Details of the going-private transaction may be found in Chesapeake's preliminary proxy statement, as filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission under Schedule 13E-3 and 14A on October 17, 2002. Chesapeake plans to mail to each shareholder a proxy statement about the proposed transaction, and shareholders are advised to read the proxy statement carefully when it becomes available because it will contain important information about the transaction, the persons soliciting proxies, and their interests in the transaction and related matters. Shareholders may obtain free copies of the proxy statement (when available) and other documents filed by Chesapeake at the SEC's website. Free copies of the proxy statement will also be available from the company by directing requests to the attention of Douglas D. Monroe, Jr., Chairman, 97 North Main Street, P. O. Box 1419, Kilmarnock, Virginia 22482.

The press release and letter to shareholders each contain only a description of a proposed transaction and neither are a solicitation of a proxy or an offer to acquire any shares of Chesapeake's common stock.

The press release and letter to shareholders may contain forward-looking statements that involve assumptions and potential risks and uncertainties. Chesapeake's future results could differ materially from those discussed therein. Readers should not place undue reliance on any forward-looking statement, which is applicable only as of the date thereof.
