ITEM 5. OTHER EVENTS

As we have previously disclosed in several filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, Constellation Real Estate, Inc. ("Constellation") sold 8,876,172 of our Common Shares of beneficial interest (the "Common Shares") in a public offering on March 5, 2002. As a result, Constellation, which had been our largest shareholder, is no longer a shareholder. There has been no change in our executive officers or our Board of Trustees and we do not anticipate that our operations will be affected as a result of the sale.

Edgar Filing: CORPORATE OFFICE PROPERTIES TRUST - Form 8-K

Two members of our Board of Trustees, Thomas F. Brady and Steven D. Kesler, were previously nominated by Constellation pursuant to its rights as a holder of the one outstanding Series A Convertible Preferred Share of beneficial interest (the "Series A Preferred Share"). As a result of the conversion of the Series A Preferred Share into a Common Share in connection with the offering, these rights terminated, although Messrs. Brady and Kesler are expected to continue to serve until the end of their respective terms, which both expire in 2003.
