On March 12, 2019, Standard Bank, PaSB (the “Bank”), the wholly owned subsidiary of Standard AVB Financial Corp. (the “Company”), entered into supplemental executive retirement agreements (together, the “Agreements”) with each of Timothy K. Zimmerman, Chief Executive Officer of the Company and Bank, and Andrew W. Hasley, President of the Company and Bank. Under the terms of the Agreements, Messrs. Zimmerman and Hasley are entitled to the value of the vested account balance upon termination of employment.

Pursuant to the Agreements, commencing as of December 31, 2018, and on each subsequent December 31, the Bank will credit the executive’s account balance with an amount equal to five percent (5.0%) of the executive’s base salary and, in addition, may make a discretionary contribution in an amount up to ten percent (10.0%) of the executive’s base salary, for a total annual maximum contribution of fifteen percent (15.0%) of base salary. Contributions will be made only if the executive is employed with the Bank on the date of such contribution. The account balance will be credited with interest as of each December 31 at a rate equal to the average of the Moody’s Aaa Corporate Bond Index over the prior one-year period. For Mr. Hasley only, the Bank will not be obligated to make any contributions, other than interest crediting, on and after the date that Mr. Hasley attains age sixty-five (65).

For Mr. Zimmerman, the account balance is subject to a vesting schedule, with 50% of the account balance vesting on January 1, 2020 and the remainder vesting on June 30, 2020, subject to full vesting in the event of death, disability or a termination of employment within two years following a change in control. For Mr. Hasley, the account balance is subject to a five-year vesting schedule, with 20% of the account balance vesting annually, commencing January 1, 2020 and on each subsequent January 1, with 100% vesting on January 1, 2024, subject to full vesting in the event of death, disability or a termination of employment within two years following a change in control.

Upon a termination of employment or death, the account balance will be paid in a lump sum payment to Mr. Zimmerman or his beneficiary, as applicable. For Mr. Hasley, upon a termination of employment, the account balance will be paid in fifteen substantially equal annual installments, and in the event of Mr. Hasley’s death, the account balance will be paid in a lump sum to his beneficiary.
