ANNEX I – CHARTER OF THE COMMITTEES

I.1 – CHARTER OF THE FINANCE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

ARTICLE I

FINANCE COMMITTEE

1. The Finance Committee (“Committee”) is a collegiate body created to assist and provide information to the Board of Directors (“Board”), in accordance with the terms of Section 34, sole paragraph, of the Bylaws of Gafisa S.A. (“Company”).

2. Considering that the Committee is an advisory body to the Board, the resolutions of the Committee constitute mere recommendations to the Board. The recommendations of the Committee will be supported by an assessment of risks and, whenever applicable, by comments from the legal department of the Company.

ARTICLE II

MEMBERSHIP AND OPERATION OF THE FINANCE COMMITTEE

3. The Committee will not operate on an ongoing basis and will be comprised of minimum 3 and maximum 5 members, to be elected by the Board among the officers (executive officers or not) of the Company and/or its controlling companies. The term of office of the Committee members will be 2 years provided, further, that no additional compensation will be payable for service as a Committee member.

3.1. There will be no hierarchy among the members of the Committee.

4. A majority of the Committee members will elect a Coordinator from among their number.

4.1. The Coordinator will have responsibility for oversight and organization of the operations of the Committee as well as for preparation, organization, recording and distribution of the agenda and minutes of the Committee meetings, and any information required in connection with the discussion of such agenda.

ARTICLE III

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

5. The Committee will have the following duties and responsibilities, in addition to others that may be assigned by the Board:

- (a) to recommend to the Board the approval of financial agreements that are not inside the operational routine of the Company and required approval of the Board;
- (b) to elaborate policies related to: (i) financial investment of the Company; (ii) raising of financing through capital markets; and (iii) tendering of guaranties;
- (c) to monitor and report, as necessary, the (i) Policy of Corporative and Financial Risks, (ii) Policy of Guaranties and Credit Limits of the Company, and (iii) other policies described in item (a) above;

- (d) to monitor the start-up of the Annual Investments Plan, as approved by the Board;
- (e) to monitor and report the cash flow and Short and Long Term Debt Policy;
- (f) to monitor and report the debt structure and make suggestions of amendments as often as necessary; and
- (g) to review and assess the adequacy of this charter and recommend any proposed changes to the Board.

ARTICLE IV

MEETINGS

6. The Committee will hold its meetings as often as it is necessary. Meetings will be called by the Coordinator, by letter, e-mail, telegram or fax sent at least three days in advance, provided, however, that a meeting attended by all Committee members will be deemed to be duly constituted, irrespective of any notice.
7. Committee meetings may be held at the headquarters of the Company or any other location, as previously agreed by the members. Meetings via telephone conference or video conference are permitted.
8. The instatement quorum of the meetings will be of, at least, half of the Committee's members. The deliberations will be approved by the majority of the members present at the meeting. The Coordinator shall have, in addition to his own vote, a casting vote in the event of a tie.
9. The remaining directors, executive officers, independent auditors or advisors of the Company will attend a meeting of the Committee whenever so requested, but will have no voting rights at such meeting.
10. Any Committee meeting may be treated on a confidential basis, wholly or in part, whenever the Coordinator believes such treatment would be advisable considering the matters at hand, including with respect to the conclusions reached.

ARTICLE V

DUTIES AND PREROGATIVES OF THE COMMITTEE AND ITS MEMBERS

11. In the discharge of the duties and responsibilities of their offices, the members of the Committee will abide by the Company's Code of Ethics, and applicable rules and regulations.

12. The members of the Committee will have fiduciary obligations to the Company and may not disclose to third parties any documents or information regarding the Company's business. The members of the Committee will hold in secrecy any material, inside or strategic information of the Company obtained by virtue of their offices and will ensure that no such information will be accessible to third parties. The members of the Committee may not use any such information to obtain any gains for himself or herself or for another person.

12.1. For the purpose of the foregoing provisions of this section, the following meanings will apply:

- (a) Material: any resolution adopted by a shareholders' meeting or the management of the Company or any other act or event in connection with the corporate business that may have significant effect on (a) the quoted prices for the securities of the Company; or (b) investors' decisions to trade such securities; or (c) investors' decisions to exercise any rights attaching to the securities of the Company;
- (b) Inside: any information imparted to a particular person or group before it is disclosed to the public; and
- (c) Strategic: any information that may provide the Company with a gain or competitive advantage over its competitors, or that needs to be kept secret due to its relevance.

ARTICLE VI

REPORT BY THE BOARD OF EXECUTIVE OFFICERS AND ANNUAL REVIEW

13. In advance of each meeting of the Committee, the Board of Executive Officers will make available to the Coordinator, for distribution to the Committee members, one or more reports on matters falling within the scope of authority of the Committee that are being reviewed by the Company, with a description of the strategies and actions proposed to be adopted and/or currently adopted by the Company with respect to such matters.

14. On an yearly basis, if so requested by the Board, the Board of Executive Officers will submit to the Committee a review of the results of the plans, projects and strategic investments fully carried out by the executive officers during the period in question, or still under way.

15. The conclusions of any such annual review requested by the Board and the comments and recommendations from the Committee in connection therewith will be submitted to the Board of Directors for review.
