasury Shares and Shares held by Parent, Merger Sub or any other wholly-owned subsidiary of Parent, will be converted into the right to receive $57.00, payable net to the holder in cash, without interest (the Merger Consideration).

Immediately prior to the Effective Time, each unexpired and unexercised option to purchase Shares (each a Company Option) under any employee or director stock option, stock purchase or equity compensation plan, arrangement or agreement of the Company, including Virgin America's Amended and Restated 2005 Stock Incentive Plan and Virgin America's 2014 Equity Incentive Award Plan (the Company Stock Option Plans), whether or not then exercisable or vested, will vest and be cancelled and, in consideration of the cancellation of such Company Option and in full settlement therefor, each former holder of any such cancelled Company Option will only have the right to receive an amount in cash (without interest, and subject to deduction for any required withholding tax) equal to the product of (a) the total number of Shares previously subject to such Company Option and (b) the excess, if any, of the Merger Consideration over the exercise price per Share previously subject to such Company Option (the Option Payment). From and after the Effective Time, any such cancelled Company Option shall no longer be exercisable by the former holder thereof, but shall only entitle such holder to the payment of the Option Payment. However, any Company Option with a per share exercise price that equals or exceeds the Merger Consideration will be cancelled for no consideration.

Immediately prior to the Effective Time, each outstanding award of restricted stock units granted pursuant to any Company Stock Option Plan (each a Company RSU) will vest and be cancelled in exchange for the right to receive a payment (without interest, and subject to deduction for any required withholding tax) equal to the Merger Consideration with respect to such Company RSU (the RSU Payment).

Immediately prior to the Effective Time, each outstanding award of Shares granted pursuant to any Company Stock Option Plan that is subject to restrictions based on performance or continuing service (each a Company RSA) will vest (treating for this purpose any performance-based vesting condition to which such Company RSA is subject as having been attained at maximum level) and become free of any restrictions and be converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration.

No-Shop/Fiduciary-Out

The Merger Agreement provides that Virgin America and its representatives will be subject to customary no-shop provisions prohibiting Virgin America from soliciting alternative proposals from, and engaging in negotiations with, third parties regarding alternative acquisition proposals.

Prior to the requisite stockholder approval of the Merger, the no-shop provision is subject to a customary fiduciary-out provision that allows Virgin America, under certain circumstances, to provide information to and participate in discussions and engage in negotiations with third parties with respect to an alternative acquisition proposal that its board of directors has determined is, or could reasonably be expected to result in, a superior proposal. In addition, Virgin America's board of directors may change its recommendation with respect to the Merger if it determines in good faith, after consultation with outside legal counsel, that the failure to do so under certain circumstances specified in the Merger Agreement would be inconsistent with the board of directors' fiduciary duties under applicable law.

The Merger Agreement contains certain termination rights for both Virgin America and Parent, and provides that, upon termination of the Merger Agreement under specified circumstances, Virgin America may be required to pay Parent a termination fee of $78.5 million.

Other Provisions

Consummation of the Merger is subject to various conditions, including (i) obtaining requisite approval of the Merger from Virgin America's stockholders, (ii) the absence of any law, injunction, judgment or ruling preventing or prohibiting the Merger, (iii) the accuracy of the representations and warranties made by the parties, except, with respect to most of the representations and warrants made by the parties, unless any inaccuracies would not have had or reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the applicable party (as material adverse effect is defined in the Merger Agreement with respect to each party), (iv) the performance by the parties in all material respects of their covenants, obligations and agreements under the Merger Agreement, (v) the expiration or termination of the waiting period applicable to the consummation of the Merger under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, (vi) obtaining any approval or authorization required from the U.S. Federal Aviation Administration and the U.S. Department of Transportation in connection with the consummation of the Merger and (vii) certain other customary conditions.

The Merger Agreement contains customary representations, warranties and covenants of Virgin America, Merger Sub and Parent. Each of the parties have agreed to use their reasonable best efforts to cause the Merger to be consummated. The Merger Agreement also requires Virgin America to call and hold a stockholder meeting and, subject to the terms of the Merger Agreement, for Virgin America's board of directors to continue to recommend that the holders of Virgin America's Voting Common Stock vote their shares in favor of the adoption of the Merger Agreement.

The foregoing description of the Merger Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Merger Agreement, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 hereto and is hereby incorporated into this report by reference. The Merger Agreement has been included to provide investors with information regarding its terms. It is not intended to provide any other factual information about Virgin America. In particular, the assertions embodied in the representations and warranties contained in the Merger Agreement are subject to qualifications and limitations agreed to by the respective parties in connection with negotiating the terms of the Merger Agreement, including information contained in a confidential disclosure schedule provided by Virgin America to Parent in connection with the signing of the Merger Agreement. The confidential disclosure schedule contains information that modifies, qualifies and creates exceptions to the representations and warranties set forth in the Merger Agreement. Moreover, certain representations and warranties in the Merger Agreement were used for the purpose of allocating risk between Virgin America and Parent rather than establishing matters as facts. Accordingly, you should not rely on the representations and warranties in the Merger Agreement as characterizations of the actual state of facts about Virgin America.

Support Agreements

Concurrently with entering into the Merger Agreement, certain stockholders of Virgin America, in their capacities as holders of Shares or other equity interests of Virgin America, entered into a Support Agreement with Parent (the Voting Agreement) pursuant to which they agreed, among other things, to vote their Shares in favor of the adoption of the Merger Agreement and against any alternative proposal. Notwithstanding the foregoing, however, the Voting Agreement terminates upon the termination of the Merger Agreement in accordance with its terms, including the termination of the Merger Agreement by the Company's board of directors in favor of a superior proposal. The foregoing description of the Voting Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Voting Agreement, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 99.1 hereto and is hereby incorporated into this report by reference.

Item 8.01. Other Events.

On April 4, 2016, Virgin America and Parent issued a joint press release announcing the execution of the Merger Agreement. A copy of the press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.2 and incorporated herein by reference in its entirety.
