Item 5.07

On May 24, 2018, HomeStreet, Inc. (the “Company”) held its 2018 Annual Meeting of Shareholders (the “Annual Meeting”). Based on the preliminary voting report provided by the Company's proxy solicitor, the Company's shareholders elected all director candidates nominated by the Company's Board of Directors and approved Proposals 2, 3 and 4 as described in the Company’s Definitive Proxy Statement for the Annual Meeting on Schedule 14A which was filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on April 17, 2018.

At the Annual Meeting, blue proxy cards solicited by Roaring Blue Lion Capital Management and its affiliates (“Roaring Blue Lion”) were presented; the Company had previously announced that it would provisionally count those proxies at the meeting, pending a final determination of whether or not those proxies would be considered valid given that the proxy holders did not file an application with, or seek approval from, the Washington State Department of Financial Institutions (the “DFI”), potentially in violation of Chapter 30A of the Revised Code of Washington (“RCW”). While this determination did not affect the ultimate outcome of the election of the directors or approvals on the proposals, the Chairman of the Meeting, based on an Interpretive Statement of the DFI dated March 15, 2018 and advice of bank regulatory outside counsel, determined that the blue proxy cards would be considered ineffective and void pursuant to RCW 30A.04.405(7). However, notwithstanding that determination, the results reported below disclose both the preliminary voting results as well as how the blue proxies would have been voted had they been validly solicited proxies under the law. An amendment to this Current Report on Form 8-K will be filed within four business days of the determination by the inspector of elections of the final vote tally.

The proposals voted on and approved by the shareholders at the Annual Meeting were as follows:

Proposal 1

Company shareholders re-elected the following three Class I directors with terms ending at the annual meeting of the shareholders to be held in 2021 (or upon the due election and qualification of their respective successors) and the voting results are set forth below:
