Merger Agreement

On February 10, 2016, Yuma Energy, Inc., a California corporation (the “Company”), Yuma Delaware Merger Subsidiary, Inc., a Delaware corporation and wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company (“Delaware Merger Subsidiary”), Yuma Merger Subsidiary, Inc., a Delaware corporation and wholly-owned subsidiary of Delaware Merger Subsidiary (“Merger Subsidiary”), and Davis Petroleum Acquisition Corp., a Delaware corporation (“Davis”), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger and Reorganization (the “Merger Agreement”) pursuant to which, among other things, (i) the Company will, subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, merge with and into Delaware Merger Subsidiary (the “Reincorporation Merger”), the separate corporate existence of the Company shall cease and Delaware Merger Subsidiary shall be the successor or surviving corporation of the merger (“Yuma Delaware”), and (ii) following the Reincorporation Merger, Merger Subsidiary will, subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, including the consummation of the Reincorporation Merger, merge with and into Davis (the “Merger”), the separate corporate existence of Merger Subsidiary shall cease and Davis shall be the successor or surviving corporation of the Merger and a wholly owned subsidiary of Yuma Delaware. The Reincorporation Merger and the Merger are intended to qualify for federal income tax purposes as a tax-free reorganization under the provisions of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

Upon the consummation of the Reincorporation Merger, the Company will become a Delaware corporation and effect a 1-for-10 reverse stock split, whereby (i) each share of common stock, no par value per share, of the Company (“Company Common Stock”), will be converted into one-tenth of one share of common stock, $0.001 par value per share, of Yuma Delaware (“Yuma Delaware Common Stock”); (ii) each outstanding restricted stock unit granted under the Company’s 2011 Stock Option Plan (the “2011 Plan”) outstanding immediately prior to the Reincorporation Merger, whether vested or unvested, will be automatically converted into the right to receive one-tenth of one share of Yuma Delaware Common Stock for each share of Yuma Common Stock subject to such restricted stock unit award, on the same terms and conditions applicable to the restricted stock unit award; (iii) each option to acquire Company Common Stock granted pursuant to the Company’s 2006 Equity Incentive Plan and outstanding immediately prior to the consummation of the Reincorporation Merger, whether vested or unvested, exercisable or unexercisable, will be automatically converted into the right to receive one-tenth of one share of Yuma Delaware Common Stock for each share of Yuma Common Stock subject to such option, on the same terms and conditions applicable to the option to purchase Company Common Stock, except that the exercise price of such option shall be multiplied by ten; (iv) each outstanding share of restricted stock of the Company granted pursuant to the 2011 Plan or the Company’s 2014 Long-Term Incentive Plan (the “2014 Plan”), whether vested or unvested, will be automatically converted into the right to receive one-tenth of one share of Yuma Delaware Common Stock, on the same terms applicable to such restricted stock award; and (v) each stock appreciation right granted pursuant to the 2014 Plan outstanding immediately prior to the consummation of the Reincorporation Merger, whether vested or unvested, exercisable or unexercisable, will be automatically converted into the right to receive one-tenth of one share of Yuma Delaware Common Stock for each share of Yuma Common Stock subject to such stock appreciation right, on the same terms and conditions applicable to the stock appreciation right, except that the exercise price shall be multiplied by ten. Additionally, Yuma Delaware will change its name to “Yuma Energy, Inc.”

Also upon consummation of the Reincorporation Merger, each share of 9.25% Series A Cumulative Redeemable Preferred Stock, no par value per share (the “Series A Preferred Stock”), of the Company, will be converted into three and one-half shares of Yuma Delaware Common Stock, which includes any accrued and unpaid dividends on the Series A Preferred Stock as of the consummation of the Reincorporation Merger. The transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement are subject to approval of the holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of Series A Preferred Stock.

Upon consummation of the Merger, Davis will become a wholly owned subsidiary of Yuma Delaware and, subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, holders of Davis common stock will receive, in exchange for such shares of common stock approximately 61.1% of the outstanding shares of Yuma Delaware Common Stock and the holders of Davis preferred stock will receive approximately 3.3 million shares of Yuma Delaware Series D Convertible Preferred Stock (the "Series D Preferred Stock") with a liquidation preference of approximately $18.7 million and an anticipated conversion ratio of approximately $5.70 per share, subject to the terms and conditions of a certificate of designation to be filed with the Delaware Secretary of State. The parties to the Merger Agreement intend to consummate the Merger as soon as practicable after the Reincorporation Merger.

The respective boards of directors of the Company, Davis, Delaware Merger Subsidiary and Merger Subsidiary have determined that the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement are fair to, advisable and in the best interests of their respective stockholders, and have unanimously approved the Merger and the Merger Agreement. The transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement are subject to approval of the Company's and Davis' respective shareholders at shareholders' meetings to be called and held by the Company and Davis, respectively, delivery to the Company of Davis' audited financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2015 and other closing conditions, including the filing and effectiveness of a registration statement on Form S-4 with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC").

The Company and Davis have made customary representations and warranties in the Merger Agreement and agreed to certain customary covenants, including covenants regarding operation of their respective business prior to the consummation of the Merger and covenants prohibiting the Company and Davis from soliciting, or providing information or entering into discussions regarding, proposals relating to alternative business combination transactions, except in limited circumstances to permit the board of directors of each of the Company and Davis to comply with its fiduciary duties under applicable law.

Under the Merger Agreement, at the closing of the Merger, four of the five members of the board of directors of Yuma Delaware will continue to serve and three additional directors will be nominated by Davis. Sam L. Banks will continue to serve as a director, President and Chief Executive Officer of Yuma Delaware. Paul D. McKinney will continue to serve as Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer of Yuma Delaware and James J. Jacobs will continue to serve as Chief Financial Officer, Treasurer and Corporate Secretary of Yuma Delaware.

The Merger Agreement contains certain termination rights for both the Company and Davis, including, among other things, if the Merger is not consummated on or before September 30, 2016, and further provides that, upon termination of the Merger Agreement under certain circumstances, each of the Company and Davis may be obligated to pay the other party a fee of $1,500,000.

The Merger Agreement contains representations and warranties by the Company, Delaware Merger Subsidiary and Merger Subsidiary, on the one hand, and by Davis, on the other hand, made solely for the benefit of the other. The assertions embodied in those representations and warranties are qualified by information in confidential disclosure schedules that the parties have exchanged in connection with signing the Merger Agreement. The disclosure schedules contain information that modifies, qualifies and creates exceptions to the representations and warranties set forth in the Merger Agreement. Moreover, certain representations and warranties in the Merger Agreement were made as of a specified date, may be subject to a contractual standard of materiality different from what might be viewed as material to shareholders, or may have been used for the purpose of allocating risk between the Company, on the one hand, and Davis, on the other hand. Accordingly, the representations and warranties and other disclosures in the Merger Agreement should not be relied on by any persons as characterizations of the actual state of facts about the Company or Davis at the time they were made or otherwise.

At closing, the Merger Agreement requires that the Company enter into a Registration Rights Agreement with certain holders of Davis common stock and Davis preferred stock and Sam L. Banks pursuant to which the Company will agree to register the shares of Yuma Delaware Common Stock to be issued to such holders with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”), subject to the terms and conditions set forth therein.

At closing, the Merger Agreement requires that Sam L. Banks, RMCP PIV DPC, LP, RMCP PIV DPC II, LP, Davis Petroleum Investment, LLC, Sankaty Davis, LLC, Michael Reddin, Thomas Hardisty, Susan Davis, Greg Schneider, and Steven Enger enter into a lock-up agreement for a period of six months after the closing of the Merger, subject to the terms and conditions set forth therein.

The Merger Agreement is included herein as Exhibits 2.1 and is incorporated herein by reference. The foregoing description of the Merger Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to such agreement.
