CGI provides guidance for fiscal 2003

Montreal, September 25, 2002 - CGI Group Inc. (CGI) (TSX: GIB.A; NYSE: GIB) today issued revenue and earnings guidance for its fiscal year ending September 30, 2003, following yesterday's approval by the board of directors of its operating and budget plan for the coming year. Based on what is known today about market conditions and demand for IT and Business Process Services outsourcing, CGI expects base revenue for its 2003 fiscal year to be between CDN$2.4 and CDN$2.6 billion and net earnings per share to be in the range of CDN$0.43 to CDN$0.47. This guidance excludes the impact of any acquisition or large outsourcing contract contributing more than $100 million per year in revenues.

"We believe that CGI is well positioned to continue growing and that the current environment is favorable to us in a number of ways," said Serge Godin, chairman and CEO of CGI. "CGI generates a significant proportion of its revenue from Canada, where market conditions remain stable. Our outsourcing clients, which represent approximately 70% of total revenue, feed demand for additional systems integration and consulting services. A significant proportion of our SI&C work is with various government entities, a market where demand has remained solid. Going forward, CGI will continue to excel in all markets in Canada. In the US and Europe, we will continue to focus on the middle market, where demand is strong and companies continue to sign IT or BPS outsourcing contracts valued between $25 and $200 million per year."

CGI will issue its audited financial results for fiscal 2002 on Tuesday, November 5, 2002, before the markets open.
