ITEM 5.02 DEPARTURE OF DIRECTORS OR CERTAIN OFFICERS; ELECTION OF DIRECTORS; APPOINTMENT OF CERTAIN OFFICERS; COMPENSATORY ARRANGEMENTS OF CERTAIN OFFICERS.

On December 29, 2014, Kennedy-Wilson Holdings, Inc. (the "Company"), through its wholly owned subsidiary, Kennedy-Wilson Inc., entered into employment agreements with Kent Mouton, the Company's Executive Vice President and General Counsel, Matthew Windisch, the Company's Executive Vice President and Justin Enbody, the Company's Chief Financial Officer.

The employment agreement with Mr. Mouton provides, among other things:

- a term of five years, expiring on December 29, 2019;
- an annual base salary of $800,000;
- that Mr. Mouton will receive an annual performance bonus and equity compensation in amounts approved by the Company's compensation committee or board of directors, as applicable;
- that, upon death or termination for disability, Mr. Mouton will be entitled to (i) the payment of (A) the sum of (x) the base salary that otherwise would have been paid throughout the remainder of the employment term, plus (y) the amount of Mr. Mouton's performance bonus for the most recent calendar year prior to the triggering event or (B) such other amount that the Company's compensation committee may determine from time to time (the Company may discharge its obligation to pay the amount described in (i) by purchasing and paying for the premiums for one or more insurance policies with the beneficiary being Mr. Mouton), and (ii) the vesting of all unvested equity-based compensation awards granted to Mr. Mouton;
- that, upon termination of Mr. Mouton's employment without "cause" or Mr. Mouton's resignation for "good reason" (each as defined in Mr. Mouton's employment agreement), Mr. Mouton will be entitled to (i) the continued payment of base salary (not taking into account any reduction in base salary that constituted good reason) and benefit continuation (other than continued participation in the Company's 401(k) plan) through the remainder of the employment term, (ii) the vesting of all unvested equity-based compensation awards granted to Mr. Mouton, and (iii) a lump sum severance payment in an amount equal to:
 - two times the average of the sum of the following for the three preceding fiscal years:
 - Mr. Mouton's annual base salary (not taking into account any reduction in base salary that constituted good reason);
 - Mr. Mouton's performance bonus; and
 - the value of the annual equity-based compensation award granted to Mr. Mouton (which will be deemed, for each fiscal year, to be the greater of (1) the grant date fair value of the award for such fiscal year, or (2) $1,750,000), less
 - an amount equal to (1) Mr. Mouton's monthly base salary in effect as of the time of such termination (not taking into account any reduction in base salary that constituted good reason) multiplied by (2) the number of months remaining in Mr. Mouton's term of employment as of such date.

The employment agreement with Mr. Windisch provides, among other things:

a term of five years, expiring on December 29, 2019;

an annual base salary of $600,000;

that Mr. Windisch will receive an annual performance bonus and equity compensation in amounts approved by the Company's compensation committee or board of directors, as applicable; that, upon death or termination for disability, Mr. Windisch will be entitled to (i) the payment of (A) the sum of (x) the base salary that otherwise would have been paid throughout the remainder of the employment term, plus (y) the amount of Mr. Windisch's performance bonus for the most recent calendar year prior to the triggering event or (B) such other amount that the Company's compensation committee may determine from time to time (the Company may discharge its obligation to pay the amount described in (i) by purchasing and paying for the premiums for one or more insurance policies with the beneficiary being Mr. Windisch), and (ii) the vesting of all unvested equity-based compensation awards granted to Mr. Windisch; that, upon termination of Mr. Windisch's employment without "cause" or Mr. Windisch's resignation for "good reason"

(each as defined in Mr. Windisch's employment agreement), Mr. Windisch will be entitled to (i) the continued payment of base salary (not taking into account any reduction in base salary that constituted good reason) and benefit continuation (other than continued participation in the Company's 401(k) plan) through the remainder of the employment term, (ii) the vesting of all unvested equity-based compensation awards granted to Mr. Windisch, and

(iii) a lump sum severance payment in an amount equal to:

two times the average of the sum of the following for the three preceding fiscal years:

Mr. Windisch's annual base salary (not taking into account any reduction in base salary that constituted good reason);

Mr. Windisch's performance bonus; and the value of the annual equity-based compensation award granted to Mr. Windisch (which will be deemed, for each fiscal year, to be the greater of (1) the grant date fair value of the award for such fiscal year, or (2) $2,000,000), an amount equal to (1) Mr. Windisch's monthly base salary in effect as of the time of such termination (not taking into account any reduction in base salary that constituted good reason) multiplied by (2) the number of months remaining in Mr. Windisch's term of employment as of such date.

The employment agreement with Mr. Enbody provides, among other things:

a term of five years, expiring on December 29, 2019;

an annual base salary of $600,000;

that Mr. Enbody will receive an annual performance bonus and equity compensation in amounts approved by the Company's compensation committee or board of directors, as applicable; that, upon death or termination for disability, Mr. Enbody will be entitled to (i) the payment of (A) the sum of (x) the base salary that otherwise would have been paid throughout the remainder of the employment term, plus (y) the amount of Mr. Enbody's performance bonus for the most recent calendar year prior to the triggering event or (B) such other amount that the Company's compensation committee may determine from time to time (the Company may discharge its obligation to pay the amount described in (i) by purchasing and paying for the premiums for one or more insurance policies with the beneficiary being Mr. Enbody), and (ii) the vesting of all unvested equity-based compensation awards granted to Mr. Enbody; that, upon termination of Mr. Enbody's employment without "cause" or Mr. Enbody's resignation for "good reason" (each as defined in Mr. Enbody's employment agreement), Mr. Enbody will be entitled to (i) the continued payment of base salary (not taking into account any reduction in base salary that constituted good reason) and benefit continuation (other than continued participation in the Company's 401(k) plan) through the remainder of the employment term, (ii) the vesting of all unvested equity-based compensation awards granted to Mr. Enbody, and (iii) a lump sum severance payment in an amount equal to:

two times the average of the sum of the following for the three preceding fiscal years:

Mr. Enbody's annual base salary (not taking into account any reduction in base salary that constituted good reason);

Mr. Enbody's performance bonus; and the value of the annual equity-based compensation award granted to Mr. Enbody (which will be deemed, for each fiscal year, to be the greater of (1) the grant date fair value of the award for such fiscal year, or (2) $1,500,000), less an amount equal to (1) Mr. Enbody's monthly base salary in effect as of the time of such termination (not taking into account any reduction in base salary that constituted good reason) multiplied by (2) the number of months remaining in Mr. Enbody's term of employment as of such date.

The above description of the employment agreement amendments is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the terms of the amendments, which are filed as exhibits to this Current Report.

ITEM 5.03 AMENDMENTS TO ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OR BYLAWS; CHANGE IN FISCAL YEAR

On December 29, 2014, the Company's Board of Directors adopted the Amended and Restated Bylaws of Kennedy-Wilson Holdings, Inc., filed as Exhibit 3.1 herewith.

The amended bylaws provide, among other things:

that the Board of Directors may determine to hold meetings of stockholders solely by means of remote communication (i.e., a "virtual meeting") in accordance with Section 211(a) of the Delaware General Corporation Law (the "DGCL");

that the voting standard required to approve general matters brought before a meeting of stockholders (i.e., items other than the election of directors and matters for which the Company's certificate of incorporation or bylaws, the DGCL or the rules or regulations of any stock exchange applicable to the Company prescribe a specific vote) shall be "a majority of the votes cast" on the matter;

that stockholders seeking to act by written consent in lieu of a meeting must first request that the Board of Directors fix a record date for determining stockholders entitled to act by written consent;

• consolidated advance notice requirements for all stockholder business proposals and director nominations;
• that the Board of Directors may take action in lieu of a meeting by unanimous consent given by electronic transmission in accordance with Section 141(f) of the DGCL; and
• that Directors of the Company's classified board may not be removed without cause in accordance with Section 141(d) of the DGCL.

The above description of the amended bylaws is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Amended and Restated Bylaws of Kennedy-Wilson Holdings, Inc., which is filed as an exhibit to this Current Report and is incorporated by reference into this Item 5.03.
