the New York Stock Exchange Market on the day before the date of the Company's annual meeting of stockholders. Annual retainer payments are pro-rated based on the date an independent director joins the Board of Directors during any year.

The Chairman of the Audit Committee will continue to receive a retainer of $7,500, and the Chairman of each of the Compensation and Management Development Committee and the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will continue to receive a retainer of $5,000. Independent directors will also continue to receive $1,000 for each Board and committee meeting they attend; provided that independent directors will receive an additional $1,000 if any Board or committee meeting or group of meetings extends longer than one day.

The Company reimburses all independent directors for expenses incurred to attend meetings of the Board or its committees promptly after such expenses are incurred and pays the annual retainer promptly after each annual meeting of stockholders.

In addition, non-independent Directors Arthur S. Sills and Peter J. Sills will continue to receive $1,000 for each Board meeting they attend, reimbursement for meeting expenses and will be covered under the Company's medical plan. Lawrence I. Sills, being an officer of the Company, will not receive any payment for the fulfillment of his directorial responsibilities.

In addition, pursuant to the Company's 2004 Independent Outside Directors' Stock Option Plan, the Outside Directors (as defined therein) each will receive a stock option grant of up to 2,000 shares of the Company's common stock with an exercise price per share equal to the average of the high and low prices of the Company's common stock on the New York Stock Exchange Market on the day before the date of the Company's annual meeting of stockholders.
