Item 1.01 Entry Into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On April 9, 2008, EMCORE Corporation (the "Company") entered into an Asset Purchase Agreement (the "Agreement") with Intel Corporation ("Seller") to acquire the enterprise and storage assets of Intel's Optical Platform Division as well as the Intel® Connects Cables business. The Company will issue 3.7 million shares of restricted stock for the acquisition, with certain adjustments based on the Company's stock price twelve months after the closing of the transaction. The assets include intellectual property, inventory, fixed assets and technology relating to optical transceivers for enterprise and storage customers, as well as optical cable interconnects for high-performance computing clusters.

The Company and Seller each made certain representations, warranties and covenants in the Agreement, including, among others, covenants by Seller to use commercially reasonable efforts to preserve intact the assets to be transferred to the Company and to refrain from taking certain non-ordinary course transactions during the period before consummation of the transaction.

Consummation of the transaction is subject to certain conditions. The parties have agreed to enter into a transition services agreement under which Seller will provide selected services to the Company for a limited period after closing. The parties have also entered into an intellectual property agreement under which Seller will license, subject to certain conditions, certain related intellectual property to the Company in connection with the Company's use and development of the assets being transferred to it.

The Agreement contains termination rights for both the Company and Seller including a provision allowing either party to terminate the Agreement if the transaction has not been consummated by April 25, 2008.
