time of the Report; we assume no obligation to update any of them. The statements in this Report are not guarantees of future performance and actual results could differ materially from our current expectations as a result of numerous factors, including the non-occurrence of any of the Company's recently announced proposed transactions, namely the failure to consummate the preferred share private placement and repayment of convertible notes; the failure of the Company to receive shareholder approval of the preferred share private placement and repayment of the convertible notes and related matters; the failure of the Company to consummate the transactions within the timeframe required by Nasdaq, or to otherwise fail to satisfy the conditions imposed by the Nasdaq Listing Qualifications Panel for the continued listing of Commtouch shares on The Nasdaq SmallCap Market; the acceleration of the payment date of convertible notes due to a delisting by Nasdaq; business conditions and growth or deterioration in the Internet market, commerce and the general economy both domestic as well as international; fewer than expected new-partner relationships; competitive factors including pricing pressures; technological developments, and products offered by competitors; availability of qualified staff for expansion; and technological difficulties and resource constraints encountered in developing new products as well as those risks described in the Company's Annual Reports on Form 20-F and reports on Form 6-K, which are available through www.sec.gov.

Purpose of this Report

A. On November 4, 2004 the Company submitted to the Securities and Exchange Commission for filing a Form 6-K generally describing the terms of definitive agreements for the private placement of Series A Preferred Shares and the early repayment of convertible notes (the "Prior Form 6-K"). The Prior Form 6-K was formally accepted for filing by the SEC on November 5, 2004.

Attached to the Prior Form 6-K filing as Exhibit 99.1 is the Company's press release summarizing not only the terms of the transactions, but certain Nasdaq requirements relating to continued listing of the Company's Ordinary Shares. Included in that summary is the requirement of a filing by November 15, 2004 with the SEC (and Nasdaq) of the Company's proxy statement evidencing the Company's intent to seek shareholder approval of the issuance of shares pursuant to these transactions. The Company believes that the filing of this Form 6-K, attaching the Company's proxy statement, is sufficient to meet the above described Nasdaq requirement.

B. Also, attached hereto is the Company's press release announcing financial results of the Company for the third quarter of 2004.

Subsequent Events

Subsequent to the submission of the Prior Form 6-K, the Company and an additional buyer agreed to the purchase and sale of additional Series A Preferred Shares on the same terms as those relating to the original buyers, in an amount of $75,000. Therefore, the total amount of proceeds expected to be received by the Company upon the closing of the Series A Preferred Share private placement is $3.19 million, in consideration of the issuance by the Company of 6,380,000 Series A Preferred Shares.

As a result of such additional investment, the Amended and Restated Articles of Association attached as Exhibit 99.2 to the Prior Form 6-K were subsequently updated to reflect the additional authorized share capital necessary to cover the prospective additional issuance. The version of the Amended and Restated Articles of Association attached as Exhibit A to the proxy statement attached to this Form 6-K as Exhibit 99.1 amends and supersedes the previous version.
