Item 8.01 Other Information.

On August 2, 2007, Dover Corporation (the Company) entered into an accelerated share repurchase agreement (an ASR) with Goldman Sachs & Co. (Goldman) for the repurchase of six million shares of the Company's common stock, par value $1.00 per share, at an initial aggregate purchase price of $309,840,000.

Under the terms of the ASR, Goldman delivered to the Company the full number of shares to be repurchased on August 7, 2007. Goldman borrowed the shares and, over a period not to extend beyond December 31, 2007, will repurchase shares in the open market to cover its position with the share lenders. Upon completion of Goldman's open market repurchases, the ASR is subject to a price adjustment. At that time, the Company may receive, or be required to pay, a price adjustment based on the adjusted volume weighted average price. The Company may elect to settle the price adjustment in shares or in cash.

The ASR contains other terms governing the transaction, including, but not limited to, the mechanism used to determine the final settlement of the transaction, the settlement methods, the circumstances under which Goldman is permitted to make adjustments to the valuation periods, the circumstances under which the transaction may be terminated early, and various representations, warranties and covenants made by the Company and Goldman to one another, including, inter alia, certain representations related to Rule 10b5-1 and intended adherence with the Rule 10b-18 volume and timing guidelines.

The Company is conducting the accelerated share repurchase under a repurchase authorization for an aggregate of 10,000,000 shares approved by its board of directors on August 2, 2007.
