ITEM 6. RESIGNATION OF REGISTRANT'S DIRECTOR.

On September 20, 2001 Count Gottfried von Bismarck, Director, Vice President and Company Secretary resigned his positions with the Company by mutual consent. Count von Bismarck had held his positions since May 1999. Count von Bismarck was remunerated pursuant to a consultancy agreement under which he was responsible for developing Telemonde's business relationships in German-speaking areas. This agreement was terminated by mutual consent with immediate effect, whereby Count von Bismarck waived his rights to any sums during the notice period and Telemonde has released the Count from providing any further consultancy services during the notice period. As Count von Bismarck is unable to act as an independent Director, by virtue of his previous consultancy, it was agreed that Count von Bismarck also resign his other positions.

The Board of Telemonde wish to express their thanks for the services that Count von Bismarck has provided. The Board wishes Count von Bismarck well for the future and wish him success with other business interests that he is pursuing.

The Board of Telemonde has appointed Matt Gould, the Company's General Counsel and an Executive Vice President to succeed Count von Bismarck as Telemonde's Company Secretary with immediate effect.
