Rio de Janeiro, May 31st 2010 Petróleo Brasileiro S.A. Petrobras, proceeds to render clarifications in response to notice CVM/Bovespa-GAE/CREM 1231/10, whose consultation was done under the following terms:

If the appraisal right is observed, notify:

- Which shareholders shall the right for manifestation, that is, the shareholders enrolled in which date in the records of the Company shall have the right to be in disagreement with the deliberations of the Assembly, to be convened for the approval/ratification of this operation;

The acquisition of 100% of the shares issued by Gás Brasileiro Distribuidora (GBD) occurred through a Contract of Sale of Shares, executed between ENI INTERNATIONAL B.V. and Petrobras Gás S/A GASPETRO, controlled by Petrobras. GASPETRO is a close corporation that holds interest in another 19 natural gas distributors channeled in many States.

For this reason, the provision in art. 256 of Law no. 6.404/76 (Joint Stock Company Law), does not apply to it, since it is a rule that only applies to open capital corporations.

In virtue of the foregoing, Petrobras informs that an Extraordinary General Meeting will not be convened, under the terms of the provision in art. 256 of the Joint Stock Company Law and informs that the operation will not provide any appraisal right.
