A Form 4 Statement of Changes in Beneficial Ownership was filed today with the Securities and Exchange Commission by Michael A. Volkema, Chairman and CEO of Herman Miller, Inc. The filing reported Mr. Volkema's sale of 386,214 shares of Herman Miller stock at $27.92 per share on June 29, 2004. The sale of shares occurred in a private party transaction between Herman Miller and Mr. Volkema, as part of the company's previously announced share repurchase program. In addition, on the same day, he exercised 36,778 Herman Miller stock options and sold the related shares in the open market. Mr. Volkema's actions were the result of an estate plan diversification. Following the sale, Mr. Volkema continues to own 336,026 shares of the company's stock. In addition, after the exercise of these stock options, he has over 912,000 options remaining. After the transaction, the company has a remaining balance of $89.3 million available to repurchase shares under the Board authorized plan.

This announcement follows last week's release that the Herman Miller Board of Directors had moved to separate the roles of Chairman and Chief Executive Officer. Effective July 26, 2004, Brian Walker, President and Chief Operating Officer, will succeed Michael Volkema as CEO. Volkema will continue to serve as Chairman of the Board, with additional involvement in the Herman Miller Creative Office supporting commercialization of new innovations.
