PROXY STATEMENT

THE MEETING

Edgar Filing: CHARMING SHOPPES INC - Form DEF 14A

GENERAL

The enclosed Proxy Card is solicited by the Board of Directors of Charming Shoppes, Inc. (the "Company") for use at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders to be held on Thursday, June 27, 2002 at 10:00 A.M. at the Lane Bryant offices of the Company, 5 Limited Parkway, Reynoldsburg, Ohio 43068, and at any adjournments thereof (the "Meeting"). This Proxy Statement, the accompanying Notice of Annual Meeting of Shareholders and Proxy Card and the Company's 2001 Annual Report were mailed on or about May 29, 2002 to all Shareholders entitled to vote at the Meeting.

RECORD DATE AND OUTSTANDING SHARES

Shareholders of record as of the close of business on May 10, 2002 are entitled to notice of and to vote at the Meeting. On May 10, 2002 there were 113,017,918 shares of Common Stock outstanding. Each Shareholder has one vote per share on all matters to be voted on.

VOTING BY PROXY

Shares of the Company's Common Stock represented by any unrevoked Proxy in the enclosed form, if properly executed and received prior to the Meeting, will be voted in accordance with the specifications made on the Proxy. Any properly executed Proxy received on a timely basis on which no specification has been made by the Shareholder will be voted "FOR" the election as Directors of the nominees listed herein (or for such substitute nominee as may be nominated by the Board of Directors if any initial nominee becomes unavailable, which event is not anticipated), and, in the discretion of the Proxy Committee, upon all other matters requiring a vote of Shareholders which may come before the Meeting, and of which the Board of Directors was not aware a reasonable time before this solicitation, and as otherwise permitted under the Rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"). At the time of the mailing of this Proxy Statement, the Board of Directors had not received any notice regarding any other matter to come before the Meeting which was timely in accordance with the Company's Bylaws. The Proxy Committee consists of Dorrit J. Bern, Chairman of the Board of Directors, President and Chief Executive Officer, and Joseph L. Castle, II, a member of the Board of Directors.

QUORUM

Presence at the Meeting, in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of the shares of Common Stock entitled to vote is necessary to constitute a quorum. There must be a quorum for the Meeting to be held. Abstentions and broker non-votes (discussed below) are counted for the purpose of determining the presence or absence of a quorum.

REVOCABILITY OF PROXIES

Any Shareholder who executes and delivers a Proxy may revoke it at any time prior to its use by delivering a duly executed Proxy bearing a later date or by sending notice to the Secretary of the Company at the address of the Company listed above. Any Shareholder may choose to attend the Meeting and vote in person, in which case any Proxy previously executed by such Shareholder will be revoked.

VOTES REQUIRED FOR APPROVAL

The election of Directors will be determined by a plurality of the votes cast at the Meeting. Votes may be cast in favor or withheld; votes that are withheld will be excluded entirely from the vote and will have no effect. Other matters properly coming before the Meeting will be determined by a majority of the votes cast. Abstentions and broker non-votes are not considered votes cast under Pennsylvania law. A broker non-vote occurs if a broker or other person holding shares on behalf of a beneficial owner does not vote on a particular item because the broker or other person does not have discretionary authority for that item and has not received instructions from the beneficial owner of the shares. Accordingly, abstentions and broker non-votes will not affect the outcome of a vote on a particular matter coming before the Meeting.

The Audit Committee reviews the independence and performance of the Company's independent auditors and annually recommends to the Board of Directors the appointment of the independent auditors or approves any discharge of such auditors. The Audit Committee also reviews changes in the Company's accounting principles as applied in its financial reporting and the independent auditors' judgments about the quality and appropriateness of those principles. In addition, the Audit Committee oversees the Company's internal compliance programs. The composition of the Audit Committee, the attributes of its members and the responsibilities of the Audit Committee as reflected in its Charter are intended to be in compliance with the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the Nasdaq listing requirements adopted in December 1999 with regard to Corporate Audit Committees.

In addition, the Committee monitors aggregate share usage and potential dilution. The Committee makes all other determinations necessary or advisable for the administration of these stock incentive plans.

Corporate Governance Committee

The Corporate Governance Committee, in consultation with the Chairman of the Board of Directors and Chief Executive Officer of the Company, makes recommendations to the Board regarding the size and composition of the Board; recommends to the Board criteria regarding the personal qualifications required for Board membership; establishes procedures for the nomination process and recommends candidates for election to the Board of Directors; determines and recommends to the Board appropriate compensation for Directors; evaluates the performance of the Board as a whole; evaluates Board practices and recommends appropriate changes to the Board; and considers various corporate governance issues, including those raised by Shareholders and other constituents and recommends appropriate responses to the Board.

Director Nominations

Nominations for Director candidates are determined by the Board of Directors after recommendation by the Corporate Governance Committee. The Corporate Governance Committee will consider nominations for Directors initiated by Shareholders. The Company's Bylaws establish advance notice procedures with regard to the nomination, other than by or at the direction of the Board of Directors or a committee thereof, of candidates for election as Directors. These procedures generally provide that the notice of proposed Shareholder nominations for the election of Directors must be given in writing to the Secretary of the Company by the date on which a Shareholder proposal would be required to be submitted to the Company in order to be set forth in the Company's Proxy Statement, in accordance with SEC Rules. See also "PROPOSALS FOR 2003 ANNUAL MEETING." This notice generally must (i) identify the name and address of the nominating Shareholder and nominee, (ii) contain representations concerning the nominating Shareholder's ownership of Common Stock and intention to appear at the Meeting and make the nomination, and (iii) include all relevant information concerning the nominee and his or her relationship or transactions with the Company that are required to be disclosed in the Proxy Statement pursuant to SEC Rules.

COMPENSATION OF DIRECTORS

Under the Company's Amended and Restated Non-Employee Directors Compensation Program, each non-employee Director is entitled to:

- An annual cash retainer of $20,000 with an additional annual retainer of

Edgar Filing: CHARMING SHOPPES INC - Form DEF 14A

$3,000 for a Committee Chairperson. By making a prior, timely election, non-employee Directors may defer any cash fee as of the time the fee is payable into the Company's Common Stock units payable in cash and/or into cash deferrals which bear interest at the prime rate plus one percent (1%). The cash deferrals may be reallocated among other investment alternatives made available for cash deferrals under the Amended and Restated Non-Employee Directors Compensation Program.

- An automatic annual grant of options to purchase 20,000 shares of Common Stock. Each option grant vests in equal installments over five years and permits the holder to purchase shares at their fair market value on the date of grant, which was $5.52 in the case of the options granted on June 14, 2001. Each option expires at the earlier of ten years after the date of grant or one year after the non-employee Director ceases to serve for any reason except in the case of mandatory retirement as described below. The options will vest in full upon the death or disability of the non-employee Director or a change in control of the Company, and, in the event of termination of service for reasons other than death, disability or mandatory retirement, the options will vest pro-rata based on the period of service through the date of termination, or as otherwise determined by the Board. The Amended and Restated Non-Employee Directors Compensation Program further provides that unvested options will not be forfeited upon a mandatory retirement but will continue to become exercisable at the times the options would have vested had the non-employee Director not been required to retire. The non-employee Director will have a period of one year following vesting to exercise each portion of his or her option that becomes exercisable during this post-retirement period.
- For newly elected non-employee Directors, a one-time grant of 10,000 shares of restricted stock which will vest in equal amounts over three years. The restricted stock will also vest in full upon the death or disability of a non-employee Director or a change in control of the Company. In the event of termination of service as a non-employee Director for reasons other than death, disability or voluntary resignation, the restricted stock will vest as though the non-employee Director served through the anticipated date of the next Annual Meeting of Shareholders following termination of service, or as otherwise determined by the Board.

Directors who are also employees of the Company receive no additional compensation for services as a Director or Chairman of the Board.

Accordingly, the economic value of this benefit included with respect to the 2002 fiscal year is as follows: Dorrit J. Bern, $50,541; Eric M. Specter, $13,654; Colin D. OPTION GRANTS IN LAST FISCAL YEAR

The following table provides information relating to options granted to the named Executive Officers during the 2002 fiscal year. The table indicates the potential realizable value of options granted during the 2002 fiscal year assuming the options are exercised immediately prior to their expiration date and assuming the occurrence of the specified compounded rates of appreciation of the Company's Common Stock over the term of such options. The potential realizable value of such options is approximately equal to the amount a purchaser of Common Stock would realize, exclusive of brokerage commissions, assuming (i) the purchase of an equivalent number of shares of Common Stock at the closing market price on the date of grant of the options depicted, (ii) the sale of such shares immediately prior to the expiration date of such options at the closing market price on such date, and (iii) the occurrence of the specified compounded rates of appreciation of the Common Stock over such holding period. This table is presented solely for purposes of complying with SEC Rules, and there can be no assurance that the optionees or any purchaser of the Common Stock under the circumstances described herein will actually realize the returns assumed in this table under the circumstances depicted or under any other circumstances. The actual amounts, if any, realized by an optionee or the purchaser of Common Stock will be dependent upon a number of factors, including the future performance of the Company and overall stock market conditions.

(1) The potential realizable value of the options depicted above does not take into account provisions of certain options providing for termination of the options following the termination of employment or the vesting requirements and risks of forfeiture of the options.

(2) All of these options to acquire shares of the Company's Common Stock are non-qualified options and were granted with an exercise price equal to the fair market value of the shares of Common Stock on the date of the grant. Such options become exercisable as to 20% of the shares subject thereto on each succeeding anniversary of the date of grant until the fifth anniversary at which time all options are fully vested. Such options have a term of ten years subject to earlier expiration at or following termination of employment in certain circumstances. The option exercise price may be paid in cash or, with the approval of the Stock Option Committee, in shares of Common Stock owned by the Executive Officer or a combination of cash and such shares. In the event of a change in control of the Company, any unexercisable portion of the options will become immediately exercisable. See "MANAGEMENT COMPENSATION -- Employment, Change of Control and Severance Agreements." An Executive Officer can elect to have the Company withhold shares upon exercise to satisfy tax withholding obligations.

The table below provides the following information with respect to options exercised by each of the named Executive Officers during the 2002 fiscal year: (i) the number of shares of the Company's Common Stock acquired upon exercise of options during the 2002 fiscal year, (ii) the aggregate dollar value realized upon the exercise of such options, (iii) the total number of exercisable and unexercisable stock options held at February 2, 2002 and (iv) the aggregate dollar value of the in-the-money exercisable and unexercisable options at February 2, 2002.

Value is calculated on the basis of the aggregate of the difference between the option exercise price of in-the-money options and $5.61 multiplied by the number of shares of Common Stock underlying such options.

EMPLOYMENT, CHANGE OF CONTROL AND SEVERANCE AGREEMENTS

On October 12, 1999 Dorrit J. Bern entered into a new Employment Agreement (the "Bern Agreement") with the Company which replaced her prior Employment Agreement. Under the Bern Agreement, Ms. Bern continues to be employed as the Company's President and Chief Executive Officer at a minimum salary of $1,000,000 for a five-year term commencing October 12, 1999 and continuing from year to year thereafter unless either Ms. Bern or the Company gives the other notice of such party's intention not to renew the Bern Agreement. Ms. Bern is entitled to participate in the Company's Annual Incentive Plan. Her minimum targeted incentive opportunity in any one fiscal year will be 60% of her base salary and the maximum payout will be not less than 200% of her targeted incentive opportunity.

Under the Bern Agreement, Ms. Bern was granted 200,000 restricted shares of the Company's Common Stock with a fair market value on the date of grant of $5.0625 per share, the closing price per Common Share on the Nasdaq National Market on October 12, 1999. The restricted shares vest in equal installments over five years subject to Ms. Bern's continued employment with the Company through the relevant anniversary date; provided, however, that all restrictions will lapse and the restricted shares will become fully vested upon a change in control which is defined in the award agreement and the Bern Agreement on substantially the same terms as are set forth in the agreements evidencing options granted under the 1993 Employees' Stock Incentive Plan as more fully described below, or if Ms. Bern resigns for Good Reason (as defined in the Bern Agreement), is terminated without Cause (as defined in the Bern Agreement), dies or is terminated by reason of her disability.

The Bern Agreement requires that Ms. Bern receive annual grants of options to purchase a minimum of 200,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock under the Company's 1993 Employees' Stock Incentive Plan or any successor plan. These options vest in equal installments over five years, subject to Ms. Bern's continued employment with the Company through the relevant anniversary date; provided, however, that options will become fully vested upon a change in control or if Ms. Bern resigns for Good Reason or is terminated without Cause, dies or is terminated by reason of her disability. On February 11, 2002 Ms. Bern was granted options to purchase 600,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock at an exercise price of $6.00 per share. Such options have a three year term and vest on the first anniversary of the date of grant. This grant was made in lieu of her annual option grants under the Bern Agreement for fiscal years 2003 through 2005. The Stock Option Committee made similar grants of options to other key executives as well. The purpose of the grants was to focus the management team on integration and value creation following the Lane Bryant acquisition.

The Bern Agreement also provides for Ms. Bern's participation in the Company's retirement, insurance and other benefit programs. In particular, the Company purchased a $4,000,000 split dollar life insurance policy on Ms. Bern's life. She is entitled to convert that policy to a "last to die" policy provided that such conversion does not increase the Company's costs, or diminish its rights, under the policy. Ms. Bern has since converted her policy to a "last to die" policy with a death benefit of $8,000,000.

Ms. Bern's employment may be terminated (a) on her death or retirement, (b) in the event of her disability, (c) on her voluntary termination on at least ninety days prior notice, (d) by the Company without Cause, (e) by the Company for Cause, or (f) by Ms. Bern for Good Reason. On her death or on termination by reason of her disability, Ms. Bern will be entitled to her base salary for any days worked prior to the date of death or termination, and all other benefits that she is vested in pursuant to other plans and programs of the Company. If Ms. Bern is discharged for Cause or she resigns without Good Reason, her entitlement to further compensation generally will be limited to the receipt of her base salary through the effective date of termination, plus all other benefits to which she has a vested right at that time, except that in no event shall she be entitled to receive any annual bonus with respect to the fiscal year in which termination without Good Reason occurs. If Ms. Bern is discharged without Cause or she resigns for Good Reason, she will be entitled to receive in 24 equal monthly installments an amount equal to two times the sum of her annual base salary plus her targeted annual bonus established for the fiscal year in which her effective date of termination occurs, and she will be entitled to continuation of all health, welfare and benefit plan participation for two years following the effective date of termination (unless substantially similar benefits are provided by a successor employer). If, however, such discharge without Cause or resignation for Good Reason occurs within 24 calendar months following a change in control, Ms. Bern instead shall be entitled to (a) receive a lump sum amount equal to (i) three times the highest rate of her annualized base salary, (ii) three times the greater of her targeted annual bonus award established for the plan year in which her effective date of termination occurs or the plan year ending immediately prior to such effective date of termination, and (iii) her unpaid targeted annual bonus award established for the year in which her effective date of termination occurs pro-rated for the number of days completed during that fiscal year, and (b) continuation of the benefits of health care, life and accident insurance, and disability insurance coverage for three full years after the effective date of termination. In the event that a determination is made pursuant to the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (the "Code"), as amended, that a golden parachute excise tax is due, the benefits provided to Ms. Bern under the Bern Agreement that are classified as "parachute payments" under the Code shall be limited to the amount just necessary to avoid the excise tax. However, this limitation will be applied only if it results in a greater net (of excise tax) cash benefit to Ms. Bern than she would receive had the benefits not been capped and an excise tax been levied. A non-renewal of the employment term by the Company will be treated as a termination without Cause for purposes of the Agreement. The Agreement requires the Company to pay up to $50,000 in legal fees if incurred by Ms. Bern to enforce the Agreement, and up to $50,000 in outplacement services, following termination by the Company without Cause or by Ms. Bern for Good Reason.

During her employment and for a period of 24 months following Ms. Bern's termination of employment for any reason, she may not, among other things, be financially interested in or associated with any competitor of the Company in the United States in the procuring, sale, marketing, promotion or distribution of any product or product lines competitive with any product or product lines of the Company, nor may she attempt to induce certain employees to terminate their employment with the Company. As defined in the Bern Agreement, "competitor" means a chain of retail stores with 50 or more store locations, provided that the average square footage of the chain's stores is less than 15,000 square feet.

On January 31, 2002 Erna Zint entered into a new Employment Agreement (the "Zint Agreement") with the Company which replaced her existing Employment Agreement. Under the Zint Agreement, Ms. Zint continues to be employed as the Company's Executive Vice President -- Sourcing at an annual salary of $400,000 for a term commencing January 30, 2002 and ending on March 31, 2003 (the "Term"). Ms. Zint is assigned to perform her duties under the Zint Agreement outside the United States, currently in Hong Kong. Ms. Zint's salary will be reviewed at least annually by the Company's Board of Directors to determine if an increase is appropriate, which increase is in the sole discretion of the Company's Board of Directors. Commencing with the fiscal year beginning February 3, 2002, Ms. Zint is entitled to receive additional compensation ("Performance Compensation") if the Company achieves certain performance objectives established under the Company's Annual Incentive Plan. The formula and standards for determining this Performance Compensation are determined by the Compensation Committee, but may not exceed 100% of Ms. Zint's annual base salary for the applicable year.

Ms. Zint is entitled to certain benefits including, among others, a housing allowance of $15,334 per month during the Term of her employment, the payment of club membership fees and a round-trip airline ticket per year to Europe or the United States in connection with her annual leave which, when possible, will coincide with a business trip. The Zint Agreement also provides for Ms. Zint's participation in the Company's retirement, insurance and other benefit programs. The Company may terminate Ms. Zint's employment for Cause (as defined in the Zint Agreement). The Company may also terminate Ms. Zint's employment at any time during the Term upon written notice to Ms. Zint for any reason that does not constitute "Cause" provided that the Company pays to Ms. Zint the lesser of the amount to be paid during the remainder of the Term or one year's base salary (severance) at the rate in effect on the date of any such termination and continues to provide those benefits due to Ms. Zint under the Zint Agreement for the period of time covered by such severance. Ms. Zint has also agreed that, for a period of one year after the termination of her employment, she will not solicit the employment of any person who was employed by the Company or any of its affiliates or subsidiaries on a full or part-time basis at the time of Ms. Zint's termination unless such person was involuntarily discharged by the Company or such affiliate or subsidiary, without the prior consent of the

Company.

The Board of Directors has approved change in control agreements with certain named Executive Officers (Eric M. Specter, Erna Zint, Colin D. Stern and Anthony A. DeSabato) and other members of senior management designated by the Board. Ms. Bern is not a party to such an agreement as her employment relationship with the Company is governed by the Bern Agreement described above. These agreements provide for severance and other benefits if, within 24 months following the month in which a change in control of the Company (as discussed below) occurs, the Company terminates the executive's employment without cause or the executive terminates employment for "Good Reason" (as defined in the change in control agreements). If a termination following a change in control triggers benefits, the executive will receive:

- a lump-sum payment of a pro-rated portion of target annual incentive compensation for the year in which the termination occurs.
- a lump-sum payment equal to the sum of the executive's highest base salary and highest target annual incentive compensation, times a multiplier of two for more senior executives or one for other executives.
- life, disability and health benefits following termination for a period of two years for more senior executives or one year for other executives.
- payment of an allowance up to $30,000 for outplacement expenses.
- payment of reasonable legal expenses to enforce the agreement up to $35,000.
- acceleration of the vesting of the executive's entitlement to benefits under the executive's split-dollar life insurance and the payment of annual premiums with respect to that insurance.
- if benefits are subject to the "golden parachute" excise tax, the benefits shall be limited to the amount just necessary to avoid the excise tax if such a limitation results in a greater net (of excise tax) cash benefit to the executive than he or she would have received had the benefits not been capped and an excise tax had been levied.

The agreements obligate each executive not to disclose or use the Company's confidential or proprietary information during and after employment and not to attempt to induce any employee of the Company to terminate employment or interfere in a similar manner with the Company's business during and for 24 months after termination of the executive's employment.

In addition, the stock options granted to each of the named Executive Officers under the Company's stock option plans provide that in the event of a change in control of the Company, the options become fully exercisable. For purposes of the stock option agreements and the change in control agreements, a "change in control" is generally defined as (i) an acquisition of shares resulting in an entity (but excluding certain entities) having at least 20% of the voting power of the Company, (ii) a change in the Board's membership whereby the current members, or those members elected or nominated by the current members, no longer constitute a majority as provided in the stock option agreement or two-thirds as provided in the change in control agreements, (iii) certain mergers, recapitalizations, or reorganizations, or (iv) a liquidation or sale of substantially all of the Company's assets (but excluding sales to certain parties).

REPORT OF THE COMPENSATION AND STOCK OPTION COMMITTEES OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

COMPENSATION STRATEGY

The primary objectives of the Compensation and Stock Option Committees of the Company's Board of Directors (collectively, the "Committee") are to assure that the Company's executive compensation and benefit program:

- reflects the Company's unique, entrepreneurial and customer-focused orientation;
- provides competitive compensation opportunities relative to retail industry organizations or other companies that may reasonably reflect its market for high caliber executive talent;
- is effective in driving performance to achieve financial goals and create Shareholder value;
- is cost-efficient and fair to employees, management and Shareholders; and
- is well communicated and understood by program participants.

The Committee, which is comprised of independent, non-employee Directors of the Company (see "ELECTION OF DIRECTORS -- Board Committees"), periodically engages an independent compensation and benefits consulting firm to review the Company's compensation and benefits program. In this regard consideration is given to:

- business direction and strategy;
- comparisons of compensation forms and levels with other retail companies or in industry more generally; and
- interests of Shareholders, customers, communities, management and other employees.

The Company's executive compensation and benefits program reflects its entrepreneurial business strategy and its need to attract and retain high quality key employees. The Company's compensation strategy is to place the major portion of total compensation at risk in the form of annual incentives and long-term, stock-based compensation programs. The program gives great weight to stock compensation opportunities intended to align management's interests with those of the Company's Shareholders. Combinations of cash and stock compensation have been critical factors in attracting and retaining key employees and are intended to contribute to a high level of employee commitment to the Company's business success.

The Company's target total compensation opportunities (base salary, bonus and long-term incentives) for Executives are set to reflect the Company's size and financial performance as compared to the size, financial performance and corresponding compensation levels of a group of retail industry companies (the "Compensation Peer Group"), its markets for executive talent, and the expectation that the executive team should possess the necessary skills, experience and motivations to attain ambitious goals for business growth. Pay opportunities for specific individuals will vary based on skills, experience and assessments with respect to individual performance. Actual total compensation will vary above or below market standards based primarily on the attainment of operating goals and the creation of Shareholder value. In some instances the amount and structure of compensation results from negotiations with executives, which reflects an increasingly competitive market for quality managerial talent. To help attract and retain such talent, the Committee seeks also to provide a level of Company benefits in line with those of comparable publicly traded companies.

Each year, the Committee reviews the selection of peer companies which comprise the Compensation Peer Group. The Committee believes that the Company's most direct competitors for executive talent are not necessarily restricted to those specialty apparel retail companies that are included in the line-of-business industry index used to compare Shareholder returns, but encompass a broader group of companies which are engaged in the recruitment and retention of executive talent in competition with the Company. Thus, the Compensation Peer Group is not the same as, and is broader than, the companies comprising the retail apparel industry index in the graph under the caption "Comparison of Five-Year Cumulative Total Returns." See "STOCK PERFORMANCE CHART."

BASE SALARIES

Executive base salaries reflect the Company's operating philosophy, culture and business direction, with each salary determined subjectively by an annual assessment of a number of factors, including job responsibilities, impact on development and achievement of business strategy, labor market compensation data, corporate performance (corporate operating earnings), individual performance relative to job requirements, the Company's ability to attract and retain critical executives, and salaries paid for comparable positions within the Company's Compensation Peer Group. No specific weighting criteria are utilized among these factors. The Committee periodically evaluates market base salaries for comparable roles among retailers and general industry. Market pay levels and individual performance assessments are considered in evaluating incumbent salaries and possible adjustments.

ANNUAL INCENTIVE PLAN

The fiscal 2002 annual incentive program established annual incentive opportunities for executives ranging from zero to a maximum 150% of salary at the end of the 2002 fiscal year. The amount of these incentive payments was dependent on the extent to which individual performance goals were met or exceeded and/or the extent to which the Company or a division of the Company achieved operating earnings goals (reflecting operating earnings growth). These goals were set in expectation of a stretch performance level (target performance) and were approved by the Compensation Committee before implementation.

The target performance incentive payment opportunity for each named Executive Officer was based on factors similar to those used to determine base salary (discussed above) and ranged from 30% to 75% of fiscal year-end salaries. If minimum (threshold) performance was achieved, the level at which each Executive Officer could earn an incentive payment ranged from 15% to 37.5% of fiscal year-end salaries to a maximum incentive payment in a range from 45% to 150% of fiscal year-end salaries. These minimum and maximum payment levels were prescribed by the Compensation Committee at the beginning of the 2002 fiscal year. No awards may be paid out if operating earnings performance (reflecting operating earnings growth) or divisional performance does not reach the established minimum performance level.

14

The annual incentive payment opportunities for Dorrit J. Bern, the Company's Chairman of the Board, President and Chief Executive Officer, were based entirely on the quantitative corporate operating earnings goal (reflecting corporate operating earnings growth). The annual incentive award opportunities for the other named Executive Officers (except for Diane V. Missel and Jeffery A. Warzel) were based 70% on the quantitative corporate operating earnings goal (reflecting operating earnings growth) and 30% on performance relative to individual responsibilities and objectives as quantitatively and subjectively assessed by the Committee upon the recommendation of the Chief Executive Officer. The annual incentive award opportunities for Diane V. Missel and Jeffery A. Warzel were based 100% on a quantitative divisional operating earnings goal reflecting operating earnings growth after the assumption of their respective positions with Lane Bryant, Inc. on August 16, 2001. Prior to that time, the annual incentive award opportunities for Diane V. Missel were based 50% on a corporate operating earnings goal, 40% on a divisional operations earnings goal and 10% on an individual goal while the annual incentive award opportunities for Jeffery A. Warzel were based 70% on a corporate operating earnings goal and 30% on an individual goal.

LONG-TERM INCENTIVE PLANS

The Company's long-term executive incentive program currently consists of the following plans under which awards may be granted:

- The 1993 Employees' Stock Incentive Plan (the "1993 Plan") authorizes the granting of a variety of stock-based awards. The Company has granted options with an exercise price equal to 100% of the fair market value of the Company's Common Stock at the date of grant ("Standard Options") up to target award levels to the named Executive Officers and other key employees. These option grants continue to align the major portion of long-term compensation opportunities with the creation of Shareholder value. The 2002 fiscal year grants of these options to the named Executive Officers generally become exercisable at the rate of 20% per year commencing with the first anniversary of the date of grant and thereafter on each succeeding anniversary of the date of grant. The 1993 Plan also authorizes grants of restricted shares of the Company's Common Stock. During the 2002 fiscal year, the Company granted 300,000 restricted shares to Dorrit J. Bern. See "Compensation of the Chief Executive Officer for the 2002 Fiscal Year". The Company has granted restricted shares to the other named Executive Officers to further align their compensation with Shareholder interests and to promote retention and long-term service. These restricted shares vest in installments over five years subject to the named Executive Officer's continued employment with the Company through the relevant anniversary date. See also "MANAGEMENT COMPENSATION -- Employment, Change of Control and Severance Agreements."
- The 1988 Key Employee Stock Option Plan ("KESOP") authorizes the granting of "below market" options to key employees. In recent years, grants under the KESOP generally have been used as an important retention tool and as a recruiting tool to attract new employees. Options under the KESOP generally become exercisable in one-third increments at the end of the third, fourth and fifth years after the date of grant. No grants under the KESOP are currently made to the named Executive Officers.

Edgar Filing: CHARMING SHOPPES INC - Form DEF 14A

In accordance with its business strategy and compensation philosophy, the Company has granted Standard Options and restricted shares to the named Executive Officers to afford them an opportunity to participate in the Company's future growth and to focus them on their contributions which are necessary for the financial success and business growth of the Company and, thereby, the creation of value for its Shareholders. Individual award sizes were evaluated primarily on incumbent performance assessments and impact potential on value creation initiatives. Aggregate share usage and dilution levels were also assessed and compared in relation to general industry and retail industry norms.

OTHER

The Committee may, from time to time as warranted by business conditions and the Company's need to attract, retain or recognize the contributions of key executives, provide special incentive award opportunities to selected executives to secure the employment of such executives, retain such executives or reward such executives for contributions made to the Company's success over extended or extraordinary periods of service. In the 2002 fiscal year, the Committee granted Eric M. Specter and Colin D. Stern special bonuses of $100,000 and $50,000, respectively, in recognition of their respective contributions to the acquisition of Lane Bryant, Inc. See also "MANAGEMENT COMPENSATION -- Employment, Change of Control and Severance Agreements."

15

COMPENSATION OF THE CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER FOR THE 2002 FISCAL YEAR

On August 23, 1995 Dorrit J. Bern was appointed President, Chief Executive Officer and Vice Chairman of the Board of the Company. In order to attract Ms. Bern to the employ of the Company, the Committee provided her with a base salary of $1,000,000. This salary recognized the value of Ms. Bern's experience and skills in the industry and included a premium for moving to the Company during a period of exceptional business challenge from a highly stable employment situation. Ms. Bern's salary was not increased for the 2002 fiscal year and remains at $1,000,000. On October 12, 1999 Ms. Bern entered into a new Employment Agreement (the "Bern Agreement") with the Company at the same base salary of $1,000,000. See "MANAGEMENT COMPENSATION -- Employment, Change of Control and Severance Agreements."

The Bern Agreement provides for the annual grant to Ms. Bern of options to purchase a minimum of 200,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock under the 1993 Plan or any successor plan. For the 2002 fiscal year, the grant of options to Ms. Bern to purchase 200,000 shares was made on February 23, 2001 at an exercise price of $6.50, the closing price per Common Share on the Nasdaq National Market on the date of grant. On the basis of the Committee's review of the Company's 2002 fiscal year operating earnings in relation to Ms. Bern's goals under the Annual Incentive Plan, no annual incentive payment was made to Ms. Bern under the Annual Incentive Plan. Ms. Bern did receive a special bonus of $300,000 in recognition of her leadership in, and contribution to, the acquisition of Lane Bryant, Inc.

As part of the Committee's annual review of the Chief Executive Officer's performance and remuneration, the Committee considered the competitive posture of Ms. Bern's salary, annual and long-term incentive opportunities. Although base salary was found to be fully competitive, incentive compensation targets trailed market levels among a broad sample of retailers and across general industry. It was the judgment of the Committee that Ms. Bern's ongoing leadership and contribution to business revitalization warranted adjustments in target annual incentive amounts that bolster her performance-based pay opportunity. Annual incentive targets for fiscal 2002 were increased from 60% to 75% of salary. Maximum award amounts were similarly adjusted from 120% to 150% of salary. In addition, a special award of 300,000 restricted shares was granted on April 26, 2001 to elevate her ownership stake and to encourage continued service through the restriction periods. The restricted shares vest in equal annual installments of 90,000 shares each on the third and fourth anniversaries of the date of grant with the balance of 120,000 shares vesting on the fifth anniversary of the date of grant.

DEDUCTIBILITY OF COMPENSATION

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code subjects public companies to limits on the deductibility of certain executive compensation. It limits to $1,000,000 the annual deductible compensation of each person who is, as of the end of the fiscal year, the chief executive officer or one of the four other highest compensated officers listed in the Summary Compensation Table. Certain forms of compensation are exempt from this deductibility limit, one of which is performance-based compensation under plans approved by Shareholders.

The Committee recognizes that a portion of the compensation which was paid to Ms. Bern in the 2002 fiscal year does not qualify for deduction under Section 162(m). The Committee considered the deductibility of compensation under Section 162(m) in designing compensatory arrangements and assessing the cost to the Company of such compensatory arrangements and determined that the need to attract and retain top industry executive talent considerably outweighed deductibility considerations. The Committee therefore determined that it was necessary and in the best interests of the Company to authorize compensation for Ms. Bern that was, in part, in excess of the limitation on deductibility. As circumstances change, the Committee will determine what actions are appropriate in order to preserve tax deductibility of executive compensation paid by the Company.

While the Annual Incentive Plan described above consists of performance-based awards, cash payments thereunder will not comply with the requirements for exemption from the deductibility limit under the Internal Revenue Service regulations. Standard Options granted in the 2002 fiscal year, and other awards such as restricted stock and options granted under the KESOP, to the extent made, will not meet the exemption requirements for performance-based compensation under Section 162(m).

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

ARRANGEMENTS WITH THE LIMITED, INC.

Background

On August 16, 2001, the Company, pursuant to a stock purchase agreement, acquired 100% of the outstanding stock of Lane Bryant, Inc. ("Lane Bryant") from a subsidiary of The Limited, Inc. ("The Limited") for cash of $280,000,000 and an aggregate of 9,525,993 shares of Common Stock of the Company (the "Shares"). The Company also granted The Limited certain registration rights, whereby the Company undertook to use its best efforts to cause a shelf registration statement for the Shares to become effective under the Securities Act of 1933 within 11 months following the closing under the stock purchase agreement.

As of the date of the acquisition, Lane Bryant operated 651 retail apparel stores in 46 states, specializing in fashion apparel and related accessories for women wearing plus-sizes 14 and greater.

As a result of this transaction, The Limited beneficially owns approximately 8.6% of the outstanding shares of Common Stock of the Company.

Services Agreement

In connection with the Lane Bryant acquisition, on August 16, 2001 LBH, Inc., a subsidiary of the Company that was acquired in this transaction, entered into a services agreement with The Limited and certain of its affiliates under which LBH, Inc. receives certain transitional services, including data center processing of Lane Bryant business applications such as store polling and support of store systems, continuation of contract services with vendors for voice and data networks, and conversion services, through October 2, 2002. LBH, Inc. has begun moving all of the Lane Bryant business applications and processes from The Limited to the Company's platform and the Company expects the transition to be completed by October 2, 2002. The Company has guaranteed the obligations of LBH, Inc. under the services agreement. The services agreement includes certain cross-indemnification arrangements between LBH, Inc. and The Limited. The cost of such services to be charged to LBH, Inc. is intended to approximate The Limited's cost in providing the relevant services. For the period August 16, 2001 through February 2, 2002, LBH, Inc. paid The Limited an aggregate of $16,200,000 for such services. Other transitional services provided by The Limited have terms ranging from one month to 36 months, and the Company expects that approximately $25,700,000 and $19,600,000, will be paid during the fiscal years ending February 1, 2003 and January 31, 2004, respectively, to The Limited under these agreements before their expiration dates with notice.

21

Headquarters Lease

In connection with the Company's acquisition of the Lane Bryant business from The Limited, on August 16, 2001 the Company, as guarantor, and Lane Bryant entered into a lease agreement with Distribution Land Corp., an affiliate of The Limited, under which Lane Bryant has leased a distribution center and office space near Columbus, Ohio for a period of three years. The lease agreement includes certain cross-indemnification arrangements between Lane Bryant and Distribution Land Corp. The current monthly rental is $393,000 and is subject to annual Consumer Price Index adjustments. For the period August 16, 2001 through February 2, 2002, the Company paid Distribution Land Corp. an aggregate of $1,268,000 under the Lease Agreement.

Master Sublease

In connection with the Company's acquisition of the Lane Bryant business from The Limited, on August 16, 2001 the Company, as guarantor, and Lane Bryant entered into a Master Sublease with The Limited pursuant to which Lane Bryant subleased 207 retail properties from The Limited under a Master Sublease. The Limited is the guarantor of the leases underlying the Master Sublease, and the Company has agreed to reimburse The Limited for any obligations arising from such leases. The cost of the sublease for each property subject to the Master Sublease is generally the cost incurred by The Limited under the prime lease for such property. For the period August 16, 2001 through February 2, 2002, the Company has paid an aggregate of $12,100,000 under the Master Sublease. The stores subject to the Master Sublease had been operated as Lane Bryant stores before the acquisition. In connection with the Company's agreement to reimburse The Limited for obligations under the leases, the Company has agreed with The Limited to certain limitations on its ability to incur debt, make distributions to its shareholders, and purchase its own shares. These limitations will continue until The Limited's liability for the leases falls below a certain level or in certain other circumstances.

Store Leases Agreement

In connection with the Company's acquisition of the Lane Bryant business from The Limited, on August 16, 2001 Lane Bryant entered into a Store Leases Agreement with The Limited and certain of its subsidiaries pursuant to which Lane Bryant subleases certain shared and adjacent facilities from the applicable subsidiary of The Limited. The Store Leases Agreement also provides for the parties to share the cost of permanently separating adjacent premises, with Lane Bryant's share of the cost not to exceed $250,000. In addition to other specific terms, the Store Leases Agreement includes certain cross-indemnification arrangements between Lane Bryant, The Limited and certain of its subsidiaries. With respect to each property that is the subject of this Store Leases Agreement, the term of such sublease shall extend until the expiration of the current term of the prime lease held by The Limited or its subsidiary that is applicable to such property. Under the Store Leases Agreement, Lane Bryant is responsible for its pro rata share (based on square feet occupied) of all costs and expenses under the applicable prime lease. For the period August 16, 2001 through February 2, 2002, the Company has paid The Limited and its subsidiaries an aggregate of $680,000 under the Store Leases Agreement.

Mast Industries, Inc.

Mast Industries is a wholly owned subsidiary of The Limited. Lane Bryant purchases apparel products from Mast Industries pursuant to Lane Bryant's master sourcing agreement and purchase orders that are written in the normal course of business. For the period August 16, 2001 through February 2, 2002 the Company has paid Mast Industries $59,100,000 for apparel products.

During the 2002 fiscal year, Alan Rosskamm, Joseph L. Castle, II, Marjorie Margolies-Mezvinsky, Kenneth S. Olshan and Marvin L. Slomowitz served as members of the Compensation Committee and Stock Option Committee.

Alan Rosskamm owned equity interests in an entity which owns a shopping center located in Napoleon, Ohio and in which the Company leases a store. The aggregate amount paid by the Company for the 2002 fiscal year with respect to the lease of such store was $11,000. Mr. Rosskamm disposed of his interest in the shopping center with effect from April 11, 2001. Mr. Slomowitz, a Director, owns equity interests in a partnership which owns a shopping center located in Pittston, Pennsylvania and in which the Company leases a store. The store opened on March 8, 2001. The rent charges are $64,000 per annum increasing by a specified percentage to the extent that sales revenue thresholds are exceeded. The Company believes that these leases and their transaction terms are no less favorable to the Company than the Company could have negotiated with an unaffiliated third party.
