Item 8.01. Other Events.

On November 16, 2017, Huntington Ingalls Industries, Inc. (the Company) announced the pricing of $600 million aggregate principal amount of 3.483% Senior Notes due 2027 (the Notes) in a previously announced private offering. The Company intends to use the net proceeds from the sale of the Notes to redeem all of its $600,000,000 aggregate principal amount of 5.000% Senior Notes due 2021 (the 2021 Notes). The Company has instructed the trustee under the 2021 Notes to issue a notice of redemption to holders of the 2021 Notes on November 17, 2017. The sale of the Notes is expected to close on December 1, 2017, subject to customary closing conditions. A copy of the press release announcing the pricing of the offering is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

The Notes are being sold in a private placement to qualified institutional buyers in reliance on Rule 144A under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act), and outside the United States to non-U.S. persons in reliance on Regulation S under the Securities Act. In connection with the offering of the Notes, the Company expects to enter into a registration rights agreement pursuant to which it will agree to file a registration statement with respect to an offer to exchange the Notes for substantially identical notes registered under the Securities Act (or, under certain circumstances, a shelf registration statement covering resales of the Notes).

The Notes have not been registered under the Securities Act and, unless so registered, may not be offered or sold in the United States absent an applicable exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act and other applicable securities laws.

This Current Report on Form 8-K does not constitute an offer to sell, or the solicitation of an offer to buy, the Notes, and shall not constitute an offer, solicitation or sale in any state or jurisdiction in which such offer, solicitation or sale would be unlawful.

Cautionary Statement on Forward-Looking Statements

Statements in this Current Report on Form 8-K, other than statements of historical fact, constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties that could cause the Company's actual results to differ materially from those expressed in these statements. Factors that may cause such differences include: the failure to complete the sale or issuance of the Notes; the failure to complete the proposed redemption; changes in government and customer priorities and requirements (including government budgetary constraints, shifts in defense spending and changes in customer short-range and long-range plans); the Company's ability to estimate its future contract costs and perform its contracts effectively; changes in procurement processes and government regulations and the Company's ability to comply with such requirements; the Company's ability to deliver its products and services at an affordable life cycle cost and compete within its markets; natural and environmental disasters and political instability; the Company's ability to execute its strategic plan, including with respect to share repurchases, dividends, capital expenditures and strategic acquisitions; adverse economic conditions in the United States and globally; changes in key estimates and assumptions regarding the Company's pension and retiree health care costs; security threats, including cyber security threats, and related disruptions; and other risk factors discussed in the Company's filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission. There may be other risks and uncertainties that the Company is unable to predict at this time.

or that it currently does not expect to have a material adverse effect on its business, and the Company undertakes no obligations to update or revise any forward-looking statements. You should not place undue reliance on any forward-looking statements that the Company may make.
