Item 8.01. Other Information

On April 1, 2008, Rosetta Resources Inc. (the "Company" or "Rosetta") announced the appointment of James E. Craddock as Vice President of Drilling and Production Operations, effective April 15, 2008.

Prior to joining Rosetta, Mr. Craddock was Chief Operating Officer for BPI Energy, Inc., an E&P start-up company focused on coalbed methane development. Mr. Craddock began his industry career with Superior Oil Company in 1981 and then assumed a broad range of technical, operational and strategic roles with Burlington Resources Inc. and its predecessor companies over more than twenty years. At Burlington Resources, he held a series of positions of increasing responsibility, most recently as Chief Engineer. Mr. Craddock has extensive experience in production operations, reservoir and production engineering, and unconventional gas and oil exploitation. Mr. Craddock received a Bachelor of Science degree in Mechanical Engineering from Texas A&M University.

In this newly created role, Mr. Craddock will work closely with John Clayton, whose appointment as Vice President, Asset Operations for Rosetta was recently announced. Mr. Craddock will have responsibility for all aspects of operations, including drilling, completions, procurement, production operations and reporting, as well as responsibility for a new chief engineering function.

The press release is furnished as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report. Exhibit 99.1 shall not be deemed to be "filed" for the purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and will not be incorporated by reference into any registration statement filed under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, unless specifically identified therein as being incorporated therein by reference.
