PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE PUBLICATION

CGI building upon manufacturing savvy in acquiring IMPLETECH International

Toronto, Ontario, July 9, 2002 - CGI Group Inc. (CGI) (TSX: GIB.A; NYSE: GIB;) today announced that it closed the acquisition of privately-held IMPLETECH International (IMPLETECH) with revenues valued at CDN$5 million. Founded in 1989, IMPLETECH offered systems integration and consulting services within the manufacturing sector with a focus on enterprise resource planning (ERP) implementation.

Twenty professionals, located mostly in Toronto, have joined CGI adding to its ERP practice. IMPLETECH serves over 100 clients within the automotive, food and beverage, pharmaceutical and industrial/electronic sectors.

"In developing strong client relationships we wanted to take it one step further by being able to provide outsourcing services. To do so, teaming up with CGI makes sense. Not only will we add seasoned professionals to the expanded team, we can now leverage CGI's offering to further serve our clients," said Steve Wargalla, founder and former president of IMPLETECH.

Manufacturing, retail and distribution is one of CGI's six key vertical sectors accounting for 15% of its total revenue. With practices in such cities as Toronto, Montreal, Houston, Andover, Nashville, Chicago as well as in Atlantic and Western Canada, CGI provides end-to-end value chain services and solutions to clients such as UCAR, Pechiney, Lafarge, Domtar, and Alcan.

Michael Roach, president and chief operating officer for CGI added: "Our new professionals possess deep industry knowledge, something that adds greatly to our competitive edge and sets us apart. We look forward to adding to our growing ERP practice. Our goal, as Canada's IT services company, is to know and understand our client's challenges and in doing so, better meet their specific business needs."
