Item 2.06 Material Impairments.

On January 7, 2015, Pendrell Corporation (the "Company") concluded that it will record a non-cash impairment charge of approximately $11 million for the impairment of goodwill and proprietary micro-propagation technology of its majority-owned subsidiary, Provitro Biosciences LLC ("Provitro"). The conclusion resulted from a meeting of the Provitro Board of Directors (the "Board"), during which the Board determined and reported to the Company a change of business direction. The Company does not anticipate any material cash expenditures in connection with the impairment.
