TF FINANCIAL CORPORATION
INFORMATION TO BE INCLUDED IN THE REPORT

Section 1 Registrant's Business and Operations

Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On December 28, 2012, TF Financial Corporation (the "Company"), the parent company of 3rd Fed Bank, entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the "Merger Agreement") with Roebing Financial Corp, Inc. ("Roebing"), the parent company of Roebing Bank, under which the Company will acquire Roebing for approximately $14.5 million in stock and cash.

Under the Merger Agreement, Roebing will merge with and into the Company (the "Merger") after which Roebing Bank will merge with and into 3rd Fed Bank. Each outstanding share of Roebing common stock will be converted into the right to receive $8.60 per share or 0.3640 shares of the Company's common stock, at the election of Roebing shareholders, subject to proration. The aggregate cash consideration to be paid pursuant to the Merger Agreement must not exceed 50% of the total merger consideration (including any cash paid in connection with the Roebing options and any shares held by the employee stock ownership plan and not allocated to participant accounts). Cash will be paid in lieu of fractional shares at a value based on the average closing sale price of the Company's common stock for the twenty trading days immediately prior to the closing date.

All Roebing stock options, whether or not vested, will be canceled at the effective time of the Merger in exchange for a cash payment equal to the positive difference (if any) between $8.60 and the exercise price of the stock option. In the event of a greater than 15% decline in market value of the Company's common stock immediately prior to the announcement of the Merger, which percentage decline exceeds any decline in the NASDAQ Bank Index from its starting point by more than 15%, Roebing may be able to terminate the Merger Agreement unless the Company increases the number of shares into which Roebing common stock may be converted.

The Merger is intended to qualify as a tax-free reorganization for federal income tax purposes. As a result, the shares of Roebing exchanged for the Company's shares will be transferred on a tax-free basis. The Merger is expected to close during the second or third quarter of 2013. If the Merger is not consummated under certain circumstances, Roebing has agreed to pay the Company a termination fee of $650,000.

The Merger Agreement provides for an increase in the size of the board of directors of 3rd Fed Bank by one member. John J. Ferry, Roebing's Board Chairman will join the board of 3rd Fed Bank. Directors and executive officers of Roebing were also required to enter into voting agreements concurrent with the execution of the Merger Agreement (collectively, the "Support Agreements," each a "Support Agreement"). A form of Support Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.2. The Support Agreements provide that each director or executive officer of Roebing will vote his or her shares (other than shares held in a fiduciary capacity) in favor of approval of the Merger Agreement.

The Merger Agreement contains usual and customary representations and warranties that the Company and Roebing made to each other as of specific dates. The assertions embodied in those representations and warranties were made solely for purposes of the contract between the Company and Roebing, and may be subject to important qualifications and limitations agreed to by the parties in connection with negotiating its terms. Moreover, the representations and warranties are subject to a contractual standard of materiality that may be different from what may be viewed as material to shareholders, and the representations and warranties may have been used to allocate risk between the Company and Roebing rather than establishing matters as facts.

The Merger Agreement also contains certain customary closing conditions, including approval by Roebing's shareholders and applicable banking regulatory authorities. As a further condition to the consummation of the Merger, Roebing's adjusted shareholders' equity (as such term is defined in the Merger Agreement) must not be less than $15,250,000 as of the effective time. It is also a condition of the Company's obligation to close the Merger that Roebing's total non-performing assets (defined as non-accrual loans, accruing troubled debt restructurings (with certain exceptions), loans past due 90 days or more and still accruing and other real estate owned) must not exceed $3,750,000 as of the last day of the month prior to the month in which the effective time of the Merger is expected to occur and net loan charge-offs during the period from the date of the Merger Agreement to the effective time must not exceed $1,000,000.

The foregoing summary of the Merger Agreement and Support Agreements is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of such documents, which are filed as Exhibits 2.1 and Exhibit 2.2 (form of) to this Current Report on Form 8-K and which are incorporated herein by reference in their entirety.

Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements.

Certain statements made in this Current Report on Form 8-K and in the attached press release may constitute "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements are statements that include projections, predictions, expectations, or beliefs about events or results or otherwise are not statements of historical facts, including statements related to the timing of the closing of the Merger, availability of future resources, improvement in operating efficiency, impact on earnings and statements about the ability of Company management to lead the combined company. Although the Company and Roebling believe that their expectations with respect to such forward-looking statements are based upon reasonable assumptions based on existing knowledge, the material factors and assumptions that could cause actual results to differ materially from current expectations include, without limitation, the following: the inability to close the Merger in a timely manner; the inability to complete the Merger due to the failure to obtain stockholder approval and adoption of the Merger Agreement and approval of the Merger or the failure to satisfy other conditions to completion of the Merger, including required regulatory and other approvals; the failure of the transaction to close for any other reason; the possibility that the integration of Roebbling's business and operations with those of the Company may be more difficult and/or take longer than anticipated, may be more costly than anticipated and may have unanticipated adverse results relating to Roebbling's or the Company's existing businesses; the challenges of integrating and retaining key employees; and other factors that may affect future results of the combined company described in the section entitled "Risk Factors" in the Proxy Statement/Prospectus to be mailed to Roebbling's shareholders.

Factors that could cause actual events or results to differ significantly from those described in the forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, those described in the cautionary language included under the heading "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" in the Company's Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2011 and documents subsequently filed by the Company with the SEC, including the Company's Form 10-Qs for the quarters ended March 31, 2012, June 30, 2012 and September 30, 2012 and in Roebbling's Form 10-K for the year ended September 30, 2012 and documents subsequently filed by Roebbling with the SEC. Readers are strongly urged to read the full cautionary statements contained in these materials. All of these documents are or will be available at the SEC's website at www.sec.gov. Neither the Company, nor Roebbling assume any duty to update any forward-looking statements to reflect events that occur or circumstances that exist after the date on which they were made.
