Item 5.05 Amendments to the Registrant's Code of Ethics, or Waiver of a Provision of the Code of Ethics

At a regularly scheduled meeting of its Board of Directors held January 10, 2012, the Board of Directors of PeoplesBank, a Codorus Valley Company (the "Bank"), the principal subsidiary of Codorus Valley Bancorp, Inc., approved Springfield Contractors, an entity with which the Bank's Chairman, Rodney Krebs, is affiliated and of which he is an officer, to perform certain snow removal and general work for a residential subdivision which the Bank acquired in partial satisfaction of a defaulted loan.

The Bank's Code of Ethics provides that each person subject to the Code shall avoid at all times actual or apparent conflicts between private and Bank interests, and that conflicts of interest include situations where a person has an interest that may make it difficult to perform his or her work for the Bank objectively and effectively. The hiring of Springfield Contractors by the Bank presents such a situation, and the Board, at its meeting, approved a waiver of its ethics policy for this situation. The Bank believes that Springfield Contractor's charges are competitive and has approved the expenditure of not more than $10,000 for the completion of such general work. The award of the snow plowing contract was based on the fact that Springfield Contractors is likely to provide service to the subdivision residents more promptly than other potential bidders and that the bid was for the same amount as the 2010-2011 winter season.
