VRG Launches VARIG's New Visual Identity

Sao Paulo, October 23, 2007 GOL Linhas Aéreas Inteligentes S.A. (NYSE: GOL and Bovespa: GOLL4), the parent company of Brazil's low-cost airlines GOL Transportes Aéreos S.A. and VRG Linhas Aéreas S.A., today unveils the new visual identity of VARIG, the brand operated by VRG.

The initial changes in the Company's new visual identity are based on a new logo: orange surrounded by a strong blue with waves that simulate the aerodynamics of an airplane during flight. These lines also appear in the modern exterior design painted on the aircraft, on the cabin crew's uniforms, and in all of VRG's airport terminals.

The transformation of VARIG's brand will also cater to passenger's senses. On international routes, the Company created a new concept, Espaço Vita (Life Space), which offers customers more quality of life and an enhanced air travel experience. Following the Espaço Vita concept, friendly flight attendants will offer passengers selections from a specially-created menu with nutritious meal options as well as complimentary newspapers and magazines to increase their entertainment options and comfort. On domestic flights, passengers will be immersed in the Sabores e Aromas do Brasil (Tastes and Aromas of Brazil) a new in-flight service offering.

The new low-cost operating model adopted by the Company allows VRG to offer high standards of customer service at a lower cost. Passenger satisfaction is our main concern: 100% care, 0% excess, says Murilo Barbosa, VRG's Marketing Director.

VARIG's quality of service will extend beyond its passengers in the air. The Company's call center will provide customers on the ground with access to up-to-date information and the ability to purchase tickets more conveniently. Additionally, the VIP rooms at Rio de Janeiro's Tom Jobim Airport, São Paulo's Guarulhos Airport, Paraná's Afonso Pena Airport, and Rio Grande do Sul's Salgado Filho Airport are being remodeled to provide maximum convenience to VRG's passengers by 2008.
