On March 1, 2013, March 4, 2013 and March 5, 2013, Thompson Creek Metals Company Inc. (the “Company”), entered into amendments to the performance share unit award agreements entered into in 2010, 2011 and 2012 with each of Kevin Loughrey, the Company's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, S. Scott Shellhaas, the Company's President and Chief Operating Officer, Pamela L. Saxton, the Company's Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, Mark A. Wilson, the Company's Executive Vice President and Chief Commercial Officer and Wendy Cassity, the Company's Vice President, General Counsel and Secretary (the “PSU Amendments”), and amendments to the restricted share unit award agreements entered into in 2012 with Mr. Loughrey, Ms. Saxton and Mr. Wilson (the “RSU Amendments”). The PSU Amendments revise the award agreements governing these executives' PSUs awarded in 2010, 2011 and 2012 to provide that, upon a termination without cause, all PSUs will vest at “target” and, upon a change of control, the Company will be deemed to have achieved “target” performance and the Compensation and Governance Committee of the Company's Board of Directors (the “Committee”) will determine that either: (i) all such PSUs will immediately vest and settle upon the change of control, or (ii) the successor corporation must assume all such PSUs provided that, if assumed by the successor corporation, such PSUs will immediately vest and settle in the event that the executive is terminated or demoted during the 12-month period following the change of control. This modification was made to conform the treatment of previously-issued PSUs among the Company's executives, and to eliminate ambiguity in Mr. Shellhaas's and Ms. Cassity's employment agreements regarding treatment of PSUs upon a termination without cause and a change of control. The RSU Amendments revise the award agreements governing certain executives' previously-issued RSUs to provide that, upon a termination without cause, all RSUs which would have vested within the following 24-month period will immediately vest and, upon a change of control, all RSUs which would have vested within the following 36-month period will immediately vest. This modification was made to conform the treatment of previously-issued RSUs among the Company's executives.

Pursuant to new forms of PSU and RSU award agreements for the Company's executives, copies of which are attached as Exhibits 10.37 and 10.38 to the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission on February 25, 2013 (the “New Award Agreements”), in connection with a change of control of the Company, with respect to RSUs, the Committee shall make a determination that either: (i) all outstanding RSUs will immediately vest and settle upon the change of control, or (ii) the successor corporation must assume the outstanding RSUs, provided that, if assumed by the successor corporation, such RSUs will immediately vest and settle in the event that the executive is terminated or demoted during the 12-month period following the change of control. Pursuant to the New Award Agreements, in connection with a change of control of the Company, with respect to PSUs, the Company will be deemed to have achieved “target” performance and the Committee shall make a determination that either: (i) any such PSUs will immediately vest and settle upon the change of control, or (ii) the successor corporation must assume any such PSUs, provided that, if assumed by the successor corporation, such PSUs will immediately vest and settle in the event that the executive is terminated or demoted during the 12-month period following the change of control. Pursuant to the New Award Agreements, in connection with termination without cause, all unvested RSUs and PSUs are forfeited, subject to Committee discretion to determine otherwise. On March 3, 2013, the Company granted PSUs and RSUs to the Company's executive officers under the New Award Agreements.

The foregoing descriptions of the PSU Amendments and the RSU Amendments is summary in nature, and is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by, the full text of the PSU Amendments and the RSU Amendments, copies of which are attached hereto as Exhibits 10.1-10.8 and incorporated herein by reference. The foregoing descriptions of the New Award Agreements is summary in nature, and is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by, the full text of the New Award Agreements, copies of which are attached Exhibits 10.37 and 10.38 to the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission on February 25, 2013 and incorporated herein by reference.
