Item 2.06 Material Impairments.

On July 20, 2006, First Bancshares, Inc. (Company), the holding company for First Home Savings Bank (Bank), announced that the Bank determined that there had been adverse developments with respect to certain loans in the Bank s portfolio. The determination was made following a standard internal review of the Bank s major loan credits. As a result of the review, the Company determined that it would increase its allowance of loan losses by $407,000 for the quarter ended June 30, 2006. In addition, during the same period, the Bank recorded a $234,000 loss on land owned for future expansion and a $161,000 loss on sales of securities. The additional allowance and losses on the land and sales of securities will result in a decrease in the Company s earnings of $506,000 on an after tax basis for the quarter ended June 30, 2006. For further information see the Company s press release attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1, which is incorporated herein by reference.

REPORTS INCREASE IN RESERVES AND LOSS ON LAND

Mountain Grove, Missouri (July 20, 2006) First Bancshares, Inc. (Nasdaq GM - FstBksh: FBSI) (the Company), the parent company of First Home Savings Bank, Mountain Grove, Missouri (Bank), today announced that it would increase its allowance for loan losses by $407,000 for the quarter ended June 30, 2006. The increase is in connection with a standard internal review by the Bank of major loan credits in its loan portfolio. New information was obtained on two borrowers which resulted in a concern over the ability to repay certain outstanding loans as well as the value of collateral securing these loans.

Also during the quarter ended June 30, 2006, the Bank recorded a $235,000 loss on land owned for future expansion. The expense was to write down the original purchase price and capitalized development costs to market value based on a third party appraisal.

In order to better position earnings on investment securities, the Bank sold $7.0 million of securities at a loss of $161,000. The proceeds will be reinvested in higher yielding investments.

As a result of the above items, the Company s earnings for the quarter ended June 30, 2006 will be reduced by $506,000 on an after tax basis for the quarter.

First Home Savings Bank is an FDIC-insured savings bank chartered by the State of Missouri that conducts business from its home office in Mountain Grove, Missouri and ten full service branch facilities in Marshfield, Ava, Gainesville, Sparta, Theodosia, Crane, Galena, Kisse Mills, Rockaway Beach and Springfield, Missouri.
