FLOOR DECOR, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

NOTE A - BASIS OF PRESENTATION

The condensed consolidated financial statements as of March 31, 2002 and the three months ended March 31, 2002 and 2001 included herein have been prepared by the Company, without audit, pursuant to the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Certain information and footnote disclosures normally included in financial statements prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America have been condensed or omitted pursuant to such rules and regulations. In the opinion of management, all adjustments, consisting only of normal recurring adjustments, necessary for a fair presentation of the financial information for the periods indicated have been included. For further information regarding the company's accounting policies, refer to the consolidated financial statements and related notes included in the company's Annual Report on form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2001.

NOTE B - REVERSE ACQUISITION AND EQUITY TRANSACTIONS

As of December 31, 2000 Floor Decor had 1,000 shares of common stock authorized and 378 shares issued and outstanding. The Company issued an additional 622 shares of common stock on January 1, 2001 at a cost of $1 per share. As a result of these additional shares being issued, the Company had 1,000 shares of common stock authorized and 1,000 shares issued and outstanding as of March 31, 2001 prior to the reverse acquisition (as described below) on May 22, 2001.

On May 22, 2001, a purchasing group led by A.J. Nassar acquired 21,900,000 shares of the common stock of Media Communications Group, Inc. ("MCGI") in exchange for all of the outstanding common shares of Floor Decor, Inc. to become the owner of approximately 40% of the issued and outstanding common stock of MCGI pursuant to an agreement including the merger of Floor Decor into a newly formed wholly owned subsidiary of the Company. Prior to the acquisition of Floor Decor, MCGI was a "public shell" company, with no significant operations or assets. The acquisition of Floor Decor was accounted for as a reverse acquisition. Under a reverse acquisition, Floor Decor is treated for accounting purposes as having acquired MCGI and the historical financial statements of Floor Decor become the historical financial statements of MCGI. In accounting for the reverse acquisition, the equity of Floor Decor, as the surviving company is recapitalized. Also, upon the closing of the reverse acquisition an obligation to an original MCGI vendor for $4,931 was assumed.

To compute the loss per share for the 1st quarter of 2001, the 54,236,664 shares outstanding at the date of the reverse acquisition was assumed to be outstanding since July 3, 2000, the date of inception of the Company.

Since the Company had a loss for all periods presented, basic and diluted loss per common share are equal. The Company has not included 6,469,259 potential common shares relating to outstanding common warrants as of March 31, 2002 in the calculation of the diluted earnings per share for the 1st quarter of 2002, because their effect would be antidilutive.

During the 1st quarter of 2002 the Company sold 2,512,450 shares of its Common Stock as part of the private placement transaction initiated in December 2001. These shares were sold at $ 0.40 per share. For each share of Common Stock purchased, the investor also received a warrant representing the right to purchase one additional share of Common Stock at a price of $0.75 per share exercisable through December 31, 2003. Proceeds from these sales, net of advisory fees totaling $128,307, amounted to $876,673.

FLOOR DECOR, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

During the 1st quarter of 2002, certain stockholders and others converted $922,723 of notes payable and amounts due to stockholders into 2,306,809 shares of Common Stock. For each share of Common Stock purchased, they also received a warrant representing the right to purchase one additional share of Common Stock at a price of $0.75 per share, exercisable through December 31, 2003.

NOTE C - RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

As of March 31, 2002, a 10% demand note payable to a 24.6% stockholder in the amount of $61,509. The Company also owed a total of $80,382 to this stockholder on a non-interest bearing note that is due on demand.

As of March 31, 2002, the Company had 15% demand notes totaling $12,761, 10% demand notes totaling $279,630, and 6% demand notes totaling $4,304 payable to stockholders (combined ownership less than 1%).

The Company also has non-interest bearing notes of $109,089 and non interest bearing advances of $792,390 payable to the two former Tiger Telematics stockholders (combined ownership 10% of the Company). As discussed in note F, $610,190 of these advances are convertible into Common Stock and warrants.

Total interest expense on stockholder debt amounted to $19,998 for the 1st quarter of 2002.

NOTE D - INCOME TAX MATTERS

The Company has net operating loss carryforwards as of March 31, 2002 for federal income tax purposes of approximately $2,015,000 expiring in 2021. Any future benefit to be realized from these net operating loss and contribution carryforwards is dependent upon the Company earning sufficient future taxable income during the periods that the carryforwards are available. Due to this uncertainty, the Company has fully offset any deferred tax benefits otherwise relating to the net operating loss carryforward with a valuation allowance in the amount of $685,000.

NOTE E - NOTES PAYABLE

As of March 31, 2002, the Company had 15% demand notes payable totaling $61,065.

NOTE F - ACQUISITION OF TIGER TELEMATICS, LTD.

On February 4, 2002, pursuant to a Stock Purchase Agreement between the Company and Eagle Eye Scandinavian Distribution Limited, an English private limited company, which name the Company has changed to Tiger Telematics (UK) Ltd. ("Tiger Telematics"), the Company purchased all of the outstanding stock of Tiger Telematics in exchange for 7,000,000 shares of Floor Decor, Inc. common stock. Tiger Telematics is an early stage company engaged in the distribution of telematics product.

The 7,000,000 shares of stock issued were valued at $0.40 per share. This price is the same price as the private placement transactions with investors that were entered into from December 2001 through March 2002. This valued the stock issued at $2,800,000. The negative equity of Tiger

FLOOR DECOR, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Telematics of $463,050 as of the acquisition date resulted in an excess of acquisition cost over tangible asset value of $3,263,050.

The excess of the acquisition price over the tangible asset valuation was assigned to two intangible assets. $2,800,000 was ascribed to an order backlog of open pending orders for products for future shipments over the next several years. This amount will be amortized as the orders are shipped on a prorata basis. The remaining amount of $463,050 was assigned to distribution rights under a Distribution Agreement with Eagle Eye Telematics, plc, which was executed on October 19, 2001 (see Form 10-K dated March 31, 2002, exhibit #21.1). This amount will be amortized quarterly over the 32 month remaining life of the distribution agreement.

In connection with this acquisition, the former Tiger Telematics shareholders agreed to convert $610,190 of their shareholder debt into Common Stock and warrants to purchase common stock at a price of $0.75 per share. The conversion rate will be one share of common stock and one warrant for every $0.40 of debt. This amount had not yet been converted. Although the conversion is still anticipated, no assurance can be given as to the timing and ultimate completion of the conversion.

The following proforma information reflects the net sales, net loss, and per share amounts for the quarter ended March 31, 2002 as if the acquisition had been completed on January 1, 2002:

Edgar Filing: FLOOR DECOR INC - Form 10-Q

Proforma information for the quarter ended March 31, 2001 is not presented because Tiger Telematics was not formed until October 9, 2001.

NOTE G - SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

On April 26, 2002 the company entered into a Lease Agreement with Christian and Timbers UK Ltd. for office premises for its subsidiary Tiger Telematics Ltd. in London, United Kingdom. -See attached exhibit - The lease has a term of five years. The Company will satisfy its obligation to pay rent for the first year of the term of the lease by issuing 500,000 shares of Floor Decor's Common Stock. If the Landlord liquidates the Shares in the first year of the term of the Lease and the aggregate net proceeds of sale arising from such sale or sales is less than (pound)126,018.75 (or the US Dollar equivalent using the mid range exchange rate prevailing on the date of actual receipt of the said proceeds of sale by the Landlord) the Tenant shall forthwith pay to the Landlord the difference between (pound)126,018.75 and the said proceeds in cash. The second and subsequent years of the term of the lease shall be paid in cash.

FLOOR DECOR, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Subsequent to March 31, 2002 the Company borrowed approximately $150,000 from the 26.4% stockholder of record under a 10% demand note. In addition, the Company also borrowed approximately $116,000 under a non interest-bearing demand note payable to the two former Tiger Telematics stockholders (combined ownership 10% of the Company).

NOTE H - POTENTIAL ACQUISITION

In 2001, the Company entered into a letter of intent to purchase Hamway Flooring Inc., a commercial flooring installer. As of March 31, 2002, the Company had made a deposit of $200,000 in connection with this letter of intent, of which $100,000 is non refundable. The letter of intent was extended to be valid through April 15, 2002, at which time it expired. The Company is currently negotiating the terms of an additional extension. As of March 31, 2002, the Company expensed the $100,000 non-refundable portion of the deposit. The refundable portion is included in deposits and other assets on the accompanying balance sheet.

NOTE I - BUSINESS CONSIDERATIONS

For the year ended December 31, 2001, the Company incurred net losses of approximately $1,299,000. For the 1st quarter of 2002, the losses approximated $1,173,000. The Company had negative cash flows from operating activities of approximately $713,000 for the year ended December 31, 2001 and negative cash flows from operating activities of approximately $1,054,000 for the 1st quarter of 2002.

The negative cash flows from operations, as well as the costs associated with the Tiger Telematics acquisition, has strained the Company's cash flow. Since the Company was not able to generate positive net cash flows from operations, additional capital was needed. During the 1st quarter of 2002 the Company entered into private placement transactions with individual investors. In these private placement transactions, the Company sold shares of its common stock and warrants to raise approximately $876,000 of equity, as disclosed in note B. During the same period, stockholders converted approximately $923,000 of debt into equity of the Company.

The Company continually monitors operating costs and will take steps to reduce these costs to improve cash flow from operations if necessary. The Company is continually seeking sources of new capital to aid the implementation of its business plan. However, there can be no assurance that additional capital or other form of financing will be available, or if available on terms reasonably acceptable to the Company.

The Company's business strategy is to grow rapidly by acquiring existing dealers that traditionally have only sold to the commercial homebuilder trade. The acquired business will be consolidated into Floor Decor's superstore format that also caters to the general public. The Company also plans to develop the Tiger Telematics distribution business. The Company's ability to continue as a going concern is dependent upon its ability to raise sufficient equity or debt capital to accomplish these objectives and to offset any future operating losses that may be incurred until positive cash flows can be generated from operations.

FLOOR DECOR, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Management intends to raise up to $7.0 million in equity for working capital, and to fund the cost of pursuing strategic growth opportunities. Management is also pursuing $ 10 million in equity financing to fund the initial operations of Tiger Telematics, Ltd.

NOTE J - SEGMENT INFORMATION

The Company operates in the flooring business in Florida, and in the telematics distribution business in Europe. The Company reports its operating results in two segments:

- o Flooring Retail and Installation

The accounting policies of the reportable segments are the same as those referred to in Notes A. The Company evaluates the performance of its reportable

This report contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 23E of the Securities Act of 1934, as amended. These statements relate to future events or future financial performance. Any statements contained in this report that are not statements of historical fact may be deemed to be forward-looking statements. In some cases, forward-looking statements can be identified by terminology such as "may," "will," "should," "expect," "plan," "anticipate," "intend," "believe," "estimate," "predict," "potential" or "continue," or the negative of such terms or other comparable terminology. These statements are only predictions. Actual events or results may differ materially.

Although the Company believes that the expectations reflected in the forward-looking statements are reasonable, the Company cannot guarantee future results, levels of activity, performance or achievements. Moreover, neither the Company, nor any other person or entity, assumes responsibility for the accuracy and completeness of the forward-looking statements. The Company is under no obligation to update any of the forward-looking statements after the filing of this Form 10-Q to conform such statements to actual results or to changes in the Company's expectations.

The following discussion should be read in conjunction with the Company's financial statements, related notes and the other financial information appearing elsewhere in this Form 10-Q. Readers are also urged to carefully review and consider the various disclosures made by the Company which attempt to advise interested parties of the factors which affect the Company's business.

General

Overview

In May of 2001 the Company completed a reverse shell merger with Media Communications Group, Inc. ("MCGI"). Prior to the acquisition of Floor Decor, MCGI was a "public shell" company, with no significant operations or assets. The acquisition of Floor Decor was accounted for as a reverse acquisition. Under a reverse acquisition, Floor Decor is treated for accounting purposes as having acquired MCGI and the historical financial statements of Floor Decor become the historical financial statements of MCGI. Therefore, all references to the historical activities of the Company refer to the historical activities of Floor Decor.

The limited operating history of the Company makes its future results of operations difficult to predict. In addition, the Company's operating results may fluctuate significantly in the future as a result of a variety of factors such as the opening of new "big box superstores" and the assimilation of the strategically acquired existing dealers that traditionally have only sold to the commercial homebuilder trade. These acquired businesses will have to be consolidated into Floor Decor's superstore format that also caters to the general public.

Floor Decor, Inc. ("Floor Decor" or "the Company") is the parent company of two subsidiaries. The first subsidiary, Media Flooring, Inc., operating through its subsidiary Floor Decor LLC, operates a flooring products sales and service business, which represented all of the business operations of the Company during 2001. On February 4, 2002, the Company acquired its second subsidiary, Tiger Telematics LTD, a UK company, which provides telematics products and services.

Flooring

Floor Decor, Inc. currently operates a "big box superstore" in Fort Lauderdale, Florida and the Company intends to develop a chain of "big box superstores" that offer a wide selection of floor coverings including carpet, area rugs, wood, and laminates at discount prices to both commercial accounts and retail customers. The Company's initial store is over 40,000 sq. ft. and stocks an extensive product line including over 5,000 area rugs and 1,000,000 sq. ft. of other floor coverings.

The Company's business strategy is to grow rapidly by acquiring existing dealers that traditionally have only sold to the commercial homebuilder trade. These acquired businesses will be consolidated into Floor Decor's superstore format that also caters to the general public. The Company generates revenues from the sales of floor coverings and the installation of these products. Revenues from the installation of flooring products are recognized when the installation process is complete. The Company has only a limited operating history upon which an evaluation of the Company, its results of operations, and its prospects can be based.

Telematics

On February 4, 2002, the Company acquired Eagle Eye Scandinavia Distribution, LTD, and changed its name to Tiger Telematics Ltd. ("Tiger Telematics"). The consideration paid in this transaction consisted entirely of shares of the Company Common Stock, as was reported in the Company's Current Report on Form 8-K dated February 19, 2002.

Tiger Telematics is an early stage company engaged in the distribution of telematics products. Telematics products allow the wireless exchange or delivery of communication, information, and other content between a vehicle and its occupant, and external sources or recipients. The telematics industry aggregates the functionality and content of various industries including consumer electronics, cellular and security devices, among others, into a seamless service offering.

Results of Operations

Three months-ended March 31, 2002 compared to the three months ended March 31, 2001

Flooring

For the Flooring business, as an aid to reviewing the Company's results of operations for the three months ended March 31, 2002, and the three months ended March 31, 2001 the following table sets forth the financial information as a percentage of net sales and as a percent of change for the Floor Decor flooring subsidiary only.

Net Sales: The Company's net sales in Flooring increased by 49% to $906,079 in the 1st quarter 2002 from $607,141 in the 1st quarter 2001. The Company believes that this quarter over quarter increase in sales was the result of the maturation of its superstore during the past year, despite overall negative trends in retail sales. Due to a continuing decrease in customer deposits, the Company anticipates revenue for the next several calendar quarters will remain soft. The Company receives partial deposits on orders from its customers, but does not recognize the revenue on any orders until the installation process is complete.

Sales in the three month period ended March 31, 2002 and the three-month period ended March 31, 2001 are shown by product category as follows:

Gross Profits: Gross profit in flooring increased to $463,340 for the 1st quarter 2002 as compared to $287,189 for the first quarter 2001 due to the increase in sales levels for the 1st quarter of 2002. Gross profit margins for the 1st quarter 2002 were 51.14% as compared to 47.90% for the 1st quarter 2001. The gross margin percentage has improved as the Company can buy product at better prices as its volume increases.

The gross profit margins for the Company's products depend on a number of factors, such as the degree of competition in the market for its products, material costs, sales channel, and the costs to install its products. In addition, gross profit margins differ by product category. Accordingly, the Company's gross profit margin can vary from quarter to quarter even if total sales remain unchanged.

Selling Expenses: Selling and marketing expenses for the 1st quarter 2002 were $296,842 as compared to $172,822 for the 1st quarter 2001. The increase is largely attributable to increases in its advertising expenditures.

General and Administrative Expenses: General and administrative expenses for the 1st quarter 2002 were $870,558 as compared to $381,003 for the 1st quarter 2001, an increase of $489,555. General and administrative expenses, as a percentage of sales, increased to 96.08% in the 1st quarter of 2002 from 62.76% in the 1st quarter of 2001. A significant reason for the increase in general and administrative expenses are the costs associated with being a public company, primarily fees for accounting, legal, and professional services, which were $181,000 in the 1st quarter of 2002. An additional $120,000 of expense was incurred in the upfront costs of a financing effort with Jefferies & Co., Inc. that has not been realized as of this date. $100,000 is related to the write down of the non-refundable deposit portion on the expired Hamway letter of intent - Refer to note H of the financial statements.

The Company also incurred costs during the 1st quarter of 2002 related to the evaluation of several strategic opportunities. The Company anticipates an increase in its general and administrative expenses in future periods in order to continue to expand its infrastructure, assimilate its acquisitions, and open new "big box superstores". However, the Company anticipates that its sales will increase at a faster rate than its general and administrative expenses, resulting in these expenses decreasing as a percentage of sales in future periods.

Other Expenses: Other expenses for the 1st quarter of 2002 were $22,202 as compared to $28,144 for the 1st quarter 2001. Other expenses consisted of interest expense on loans.

Net Loss: The flooring division had a net loss of $726,262 in first quarter of 2002 compared to a loss of $294,780 in the first quarter of 2001. A substantial portion of the increased loss consists of expenses incurred in preparation for anticipated growth of the Company. These expenses relate to providing additional advertising to set the stage for future store openings and, pursuing strategic growth opportunities.

Telematics

Net Sales: The Company's net sales in the telematics division were $28,520 as the company had its first shipment in March 2002 following the acquisition on February 4, 2002. There are no comparisons for the prior year.

Gross Profits: Gross profits in this division were ($2,496) as the company shipped the initial units at below cost to generate cash and an initial acceptance of the product in the marketplace.

Selling Expenses: Selling and marketing expenses for the 1st quarter 2002 were $124,403 or 436% of sales.

General and Administrative Expenses: General and administrative expenses for the 1st quarter 2002 were $313,916. This was incurred in the development of the infrastructure for the telematics business including engineering, training of installers, and other administrative efforts to facilitate anticipated sales. However, the Company anticipates that its sales will increase at a faster rate than its general and administrative expenses, resulting in these expenses decreasing as a percentage of sales in future periods.

Net Loss: Although the Tiger segment reported an operating loss for 1st quarter 2002 of $440,814 a substantial portion of the loss consists of expenses incurred in preparation for future shipments of product and the anticipated growth of the telematics segment.

Below is a summary of the combined results of the two distinct segments of the company.

Net Sales: The Company's net sales increased 54% to $934,599 in the 1st quarter of 2002 from $607,141 in the 1st quarter of 2001. The Company believes that the combination of the maturation of its superstore and the initial shipment of its telematics division contributed to this increase.

Gross Profits: Gross profits in the flooring division increased to $463,339 for the 1st quarter 2002 as compared to $287,189 for the first quarter 2001. This increase is attributable to the better buying prices that the Company negotiated with its vendors due to increase purchase volume. The telematics division, reported $0 gross profits as part of the initial strategy used to introduce its new product in the marketplace.

Selling Expenses: Selling and marketing expenses for the 1st quarter 2002 were $421,245 as compared to $172,822 for the 1st quarter 2001. $289,772 of the increase is related to the inclusion of Tiger Telematics. After adjusting for Tiger, the increase in selling expenses was 58% from 1st quarter 2002 as compared to 1st quarter 2001 it is consistent with the 49% increase in sales in flooring. However, as the operations of the Company's stores mature, and the telematic products are shipping, advertising expense and overall selling expenses as a percentage of sales is anticipated to decrease.

General and Administrative Expenses: General and administrative expenses for the 1st quarter of 2002 were $1,184,474 as compared to $381,003 for the 1st quarter of 2001, an increase of $803,471. $314,000 is attributable to the inclusion of Tiger Telematics. In analyzing the flooring division's general and administrative expenses as a percentage of sales, they increased to 96.08% in the 1st quarter of 2002 from 62.76% in the 1st quarter of 2001. A significant reason for this increase are the costs associated with being a public company, primarily fees for accounting, legal, and professional services. These fees were approximately $180,000 in the first quarter of 2002. The Company also incurred costs during the 1st quarter of 2002 related to the evaluation of several strategic opportunities. The purchase of Tiger Telematics was a result of this evaluation. In addition, the development of Tiger Telematics also contributed to the increase in the general and administrative expenses of the Company. Floor Decor, Inc. anticipates an increase in its general and administrative expenses in future periods as part of its growth strategy. However, the Company anticipates that its sales will increase at a faster rate than its general and administrative expenses, resulting in these expenses decreasing as a percentage of sales in future periods. An additional $120,000 of expense was incurred in the upfront costs of a financing effort with Jefferies & Co., Inc. that has not been realized as of this date. $100,000 is related to the write down of the non-refundable deposit portion on the expired Hamway letter of intent - Refer to note H of the financial statements.

Other Expenses: Other expenses for the 1st quarter 2002 were $28,320 as compared to $28,144 for the 1st quarter 2001. Other expenses consisted of interest expense on loans and currency translation adjustments.

Net Loss: The Company reported an operating loss of $1,173,195 for the 1st quarter of 2002 compared to $294,780 for the 1st quarter of 2001. A substantial portion of the loss in 2002 is related to expenses incurred in the preparation for its anticipated growth. These expenses relate to establishing a public company, providing additional advertising to set the stage for future store openings and, pursuing strategic growth opportunities, such as the acquisition of Tiger Telematics completed in February 2002. Similarly the Company's management staff has been sized and has expertise and infrastructure to grow the Company rapidly. Management considers these costs as an investment in setting the Company in a position to grow rapidly and profitably in the near future. Management believes the costs will be lower as a percentage of sales in 2002 since sales growth is expected to exceed increases in operating expenses.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

In 2001 the Company funded its operating losses and start-up costs principally with loans from stockholders or other parties. Without such funding the company would not have been able to sustain its operations.

In the three months ended March 31, 2002, the Company's working capital improved by $344,000. This improvement was the result of increases in current assets, consisting of increases in accounts receivable of $69,000, inventory of $177,000, and prepaid expenses and other current assets of $554,000, offset by increases in current liabilities, consisting of increases in accounts payable of $561,000, accrued expenses and other current liabilities of $120,000, and customer deposits of $25,000. Also, in the three months ended March 31, 2002 the amounts due stockholders decreased by $201,000 as a result of the equity conversion and the Company receipt of notes from other stockholders in the Tiger Acquisition. The Company also raised $877,000 net of advisory fees, from the final portion of a private placement of common stock and warrants.

Floor Decor carries a substantial amount of inventory, $885,377 as of March 31, 2002. $792,829 of this inventory is related to the flooring division. Similar to the rest of the industry, Floor Decor obtains normal 30-day vendor credit to assist in financing its working capital requirements. Many companies in the industry utilize bank and finance company secured financing and factoring arrangements to borrow against inventory as collateral. Floor Decor to date has not financed its inventory in this fashion. Instead, the Company has obtained loans from stockholders and raised additional financing through private placements of shares of common stock. The Company may need to collateralize its inventory in the future to finance its growth as required.

The Company incurred operating losses in 2001 and in the first three months of 2002 of $1,299,000 and 1,145,000 respectively. Since the Company was not able to generate positive net cash flows from operations, additional capital was needed. This capital has been provided by certain principal stockholders, who have funded the Company through loans as needed, and from the sale of Common Stock and warrants through private placement transactions.

In December 2001, the Company initiated a private placement of common stock and warrants and raised $574,200 of equity. An additional $1.8 million of equity (including the debt to equity conversions of $923,000 of certain stockholders) was raised during January through March 2002. This $2.4 million equity funding net of expenses was used to provide liquidity to Tiger Telematics and to fund operating losses and negative cash flows including the expenses of operating a public reporting company. In February and March 2002, the Company obtained approximately $290,000 from stockholders of interest free advances and promissory notes due upon demand to fund operations of Tiger Telematics. The Company anticipates further cash assistance in the form of loans from its stockholders to assist in liquidity while the Company raises additional capital.

The Company will seek to raise equity financing of about $7.0 million for working capital, and to fund the costs of pursuing strategic growth opportunities. The Company is also pursuing $ 10 million in financing to fund the initial operations of Tiger Telematics, Ltd. However, there can be no assurance this additional capital or other form of financing will be available, or if available on terms reasonably acceptable to the Company.

The Company anticipates that it will meet its liquidity of capital needs for the next twelve months through equity financing. As the Company continues to experience negative operating results in 2002, while at the same time pursuing strategic opportunities, the Company's liquidity will remain strained.

The Company currently evaluates and will continue to evaluate strategic acquisitions. If the Company pursues one or more acquisitions the Company will likely require additional sources of liquidity such as debt or equity financing for such acquisitions or to meet working capital needs. There can be no assurance that additional capital beyond the amounts forecasted by the Company will not be required or that any such required capital will be available on terms acceptable to the Company, if at all, at such time or times as required by the Company.

WHEREAS, the Executive is desirous of committing himself to serve the Company on the terms herein provided, and the Company desires to have the services of the Executive on the terms herein provided,

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing and of the respective covenants and agreements of the parties herein contained, the parties hereto agree as follows:

The Company hereby agrees to employ the Executive and the Executive hereby agrees to serve the Company, on the terms and conditions set forth herein for the period commencing on the date hereof and expiring 1 year after the commencement date (the "Term") This Agreement shall be automatically extended for unlimited successive one year periods unless it is terminated during the pendency of either the initial term or any successor term by a termination event as set forth in Section 9 or at the end of any such term by one party furnishing the other with written notice, at least 90 days prior to the expiration of such term, of an intent to terminate this Agreement upon the expiration of such term.

2. Position and Duties. Executive shall serve as the President, Chief Operating Officer and a voting member of the Board of Directors of the Company, reporting to the Chief Executive Officer, and shall have supervision and control over, and responsibility for, the general management and operation of the Company, and shall have such other powers and duties as may from time to time be prescribed by the Board, provided that such duties are consistent with his present duties and with the Executive's position as a senior executive officer in charge of the general management of the Company. The Executive shall devote his full business time and efforts as shall be necessary to the proper discharge of his duties and responsibilities under this Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Executive may pursue such non-competitive activities such as teaching, consulting or other remunerative or non-remunerative activities, including charitable endeavors, as do not interfere, to any material degree, with the complete performance of his obligations hereunder. 3. Compensation and Related Matters.

(a) Base Salary. The Executive shall receive a minimum base salary ("Base Salary") at the annual rate of $180,000 during each year of the Term hereof payable in no less than equal semimonthly installments. The Company shall not make any changes in any Executive benefit plans or arrangements in effect on the date hereof in which the Executive participates which would adversely affect the Executive's rights or benefits hereunder, unless such change occurs pursuant to a program applicable to all Executives of the Company and does not result in a proportionately greater reduction in the rights of or benefits to the Executive as compared with any other Executive of the Company. 5. Non-Competition.

(a) For the applicable period set forth below (the "Restricted Period"), the Executive shall not, directly or indirectly, own an interest in, manage, operate, join, control, consult, advise, or render other assistance to or participate in or be connected with, as an officer, Executive, partner, stockholder, consultant or otherwise, any individual, partnership, firm, corporation or other business organization or entity ("Person") that, at such time, is engaged in any business which may be deemed competitive with the Company's business of selling and supplying vehicle telematics products and services. (d) The Executive acknowledges that a material breach of any of the covenants contained in this Section 4 would result in material irreparable injury to the Company for which there is no adequate remedy at law, that it will not be possible to measure damages for such injuries precisely and that the Company shall be entitled to obtain a temporary restraining order and/or a preliminary or permanent injunction restraining the Executive from engaging in activities prohibited by this Section 4, and such other relief as may be required to

(b) Except for information or contacts provided by Executive, Executive agrees: (i) not to use any such information for himself or others; and (ii) not to take any such material or reproductions thereof from the Company's facilities at any time or after during his employment by the Company, except as required in the Executive's duties to the Company. (a) Except for Proprietary Information or contacts provided by Executive, Executive agrees that all information that has been created, discovered or developed by the Company or its Affiliates (including, without limitation, information relating to the development of the Company's business created, discovered, developed or made known to the Company or the Affiliates by Executive during the period of employment with the Company and information relating to Company's customers, suppliers, consultants, and licensees) and/or in which property rights have been assigned or otherwise conveyed to the Company or the Affiliates, shall be the sole property of the Company or the Affiliates, as applicable, and the Company or the

The Executive acknowledges that the Proprietary Information constitutes a unique and valuable asset of the Company and each Affiliate acquired at great time and expense, which is secret and confidential and which will be communicated to the Executive, if at all, in confidence in the course of his performance of his duties hereunder, and that any disclosure or other use of the Proprietary Information other than for the sole benefit of the Company or the Affiliates would be wrongful and could cause irreparable harm to the Company or its Affiliates, as the case may be.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the parties agree that, at all such times, the Executive is free to use (i) information in the public domain not as a result of a breach of this Agreement, and (ii) information lawfully received from a third party who had the right to disclose such information.

8. Disclosure and Ownership of Inventions.

Edgar Filing: FLOOR DECOR INC - Form 10-Q

(c) Cause. The Company may terminate the Executive's employment hereunder for Cause. For purposes of this Agreement, the Company shall have "Cause" to terminate the Executive's employment hereunder upon (A) the willful and continued failure by the Executive to substantially perform his duties hereunder (other than any such failure resulting from the Executive's incapacity due to physical or mental illness) after demand for substantial performance is delivered by the Company specifically identifying the manner in which the Company believes the Executive has not substantially performed his duties, or (B) the willful engaging by the Executive in misconduct which is materially injurious to the business or financial condition of the Company, monetarily or otherwise, or (C) the willful violation by the Executive of the provisions of Sections 6, 7 and 8 hereof provided that such violation results in material injury to the Company. For purposes of this paragraph, no act, or failure to act, on the Executive's part shall be considered "willful" unless done, or omitted to be done, by him not in good faith and without reasonable belief that his action or omission was in the best interest of the Company. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Executive shall not be deemed to have been terminated for "Cause" unless and until there shall have been delivered to the Executive a copy of a resolution, duly adopted by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the Members of the Board, excluding the Executive, finding that in the good faith opinion of the Board, the Executive was guilty of conduct set forth above in clause (A), (B), or (C) of the preceding sentence, and specifying the particulars thereof in detail.

(d) Termination by the Executive. The Executive may terminate his employment hereunder for Good Reason. For purposes of this Agreement "Good Reason" shall mean (A) a change in control of the Company (as defined below), or (B) a reduction in the Executive's base salary as it may have been increased from time to time, or any other failure by the Company to comply with Section 3 hereof, or (C) failure of the Company to obtain the assumption of the agreement to perform this Agreement by any successor as contemplated in Section 11 hereof, (D) a defacto reduction in the Executives role or responsibilities as President and COO, or (B) A breach by the Company of any of its obligations hereunder. Termination by the Executive for any reason within this paragraph shall immediately accelerate vesting of all options granted to Executive under this Agreement

For purposes of this Agreement, a "change in control of the Company" shall be deemed to have occurred if (Y) any "person" (as such term is used in Section 13(d) and 14(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act")), other than the Company or any "person" who on the date hereof is a director or officer of the Company, is or becomes the "beneficial owner" (as defined in Rule 1 3d-3 under the Exchange Act), directly or indirectly, of securities of the Company representing 25% or more of the combined voting power of the Company's then outstanding securities, or (Z) during any period of two consecutive years during the term of this Agreement, individuals who at the beginning of such period constitute the Board cease for any reason to constitute at least a majority thereof, unless the election of each director who was not a director at the beginning of such period has been approved in advance by directors representing at least two-thirds of the directors then in office who were directors at the beginning of the period.

(e) Notice of Termination. Any termination of the Executive's employment by the Company or by the Executive (other than termination pursuant to subsection (a) above) shall be communicated by written Notice of Termination to the other party hereto. For purposes of this Agreement, a "Notice of Termination" shall mean a notice which shall indicate the specific termination provision in this Agreement relied upon and shall set forth in reasonable detail the facts and circumstances claimed to provide a basis for termination of the Executive's employment under the provision so indicated.

(f) Date of Termination. "Date of Termination" shall mean (i) if the Executive's employment is terminated by his death, the date of his death, (ii) if the Executive's employment is terminated pursuant to subsection (b) above, thirty (30) days after Notice of Termination is given (provided that the Executive shall not have returned to the performance of his duties on a full-time basis during such thirty (30) day period), (iii) if the Executive's employment is terminated pursuant to subsection (c) above, the date specified in the Notice of Termination, and (iv) if the Executive's employment is terminated for any other reason, the date at which a Notice of Termination is given; provided that if within thirty (30) days after any Notice of Termination is given the party receiving such Notice of Termination notifies the other party that a dispute exists concerning the termination, the Date of Termination shall be the date on which the dispute is finally determined, either by mutual written agreement of the parties, by a binding and final arbitration award or by a final judgment order or decree of a court of competent jurisdiction (the time for appeal therefrom having expired and no appeal having been perfected).

10. Compensation Upon Termination or Disability

(a) If the Executive's employment shall be terminated by reason of his death, the Company shall pay to such Person as he shall designate in a notice filed with the Company, or, if no such person shall be designated, to his estate as a lump sum death benefit, his full Base Salary to the date of his death in addition to any payments the Executive's spouse, beneficiaries or estate may be entitled to receive pursuant to any pension or Executive benefit plan or life insurance policy presently maintained by the Company, and such payments shall fully discharge the Company's obligations hereunder.

(b) During any period that the Executive fails to perform his duties hereunder as a result of incapacity due to physical or mental illness (provided that the Executive shall have furnished the Company with a written statement from a qualified doctor to such effect and provided, further, that at the Company's request and expense the Executive shall submit to an examination by a doctor selected by the Company and such doctor shall have concurred in the conclusion of the Executive's doctor), the Executive shall continue to receive his full Base Salary and bonus payments until the Executive's employment is terminated pursuant to Section 9(b) hereof, or until the Executive terminates his employment pursuant to Section 9(d) hereof, whichever first occurs. After termination, the Executive shall be paid 100% of his Base Salary at the rate in effect at the time Notice of Termination is given for six (6) months and thereafter an annual amount equal to 75% of such Base Salary for the remainder of the Term hereunder less, in each case, any disability payments otherwise payable by or pursuant to plans provided by the Company and actually paid to the Executive in substantially equal monthly installments.

(c) If the Executive's employment shall be terminated for Cause, the Company shall pay the Executive his full Base Salary through the Date of Termination at the rate in effect at the time Notice of Termination is given and the Company shall have no further obligations to the Executive under this Agreement.

(d) If (A) in breach of this Agreement, the Company shall terminate the Executive's employment other than pursuant to Sections 9(b) or 9(c) hereof (it being understood that a purported termination pursuant to Section 9(b) or 9(c) hereof which is disputed and finally determined not to have been proper shall be a termination by the Company in breach of this Agreement) or (B) the Executive shall terminate his employment for Good Reason or (C) the Company fails to renew the Agreement at the end of the initial or any successor term hereof, then

(i) the Company shall pay the Executive his full Base Salary through the last day of the Term at the rate in effect at the time Notice of Termination is given and the amount, if any, with respect to any year then ended, such bonus which would have accrued to the Executive on the basis of the Company's performance but which has not yet been paid to him;

(ii) in addition to salary payments pursuant to Section 9(d)(i), the Company shall pay as severance pay to the Executive on the fifth day following the Date of Termination, a lump sum amount equal to the 50% of Executive's annual Base Salary at the highest rate in effect during the twelve (12) months immediately preceding the Date of Termination; and

(iii) the Company shall pay all other damages to which the Executive may be entitled as a result of the Company's termination of his employment under this Agreement, including damages for any and all loss of benefits to the Executive under the Company's Executive benefit plans which he would have received if the Company had not breached this Agreement and had his employment confirmed for the full term provided in Section 1 hereof, and including all legal fees and expenses incurred by him in contesting or disputing any such termination or in seeking to obtain or enforce any right or benefit provided by this Agreement.

(e) Unless the Executive is terminated for Cause, the Company shall maintain in full force and effect, for the continued benefit of the Executive to the last day of the Term all Executive benefit plans and programs in which the Executive was entitled to participate immediately prior to the Date of Termination provided that the Executive's continued participation is possible under the general terms and provisions of such plans and programs. In the event that the Executive's participation in any such plan or program is barred, the Company shall arrange to provide the Executive with benefits substantially similar to those which the Executive would otherwise have been entitled to receive under such plans and programs from which his continued participation is barred.

(f) The Executive shall not be required to mitigate the amount of any payment provided for in this Section 9 by seeking other employment or otherwise, nor shall the amount of any payment provided for in this Section 9 be reduced by any compensation earned by the Executive as the result of employment by another Company after the Date of Termination, or otherwise.

The purchase price shall be established by a mutually acceptable appraiser, or absent such agreement on an appraiser, then by an appraiser chosen by the Executive, one chosen by the Company, and one chosen by the two appraisers. This process shall be conducted so that the valuation is completed and the Executive can receive full compensation for his entire equity interest within sixty (60) days of his termination.
