Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On August 20, 2008, Noven Pharmaceuticals, Inc. ("Noven") announced that it has entered into the following agreements (the "Agreements") with Procter & Gamble Pharmaceuticals, Inc. ("P&GP"), a subsidiary of The Procter & Gamble Company, relating to the development and commercialization of prescription transdermal patches for the treatment of Hypoactive Sexual Desire Disorder ("HSDD") in women: (i) Development and License Agreement, dated June 30, 2008, between Noven and P&GP; and (ii) Supply Agreement, dated August 14, 2008, among Noven, P&GP and P&G Pharmaceuticals, S.A.R.L. The Development and License Agreement supersedes and replaces the prior development letter agreement entered into between Noven and P&GP on April 28, 2003.

Under the Agreements, Noven granted P&GP an exclusive worldwide license to a testosterone patch for the treatment of HSDD in women, as well as potential next-generation patches, and P&GP granted Noven exclusive supplier rights with respect to such licensed products. If the testosterone patch is ultimately approved and launched, Noven would receive royalties and manufacturing fees under the Agreements. Noven may also receive development and sales milestone payments related to the licensed products. The royalty payments are to be determined based on a percentage of P&GP's quarterly sales of the licensed products. The milestone payments will be contingent upon the achievement of certain sales milestones. Pursuant to the Agreements, P&GP will fund any clinical development costs and will be responsible for any regulatory filings and marketing applications associated with any licensed products developed under the Agreements.

The foregoing is a summary of certain of the terms of the Agreements and does not purport to be a complete discussion thereof. Accordingly, the foregoing is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Agreements, which will be filed as exhibits to Noven's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2008. A copy of the related press release is being filed as Exhibit 99.1 to this Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.
