EXPLANATORY NOTE

We are filing this amendment (this Amendment) to our annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2015, filed on July 8, 2016 (the Form 10-K), to restate the consideration payable to our named executive officers in the event of a change in control under their change in control agreements. The only changes are the following:

The consideration payable to each of Mr. Corp and Mr. Lucado upon a change of control includes, in addition to a cash payment equal to twice the annual salary previously disclosed, 85,000 shares of common stock.

Revisions

Exhibits 31.1 are 31.2- revised to reflect the current date.

No attempt has been made in this Amendment to modify or update the other disclosures presented in the Form 10-K. This Amendment does not reflect events occurring after the filing of the Form 10-K or modify or update those disclosures. Accordingly, this Amendment should be read in conjunction with the Form 10-K and our other filings with the SEC.

No other executive officers received cash compensation greater than $100,000 in any of the past two fiscal years.

We currently have a long-term incentive and bonus program for the benefit of employees and officers of the Company. The program is primarily focused on senior officers, but certain elements of the plan are made available to key managers and to any employee in certain circumstances. In addition, management has established a 401(K) plan for employees and officers of the Company.

Change in Control Termination Agreement

Mr. Corp has a change in control termination agreement. A change of control is defined in the change in control termination agreement to mean when more than 50% of the Company's common shares are sold to a new owner or a group forming a block for the purpose of such investment in ownership.

The Change in Control Termination Agreement provides a severance payment equal to twice the annual salary plus 85,000 shares of common stock in the event one of the following occurs subsequent to a change in control of the Company, (1) the new ownership of the Company terminates Mr. Corp's employment or demotes him in level of responsibility or moves his place of employment (office) more than 30 miles from St. Marys WV during the 12 month period beginning immediately upon the change in control, such termination or demotion not being the result of good cause , or (2) Mr. Corp voluntarily ends his employment during the 30-day period immediately following the 12-month period described in (1).

Mr. Lucado also has a change in control termination agreement with terms substantially similar to those in Mr. Corp s agreement.
