FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This current report contains forward-looking statements, which can be identified by the use of words such as "estimate," "project," "believe," "intend," "anticipate," "plan," "seek," "expect" and words of similar meaning.

Edgar Filing: FEDERAL TRUST CORP - Form 8-K

These forward-looking statements are based on current beliefs and expectations of our management and are inherently subject to significant business, economic and competitive uncertainties and contingencies, many of which are beyond our control. In addition, these forward-looking statements are subject to assumptions with respect to strategic objectives, anticipated financial results, future business prospects and decisions that are subject to change.

The following factors, among others, could cause actual results to differ materially from the anticipated results or other expectations expressed in the forward-looking statements:

- o general economic conditions, either nationally or in our market areas, that are worse than expected;
- o changes in laws or government regulations or policies affecting financial institutions, including changes in regulatory fees and capital requirements;
- o competition among depository and other financial institutions;
- o inflation and changes in the interest rate environment that reduce our margins or reduce the fair value of financial instruments;
- o adverse changes in the securities markets; and
- o changes in our organization, compensation and benefit plans.

Because of these and other uncertainties, our actual future results may be materially different from the results indicated by these forward-looking statements.

ITEM 3.03. Material Modifications to Rights of Security Holders

See Item 8.01 regarding restrictions on payment of dividends and similar distributions with respect to holders of trust preferred securities and capital stock.

ITEM 8.01. Other Events

On June 27, 2008, Federal Trust Corporation (the "Registrant") filed a post-effective amendment relating to its offering of shares of common stock in a rights offering and related offering to certain institutional investors and high net worth individuals with whom the Company has previously entered into standby purchase agreements. At a later date, the Company expects to announce the record date with respect to the rights offering and the exchange ratio for the rights offering.

A registration statement relating to these securities has been filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission but has not yet become effective. These securities may not be sold nor may offers to buy be accepted prior to the time the registration statement becomes effective. For further information regarding Federal Trust Corporation, please read the reports the Registrant files with the SEC and that are available at www.sec.gov. On June 27, 2008, the Registrant filed amendments to its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2007 and its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2008. These amendments were filed to revise certain regulatory capital ratios and the estimate of the Registrant's allowable deferred tax asset, for regulatory capital purposes, as of December 31, 2007 and March 31, 2008, and related disclosures. The revisions had no effect on the Registrant's total consolidated assets or stockholders' equity at December 31, 2007 or March 31, 2008 and no effect on the consolidated net loss or loss per share as reported for the year ended December 31, 2007 or the quarter ended March 31, 2008.

On June 27, 2008, and in accordance with the terms of the Indenture governing the debentures issued by the Registrant to Federal Trust Statutory Trust I (the "Trust"), the Registrant notified the trustee of the Trust of the Registrant's intention to defer its interest payments on the debentures. As a result, the Trust will defer its payments of dividends on the $5.0 million of trust preferred securities it originally issued to investors in September 2003. The next dividend payment would have been made September 17, 2008, in an aggregate amount of approximately $76,000. The Indenture permits the Registrant to defer its interest payments on the debentures for up to 20 consecutive quarters. Until the interest payments resume, the Indenture prohibits the Registrant from making certain payments on or repurchases of its capital stock or repaying principal or interest on or repurchasing or redeeming certain debt securities. These restrictions would not restrict the Registrant from conducting its stock offerings as described above. Such notification was made to the trustee in connection with the previously disclosed restriction by the Office of Thrift Supervision on the Registrant's ability to make payments to third parties in excess of $5,000. The Registrant may not resume interest payments on the debentures until it receives prior regulatory approval from the Office of Thrift Supervision, and the Registrant anticipates that it would not request such approval unless it completes its stock offering, described above, or otherwise raises additional capital as required by the terms of the Cease and Desist Order entered into by the Registrant with the Office of Thrift Supervision, as described in previous filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

ITEM 9.01. Financial Statements and Exhibits
