Proxy Statement - March 18, 2005

We are providing you with this proxy statement and the enclosed proxy card in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the board of directors of Rogers Corporation for the Annual Meeting of Shareholders to be held on Thursday, April 28, 2005, at 10:30 A.M. at the Hilton Garden Inn Hartford South/Glastonbury, 85 Glastonbury Boulevard, Glastonbury, Connecticut.

If you are a shareholder of record as of the close of business on March 3, 2005, you are entitled to vote at the meeting and any adjournment thereof. As of that date, 16,373,519 shares of capital stock, $1 par value per share, of Rogers were outstanding. You are entitled to one vote for each share owned. Execution of a proxy will not in any way affect your right to attend the meeting and vote in person. Any shareholder submitting a proxy has the right to revoke it any time before it is exercised by filing a written revocation with the Secretary of Rogers, by executing a proxy with a later date, or by attending and voting at the meeting.

If you sign your proxy card, but do not give voting instructions, the proxy will be voted: (1) FOR the election of the nominees to the board of directors shown under the heading "NOMINEES FOR DIRECTOR", (2) FOR the approval of the Company's 2005 Equity Compensation Plan, and (3) FOR the ratification of Ernst & Young LLP as the independent registered public accounting firm of Rogers Corporation for the fiscal year ending January 1, 2006.

The presence, in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of the shares of capital stock entitled to vote at the meeting is necessary to constitute a quorum. Abstentions and broker "non-votes" are counted as present and entitled to vote for purposes of determining a quorum. Neither abstentions nor broker "non-votes" will be considered votes properly cast at the meeting. Accordingly, because the approval of each of the proposals is based on the votes properly cast at the meeting, neither abstentions nor broker "non-votes" will have any effect upon the outcome of voting with respect to any of the proposals. A broker "non-vote" occurs when a nominee holding shares for a beneficial owner does not vote on a particular proposal because the nominee does not have discretionary voting power for that particular item and has not received instructions from the beneficial owner. Under the rules of the stock exchange applicable to member firms, brokers will have discretionary authority to vote shares held in their name for the election of directors and for the ratification of the Company's independent registered public accounting firm even if they do not receive instructions from the beneficial owners.

With regard to each of the approval of the Company's 2005 Equity Compensation Plan and the ratification of the Company's independent registered public accounting firm, votes may be cast for or against such proposal or you may abstain from voting on the proposal. With regard to the election of directors, votes may be cast for all nominees or withheld from all nominees or any particular nominee. Votes withheld in connection with the election of one or more directors will not be counted as votes cast for such individuals. Those nominees receiving the nine highest numbers of votes at the meeting will be elected, even if such votes do not constitute a majority of the votes cast.

We do not expect any matters other than those set forth in the accompanying Notice of Annual Meeting of Shareholders to be presented at the meeting. If any other matter should be presented at the meeting upon which a vote properly may be taken, shares represented by all proxies properly executed and received will be voted with respect to this matter in accordance with the judgment of the persons named as proxies.

This proxy statement and the accompanying proxy are first being mailed to you on or about March 25, 2005. In addition, we are enclosing a copy of our 2004 annual report.

All of the nominees are currently directors of Rogers and were elected to their present term of office at the April 2004 Annual Meeting of Shareholders.
