NOTES TO CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

February 29, 2016

(Unaudited)

1. Basis of Presentation

The accompanying condensed consolidated interim financial statements include the accounts of TSR, Inc. and its subsidiaries (the "Company"). All significant inter-company balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation. The condensed balance sheet as of May 31, 2015, which has been derived from audited financial statements, and the unaudited interim financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America applying to interim financial information and with the instructions to Form 10-Q of Regulation S-X of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Accordingly, certain information and footnote disclosures required by accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America and normally included in the Company's annual financial statements have been condensed or omitted. These condensed consolidated interim financial statements as of and for the three months and nine months ended February 29, 2016 are unaudited; however, in the opinion of management, such statements include all adjustments (consisting of normal recurring adjustments) necessary to present fairly the consolidated financial position, results of operations and cash flows of the Company for the periods presented. The results of operations for the interim periods presented are not necessarily indicative of the results that might be expected for future interim periods or for the full year ending May 31, 2016. These condensed consolidated interim financial statements should be read in conjunction with the Company's consolidated financial statements and notes thereto included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended May 31, 2015.

2. Net Income (Loss) Per Common Share

Basic net income (loss) per common share is computed by dividing net income (loss) attributable to common stockholders of TSR, Inc. by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding. The Company had no stock options or other common stock equivalents outstanding during any of the periods presented.

3. Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers short-term highly liquid investments with maturities of three months or less at the time of purchase to be cash equivalents. Cash and cash equivalents were comprised of the following as of February 29, 2016 and May 31, 2015:

	February 29, 2016	May 31, 2015
Cash in banks	$3,074,837	$2,851,802
Money market funds	537,793	817,988
	$3,612,630	$3,669,790

4. Revenue Recognition

The Company's contract computer programming services are generally provided under time and materials arrangements with its customers. Revenue is recognized in accordance with Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC") Topic 605, "Revenue Recognition," when persuasive evidence of an arrangement exists, the services have been rendered, the price is fixed or determinable, and collectability is reasonably assured. These conditions occur when a customer agreement is effected and the consultant performs the authorized services. Revenue is recorded net of all discounts and processing fees. Advances from customers represent amounts received from customers prior to the Company's provision of the related services and credit balances from overpayments.

Reimbursements received by the Company for out-of-pocket expenses are characterized as revenue.

NOTES TO CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

February 29, 2016

(Unaudited)

5. Certificates of Deposit and Marketable Securities

The Company has characterized its investments in certificates of deposit and marketable securities, based on the priority of the inputs used to value the investments, into a three-level fair value hierarchy. The fair value hierarchy gives the highest priority to quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1), and lowest priority to unobservable inputs (Level 3). If the inputs used to measure the investments fall within different levels of the hierarchy, the categorization is based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement of the instrument.

Investments recorded in the accompanying condensed consolidated balance sheets are categorized based on the inputs to valuation techniques as follows:

Level 1 - These are investments where values are based on unadjusted quoted prices for identical assets in an active market the Company has the ability to access.

Level 2 - These are investments where values are based on quoted market prices that are not active or model derived valuations in which all significant inputs are observable in active markets.

Level 3 - These are investments where values are derived from techniques in which one or more significant inputs are unobservable.

The following are the major categories of assets measured at fair value on a recurring basis as of February 29, 2016 and May 31, 2015 using quoted prices in active markets for identical assets (Level 1), significant other observable inputs (Level 2) and significant unobservable inputs (Level 3):

Edgar Filing: TSR INC - Form 10-Q

February 29, 2016	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total
Certificates of Deposit	$-	$1,529,000	$ -	$1,529,000
Equity Securities	23,672	-	-	23,672
	$23,672	$1,529,000	$ -	$1,552,672

May 31, 2015	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total
Certificates of Deposit	$-	$1,244,000	$ -	$1,244,000
Equity Securities	27,568	-	-	27,568
	$27,568	$1,244,000	$ -	$1,271,568

Based upon the Company's intent and ability to hold its certificates of deposit to maturity (which maturities range up to twelve months at purchase), such securities have been classified as held-to-maturity and are carried at amortized cost, which approximates market value. The Company's equity securities are classified as trading securities, which are carried at fair value, as determined by quoted market prices, which is a Level 1 input, as established by the fair value hierarchy. The related unrealized gains and losses are included in earnings. The Company's certificates of deposit and marketable securities at February 29, 2016 and May 31, 2015 are summarized as follows:

TSR, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES

	$ 1,260,866	$ 10,702	$ -	$ 1,271,568

The Company's investments in marketable securities consist primarily of investments in certificates of deposit. Market values were determined for each individual security in the investment portfolio. When evaluating the investments for other-than-temporary impairment, the Company reviews factors such as length of time and extent to which fair value has been below cost basis, the financial condition of the issuer, and the Company's ability and intent to hold the investment for a period of time, which may be sufficient for anticipated recovery in market values.

6. Fair Value of Financial Instruments

ASC Topic 825, "Financial Instruments," requires disclosure of the fair value of certain financial instruments. For cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable, accounts and other payables, accrued liabilities and advances from customers, the amounts presented in the condensed consolidated financial statements approximate fair value because of the short-term maturities of these instruments.

TSR, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES

NOTES TO CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

February 29, 2016

(Unaudited)

7. Equity

During the nine months ended February 29, 2016 and February 28, 2015, the Company did not purchase any shares of its common stock. As of April 7, 2016, the previously announced plan was terminated with 56,318 shares remaining available for purchase.

8. Other Matters

From time to time, the Company is party to various lawsuits, some involving material amounts. Management is not aware of any lawsuits that would have a material adverse impact on the consolidated financial position of the Company.

9. Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In May 2014, the FASB issued an update to ASC 606, "Revenue from Contracts with Customers." This update to ASC 606 provides a five-step process to determine when and how revenue is recognized. The core principle of the guidance is that a Company should recognize revenue upon transfer of promised goods or services to customers in an amount that reflects the expected consideration to be received in exchange for those goods or services. This update to ASC 606 will also result in enhanced disclosures about revenue, providing guidance for transactions that were not previously addressed comprehensively, and improving guidance for multiple-element arrangements. This update to ASC 606 is effective for the Company's fiscal year ending May 31, 2018. The Company is currently evaluating the impact, if any, of this update on its consolidated financial statements.

In November 2015, the FASB issued ASU 2015-17, "Income Taxes (Topic 740): Balance Sheet Classification of Deferred Taxes," which applies to the classification of deferred tax assets and liabilities. The update eliminates the requirement to classify deferred tax assets and liabilities as noncurrent or current within a classified statement of financial position. This ASU is effective for annual and interim periods beginning after December 15, 2016 and should be applied prospectively with early adoption permitted at the beginning of an interim or annual reporting period. The Company is currently evaluating the impact of adopting this guidance.

In January 2016, the FASB issued ASU 2016-01, “Financial Instruments – Overall: Recognition and Measurement of Financial Assets and Financial Liabilities.” The amendments in this update require all equity investments to be measured at fair value with changes in the fair value recognized through net income. The amendments in this update also require an entity to present separately in other comprehensive income the portion of the total change in the fair value of a liability resulting from a change in the instrument specific credit risk when the entity has elected to measure the liability at fair value in accordance with the fair value option for financial instruments. In addition, the amendments in this update eliminate the requirement to disclose the fair value of financial instruments measured at amortized cost for entities that are not public business entities and the requirement to disclose the method(s) and significant assumptions used to estimate the fair value that is required to be disclosed for financial instruments measured at amortized cost on the balance sheet for public business entities. This update is effective for the Company in the fiscal year ending May 31, 2019. The Company is currently evaluating the impact, if any, of this update on its consolidated financial statements.

In February 2016, the FASB issued ASU 2016-02, “Leases (Topic 842).” This update includes a lease accounting model that recognizes two types of leases – finance leases and operating leases. The standard requires that a lessee recognize on the balance sheet assets and liabilities for leases with terms of more than 12 months. The recognition, measurement, and presentation of expenses and cash flows arising from a lease by a lessee will depend on its classification as a finance or operating lease. This update is effective for the Company in the fiscal year ending May 31, 2020. The Company is currently evaluating the impact, if any, of this update on its consolidated financial statements.

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

Part I. Financial Information

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

The following discussion and analysis should be read in conjunction with the condensed consolidated financial statements and the notes to such financial statements.

Forward-Looking Statements

Certain statements contained in Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations, including statements concerning the Company's plans, future prospects and the Company's future cash flow requirements are forward-looking statements, as defined in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Actual results may differ materially from those projections in the forward-looking statements due to known and unknown risks and uncertainties, including but not limited to the following: the success of the Company's plan for internal growth, the impact of adverse economic conditions on the Company's business; risks relating to the competitive nature of the markets for contract computer programming services; the extent to which market conditions for the Company's contract computer programming services will continue to adversely affect the Company's business; the concentration of the Company's business with certain customers; uncertainty as to the Company's ability to maintain its relations with existing customers and expand its contract computer consulting services business; the impact of changes in the industry, such as the use of vendor management companies in connection with the consultant procurement process, the increase in customers moving IT operations offshore; the Company's ability to adapt to changing market conditions; and other risks and uncertainties set forth in the Company's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Company is under no obligation to publicly update or revise forward-looking statements.

Results of Operations

The following table sets forth, for the periods indicated, certain financial information derived from the Company's condensed consolidated statements of operations. There can be no assurance that trends in operating results will continue in the future:

Revenue

Revenue consists primarily of revenue from computer programming consulting services. Revenue for the quarter ended February 29, 2016 increased $862,000 or 6.1% from the prior year quarter. This increase in revenue resulted primarily from the average daily rates charged for the consultants on billing with customers increasing approximately 6.1% in the current quarter compared with the prior year quarter. This rate increase is primarily the result of placing more consultants in higher level positions. Additionally, this increase in revenue resulted from the average number of consultants on billing with customers increasing from approximately 353 for the quarter ended February 28, 2015 to approximately 357 for the quarter ended February 29, 2016.

Cost of Sales

Cost of sales for the quarter ended February 29, 2016, increased $688,000 or 5.7% to $12,770,000 from $12,082,000 in the prior year quarter. The increase in cost of sales resulted primarily from the average daily rates paid to the consultants on billing with customers increasing approximately 4.6% in the current quarter compared with the prior year quarter. The increase in cost of sales also resulted from the increase in the number of consultants on billing with clients. Cost of sales as a percentage of revenue decreased from 85.0% in the quarter ended February 28, 2015 to 84.7% in the quarter ended February 29, 2016. The decrease in cost of sales as a percentage of revenue was primarily attributable to increased placements with non-markup managed clients, which allow higher gross margins compared with accounts which set contractual limits on the markups over a contractor's pay rate.

Selling, General and Administrative Expenses

Selling, general and administrative expenses consist primarily of expenses relating to account executives, technical recruiters, facilities costs, management and corporate overhead. These expenses increased $90,000 or 4.0% from $2,229,000 in the quarter ended February 28, 2015 to $2,319,000 in the quarter ended February 29, 2016. This increase was primarily attributable to an increase in the number of sales personnel and expenses associated with hiring them. Hiring new sales executives requires a significant investment to cover their costs while their non-compete agreements, which typically last a year, expire. The Company expects selling, general and administrative expenses to continue to increase as more recruiters and sales executives are hired to stimulate growth. Selling, general and administrative expenses, as a percentage of revenue, decreased from 15.7% in the quarter ended February 28, 2015 to 15.4% in the quarter ended February 29, 2016 as a result of the additional revenue from the increase in the average daily rates charged for the consultants on billing with customers.

Other Expense

Other expense for the quarter ended February 29, 2016 resulted primarily from interest and dividend income of $2,000 and a mark to market loss of approximately $4,000 on the Company's equity securities. Other expense for the quarter ended February 28, 2015 resulted primarily from interest and dividend income of $1,000 and a mark to market loss of approximately $3,000 on the Company's equity securities.

Income Taxes

The income tax benefit included in the Company's results of operations for the quarters ended February 29, 2016 and February 28, 2015 reflects the Company's estimated effective tax rate for the years ending May 31, 2016 and 2015, respectively. These rates were (39.0)% for the quarter ended February 28, 2015 and (43.8)% for the quarter ended February 29, 2016

Net Loss Attributable to TSR, Inc.

Net loss attributable to TSR, Inc. decreased from $85,000 in the quarter ended February 28, 2015 to $24,000 in the quarter ended February 29, 2016. This decrease in net loss was primarily attributable to the increase in revenue as a result of the increase in the average daily rates charged for the consultants on billing with customers. The fiscal third quarter has historically been the most challenging because high payroll taxes at the beginning of a calendar year increase costs, while these months also have a reduced number of revenue generating work days due to holidays and weather related closings.

Revenue

Revenue consists primarily of revenue from computer programming consulting services. Revenue for the nine months ended February 29, 2016 increased $3,062,000 or 7.2% from the prior year period. This increase in revenue resulted primarily from the average daily rates charged for the consultants on billing with customers increasing approximately 6.8% in the current nine months compared with the prior year period. This rate increase is primarily the result of placing more consultants in higher level positions. The increase in revenue also resulted from the average number of consultants on billing with customers increasing from approximately 346 for the nine months ended February 28, 2015 to approximately 351 for the nine months ended February 29, 2016.

Cost of Sales

Cost of sales for the nine months ended February 29, 2016 increased $2,617,000 or 7.4% to $38,165,000 from $35,548,000 in the prior year period. The increase in cost of sales resulted primarily from the average daily rates paid to the consultants on billing with customers increasing approximately 6.0% in the nine-month period compared with the prior year period. The increase in cost of sales also resulted from the increase in the number of consultants on billing with clients. Cost of sales as a percentage of revenue increased from 83.8% in the nine months ended February 28, 2015 to 83.9% in the nine months ended February 29, 2016. The increase in cost of sales as a percentage of revenue was primarily attributable to increased reliance on employees, with their related payroll costs, rather than utilizing subcontractors to provide services to customers. Reliance on employees rather than subcontractors is a function of changing customer requirements.

Selling, General and Administrative Expenses

Selling, general and administrative expenses consist primarily of expenses relating to account executives, technical recruiters, facilities costs, management and corporate overhead. These expenses increased $157,000 or 2.4% from $6,635,000 in the nine months ended February 28, 2015 to $6,792,000 in the nine months ended February 29, 2016. This increase was primarily attributable to an increase in the number of sales personnel and expenses associated with hiring them. Hiring new sales executives requires a significant investment to cover their costs while their non-compete agreements, which typically last a year, expire. The Company expects selling, general and administrative expenses to continue to increase as more recruiters and sales executives are hired to stimulate growth. Selling, general and administrative expenses, as a percentage of revenue, decreased from 15.6% in the nine months ended February 28, 2015 to 14.9% in the nine months ended February 29, 2016 as a result of the additional revenue from the increase in the average daily rates charged for the consultants on billing with customers.

Other Income

Other income for the nine months ended February 29, 2016 resulted primarily from interest and dividend income of $6,000 and a mark to market loss of approximately $4,000 on the Company's equity securities. Other income for the nine months ended February 28, 2015 resulted primarily from interest and dividend income of $4,000 and a mark to market gain of approximately $5,000 on the Company's equity securities

Income Taxes

The income tax provision included in the Company's results of operations for the nine months ended February 29, 2016 and February 28, 2015 reflect the Company's estimated effective tax rate for the years ending May 31, 2016 and 2015, respectively. These rates were 40.5% for the nine months ended February 28, 2015 and 50.0% for the nine months ended February 29, 2016. The effective rate for the nine months ended February 29, 2016 increased due to increased non-deductible expenses and additional state taxes.

Net Income Attributable to TSR, Inc.

Net income attributable to TSR, Inc. increased $149,000 from $81,000 in the nine months ended February 28, 2015 to net income of $230,000 in the nine months ended February 29, 2016. This increase in net income was primarily attributable to the increase in revenue as a result of the increase in the average daily rates charged for the consultants on billing with customers.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

The Company expects that its cash and cash equivalents and certificates of deposit and marketable securities will be sufficient to provide the Company with adequate resources to meet its liquidity requirements for at least the next 12 months.

At February 29, 2016, the Company had working capital (total current assets in excess of total current liabilities) of $9,201,000 including cash and cash equivalents and certificates of deposit and marketable securities of $5,165,000 as compared to working capital of $8,986,000 including cash and cash equivalents and certificates of deposit and marketable securities of $4,941,000 at May 31, 2015.

For the nine months ended February 29, 2016, net cash provided by operating activities was $324,000 compared to net cash used in operating activities of $287,000 for the nine months ended February 28, 2015. The cash provided by operating activities in the nine months ended February 29, 2016 primarily resulted from consolidated net income of $270,000 and a decrease in accounts receivable of $203,000, offset by a decrease in advances from customers of $148,000. The cash used in operating activities in the nine months ended February 28, 2015 primarily resulted from an increase in accounts receivable of $567,000, offset to some extent by consolidated net income of $154,000 and an increase in accounts and other payables and accrued expenses and other liabilities of $154,000.

Net cash used in investing activities of $294,000 for the nine months ended February 29, 2016 primarily resulted from investing in additional certificates of deposits of $285,000 and the purchase of fixed assets of $9,000. Net cash used in investing activities of $14,000 for the nine months ended February 28, 2015 primarily resulted from the purchase of fixed assets.

In the nine months ended February 29, 2016, net cash used in financing activities resulted from distributions to the noncontrolling interest of $88,000. In the nine months ended February 28, 2015, net cash used in financing activities resulted from distributions to the noncontrolling interest of $100,000.

The Company's capital resource commitments at February 29, 2016 consisted of lease obligations on its branch and corporate facilities. The Company intends to finance these lease commitments from cash flow provided by operations, available cash and short-term marketable securities.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In May 2014, the FASB issued an update to ASC 606, “Revenue from Contracts with Customers.” This update to ASC 606 provides a five step process to determine when and how revenue is recognized. The core principle of the guidance is that a Company should recognize revenue upon transfer of promised goods or services to customers in an amount that reflects the expected consideration to be received in exchange for those goods or services. This update to ASC 606 will also result in enhanced disclosures about revenue, providing guidance for transactions that were not previously addressed comprehensively, and improving guidance for multiple element arrangements. This update to ASC 606 is effective for the Company in the fiscal year ending May 31, 2018. The Company is currently evaluating the impact, if any, of this update on its consolidated financial statements.

In November 2015, the FASB issued ASU 2015-17, “Income Taxes (Topic 740): Balance Sheet Classification of Deferred Taxes,” which applies to the classification of deferred tax assets and liabilities. The update eliminates the requirement to classify deferred tax assets and liabilities as noncurrent or current within a classified statement of financial position. This ASU is effective for annual and interim periods beginning after December 15, 2016 and should be applied prospectively with early adoption permitted at the beginning of an interim or annual reporting period. The Company is currently evaluating the impact of adopting this guidance.

In January 2016, the FASB issued ASU 2016-01, “Financial Instruments – Overall: Recognition and Measurement of Financial Assets and Financial Liabilities.” The amendments in this update require all equity investments to be measured at fair value with changes in the fair value recognized through net income. The amendments in this update also require an entity to present separately in other comprehensive income the portion of the total change in the fair value of a liability resulting from a change in the instrument-specific credit risk when the entity has elected to measure the liability at fair value in accordance with the fair value option for financial instruments. In addition, the amendments in this update eliminate the requirement to disclose the fair value of financial instruments measured at amortized cost for entities that are not public business entities and the requirement to disclose the method(s) and significant assumptions used to estimate the fair value that is required to be disclosed for financial instruments measured at amortized cost on the balance sheet for public business entities. This update is effective for the Company in the fiscal year ending May 31, 2019. The Company is currently evaluating the impact, if any, of this update on its consolidated financial statements.

In February 2016, the FASB issued ASU 2016-02, “Leases (Topic 842).” This update includes a lease accounting model that recognizes two types of leases – finance leases and operating leases. The standard requires that a lessee recognize on the balance sheet assets and liabilities for leases with terms of more than 12 months. The recognition, measurement, and presentation of expenses and cash flows arising from a lease by a lessee will depend on its classification as a finance or operating lease. This update is effective for the Company in the fiscal year ending May 31, 2020. The Company is currently evaluating the impact, if any, of this update on its consolidated financial statements.

Critical Accounting Policies

The SEC defines “critical accounting policies” as those that require the application of management’s most difficult, subjective or complex judgments, often as a result of the need to make estimates about the effect of matters that are inherently uncertain and may change in subsequent periods.

The Company’s significant accounting policies are described in Note 1 to the Company’s consolidated financial statements, contained in its May 31, 2015 Annual Report on Form 10-K, as filed with the SEC. The Company believes that those accounting policies require the application of management’s most difficult, subjective or complex judgments. There have been no changes in the Company’s significant accounting policies as of February 29, 2016.

Item 4. Controls and Procedures

Disclosure Controls and Procedures. The Company conducted an evaluation, under the supervision and with the participation of the principal executive officer and principal accounting officer, of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act")). Based on this evaluation, the principal executive officer and principal accounting officer concluded that, as of the end of the period covered by this report, the Company's disclosure controls and procedures are effective.

Internal Control Over Financial Reporting. There was no change in the Company's internal control over financial reporting (as such term is defined in Rules 13a-15(f) and 15d-15(f) under the Exchange Act) during the Company's most recently reported completed fiscal quarter that has materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect, the Company's internal control over financial reporting.
