The following are sets of Questions and Answers that were first posted on Burlington Resources Inc.'s intranet web site on the evening of February 14, 2006.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

These questions and answers have been written to provide you with the information requested in employee meetings and on the Employee Resource Site. Employee questions that are similar in nature are grouped together, rephrased and answered by a team from Human Resources. Please note: If a conflict is discovered between these Q&As and the Plan Documents, the Plan Documents will prevail. For specific individual questions, you are encouraged to seek assistance from your Human Resources representative for answers related to your personal circumstances.

COMPENSATION PROGRAMS

Q: IT SOUNDS LIKE CONOCOPHILLIPS COMPENSATION IS BENCHMARKED AT THE MEDIAN QUARTILE WHILE BURLINGTON HAS AIMED TO BE IN THE TOP QUARTILE (I BELIEVE THE PAST FEW YEARS THAT MAY HAVE COME DOWN SOME). DOES THIS POTENTIALLY MEAN BURLINGTON EMPLOYEE COMPENSATION WOULD "SLOW DOWN" TO ALLOW CONOCOPHILLIPS EMPLOYEES TO CATCH UP?

A: ConocoPhillips' compensation and benefits are competitive in aggregate with our peer companies, and this is confirmed annually through multiple third-party surveys. Burlington's compensation and benefits also are competitive, but the specific plans and plan values are different from those of ConocoPhillips. ConocoPhillips and Burlington Human Resources are currently working together to understand the differences. The goal is for all full-time, regular employees to participate in common, competitive compensation and benefits plans.

BENEFIT PROGRAMS

Q: HOW DOES COP DETERMINE ELIGIBILITY FOR RETIREE MEDICAL BENEFITS? WILL BURLINGTON SERVICE CARRY-OVER FOR THE DETERMINATION?

A: An employee must be age 50 and have 10 years of service when employment ends, and his or her age and service added together must total at least 65 points to be eligible for retiree benefits. To get the maximum company contribution for medical (50% of the total cost of coverage), you must have 85 points or more.

Burlington service will be recognized for this purpose, but Burlington employees on on-going regular jobs whose termination dates precede the anniversary of the closing date and Burlington employees on transition assignments, will not be eligible for company contributions to ConocoPhillips retiree medical.

The points (age + service) and percent of maximum company contribution are as follows:

POINTS -----	% OF MAXIMUM COMPANY CONTRIBUTION -----
85+	100% of Maximum Company Contribution
80-84	90% of Maximum Company Contribution
75-79	80% of Maximum Company contribution
70-74	70% of Maximum Company contribution
65-69	60% of Maximum Company contribution

The actual company contribution may be less than the percent listed above because of the 4.5% cap on increases to the company contribution. Additional information will be provided in later communications about benefits.

Q: CAN YOU EXPLAIN MORE ABOUT HOW THE COP STOCK SAVINGS FEATURE WORKS?

A: The target payout for the Stock Savings Feature semiannual allocation in the ConocoPhillips Savings Plan is $8 for every $1 invested. To receive this targeted company allocation, eligible employees deposit 1 percent of eligible pay to the Stock Savings Feature on a before-tax basis. Semiannually, as of June 30 and December 31, ConocoPhillips stock will be allocated to the employee's account based on 1 percent deposits to the Stock Savings Feature during the previous six-month allocation period. There is a formula in the ConocoPhillips Savings Plan that determines the payout. Components of the formula are the number of eligible employees for the Stock Savings Feature, total deposits to the Stock Savings Feature, shares of ConocoPhillips stock to be allocated, and the stock price. For example, for the semi-annual allocations in the period from June 2003 through December 2005, the actual allocations have ranged from $7.01 to $12.89 in company stock allocated for each dollar of participant deposits.

Q: WHAT MATCHING DOES CONOCOPHILLIPS HAVE FOR ITS 401(K) PLAN?

A: The ConocoPhillips Savings Plan has two components - the Stock Savings Feature and the Thrift Feature; and, based on the Stock Savings Feature target allocation of $8 for every $1 invested and the Thrift Feature 1.25 percent match, the total targeted ConocoPhillips match is 9.25 percent with only a 2.25 percent employee deposit required.

In the Stock Savings Feature, eligible employees deposit 1 percent of eligible pay on a before-tax basis. Semiannually, as of June 30 and December 31, ConocoPhillips stock will be allocated to the employee's account based on deposits during the previous six-month allocation period. The target payout for the Stock Savings Feature allocation is $8 for every $1 invested.

In the Thrift Feature, eligible employees deposit from 1 percent to 30 percent of eligible pay on a before-tax or an after-tax basis (or combination of both). For every $1 deposited -- up to 1.25 percent of eligible pay -- ConocoPhillips will contribute $1 to your account.

RETIREMENT / PENSION

Q: ACCORDING TO A RECENT TIME MAGAZINE ARTICLE (OCTOBER 31, 2005) EXXONMOBIL HAD A DEFICIT FUNDING AMOUNT RELATED TO ITS PENSION PLAN OF $11.5 BILLION AND ONLY HAD ENOUGH MONEY TO ISSUE RETIREMENT CHECKS COVERING 61% OF PROMISED BENEFITS. WHAT % CAN CONOCOPHILLIPS CURRENTLY COVER OF ITS PROMISED RETIREMENT PLAN BENEFITS?

A: The question implies that if a plan is not 100% funded, some promised benefits are not being paid in full, and this is not necessarily the case. A plan does not have to be 100% funded to pay all of the benefits when due. All participants' benefits are included in the plan's liabilities, but not all participants are eligible to receive immediate payments, and some are not currently vested in any benefit. All ConocoPhillips retirement benefit payments due have been and are being paid in full.

On a Projected Benefit Obligation (PBO) basis, our U.S. pensions had obligations of $3.1 billion and assets of $1.7 billion, or 55 percent funded as of 12/31/2004. PBO is based on actual years of service to date, but also includes expected future wage increases. On an Accumulated Benefit Obligation basis (ABO), our U.S. pensions had obligations of $2.4 billion and assets of $1.7 billion, or 70 percent funded as of 12/31/2004. ABO is based on actual years of service to date and actual current wages. ConocoPhillips' forecast contribution for the 2005-2009 time period was an average of $415 million per year to its U.S. pensions and other postretirement plans. In 2004, the company contributed $454 million to its U.S. pensions and other postretirement plans, of which $417 million was to its U.S. pensions. Updated information will be available in the ConocoPhillips annual Report to the Shareholders later in 2006.

INTEGRATION

Q: DOES CONOCOPHILLIPS HAVE A STANDARD SEVERANCE POLICY? IF SO, WHAT ARE ITS TERMS?

A: ConocoPhillips has a comprehensive suite of competitive compensation and benefits plans, including the ConocoPhillips Severance Pay Plan. The terms and conditions of the ConocoPhillips Severance Pay Plan generally require there be a job elimination or reduction in work force to become eligible for benefits. The ConocoPhillips Severance Pay Plan generally pays 3 weeks of salary for each year of service, with a minimum benefit of 4 weeks and a maximum benefit of 60 weeks of pay.

Q: CAN YOU EXPLAIN HOW THE COP 19/30 WORK SCHEDULE WORKS COMPARED TO BR'S 9/80 SCHEDULE?

A: ConocoPhillips offers a 19/30 program, which enables employees the flexibility of taking one personal day off each month to spend as they wish. This policy applies to regular full-time employees at sites that have adopted the 19/30 program, but it excludes retail store employees and employees who work 10- or 12-hour shifts, and employees covered by a collective bargaining agreement, unless expressly provided for by the terms of the applicable agreement. Employees must work an extra 30 minutes each day to participate in the program.
