THE EASTERN COMPANY
 NOTES TO CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS (UNAUDITED)
 October 2, 2010

Note A – Basis of Presentation

The accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the instructions to Form 10-Q and do not include all of the information and footnotes required by generally accepted accounting principles in the United States for complete financial statements. Refer to the Company's consolidated financial statements and notes thereto included in its Form 10-K for the year ended January 2, 2010 for additional information.

The accompanying condensed consolidated financial statements are unaudited. However, in the opinion of management, all adjustments (consisting only of normal recurring accruals) necessary for a fair presentation of the results of operations for interim periods have been reflected therein. All intercompany accounts and transactions are eliminated. Operating results for interim periods are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be expected for the full year.

The condensed consolidated balance sheet as of January 2, 2010 has been derived from the audited consolidated balance sheet at that date.

Note E – Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In June 2009, the FASB issued authoritative guidance on consolidation of variable interest entities. The new guidance is intended to improve financial reporting by requiring additional disclosures about a company's involvement in variable interest entities. This new guidance became effective for fiscal years and interim periods beginning after November 15, 2009. The Company adopted this guidance effective January 3, 2010, and it had no impact on the consolidated financial statements of the Company.

In January 2010, the FASB issued new accounting guidance which requires new disclosures regarding transfers in and out of Level 1 and Level 2 fair value measurements, as well as requiring presentation on a gross basis of information about purchases, sales, issuances and settlements in Level 3 fair value measurements. The guidance also clarifies existing disclosures regarding level of disaggregation, inputs and valuation techniques. The new guidance is effective for interim and annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2009. Disclosures about purchases, sales, issuances and settlements in the roll forward of activity in Level 3 fair value measurements are effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2010. As this guidance requires only additional disclosure, there should be no impact on the consolidated financial statements of the Company upon adoption.

Note F – Debt

On January 29, 2010, the Company signed a secured Loan Agreement with People's United Bank ("People's") which included a $5,000,000 term portion and a $10,000,000 revolving credit portion. The term portion of the loan requires quarterly payments of $178,571 for a period of seven (7) years, maturing on January 31, 2017. The revolving credit portion has a quarterly commitment fee of one quarter of one percent (0.25%). There was no balance outstanding on the revolving credit portion at any time during the life of the Loan Agreement.

Interest on the term portion of the Loan Agreement is fixed at 4.98%. The interest rate on the revolving credit portion of the Loan Agreement varies based on the LIBOR rate or People's Prime rate plus a margin spread of 2.25%, with a floor rate of 4.0%.

Note H – Intangibles

Patents are recorded at cost and are amortized using the straight-line method over the lives of the patents. Technology and licenses are recorded at cost and are generally amortized on a straight-line basis over periods ranging from 5 to 17 years. Non-compete agreements and customer relationships are being amortized using the straight-line method over a period of 5 years. Trademarks are not amortized as their lives are deemed to be indefinite.

Note I – Retirement Benefit Plans

The Company has non-contributory defined benefit pension plans covering certain U.S. employees. Plan benefits are generally based upon age at retirement, years of service and, for its salaried plan, the level of compensation. The Company also sponsors unfunded nonqualified supplemental retirement plans that provide certain current and former officers with benefits in excess of limits imposed by federal tax law.

The Company also provides health care and life insurance for retired salaried employees in the United States who meet specific eligibility requirements.

Significant disclosures relating to these benefit plans for the third quarter and first nine months of fiscal 2010 and 2009 follow:

	Pension Benefits

The Company's funding policy with respect to its qualified plans is to contribute at least the minimum amount required by applicable laws and regulations. In 2010, the Company is required to contribute $993,000 into its pension plans and $141,000 into its postretirement plan. As of October 2, 2010, the Company has made contributions totaling $540,000 to its pension plan and $136,000 to its postretirement plan. The remaining contributions will be made as required over the remainder of the year.

The Company has a contributory savings plan under Section 401(k) of the Internal Revenue Code covering substantially all U.S. non-union employees. The plan allows participants to make voluntary contributions of up to 100% of their annual compensation on a pretax basis, subject to IRS limitations. The plan provides for contributions by the Company at its discretion. The Company made contributions of $44,388 and $129,869 in the third quarter and first nine months of 2010, respectively, and $42,590 and $133,370 in the third quarter and first nine months of 2009, respectively.

Note J – Stock Based Compensation and Stock Options

The Company has stock option plans for officers, other key employees, and non-employee directors. On July 20, 2010, The Eastern Company 2010 Executive Stock Incentive Plan became effective as a result of the affirmative vote of the majority of the votes cast on this matter at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders. As of October 2, 2010 three plans have shares reserved for future issuance: the 1995, 2000 and 2010 plans. Incentive stock options granted under the 1995, 2000 and 2010 plans must have exercise prices that are not less than 100% of the fair market value of the stock on the dates the options are granted. Restricted stock awards may also be granted to participants under the 2010 plan with restrictions determined by the Compensation Committee of the Company's Board of Directors. Under the 1995, 2000 and 2010 plans, nonqualified stock options granted to participants will have exercise prices determined by the Compensation Committee of the Company's Board of Directors. No options or restricted stock were granted in the first nine months of 2010 or 2009.

As of October 2, 2010, there were 500,000 shares available for future grant under the above noted 2010 plan and there were no shares available for grant under the 1995 and 2000 plans. As of October 2, 2010, there were 603,452 shares of common stock reserved under all option plans for future issuance.

At October 2, 2010, outstanding and exercisable options had an intrinsic value of $546,413. The total intrinsic value of stock options exercised in the first nine months of 2010 was $590,930. For the nine month periods ended October 2, 2010 and October 3, 2009, the Company recognized tax benefits of $47,809 and $73,835, respectively, resulting from the disqualification of incentive stock options that were exercised and sold prior to the required holding period.

Note K – Income Taxes

The Company files income tax returns in the U.S. federal jurisdiction, and various states and foreign jurisdictions. With few exceptions, the Company is no longer subject to U.S. federal, state and local income tax examinations by tax authorities for years before 2007 and non-U.S. income tax examinations by tax authorities prior to 2004.

The total amount of unrecognized tax benefits could increase or decrease within the next twelve months for a number of reasons, including the closure of federal, state and foreign tax years by expiration of the statute of limitations and the recognition and measurement considerations under FASB Accounting Standards Codification (“ASC”) 740. During the quarter ended October 2, 2010, the total amount of unrecognized tax benefits decreased by approximately $318,000 related to the lapsing of the statute of limitations and to the repatriation of foreign based income. The Company believes that it is reasonably possible that the total amount of unrecognized tax benefits will not increase or decrease significantly over the next twelve months.

Note L - Financial Instruments and Fair Value Measurements

Financial Risk Management Objectives and Policies

The Company is exposed primarily to credit, interest rate and currency exchange rate risks which arise in the normal course of business.

Credit Risk

Credit risk is the potential financial loss resulting from the failure of a customer or counterparty to settle its financial and contractual obligations to the Company, as and when they become due. The primary credit risk for the Company is its receivable accounts with customers. The Company has established credit limits for customers and monitors their balances to mitigate the risk of loss. At October 2, 2010 and January 2, 2010, there were no significant concentrations of credit risk. No one customer represented more than 10% of the Company’s net trade receivables at October 2, 2010 and January 2, 2010. The maximum exposure to credit risk is primarily represented by the carrying amount of the Company’s accounts receivable.

Interest Rate Risk

On January 2, 2010, the Company's exposure to the risk of changes in market interest rates related primarily to the Company's debt which bore interest at variable rates, which approximated market interest rates. With the complete refinancing of debt completed on January 29, 2010, the Company has eliminated this exposure as the interest rate on the new debt is fixed at 4.98%.

Fair Value Measurements

Assets and liabilities that require fair value measurement are recorded at fair value using market and income valuation approaches and considering the Company's and counterparty's credit risk. The Company uses the market approach and the income approach to value assets and liabilities as appropriate. There are no assets or liabilities requiring fair value measurements on October 2, 2010 or January 2, 2010.

ITEM 2 – MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

The following discussion is intended to highlight significant changes in the Company's financial position and results of operations for the thirty-nine weeks ended October 2, 2010. The interim financial statements and this Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations should be read in conjunction with the Consolidated Financial Statements and Notes thereto for the fiscal year ended January 2, 2010 and the related Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations, both of which are contained in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended January 2, 2010.

Certain statements set forth in this discussion and analysis of financial condition and results of operations are forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. They use such words as "may," "will," "expect," "believe," "plan" and other similar terminology. These statements reflect management's current expectations regarding future events and operating performance and speak only as of the date of this release. These forward-looking statements involve a number of risks and uncertainties, and actual future results and trends may differ materially depending on a variety of factors, including changing customer preferences, lack of success of new products, loss of customers, competition, increased raw material prices, problems associated with foreign sourcing of parts and products, changes within our industry segments and in the overall economy, litigation and legislation. In addition, terrorist threats and the possible responses by the U.S. government, the effects on consumer demand, the financial markets, the travel industry, the trucking industry and other conditions increase the uncertainty inherent in forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements reflect the expectations of the Company at the time they are made, and investors should rely on them only as expressions of opinion about what may happen in the future and only at the time they are made. The Company undertakes no obligation to update any forward-looking statement. Although the Company believes it has an appropriate business strategy and the resources necessary for its operations, future revenue and margin trends cannot be reliably predicted and the Company may alter its business strategies to address changing conditions.

In addition, the Company makes estimates and assumptions that may materially affect reported amounts and disclosures. These relate to valuation allowances for accounts receivable and for excess and obsolete inventories, accruals for pensions and other postretirement benefits (including forecasted future cost increases and returns on plan assets), provisions for depreciation (estimating useful lives), uncertain tax positions, and, on occasion, accruals for contingent losses.

Overview

Sales in the third quarter of 2010 increased 21% compared to the third quarter of 2009 as a result of the overall improvement in the economy in the 2010 period. In the third quarter of 2010, Industrial Hardware sales increased 22%, Security Products sales increased 12% and Metal Products sales increased 38% compared to the prior year period. The increases were primarily due to increased demand for our current products in many of the markets we serve as a result of continuing improvement in worldwide economic conditions.

Gross margin as a percentage of sales for the three months ended October 2, 2010 of 20% was comparable to the same period a year ago.

Sales in the first nine months of 2010 increased 15% compared to the prior year period as a result of improvement in the general economy. Sales increased in the first nine months of 2010 by 17% in the Industrial Hardware segment, by 8% in the Security Products segment, and by 27% in the Metal Products segment compared to the prior year period. The increases were primarily due to increased demand for our current products in many of the markets we serve as a result of the strengthening worldwide economic conditions.

Gross margin as a percentage of sales for the nine months ended October 2, 2010 was 20% compared to 18% in the comparable period a year ago. This increase was primarily the result of increased sales volume causing higher utilization of the Company's production capacity in the 2010 period and improved production processes in the Metal Products segment resulting in a reduction in down-time and improvements in quality.

Raw material prices have increased slightly compared to the prior year period. The Company endeavors to recover these price increases from our customers, wherever possible. Raw material costs could negatively impact future gross margins if raw material prices rise faster than the Company can recover those increases through either price increases to our customers or cost reductions. Currently, there is no indication that the Company will be unable to obtain supplies of all the materials that it requires.

Cash flow from operations in the first nine months of 2010 decreased compared to the same period in 2009. During the first quarter of 2010, the Company paid off its $11.4 million debt with Bank of America, N.A. and established a new banking relationship with People's United Bank consisting of a $5 million term loan and a $10 million revolving credit facility. The Company has not used any of the new revolving credit facility to date. Cash flow from operations, along with the result of controlling discretionary expenditures, should be sufficient to enable the Company to meet all its existing obligations and continue its quarterly dividend payments.

A more detailed analysis of the Company's results of operations and financial condition follows:

Industrial Hardware Segment

Net sales in the Industrial Hardware segment were up 22% in the third quarter of 2010 and up 17% in the first nine months compared to the prior year periods. The increased sales in both the third quarter and nine month periods reflected an increase in sales of existing products, primarily to the vehicular markets in 2010 compared to the same periods in 2009 as well as the introduction of new products. The increases were reduced by a reduction of sales to the military market as a result of the completion of certain military projects. All of the new products were developed internally and included a 3-point top base plate, a control rod SA, a crawler door, and a slam bolt assembly for the military market, a t-handle center case for the truck accessory market, an aluminum roller assembly for the distribution market, as well as several new lightweight honeycomb structures for the high tech and transportation industries including truck box assemblies for delivery trucks for the Mexican market. The Industrial Hardware segment continues to develop new latching systems for the military and continues to actively pursue expansion of hardware sales to the military markets. Sales of our sleeper cabs to the Class 8 truck market are predicted to remain strong through the end of 2010 and in 2011.

Cost of products sold for the Industrial Hardware segment increased 20% in the third quarter and 15% in the first nine months of 2010 compared to the prior year periods. The primary reason for the increase was due to higher volume of sales in the 2010 periods.

Gross margin as a percent of net sales in the third quarter of 25% was comparable to the 2009 third quarter. Gross margin in the first nine months of 2010 increased slightly to 24% from 23% in the prior year period. The improvement in gross margin for the first nine months of 2010 was primarily the result of higher volume of sales.

Selling and administrative expenses increased 14% for both the third quarter and first nine months of 2010 compared to the prior year periods, primarily due to increased expenses for travel, payroll and payroll related charges.

Security Products Segment

Net sales in the Security Products segment increased 12% in the third quarter and 8% in the first nine months of 2010 compared to the 2009 periods. The increase in sales in both the third quarter and nine months of 2010 in the Security Products segment is primarily the result of increased sales of lock products to the computer, travel, vehicle and enclosure markets. The current economic conditions continue to negatively impact sales to the gaming and commercial laundry markets. Sales of new products included new lock products for the enclosure and vehicle markets. As noted in the first quarter 2010 Form 10-Q, several new products were introduced to the commercial laundry market during the second quarter and are currently being evaluated by potential customers.

Cost of products sold for the Security Products segment increased 15% in the third quarter and 4% in the first nine months of 2010 compared to the same periods in 2009. The increase in the third quarter and first nine months of 2010 was primarily the result of increased cost for raw materials and purchased parts. The increase was partially offset by decreases in expenses for research and development, engineering, payroll and payroll related charges.

Gross margin as a percentage of sales in the third quarter decreased to 24% in 2010 from 25% in the prior year period. The decrease in the third quarter of 2010 was primarily the result of increased costs for raw materials and purchased parts and the mix of products sold as compared to the prior year period. Gross margin in the first nine months increased to 24% from 21% in the 2009 period. The increase in the first nine months of 2010 was primarily the result of the increased sales volume and the mix of products sold as compared to the prior year period.

Selling and administrative expenses increased 3% in the third quarter of 2010 as compared to the 2009 period and 1% in the first nine months of 2010 as compared to the 2009 period. The increases in the third quarter and first nine months of 2010 were primarily due to increased payroll and payroll related charges and higher sales commission payments in the 2010 period based on the higher sales volume.

Metal Products Segment

Net sales in the Metal Products segment were up 38% in the third quarter and up 27% in the first nine months of 2010 as compared to the prior year periods. Sales of mining products were up 26% in the third quarter and up 27% in the first nine months of 2010 compared to the prior year periods. The increase in sales of mining products was driven by continued strong demand in both the U.S. and Canadian mining markets compared to the prior year periods. Sales of contract castings increased 83% in the third quarter and 12% in the first nine months of 2010 from the prior year levels. The increase in sales of contract castings was primarily the result of a temporary shutdown of production at a competing foundry. There were no sales of new products in 2010 in the Metal Products segment. A large part of the $2.5 million capital expenditure program in the Metal Products segment was completed during the third quarter of 2010, with no disruption of customer service.

Cost of products sold increased 32% in the third quarter and 16% in the first nine months of 2010 compared to the same periods in 2009. The increases in both 2010 periods are primarily attributable to the product mix, costs associated with the higher volume of sales in 2010, increases in raw material costs and costs for supplies and tools. In addition, the third quarter of 2010 experienced a significant increase in costs for processing outside parts as compared to the prior year period.

Gross margin as a percentage of net sales increased to 3% in the third quarter of 2010 from -1% in the 2009 period and increased to 7% for the first nine months of 2010 from -3% in the 2009 period. The improvement in gross margin in both the third quarter and the first nine months of 2010 as compared to the prior year period is due to the mix of products produced, elimination of products with unacceptable profit margins, price increases to customers, and improvement in manufacturing processes in the 2010 periods.

Selling and administrative expenses were down 3% in the third quarter and up 5% in the first nine months of 2010 compared to the same periods in 2009. The decrease in the third quarter of 2010 is due to the elimination of consulting fees which were incurred in the prior year period. The increase in the first nine months of 2010 compared to the same period in 2009 is primarily the result of an allocation of corporate charges, which is based on sales volume, and exceeded the reduction resulting from the elimination of consulting fees in 2010.

Other Items

Interest expense decreased 72% in the third quarter and 70% in the first nine months of 2010 compared to the prior year period primarily due to the decreased level of debt and lower fixed interest rate in 2010.

Other income was not material to the financial statements.

- 16 -

Income taxes - the effective tax rate in the third quarter of 2010 was 31.5% compared to 19.3% in the third quarter of 2009. The lower effective tax rate in the third quarter of 2009 was the result of the Company's recognition of tax benefits resulting from the expiration of the statute of limitations. In the third quarter of 2010, similar benefits were recognized; however, these benefits were offset by the tax recorded on the repatriation of foreign earnings of $1.45 million with no corresponding foreign tax credit to offset the U.S. tax impact. The effective tax rate for the first nine months of 2010 was 34.1% compared to 49.5% in the first nine months of 2009. The nine month 2009 effective tax rate was higher primarily due to a 10% impact on the rate as a result of the repatriation of foreign earnings of $2 million with no corresponding foreign tax credit to offset the U.S. tax impact. While both periods had the repatriation of foreign earnings without any corresponding foreign tax credit, the higher amount repatriated in 2009, when included with the lower taxable earnings in 2009, resulted in a higher effective rate.

Liquidity and Sources of Capital

The Company generated $6.9 million from operations during the first nine months of 2010 compared to $13.8 million during the same period in 2009. The decrease in cash flows was primarily the result of the associated timing differences for collections of accounts receivable, payments of liabilities, and changes in inventories. Cash flow from operations coupled with cash on hand at the beginning of the year was sufficient to fund capital expenditures, debt service, and dividend payments. The Company did not utilize its revolving line of credit during the first nine months of 2010 or 2009.

Additions to property, plant and equipment were $3.6 million for the first nine months of 2010 compared to $1.8 million for the same period in 2009. Total capital expenditures for 2010 are expected to be in the range of $4 million to $5 million. As of October 2, 2010, there is approximately $200,000 of outstanding commitments for these capital expenditures.

Total inventories as of October 2, 2010 were $26.3 million, compared to $24.5 million at year-end 2009. The inventory turnover ratio of 3.9 turns at the end of the third quarter was comparable to both the year-end 2009 ratio of 3.8 turns and the 3.9 turns in the third quarter of 2009. Accounts receivable increased to $18.1 million from $15.3 million at year end 2009 and $15.0 million at the end of the third quarter of fiscal 2009. The increases are related to higher revenues in the first nine months of the current year. The average days sales in accounts receivable for the third quarter of 2010 of 49 days was comparable to both the 50 days at the end of fiscal 2009 and the 49 days at the end of the third quarter of fiscal 2009.

Cash flow from operating activities and funds available under the revolving credit portion of the Company's Loan Agreement are expected to be sufficient to cover future foreseeable working capital requirements.

ITEM 3 – QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK

There have been no material changes in market risk from what was reported in the 2009 Annual Report on Form 10-K.

ITEM 4 – CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

Evaluation of Disclosure Controls and Procedures:

As of the end of the quarter ended October 2, 2010, the Company carried out an evaluation, under the supervision and with the participation of the Company's management, including the Chief Executive Officer (the "CEO") and Chief Financial Officer (the "CFO"), of the effectiveness of the design and operation of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures pursuant to Exchange Act Rule 240.13a-15. As defined in Exchange Act Rules 240.13a-15(e) and 240.15d-15(e), "the term disclosure controls and procedures means controls and other procedures of an issuer that are designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed by the issuer in the reports that it files or submits under the Act (15 U.S.C. 78a et seq.) is recorded, processed, summarized and reported, within the time periods specified in the Commission's rules and forms. Disclosure controls and procedures include, without limitation, controls and procedures designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed by an issuer in the reports that it files or submits under the Act is accumulated and communicated to the issuer's management, including its principal executive and principal financial officers, or persons performing similar functions, as appropriate to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure.” Based upon that evaluation, the CEO and CFO concluded that the Company’s current disclosure controls and procedures were effective as of the October 2, 2010 evaluation date.

The Company believes that a controls system, no matter how well designed and operated, cannot provide absolute assurance that the objectives of the controls system are met, and no evaluation of controls can provide absolute assurance that all control issues and instances of fraud, if any, within a company have been detected. The Company’s disclosure controls and procedures are designed to provide reasonable assurance of achieving their objectives, and the CEO and CFO have concluded that these controls and procedures are effective at the “reasonable assurance” level.

Changes in Internal Controls:

During the period covered by this report, there have been no significant changes in the Company’s internal control over financial reporting or in other factors that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, the Company’s internal controls.

PART II – OTHER INFORMATION

ITEM 1 – LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

During 2008, the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency identified the Company as a potentially responsible party in connection with a site in Cleveland, Ohio based on the ownership of the site by a division of the Company in the 1960’s. According to the Agency, the current occupant of the site filed bankruptcy, leaving behind plating operations which required remedial action. The Company declined to participate in the remedial action, and intends to defend against any efforts of the Agency to impose any liability against the Company for environmental conditions on this site which may have occurred in the years since its ownership.

There are no other legal proceedings, other than ordinary routine litigation incidental to the Company’s business, to which either the Company or any of its subsidiaries is a party or to which any of their property is the subject.

ITEM 1A – RISK FACTORS

There have been no material changes in risk factors from what was reported in the 2009 Annual Report on Form 10-K.

ITEM 2 – UNREGISTERED SALES OF EQUITY SECURITIES AND USE OF PROCEEDS

There have been no sales of unregistered securities by the Company or purchases of registered equity securities by the Company during the period covered by this report.
