Edgar Filing: COMMERCE GROUP INC /MA - Form 8-K

Section 8. Other Events Item 8.01 Other Events

As noted in our Form 10-Q filed for the period ended March 31, 2005, the Company had previously filed an action in Suffolk Superior Court (the "Court") asking the Court to determine whether revised Commonwealth Automobile Reinsurers rules (the "Revised CAR Rules") approved by the Massachusetts Commissioner of Insurance (the "Commissioner") on December 31, 2004, were consistent with Massachusetts law.

On June 20, 2005, the Court ruled that the Commissioner did not have the statutory authority to issue the Revised CAR Rules, because "the Revised CAR Rules creating an Assigned Risk Plan are contrary to the plain language of G.L. c. 175, Section 113H and its underlying spirit and purpose?". The Court's ruling annuls the Commissioner's order, vacates the Revised CAR Rules, and establishes that an assigned risk plan cannot be created without the approval of the Massachusetts Legislature. The Company cannot determine if the Commissioner will appeal. The Court's decision and order can currently be found at the following website of CAR:
<http://www.commauto.com/execupdate/updates/decision.pdf>.

Also as noted in the Company's aforementioned Form 10-Q, the Commissioner has not yet established 2005 values for CAR Rules 11 and 12, which adjust a company's market share to determine its ultimate participation in the results of the 2005 CAR deficit. In light of the Court's decision, the Massachusetts Division of Insurance has stayed indefinitely the deadline for submission of briefs and additional testimony on the values for CAR Rules 11 and 12. As such, and until such time as these values are determined, we will continue to utilize our market share as the estimate of our participation in the 2005 CAR deficit.
