PROXY STATEMENT

Introduction

This Proxy Statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies by Codorus Valley Bancorp, Inc., on behalf of the Board of Directors (the Board), for the 2006 Annual Meeting of Shareholders. This Proxy Statement and the related proxy card are being distributed on or about April 10, 2006.

Codorus Valley Bancorp, Inc. will bear the expense of soliciting proxies. In addition to the use of the mail, directors, officers, and employees of the Corporation and its subsidiaries may, without additional compensation, solicit proxies.

Edgar Filing: CODORUS VALLEY BANCORP INC - Form DEF 14A

The Annual Meeting of Shareholders will be held on Tuesday, May 16, 2006, at 9:00 a.m. at the Codorus Valley Corporate Center, 105 Leader Heights Road, York, Pennsylvania. Shareholders of record at the close of business on March 9, 2006 are entitled to vote at the meeting.

At the annual meeting, shareholders will vote to:

Elect two (2) Class A directors, each to serve for a three-year term; and Transact any other business that may properly come before the meeting and any adjournment or postponement of the meeting.

Proxies and Voting Procedures

You can vote your shares by completing and returning a written proxy card. You can also vote in person at the meeting. Submitting your voting instructions by returning a proxy card will not affect your right to attend the meeting and will in no way limit your right to vote at the annual meeting if you later decide to attend in person.

If your shares are held in a stock brokerage account or by a bank or other nominee, you are considered the beneficial owner of shares held in street name, and these proxy materials are being forwarded to you by your broker or nominee, which is considered, with respect to those shares, the shareholder of record. As the beneficial owner, you have the right to direct your broker how to vote and you are also invited to attend the meeting. However, because you are not the shareholder of record, you may not vote your street name shares in person at the meeting, unless you obtain a proxy executed in your favor, from the holder of record. Your broker or nominee has enclosed a voting instruction card for you to use in directing the broker or nominee how to vote your shares.

By properly completing a proxy, you appoint Mildred L. Lackey, George E. McCullough and Bernard F. Young as proxy holders to vote your shares as indicated on the proxy card. Any signed proxy card not specifying to the contrary will be voted FOR election of the nominees identified in this Proxy Statement.

You may revoke your written proxy by delivering written notice of revocation to Harry R. Swift, Esquire, Secretary of the Corporation, or by executing a later dated proxy and giving written notice of the revocation to Mr. Swift at any time before the proxy is voted at the meeting. Proxy holders will vote shares represented by proxies, if properly signed and returned to the Secretary, in accordance with instructions of shareholders.

Although the Board of Directors knows of no other business to be presented, in the event that any other matters are properly brought before the meeting, any proxy given pursuant to this solicitation will be voted in accordance with the recommendations of the Board of Directors.

If you are also a participant in the Codorus Valley Bancorp, Inc. Dividend Reinvestment and Stock Purchase Plan, the enclosed proxy will serve as a voting instruction card for your shares held in the Plan. Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., the Plan administrator, will vote your shares held in the Dividend Reinvestment and Stock Purchase Plan in the same manner as you indicate on your proxy card.

At the close of business on February 7, 2006, Codorus Valley Bancorp, Inc. had 3,160,821 shares of common stock, par value $2.50 per share, issued and outstanding. Codorus Valley Bancorp, Inc.'s Articles of Incorporation authorize the Corporation to issue up to 10,000,000 shares of common stock, par value $2.50 per share. In addition to the common stock, Codorus Valley Bancorp, Inc. has 1,000,000 shares of preferred stock authorized, no shares of which are issued and outstanding.

Quorum

A majority of the outstanding shares of common stock, represented in person or by proxy, constitutes a quorum for the conduct of business. Under Pennsylvania law and Codorus Valley Bancorp, Inc.'s Bylaws, the presence of a quorum is required for each matter to be acted upon at the meeting. Votes withheld and abstentions are counted in determining the presence of a quorum for a particular matter. Broker non-votes are not counted in determining the presence of a quorum for a particular matter as to which the broker withheld authority. Each share is entitled to one vote on all matters submitted to a vote of the shareholders. Cumulative voting rights do not exist for the election of directors. All matters to be voted upon by the shareholders require the affirmative vote of a majority of shares present, in person or by proxy, at the annual meeting, except in cases where the vote of a greater number of shares is required by law or under Codorus Valley Bancorp, Inc.'s Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws. In the case of the election of directors, the candidates receiving the highest number of votes are elected. Votes withheld from a nominee and broker non-votes will not be cast for the nominee.

GOVERNANCE OF THE CORPORATION

Our Board of Directors believes that the purpose of corporate governance is to ensure that we maximize shareholder value in a manner consistent with legal requirements and the highest standards of integrity. The Board has adopted and adheres to corporate governance practices that the Board and Leadership believe promote this purpose, are sound and represent best practices. We continually review these governance practices, Pennsylvania law (the state in which we are incorporated), the rules and listing standards of the NASDAQ National Market and SEC regulations, as well as best practices suggested by recognized governance authorities.

Currently, our Board of Directors has eight members. Under the NASDAQ National Market standards for independence, D. Reed Anderson, Esquire, M. Carol Druck, MacGregor S. Jones, Rodney L. Krebs, Dallas L. Smith, Donald H. Warner, and Michael L. Waugh, meet the standards for independence. This constitutes a substantial majority of our Board of Directors. Only independent directors serve on our Audit Committee, Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee, and Compensation Committee.

Meetings and Committees of the Board of Directors

The Board of Directors of the Corporation has an Audit Committee, a Compensation Committee, and a Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee.

Audit Committee. Members of the Audit Committee during 2005 were Dallas L. Smith, Chairman, D. Reed Anderson, Esquire, and Donald H. Warner. The Audit Committee met four times during 2005. The principal duties of the Audit Committee, as set forth in its charter, include reviewing significant audit and accounting principles, policies and practices, reviewing performance of internal auditing procedures, reviewing reports of examination received from regulatory authorities, and appointing an independent certified public accountant.

We have no Audit Committee financial expert. We are actively searching for a financial expert. However, the Board of Directors believes that each Audit Committee member has sufficient knowledge in financial and auditing matters to serve on the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee has the authority to engage legal counsel or other experts or consultants as it deems appropriate to carry out its responsibilities.

Compensation Committee. The members of the Compensation Committee are Rodney L. Krebs, Chairman, D. Reed Anderson, Esquire, M. Carol Druck, MacGregor S. Jones, Dallas L. Smith, Donald H. Warner, and Michael L. Waugh. All members of the Compensation Committee are independent (as independence is currently defined in NASD Rule 4200(a)(15)). The Compensation Committee met eight (8) times during 2005. The principal duties of the Compensation Committee include evaluating and approving compensation plans, policies, and programs for the Corporation's officers and other highly compensated employees.

Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee. Members of the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee are Rodney L. Krebs, Chairman, D. Reed Anderson, Esquire, M. Carol Druck, MacGregor S. Jones, Dallas L. Smith, Donald H. Warner, and Michael L. Waugh. All members of the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee are independent (as independence is currently defined in NASD Rule 4200(a)(15)). The Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee met once during 2005. The principal duties of the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee include developing and recommending to the Board criteria for selecting qualified director candidates, identifying individuals qualified to become Board members, evaluating and selecting, or recommending to the Board, director nominees for each election of directors, considering committee member qualifications, appointment and removal, recommending codes of conduct and codes of ethics applicable to the Corporation, and providing oversight in the evaluation of the Board and each committee.

Director Nomination Process. The Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee is responsible for identifying and evaluating individuals qualified to become members of the Board of Directors, and to recommend such individuals to the Board of Directors for their consideration and nomination. The Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee, and the Board of Directors, endeavor to recruit and employ Board members that demonstrate intellectual capacity, strong interpersonal skills, good business instinct, objectivity and the highest level of personal and professional integrity, on an individual and collective basis. When evaluating current members of the Board of Directors and prospective candidates for the Board of Directors, the Committee seeks to balance the skill sets and attributes of existing Board members with the need for other complimentary diverse skills, talents and qualities of Board candidates that will complement the existing Board of Directors and position the Corporation to successfully implement its strategic vision.

In addition to requiring that each existing director and candidate for nomination possess unquestionable character, and a commitment to contribute to the success of the Corporation and the stewardship of the community, the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee's evaluation of director candidates includes an assessment of issues and factors regarding the individual's: education, business experience, accounting and financial expertise, age, diversity, reputation, civic and community relationships and knowledge and experience in matters that impact diversified community financial institutions. The Committee will also take into account the director candidate's ability to devote adequate time to Corporate matters, including being prepared for and sufficiently participating in all Board of Directors and committee meetings. When the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee is considering current members of the Board of Directors for nomination for reelection, the Committee also considers prior performance, as well as meeting attendance records.

The Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee will consider recommendations by Codorus Valley Bancorp, Inc. shareholders of qualified director candidates for possible nomination by the Board. Shareholders may recommend qualified director candidates by writing to:

Harry R. Swift, Esq.

Corporate Secretary

Codorus Valley Bancorp, Inc.

P. O Box 2887

York, PA 17405-2887

Submissions must include information regarding a candidate's: citizenship, age, background, business and personal addresses, qualifications, experience, principal occupation or employment, directorships and other positions held by the candidate in business, charitable and community organizations and his/her willingness to serve as a member of the Board of Directors. Based on a preliminary assessment of the candidate's qualifications, the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee may conduct interviews with, and request additional information from, the candidate.

The current practice of the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee is to identify potential director candidates through a variety of sources. The Committee considers recommendations made by current or former directors or members of executive management. Potential candidates also may be identified through contacts in the business, civic, academic, legal and non-profit communities. The Chairman of the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee will determine how to approach director candidates.

Regarding new director candidates, the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee will evaluate whether the nominee is independent, as independence is defined under applicable NASDAQ Rules, and whether the nominee meets the qualifications for director outlined above as well as any special qualifications applicable to membership on any committee on which the nominee may be appointed to serve if elected. A majority of the Board of Directors must meet the criteria for independence established by the NASDAQ Stock Market and the Committee will consider any conflicts of interest that might impair that independence. Currently, seven of the eight members of the Board of Directors have been determined to be independent as defined by NASDAQ.

Edgar Filing: CODORUS VALLEY BANCORP INC - Form DEF 14A

Under its current practices, there are no differences in how the Corporate Governance and Nomination Committee evaluates a nominee for director based on whether the nominee is recommended by the Committee or by a shareholder.

The Board of Directors. The Board of Directors of Codorus Valley Bancorp, Inc. met fifteen (15) times during 2005. There were a total of twenty-seven (27) meetings of the Board of Directors of PeoplesBank, A Codorus Valley Company in 2005. All directors attended at least 75% of the meetings of the Board of Directors and of the various committees on which they served. While the Corporation has no formal policy in place, Directors are strongly encouraged to attend the Annual Meeting of Shareholders. All of our Directors attended the 2005 Annual Meeting of Shareholders and we expect that they will all attend this year's meeting.

Communicating with Directors. The Board of Directors has established a process for shareholders and other interested parties to communicate directly with the Chairman of the Board of Directors or other non-management directors individually or collectively, by submitting their written correspondence to the following address:

Chairman of the Board of Directors (or name of individual, independent director)

c/o Harry R. Swift, Esq.

Corporate Secretary

Codorus Valley Bancorp, Inc.

P. O. Box 2887

York, PA 17405-2887

The Corporate Secretary may facilitate such direct communications with the Board of Directors or individual, independent directors by reviewing and summarizing such communications. All such communications will be referred to the Chairman of the Board of Directors or individual, independent directors for consideration unless otherwise instructed by the Board of Directors.

Nomination of Directors

Article 10, Section 10.1 of Codorus Valley Bancorp, Inc.'s Bylaws requires that nominations, including those made by or on behalf of the existing management of Codorus Valley Bancorp, Inc., be made pursuant to timely notice in writing to the Secretary. To be timely, a shareholder's notice must be delivered to or received at the principal executive offices of the Corporation not less than 90 days prior to the one year anniversary date of the preceding meeting of shareholders called to elect directors. The notice must also provide the specific information required by Section 10.1. The Board is required to determine whether nominations have been made in accordance with the requirements of the Bylaws. If they determine that a nomination was not made in accordance with the Bylaws, the shareholder will be given an opportunity to cure any deficiency in accordance with the Bylaws. You may obtain a copy of the Corporation's Bylaws by writing to Harry R. Swift, Esquire, Secretary, Codorus Valley Bancorp, Inc., Codorus Valley Corporate Center, 105 Leader Heights Road, York, Pennsylvania 17403. A copy of our Bylaws has been filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission as Exhibit 3(ii) to Form 8-K filed October 14, 2005.

Submission of Shareholder Proposals

If a shareholder wants us to include a proposal in our Proxy Statement for presentation at our 2007 Annual Meeting of Shareholders, the proposal must be received by us at our principal executive offices at Codorus Valley Bancorp, Inc., Codorus Valley Corporate Center, 105 Leader Heights Road, York, PA 17403 no later than December 11, 2006.

If a shareholder proposal is submitted to the Corporation after December 11, 2006, it is considered untimely; and, although the proposal may be considered at the annual meeting, it may not be included in the Corporation's 2007 Proxy Statement. The proposal must be delivered to our principal executive offices at Codorus Valley Bancorp, Inc., Codorus Valley Corporate Center, 105 Leader Heights Road, York, PA 17403, to the attention of our Corporate Secretary. We are not required to include any proposal received after December 11, 2006 in our proxy materials for the 2007 Annual Meeting.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Codorus Valley Bancorp, Inc.'s Bylaws provide that the Board of Directors consists of not less than five (5) or more than twenty-five (25) persons. The Board of Directors is also divided into three classes. Each class consists, as nearly as possible, of one-third of the directors. The Bylaws also provide that the directors of each class be elected for a term of three years, so that the term of office of one class of directors expires at the annual meeting each year. The Board of Directors determines the number of directors in each class.

A majority of the Board of Directors may increase the number of directors between meetings of the shareholders. Any vacancy occurring on the Board of Directors, whether due to an increase in the number of directors, resignation, retirement, death, or any other reason, may be filled by appointment by the remaining directors. Any director who is appointed to fill a vacancy holds office until the expiration of the term of the class of directors to which he or she was appointed. There is a mandatory retirement provision in the Bylaws that provides for the retirement of directors at age 70.

The Board of Directors has fixed the number of directors at eight. There are two nominees for the Board of Directors for election at the 2006 Annual Meeting. The Board of Directors has nominated the following two persons for election to the Board of Directors each for a three year term:

Nominees for Class A Directors

For a Term of Three Years Until 2009

Rodney L. Krebs

Dallas L. Smith

Each of the nominees presently serves as a director.

In the event that any of the nominees are unable to accept nomination or election, proxy holders will vote proxies given pursuant to this solicitation in favor of other persons recommended by management. The Board of Directors has no reason to believe that any of its nominees will be unable to serve as a director if elected.

401(k) Retirement Plan

The Bank maintains and sponsors a defined contribution 401(k) savings and investment plan. The 401(k) plan is administered by a committee which is appointed by the Board of Directors. The 401(k) plan is subject to the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 and to the regulations promulgated thereunder. Each Bank employee who attains the age of 21 and successfully completes any probationary period(s), and if a part time employee completes 1,000 hours of service per year, may participate in the 401(k) plan. The agreement also contains a non-competition provision and a confidentiality provision.

Under the terms of his employment agreement, Mr. Miller serves as the President and Chief Executive Officer of the Corporation and of the Bank and as a member of the Boards of Directors of the Corporation and of the Bank. The agreement with Mr. Miller provides that if his employment is terminated by the Corporation or the Bank due to death, disability or for cause, then he is entitled to the full annual direct salary and any accrued benefits through the date of termination. If Mr. Miller's employment is terminated by the Corporation or the Bank other than pursuant to death, disability or for cause, then he is entitled to his full annual direct salary from the date of termination through the last day of the term of the agreement, or an amount equal to his current annual direct salary, whichever is greater and a continuation of employee benefits for one year. If Mr. Miller terminates his employment for good reason, then he is entitled to an amount equal to his direct annual salary and a continuation of employee benefits for one year. If Mr. Miller's employment is terminated as a result of a change in control of the Corporation and the Bank, he is entitled to receive a lump sum payment equal to three times his then current direct annual salary and the highest bonus paid to him with respect to one of the last three years of employment and will continue his eligibility to participate in all employee benefit plans and programs in which he was previously entitled to participate for a period of three years.

In addition, the Bank provided a director approved group term life insurance replacement plan for the benefit of the Corporation's directors. Independent Directors' Stock Option Plan

The Corporation maintains the Codorus Valley Bancorp, Inc. 1998 Independent Directors' Stock Option Plan. The Corporation's shareholders approved the plan at the 1998 annual meeting and the Board of Directors originally reserved 100,000 shares, or 140,709 shares as of December 31, 2005 as adjusted for stock dividends, for issuance under the plan. The purposes of the plan are to advance the Corporation's and the Bank's development, growth and financial condition by providing additional incentives to non-employee members of the Corporation's Board of Directors by encouraging them to acquire stock ownership in the Corporation and to secure, retain and motivate non-employee directors.

Directors who are not employees of the Corporation or its subsidiaries are eligible to receive awards under the plan. Pursuant to the terms of the plan, each non-employee director who attended at least 75% of the total number of Board of Directors and committee meetings during the previous fiscal year is granted non-qualified stock options at each annual reorganization meeting of the Corporation. The first award under the plan was made at the 1998 organization meeting. The purchase price of common stock subject to each stock option granted is the fair market value at the time of grant. The recipient may exercise these stock options for ten years from the grant date. As of December 31, 2005, the Corporation had granted all 140,709 stock options available for issuance under this plan, as adjusted for applicable stock dividends and/or stock splits. Variable Compensation

We award performance bonuses to provide direct cash incentives to executive officers and all other employees. Variable compensation payments to executive officers and the leadership team are determined by the Compensation Committee, based upon an assessment of the Corporation's actual financial performance, as well as after considering other non-financial factors that directly impact long-term shareholder value of the Corporation and subjective measurement of individual performance of each employee. The Committee also considers the performance of the Corporation's common stock on the NASDAQ National Market; however, the Committee does not make its recommendations based solely on the Corporation's financial or market performance.

2005 Compensation for the Chief Executive Officer

The Compensation Committee's charter authorizes the Committee to establish the compensation for our Chief Executive Officer, Larry J. Miller. In general, the Committee considers the Corporation's financial performance, peer group financial performance and market-based compensation data when making decisions about Mr. Miller's compensation. REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors is comprised of directors who meet NASDAQ National Market standards for independence. The Audit Committee operates under a written charter adopted by the Board of Directors in February 2004.

The Audit Committee met with management periodically during the year to consider the adequacy of the Corporation's internal controls and the objectivity of its financial reporting. The Audit Committee discussed these matters with the Corporation's independent certified public accountants.

The Audit Committee met privately at its regular meetings with both the independent certified public accountants and the internal auditors, each of whom has unrestricted access to the Audit Committee.

The Audit Committee appointed and the Board approved Beard Miller Company LLP as the independent certified public accountants for the Corporation after reviewing the firm's performance and independence from management.

Management has primary responsibility for the Corporation's financial statements and the overall reporting process, including the Corporation's system of internal controls. The independent certified public accountants audited the annual financial statements prepared by management, expressed an opinion as to whether those financial statements fairly present the financial position, results of operations and cash flows of the Corporation in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles and discussed with the Audit Committee any issues they believe should be raised with the Audit Committee.

The Audit Committee reviewed with management and Beard Miller Company LLP, the Corporation's independent certified public accountants, the Corporation's audited financial statements and met separately with both management and Beard Miller Company LLP to discuss and review those financial statements and reports prior to issuance. Management has represented, and Beard Miller Company LLP has confirmed, to the Audit Committee, that the financial statements were prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

The Audit Committee received from and discussed with Beard Miller Company LLP the written disclosure and the letter required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committees). These items relate to that firm's independence from the Corporation. The Audit Committee also discussed with Beard Miller Company LLP matters required to be discussed by the Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61 (Communication with Audit Committees) of the Auditing Standards Board of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants to the extent applicable. The Audit Committee monitored certified public accountant independence and reviewed audit and non-audit services performed by Beard Miller Company LLP.

The Audit Committee pre-approves all audit and permissible non-audit services provided by the independent certified public accountants. These services may include audit services, audit related services, tax services, and other services. The Audit Committee has adopted a policy for the pre-approval of services provided by the independent certified public accountants. Under the policy, pre-approval is generally provided for up to one year and any pre-approval is detailed as to the particular service or category of particular services on a case-by-case basis. The Audit committee approved all fees, including tax fees, during 2005 and 2004.

The Audit Committee has considered whether, and determined that, the provision of the non-audit services is compatible with maintaining Beard Miller Company LLP's independence.
