Item 2. Identity and Background

This Schedule 13D is filed by Caja de Ahorros y Pensiones de Barcelona ("la Caixa"), a savings bank organized under the laws of the Kingdom of Spain. The principal business address for la Caixa is Avenida Diagonal 621-629, 08028 Barcelona, Spain. La Caixa's principal business is banking and financial services.

During the last five years, neither la Caixa nor, to the knowledge of la Caixa, any person named in Schedule I, has been (a) convicted in a criminal proceeding (excluding traffic violations or similar misdemeanors) or (b) a party to a civil proceeding of a judicial or administrative body of competent jurisdiction and as a result of such proceeding were or are subject to a judgment, decree or final order enjoining future violations of, or prohibiting or mandating activities subject to, federal or state securities laws or finding any violation with respect to such laws.

Item 3. Source and Amount of Funds or Other Consideration

La Caixa paid 971,584,551 Spanish Pesetas ((euro) 5,839,340.75) from working capital for 488,187 Ordinary Shares acquired on March 20, 1996 (representing 0.05% of the Issuer's share capital as of that date). Below is a chart reflecting subsequent acquisitions by la Caixa in the Issuer's securities.

Date of Acquisition	Number of Shares Acquired	Price Paid	Increase in Percentage of Ownership
March 19, 2004	37,500,000	As described below in Item 4	0.75%
March 23, 2004	37,500,000	As described below in Item 4	0.75%

4. Purpose of Transaction

For purposes of this Item 4, the term "Relevant Date" shall mean each of March 20, 1996, March 19, 2004 and March 23, 2004, and the term "Relevant Dates" shall refer collectively to such dates.

La Caixa owns Ordinary Shares of the Issuer for investment purposes. All information reported in this Schedule 13D is accurate as of each Relevant Date and as of the date hereof, unless otherwise indicated. At various points during the period beginning March 20, 1996 and ending on the date hereof,, information regarding la Caixa's ownership position in the shares of the Issuer was disclosed in the annual reports of the Issuer filed on Form 20-F and in the annual reports of la Caixa and in other filings of la Caixa with la Comision Nacional del Mercado de Valores (CNMV).

On March 20, 1996 la Caixa acquired 488,187 Ordinary Shares of the Issuer representing 0.05% of the Issuer's share capital as of that date, for investment purposes. In 1996 la Caixa followed its policy of investing in sectors not related with the financing business. At this time, la Caixa invested in real estate projects. However, as soon as inflation in Spain stabilised, the investment policy of la Caixa focused on other economic sectors; mainly services, energy and telecommunications. In this regard and, taking into account its security, stability and profitability criteria, la Caixa invested in companies such as Telefonica, S.A. As a result of such acquisition, on March 20, 1996 the direct and indirect interest of la Caixa in the share capital of the Issuer was 5.01%.

During 2000, 2001, 2002 and 2003 the interest of la Caixa in the share capital of the Issuer was diluted mainly as a result of several capital increases approved by the General Shareholders' Meeting with exclusion of the pre-emption right to Ordinary Shares (during that period there were certain diminution acquisition and transfer transactions). As a consequence thereof, its interest in the share capital of the Issuer decreased progressively from 5.01% to 4.989% on February 2000, and to 3.513% on March 2004.

On March 19, 2004 and on March 23, 2004 la Caixa executed equity linked swap agreements with Morgan Stanley & Co. International Limited and Societe Generale, respectively, with maturity date on May 2, 2005 (subsequently extended until May 2, 2006) and March 26, 2007, respectively, each of them relating to 37,500,000 ordinary shares of the Issuer (together representing 1.5% of the Issuer's share capital). By virtue of these equity linked swap agreements, la Caixa undertook to pay to Morgan Stanley & Co. International Limited and to Societe Generale, respectively, an amount equivalent to all economic rights derived from the ownership of 75,000,000 shares (37,500,000 and 37,500,000 shares, respectively). As a consequence of the execution of both equity linked swap agreements, on March 23, 2004 la Caixa increased its interest in the Issuer from 3.51% up to 5.026%. La Caixa is entitled to ask for the total or partial cancellation of each equity linked swap agreement, under normal market conditions and subject, however, to certain limitations concerning prior notice periods and except during certain days before actual date of dividend payments. Both equity linked swap agreements shall be automatically extended for additional successive annual periods subject, however, to the right for either la Caixa or Morgan Stanley & Co. International Limited and Societe Generale, respectively, to re-negotiate the terms of the transaction.

On May 31, 2005 the General Shareholders' Meeting of the Issuer approved the distribution of the Share Premium Reserve among its shareholders by means of the assignment to its shareholders of treasury stock. As a consequence thereof, la Caixa received 9,963,829 shares of the Issuer. Additionally, the General Shareholders' Meeting approved the reduction of the Issuer's share capital by means of the redemption of 34,760,964 shares. As a consequence of these resolutions la Caixa increased its interest in the Issuer up to 5.264%.

On July 25 and July 26, 2005 la Caixa partially cancelled the equity linked swap agreements executed with Morgan Stanley & Co. International Limited and Societe Generale, respectively, and physically delivered a number of shares of the Issuer equivalent to the shares assigned to la Caixa by virtue of the Share Premium Reserve distribution (i.e. 9,963,829 shares of the Issuer). After delivery of those shares to Morgan Stanley & Co. International Limited and to Societe Generale, the interest of la Caixa in Telefonica, S.A. was 5.062%.

Prior to May 8, 1996, two la Caixa representatives were appointed to the Board of Directors of the Issuer. Mr. Antonio Massanell was appointed on April 24, 1995, and Mr. Isidro Faine was appointed on June 30, 1995. Since that time, and as of each Relevant Date, Mr. Antonio Massanell and Mr. Isidro Faine have remained on the Board of Directors of the Issuer.

Except as set forth below, as of each of the Relevant Dates and as of the date hereof, la Caixa did not and does not have any plans or proposals that relate to the following: (a) the acquisition of additional securities of the Issuer or the disposition of securities of the Issuer, except with respect to la ownership of approximately 5% of the share capital of the Issuer, and except for the shares subject to delivery upon termination of the equity linked swap agreements (i.e. currently 68,036,171 shares representing 1.383% of the Issuer's share capital); (b) an extraordinary corporate transaction, such as a merger, reorganization or liquidation, involving the Issuer or any of its subsidiaries; (c) a sale or transfer of a material amount of assets of the Issuer or any of its subsidiaries; (d) any change in the board of directors or management of the Issuer; (e) material changes in the present capitalization or dividend policy of the Issuer; (f) other material changes in the Issuer's business or corporate structure; (g) any changes in the Issuer's charter, bylaws or instruments corresponding thereto or other actions which may impede the acquisition of control of the Issuer; (h) causing a class of securities of the Issuer to be delisted from a national securities exchange or to cease to be authorized to be quoted in an inter-dealer quotation system of a registered national securities association; (i) a class of equity securities of the Issuer becoming eligible for termination of registration pursuant to Section 12(g)(4) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934; (j) or any actions similar to those enumerated above.

Item 5. Interest in Securities of the Issuer

As of the date hereof, la Caixa may be deemed the beneficial owner of 249,095,736 ordinary shares, comprised of (i) 161,913,810 shares owned by Caixa Holding, S.A.U., a fully owned subsidiary of la Caixa, (ii) 68,036,171 shares acquired through the la Caixa equity swap agreements (see Item 4), and (iii) 19,145,755 shares held by Caixa de Barcelona Seguros de Vida, S.A. de Seguros y Reaseguros. Caixa Holding, S.A.U. holds all the shares of Caixa de Barcelona Seguros de Vida, S.A. de Seguros y Reaseguros except for one share, which is held by Caixa Corp, S.A., a 99.9%-owned subsidiary of la Caixa. This amount does not include 1,370,330 shares (representing 0.028% of the Issuer's total share capital) acquired by la Caixa in execution of agreements for the establishment of an employees' stock options plan. La Caixa is not entitled to exercise any political or economic rights, nor to transfer or in any way dispose of these shares.

La Caixa and its subsidiaries Caixa Holding, S.A.U. and Caixa de Barcelona Seguros de Vida, S.A. de Seguros y Reaseguros may have engaged in diminution transactions in the Ordinary Shares during the 60 days prior to March 23, 2004 and the 60 days prior to the date of this filing. No other person has the right to receive or the power to direct the receipt of dividends from, or the proceeds from the sale of, the ordinary shares directly and indirectly owned by la Caixa, without prejudice to the obligations assumed by la Caixa under the equity linked swap agreements, as described in Item 4 above.

La Caixa hereby disclaims any beneficial ownership of the securities of the Issuer which are the topic of this Schedule 13D.

Item 6. Contracts, Arrangements, Understandings or Relationships with Respect to Securities of the Issuer
