SABESP'S CODE OF CONDUCT AND INTEGRITY

1 – PRESENTATION

In line with its mission of “providing water and sanitation services contributing to improve the quality of life and the environment”, SABESP is socially responsible, committed to legality, ethics, transparency and operates under the Vision “to be a global benchmark in the provision of water and sanitation services, in a sustainable, competitive and innovative manner, focused on customers”.

It acts as an agent of sustainable development, basing its economic performance on environmentally responsible practices that improve the well-being of its employees, the communities where it operates and the country.

The guidelines for economic, financial and socio-environmental sustainability strengthen the Company's growth and commitment to the environment and society.

This Code is in line with the Code of Ethics of the State Public Administration (State Decree 60,428 / 2014), Novo Mercado Regulations, Federal Law 13,303/2016, State Decree 62.349/16.

2 – INTRODUCTION

Ethics represents the ideal human conduct and is an intrinsic part of the development of civilization, guiding people’s decision-making process about what is "good" and "correct" for themselves as well as for their relationships with others with the purpose of promoting the common good.

Personal and corporate ethics are inseparable. The adoption of ethical principles and rules of conduct, including the fight against and refusal to condone any form of fraud and corruption, is part of Sabesp’s culture and reflects its organizational identity.

The adoption of the ethical principles and rules of conduct outlined in this Code is essential to ensure that the Company, its management (members of the Board of Directors, Audit Committee, Fiscal Council and Eligibility and Advisory Committee and Executive Board) and its employees (regular employees, interns and apprentices) act in an integrated and coherent manner in their relations and dealings with various stakeholders: clients, shareholders, investors, suppliers, partners, third parties, government, the community and society as a whole.

3 - OBJECTIVES

- To serve as the standard for the personal and professional conduct of all Sabesp's employees and members of management, regardless of their role or position, in their internal and external relations with clients, shareholders, investors, suppliers, partners, third parties, government, the community and society as a whole.
- To reinforce ethical, legal and transparent behavior, based on fair and relevant values adopted by all, thereby reducing the subjectivity of personal interpretations of moral and ethical principles.
- To strengthen the image of Sabesp and its employees in the eyes of its stakeholders.
- To serve as a reference in the fight against all forms of fraud, corruption and acts that harm public administration, especially those envisaged in national and international anti-corruption laws.

4 - CODE OF CONDUCT OF INTEGRITY

The Code of Conduct and Integrity establishes the foundation and guidelines for sustainable, socio-environmental, legal, transparent and ethical management focused on the fight against fraud and corruption.

The Code consists of organizational values, ethical principles and rules that have been observed by Sabesp since its inception and have been consolidated into precepts that guide and underpin the Company's relations with its various stakeholders: management, employees, clients, shareholders, investors, suppliers, partners, third parties, government, the community and society as a whole.

The Code forms the basis for consolidating and enhancing Sabesp's existing reputation with a socially responsible image and provides support and guidance on how ongoing actions can be improved and new initiatives can be implemented in regard to complying with the Company's mission and directives.

On first entering Sabesp, all employees and members of management receive a copy of the Code and its subsequent amendments and sign a term of commitment agreeing to abide by and comply with the precepts governing ethical conduct contained therein. Suppliers, partners, third parties and other external stakeholders also agree to abide by the Code available on Sabesp's official website.

Management and employees receive periodical training, at least on annually, on this Code. In addition, the members of the Board of Directors and the Executive Board receive training on the risk management policy and other issues related to the Company's activities.

4.1. ETHICAL VALUES

Respect for society and clients

The expenses related to this participation (registration fees, travel, accommodations, food and other) shall not be paid by persons, companies or entities that may directly or indirectly benefit from or influence any company act or decision.

Donations and Sponsorships

Donations and sponsorships are permitted, provided they are related to our corporate objectives and do not result in political or personal favors or benefits for any professional related to Sabesp.

Verification of Irregularities

Management, employees, suppliers, third parties, partners and other external stakeholders shall immediately inform the Whistleblower Channel of any irregularity or unlawful act, fact, data or situation which they have knowledge of.

The content of the denunciations is verified in accordance with corporate procedures and must contain the minimum elements necessary for said verification.

Anonymity is preserved, although any unfounded or fraudulent denunciations, or those of a conspiratory nature, will be investigated.

Protection of Informants

It is forbidden to punish or retaliate, in any way, the informant or employee who has provided information in good faith to the Whistleblower Channel or by other means.

4.5. SUPPLIERS, PARTNERS AND THIRD PARTIES

Production Chain

Sabesp is jointly responsible for preventing and minimizing damage to the environment resulting from its production chain, by screening the quality of its service suppliers and appropriate monitoring their services based on the nature of the services.

Compliance with the Law

Sabesp's service contracts shall clearly state that all suppliers, partners and third parties must comply with the prevailing legislation, especially laws dealing with the environment, child and forced labor, and anticorruption laws

Equality

Suppliers, partners and third parties in an equivalent or similar situation shall receive the same treatment and opportunities. Any exceptions must be grounded on solid technical and professional opinions.

Trust

Sabesp shall maintain relations of trust with its suppliers, partners and third parties, based on mutual ethical behavior.

5 – SANCTIONS

If any irregularity or violation of the Code of Conduct and Integrity is verified, once materiality and authorship have been identified, disciplinary measures will be applied to the managers and employees in question, in compliance with the Corporate Event Investigation Procedure, as well as the rules in the labor legislation. If companies, third parties or partners are involved, contractual sanctions shall be applied, without prejudice to the other applicable legal measures.

6 - ETHICS COMMITTEE

The Ethics Committee, whose composition is determined by the Resolution of the Executive Board, is responsible for preparing, reviewing and disclosing this Code, in order to ensure the relevance, updating, dissemination and application of Sabesp's Code of Conduct and Integrity. It analyzes the nature and frequency of violations, recommends preventive and corrective measures, monitors infraction processes and encourages employees' commitment to ethical and impartial conduct.

7 - COMPLIANCE AREA

Sabesp has a Risk Management and Compliance Superintendence that is responsible for establishing the Institutional Compliance Policy, a document that outlines guidelines, principles and competences for the consolidation of the Integrity Program across the Company.
