PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Form 10-K, Form 20-F, Form 11-K, Form 10-Q, Form N-SAR or the transition report portion thereof could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

On September 27, 2004, we engaged Grant Thornton LLP as our new independent registered public accounting firm to review our financial statements. Because we are still in the process of finalizing our financial statements and Grant Thornton is still in the process of reviewing them, Grant Thornton has advised us that it will be unable to complete by November 9, 2004 their SAS 100 review of the third quarter results to be included in our Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarter ended September 30, 2004 ("Form 10-Q"). Accordingly, we will not be in a position to file timely our Form 10-0.

Because these matters could not be accomplished for timely filing without unreasonable effort and expense, we respectfully request an extension of the filing date of our Form 10-Q. We will file the Form 10-Q once it is completed and our independent registered public accounting firm complete their SAS 100 review.
