On November 14, 2011, the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of International Game Technology (the “Company”) approved the Fifth Restated Code of Bylaws of International Game Technology (the “Amended Bylaws”), effective immediately. The Amended Bylaws restate the Company’s bylaws in their entirety and were adopted (i) to clarify that except as permitted by the Board, stockholders may not participate in meetings of stockholders through electronic communications, videoconferencing, teleconferencing or other available technology which allows the stockholders to communicate simultaneously or sequentially, and (ii) to expressly permit members of the Board, or of any committee, to participate in meetings of the Board or committee through electronic communications, videoconferencing, teleconferencing or other available technology which allows the members to communicate simultaneously or sequentially. These changes were adopted to conform the Amended Bylaws to recent amendments to the Nevada Corporations Code regarding use of electronic communications.

The foregoing description is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Amended Bylaws, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 3.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.
