RISK FACTORS

You should consider carefully the following factors, as well as the other information set forth in this prospectus and the documents incorporated by reference into this prospectus, prior to making an investment in our common stock. If any of the following risks and uncertainties actually occur, our business, financial condition or operating results may be materially and adversely affected. In this event, the trading price of our common stock may decline and you may lose part or all of your investment.

RISKS RELATED TO THE FINANCIAL SERVICES BUSINESS

There are many entities that now provide financial services similar to the products we offer some of which are not subject to the extensive regulation that we are subject to.

Competition in the financial services business comes not only from bank holding companies, commercial banks, savings banks and savings and loan associations but also from consumer finance companies, credit unions, factors, mortgage brokers, insurance companies, securities brokerage firms, money market mutual funds and private lenders. Many of the non-bank financial service companies that we compete against are not subject to the extensive regulation we are subject to both as a bank holding company and, through Patriot National Bank, as a bank.

Government regulation, monetary policy and other economic factors may make it difficult for us to attract deposits or to make loans.

From time to time, there are changes in governmental economic and monetary policy and banking and credit regulations. Changes in these policies may make it more difficult for us to attract deposits and to make loans and may also affect the demand for our other services. The rates of interest payable on deposits and chargeable on loans may be subject to governmental regulation and are affected by fiscal policy as well as national, state and local economic conditions.

Changes in interest rates may reduce our net interest income because the interest rates we can charge on loans may not increase or decrease at the same time, or to the same degree, as the interest we need to pay to attract deposits.

Our results of operations depend to a large extent on the level of our net interest income. "Net interest income" is the difference between interest income from interest-earning assets (such as loans and investments) and interest expense on interest-bearing liabilities (such as deposits and borrowings). If interest rate fluctuations cause our cost of funds to increase faster than our yield on interest-bearing assets, our net interest income will be reduced. To the extent that our assets include fixed rate deposits and loans, we may not be able to respond to interest rate fluctuations to maintain our net interest income. In addition, fluctuations in interest rates may affect the value of our fixed rate assets.

Both we and our subsidiary bank are subject to regulations concerning the level of our capital. If we do not maintain appropriate levels of capital, we could be subject to higher deposit insurance premiums and other sanctions from our regulatory authorities.

To be considered "well-capitalized," a bank holding company generally must maintain a leverage capital ratio of at least 5%, a Tier 1 risk-based capital ratio of at least 6% and a total risk-based capital ratio of at least 10%. If we fail to maintain these minimum ratios, we may no longer be classified as "well-capitalized." A failure to be "well-capitalized" could have a negative effect on our ability to conduct our business and could subject us to additional regulatory scrutiny or requirements. If we are not classified as "well-capitalized," our premiums for deposit insurance would also increase significantly.

RISKS RELATED TO OUR BUSINESS AND STRATEGY

Our business is to operate a community bank. Our assets at June 30, 2002 were approximately $222 million, and our total shareholders' equity at June 30, 2002 was approximately $18 million. Because of our size and capitalization, we are not able to offer all of the products and services that our larger competitors can offer.

We compete not only with other community banks in our service area but also with banks or bank subsidiaries of bank holding companies that are substantially bigger than we are both in total assets and in shareholders' equity. These larger banks can offer products and services that it is impossible or impracticable for us to provide. For example, the principal amount of loans we can make to any one borrower is limited based on the amount of our capital, and we do not provide trust services. Our business and results of operations may be adversely affected because there are products and services we do not offer.

Our strategy has been to offer a broad range of consumer and commercial banking services with an emphasis on serving the needs of individuals, small and medium-sized businesses and professionals with an emphasis on personalized service. If we are not able to meet the needs of our customers or to distinguish our service from that of other banks, we would expect that our business would be adversely affected.

Our strategy has been to offer basic consumer and commercial banking services with an emphasis on providing personalized service to our customers. There are financial products that may be needed by our customers and potential customers that we are not able to provide. If we are not able to meet the banking needs of our customers or if we do not distinguish ourselves on the basis of our service, we would expect that our business and results of operations would be adversely affected.

GENERAL RISKS RELATED TO AN INVESTMENT IN OUR COMMON STOCK

Our common stock is not FDIC-insured.

SHARES OF OUR COMMON STOCK ARE EQUITY SECURITIES. THEY ARE NOT SAVINGS ACCOUNTS OR DEPOSITS INSURED BY THE FDIC OR ANY OTHER GOVERNMENT AGENCY.

As of September 30, 2002, our directors and executive officers owned approximately 1,050,037 shares of our common stock (approximately 43.7% of the shares outstanding). At that date, our directors and executive officers also had the right to acquire 85,133 additional shares upon the exercise of options or warrants within 60 days. Of these shares, Angelo De Caro, our Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, owned 645,000 (or 26.9%).

As of September 30, 2002, our directors and executive officers as a group owned approximately 1,050,037 shares of our common stock (approximately 43.7% of the shares outstanding). At that date, our directors and executive officers also had the right to acquire 85,133 additional shares upon the exercise of options or warrants within 60 days. Of these shares Mr. De Caro owned 645,000 (or 26.9%). Based on this ownership, our directors and executive officers as a group would have, and Mr. De Caro individually has, a substantial ability to control the outcome of any vote by our shareholders.

Our common stock is listed on the Nasdaq Small Cap Market. However, the volume of trading in our common stock is relatively small. If the trading volume in our common stock continues to be relatively small, the liquidity of an investment in our common stock could be reduced.

Our common stock is listed on the Nasdaq Small Cap Market. However, the volume of trading in our common stock has historically been relatively small. If the trading volume in our common stock continues to be relatively small, the liquidity of an investment in our common stock could be reduced.

Anti-takeover provisions in our bylaws and under Connecticut law may reduce the likelihood of a potential change of control. A change of control of us would also require regulatory approvals.

Provisions of our bylaws may have the effect of discouraging, delaying or preventing a change in control of us or unsolicited acquisition proposals that a shareholder might consider favorable. These include a provision prohibiting the taking of action by shareholders by written consent.

In addition, Connecticut law makes it difficult for shareholders who have recently acquired a large interest in a Connecticut corporation to cause the merger or acquisition of the corporation against the directors' wishes. In addition, any change of control of us would require regulatory approvals.

PATRIOT NATIONAL BANCORP

"SAFE HARBOR" STATEMENT UNDER PRIVATE SECURITIES LITIGATION REFORM ACT OF 1995

Certain statements contained in our public reports and, in particular, in the sections captioned "Management's Discussion and Analysis or Plan of Operations," may be forward looking and subject to a variety of risks and uncertainties. These factors include, but are not limited to:

- o changes in prevailing interest rates which would affect the interest earned on our interest-earning assets and the interest paid on our interest-bearing liabilities;

- o the timing of repricing of our interest-earning assets and our interest-bearing liabilities;
- o the effect of changes in governmental monetary policy;
- o the effect of changes in regulations applicable to us and the conduct of our business;
- o changes in competition among financial service companies, including further encroachment of non-banks on services traditionally provided by banks and the impact of recently enacted federal legislation;

-4-

- o the ability of our larger competitors to provide products and services which it is impracticable for us to provide;
- o the effect of opening additional branches; and
- o the effect of any decision we make to engage in any business not historically permitted to us.

Additional factors may be described from time to time in our filings with the SEC.

Although we believe we offer the loan and deposit products and have the resources we need for continued success, future revenues and interest spreads and yields cannot be reliably predicted. The trends may cause us to adjust our operations in the future. Because of the foregoing and other factors, recent trends should not be considered reliable indicators of future financial results or stock prices.

SELLING SHAREHOLDER

As of the date of this prospectus, Mr. De Caro owned 645,000 shares (or 26.9%) of our outstanding common stock. Of these shares, 193,000 are covered by this prospectus. The selling shareholder and any brokers, dealers, agents or underwriters who participate in the sale of the common stock offered hereby may be deemed to be "underwriters" within the meaning of Section 2(11) of the Securities Act, and the commissions paid or discounts allowed to any such brokers, dealers, agents or underwriters, in addition to any profits received on resale of the common stock offered hereby, if any such broker, dealer or agent should purchase any common stock offered hereby as a principal, may be deemed to be underwriting discounts or commissions under the Securities Act.

We cannot assure you that the selling shareholder will sell any or all of the common stock offered hereby. The common stock offered hereby also may be sold pursuant to an available exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act, including without limitation Rule 144 promulgated thereunder. Our certificate of incorporation provides that we must, to the fullest extent permitted or required by the Connecticut Business Corporation Act, indemnify any and all persons whom we have the power to indemnify from and against any and all of the expenses, liabilities or other matters referred to in or covered by the Connecticut Business Corporation Act. The indemnification provided for in our certificate of incorporation is not exclusive of any other rights to which those indemnified may be entitled under any law, agreement, vote of shareholders or disinterested directors or otherwise.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to our directors, officers and controlling persons pursuant to the foregoing provisions or otherwise, we have been advised that in the opinion of the SEC such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable.

Item 15. Indemnification of Directors and Officers

Subsection (a) of Section 33-771 of the Connecticut Business Corporation Act, or the CBCA, provides that a corporation may indemnify an individual who is a party to a proceeding because he is a director against liability incurred in the proceeding if: (1) (A) he conducted himself in good faith; (B) he reasonably believed (i) in the case of conduct in his official capacity, that his conduct was in the best interests of the corporation; and (ii) in all other cases, that his conduct was at least not opposed to the best interests of the corporation; and (C) in the case of any criminal proceeding, he had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful; or (2) he engaged in conduct for which broader indemnification has been made permissible or obligatory under a provision of the certificate of incorporation as authorized by the CBCA.

Subsection (b) of Section 33-771 of the CBCA provides that a director's conduct with respect to an employee benefit plan for a purpose he reasonably believed to be in the interests of the participants in and beneficiaries of the plan is conduct that satisfies the requirement that his conduct was at least not opposed to the best interests of the corporation.

Subsection (c) of Section 33-771 of the CBCA provides that the termination of a proceeding by judgment, order, settlement or conviction or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent is not, of itself, determinative that the director did not meet the relevant standard of conduct described in Section 33-771 of the CBCA.

Subsection (d) of Section 33-771 of the CBCA provides that, unless ordered by a court, a corporation may not indemnify a director: (1) in connection with a proceeding by or in the right of the corporation except for reasonable expenses incurred in connection with the proceeding if it is determined that the director has met the relevant standard of conduct under Section 33-771(a) of the CBCA; or (2) in connection with any proceeding with respect to conduct for which he was adjudged liable on the basis that he received a financial benefit to which he was not entitled, whether or not involving action in his official capacity.

Section 33-772 of the CBCA provides that a corporation shall indemnify a director of the corporation who was wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of any proceeding to which he was a party because he was a director of the corporation, against reasonable expenses incurred by him in connection with the proceeding.

II-1

Subsection (a) of Section 33-776 of the CBCA provides that a corporation may indemnify an officer of the corporation who is a party to a proceeding because he is an officer of the corporation (1) to the same extent as a director, and (2) if he is an officer but not a director, to such further extent, consistent with public policy, as may be provided by contract, the certificate of incorporation, the bylaws or a resolution of the board of directors. Subsection (c) of Section 33-776 of the CBCA provides that an officer of the corporation who is not a director is entitled to mandatory indemnification under Section 33-772 to the same extent to which a director may be entitled to indemnification.

Our certificate of incorporation provides that we must, to the fullest extent permitted or required by the CBCA, indemnify any and all persons whom we have the power to indemnify from and against any and all of the expenses, liabilities or other matters referred to in or covered by the CBCA. The indemnification provided for in our certificate of incorporation is not exclusive of any other rights to which those indemnified may be entitled under any law, agreement, vote of shareholders or disinterested directors or otherwise.

We maintain a liability and indemnification insurance policy in the amount of $5 million issued by Progressive Insurance Company covering all of our officers and directors. The premium for this policy for 2002 is approximately $20,700.

Item 17. Undertakings

We hereby undertake:

To file, during any period in which offers or sales of securities are made a post-effective amendment to this registration statement to include any additional or changed material information on the plan of distribution;

For determining liability under the Securities Act, to treat each post-effective amendment as a new registration statement of the securities offered and the offering of the securities at that time to be the initial bona fide offering; and

To file a post-effective amendment to remove from registration any of the securities that remain unsold at the end of the offering.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to our directors, officers and controlling persons pursuant to the provisions of our Certificate of Incorporation or Bylaws or applicable Connecticut law, or otherwise, we have been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in that Act and is, therefore, unenforceable.

In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by us of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of ours in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, we will, unless in the opinion of our counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by us is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
