Merger Proposal □ Your Vote Is Very Important

To the Stockholders of Jacuzzi Brands, Inc.:

You are cordially invited to attend the 2007 Annual Meeting of stockholders of Jacuzzi Brands, Inc. (the □Company□), which will be held on [_____, _____, ____] at [_____] local time at [_____].

On October 10, 2006, the board of directors of the Company approved, and on October 11, 2006, the Company entered into, a merger agreement (the □merger agreement□) with Jupiter Acquisition, LLC (□Parent□) and its wholly owned subsidiary, Jupiter Merger Sub, Inc. (□Merger Subsidiary□). Parent and Merger Subsidiary are entities affiliated with Apollo Fund VI, L.P., an affiliate of Apollo Management, L.P. If the merger is completed, the Company will become a wholly owned subsidiary of Parent, and you will be entitled to receive $12.50 in cash, without interest, for each share of the Company's common stock that you own. A copy of the merger agreement is attached as Annex A to the accompanying Proxy Statement, and you are encouraged to read it in its entirety.

At the Annual Meeting, you will be asked to adopt the merger agreement and to elect directors, among other matters. After careful consideration, our board of directors has approved the merger agreement and determined that the merger and the merger agreement are advisable and in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders. Our Board of Directors recommends that you vote □FOR□ the adoption of the merger agreement. In reaching its determination, our board of directors considered a number of factors, including the opinion of our financial advisor, which is attached as Annex B to the accompanying Proxy Statement, and which you are urged to read in its entirety.

The Proxy Statement attached to this letter provides you with information about the proposed merger and the Annual Meeting. I encourage you to read the entire Proxy Statement carefully. You may also obtain additional information about the Company from documents filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Your vote is important. The merger cannot be completed unless the merger agreement is adopted by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of the Company's common stock entitled to vote. If you fail to vote on the merger agreement, the effect will be the same as a vote against the adoption of the merger agreement. The completion of the merger is also subject to the satisfaction or waiver of other conditions, including obtaining clearance from regulatory agencies.

Whether or not you are able to attend the Annual Meeting in person, please complete, sign and date the enclosed proxy card and return it in the envelope provided as soon as possible. This action will not limit your right to vote in person if you wish to attend the Annual Meeting and vote in person. If you sign, date and send us your proxy but do not indicate how you want to vote, your proxy will be voted □FOR□ the approval and adoption of the merger agreement and the merger. If your shares are held in an account at a brokerage firm, bank or other nominee, you should instruct your broker, bank or nominee how to vote, in accordance with the voting instruction form furnished by your broker, bank or nominee.

Thank you for your cooperation and your continued support of the Company.

Sincerely,

Thomas B. Waldin
Chairman of the Board of Directors

This Proxy Statement is dated [_____, _____, _____] and is first being mailed to stockholders on or about [_____, _____, ____].

NOTICE OF ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS
To Be Held on [_____, __, ____]

To the Stockholders of Jacuzzi Brands, Inc.:

The 2007 Annual Meeting of stockholders of Jacuzzi Brands, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), will be held on [_____, _____, ____] at [_____] local time at [_____], for the following purposes:

1. To consider and vote on a proposal to adopt the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of October 11, 2006, by and among the Company, Jupiter Acquisition, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company ("Parent"), and Jupiter Merger Sub, Inc., a Delaware corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of Parent, and the merger contemplated thereby, pursuant to which, upon the merger becoming effective, each share of the Company's common stock, par value $0.01 per share, will be converted into the right to receive $12.50 in cash, without interest.

2. To elect three Class III directors to our Board of Directors, each for a term of three years.

3. To ratify the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP as our independent registered public accounting firm for fiscal 2007.

4. To approve adjournments or postponements of the Annual Meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to permit the further solicitation of proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the Annual Meeting to adopt the merger agreement.

5. To transact any other business as may properly come before the Annual Meeting or any adjournments or postponements thereof.

Only holders of record of the Company's common stock, par value $0.01 per share, as of the close of business on December 11, 2006, are entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the Annual Meeting and any adjournment or postponement thereof.

You are cordially invited to attend the Annual Meeting in person.

Your vote is important regardless of the number of shares of the Company's common stock that you own. The adoption of the merger agreement requires the approval of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of the Company's common stock entitled to vote thereon. The director nominees will be elected by a plurality of the votes cast. The ratification of the appointment of the independent registered public accounting firm requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast. The proposal to adjourn or postpone the Annual Meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to permit the further solicitation of proxies requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares present and entitled to vote. Even if you plan to attend the Annual Meeting in person, we request that you complete, sign, date and return the enclosed proxy and thus ensure that your shares will be represented at the Annual Meeting if you are unable to attend. If you sign, date and mail your proxy card without indicating how you wish to vote, your vote will be counted as a vote in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement, in favor of each of our nominees for director, in favor of the proposal to adjourn or postpone the Annual Meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to permit the further solicitation of proxies, and in accordance with the recommendation of the board of directors on any other matters properly brought before the Annual Meeting for a vote.

If you fail to vote by proxy or in person, it will have the same effect as a vote against the adoption of the merger agreement, but will not affect the outcome of the vote regarding the election of directors, the ratification of the selection of the independent registered public accounting firm or the adjournment or postponement of the Annual Meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to permit further solicitation of proxies. If you are a stockholder of record and do attend the Annual Meeting and wish to vote in person, you may withdraw your proxy and vote in person.

Holders of the Company's common stock are entitled to appraisal rights under the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware in connection with the merger. See "Appraisal Rights," beginning on page 54 of the Proxy Statement.

By Order of the Board of Directors,

Steven C. Barre
Secretary

West Palm Beach, Florida

YOUR VOTE IS IMPORTANT.

WHETHER OR NOT YOU PLAN TO ATTEND THE ANNUAL MEETING, PLEASE SIGN AND DATE THE ENCLOSED PROXY CARD AND RETURN IT PROMPTLY IN THE ENVELOPE PROVIDED. GIVING YOUR PROXY NOW WILL NOT AFFECT YOUR RIGHT TO VOTE IN PERSON IF YOU ATTEND THE ANNUAL MEETING.

SUMMARY

This summary highlights selected information from this Proxy Statement and may not contain all of the information that is important to you. Accordingly, we urge you to carefully read this entire Proxy Statement and the Annexes to this Proxy Statement.

The Annual Meeting

Date, Time and Place (page 9)

The Annual Meeting will be held on [_____, ____], starting at [_____] local time at [_____].

Purpose of the Annual Meeting (page 9)

At the Annual Meeting, you will be asked to consider and vote upon proposals to adopt the merger agreement, to elect three Class III directors to serve on our Board of Directors, to ratify the selection of the Company's independent registered public accounting firm, to adjourn or postpone the Annual Meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to permit the further solicitation of proxies, and to act on other matters and transact other business, as may properly come before the Annual Meeting.

Record Date (page 9)

If you owned shares of the Company's common stock at the close of business on December 11, 2006, the Record Date for the Annual Meeting, you are entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the Annual Meeting. You have one vote for each share of the Company's common stock that you own on the Record Date. As of the close of business on December 11, 2006, there were [_____] shares of the Company's common stock outstanding and entitled to be voted at the Annual Meeting.

Vote Required (page 9)

Adoption of the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of our outstanding shares of common stock entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting. The director nominees will be elected by a plurality of the votes cast at the Annual Meeting. The ratification of the selection of our independent registered public accounting firm and the proposal to adjourn or postpone the Annual Meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to permit further solicitation of proxies each requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares cast.

Voting (page 10)

You may grant a proxy by completing and returning the enclosed proxy card. If you hold your shares through a broker or other nominee, you should follow the procedures provided by your broker or nominee, which may include submitting a proxy through the Internet or by telephone.

You may revoke your proxy at any time before it is voted. If you have not submitted a proxy through your broker or nominee, you may revoke your proxy by:

- submitting another properly completed proxy bearing a later date;

Edgar Filing: JACUZZI BRANDS INC - Form PRER14A

- giving written notice of revocation to any of the persons named as proxies or to the Secretary of the Company; or

- voting in person at the Annual Meeting.

Simply attending the Annual Meeting will not constitute revocation of your proxy. If your shares are held in street name, you should follow the instructions of your broker or nominee regarding revocation of proxies. If your broker or nominee allows you to submit a proxy by telephone or through the Internet, you may be able to change your vote by submitting a proxy again by telephone or through the Internet.

The Merger

Upon the terms and subject to the conditions of the merger agreement, Merger Subsidiary, a wholly owned subsidiary of Parent, will be merged with and into the Company. As a result of the merger, the Company will cease to be a publicly traded company and will become a wholly owned subsidiary of Parent. The merger agreement is attached as Annex A to this Proxy Statement. Please read it carefully.

Consideration to be Received in the Merger (page 39)

Upon completion of the merger, each holder of shares of the Company's common stock will be entitled to receive $12.50 in cash, without interest, for each share of the Company's common stock held immediately prior to the merger. The aggregate amount of consideration that will be paid for outstanding shares of the Company's common stock, options to acquire shares of the Company's common stock and restricted stock awards granted by the Company pursuant to the Company's equity or incentive compensation plans in connection with the merger is estimated to be approximately $990 million.

Cash-Out of Stock Options and Restricted Stock Awards (page 41)

The merger agreement provides that at the effective time of the merger, each option to purchase shares of the Company's common stock, including those options held by the Company's directors and executive officers, that is outstanding at the effective time of the merger will terminate at the effective time of the merger in exchange for a payment, without interest, equal to the number of shares of the Company's common stock subject to such option multiplied by the amount, if any, by which $12.50 exceeds the exercise price of the option.

Effective as of the effective time of the merger, all restricted stock awards granted by the Company pursuant to any of the Company's equity or incentive compensation plans, agreements or arrangements with respect to which shares of the Company's common stock remain unvested or awarded but unissued as of the effective time of the merger will be cancelled and the holder of each such award will receive from Parent or the surviving company, at or promptly after the effective time of the merger, an amount in cash, without interest, equal to $12.50 for each share of the Company's common stock subject to such award.

In each case, any such cash payment will be reduced by any required federal, state, local and foreign withholding taxes.

Recommendation of the Company's Board of Directors (page 24)

After careful consideration, the Company's Board of Directors has determined that the merger agreement and the merger are advisable and in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders. Accordingly, the Company's Board of Directors has approved the merger agreement and the merger and recommends that you vote for ☐FOR☐ the adoption of the merger agreement.

Opinion of the Company's Financial Advisor (page 25)

Lazard Frères & Co. LLC (☐Lazard☐) has delivered its opinion, dated October 11, 2006, to the Company's Board of Directors that, as of that date and based upon and subject to various factors, assumptions and limitations set forth therein, the consideration to be paid to the holders of the Company's common stock in the merger was fair to such holders from a financial point of view. A copy of the opinion is attached to this Proxy Statement as Annex B. The Company's stockholders are urged to read the Lazard opinion in its entirety. Lazard provided its opinion for the information and assistance of the Company's Board of Directors in connection with its evaluation of the merger consideration, and the opinion does not address any other aspect of the proposed merger. The Lazard opinion is not intended to be, and does not constitute, a recommendation to any stockholder as to how such stockholder should vote with respect to the merger or any related matters. The Company is to pay Lazard a gross transaction fee of approximately $7.27 million. The Company has a credit of $1.5 million for fees previously paid to Lazard, leading to a net transaction fee of approximately $5.77 million in connection with the merger, the payment of which is contingent upon the completion of the merger. The Company has also agreed to reimburse Lazard for its reasonable out-of-pocket expenses, including the reasonable expenses of legal counsel, and to indemnify Lazard and related parties against liabilities, including liabilities under the federal securities laws, arising out of its engagement.

Financing (page 49)

In connection with the merger, Parent will cause approximately $990 million to be paid out to the Company's stockholders and holders of options and restricted stock awards. In addition, approximately $280 million of outstanding debt, net of cash held by the Company, representing substantially all of the Company's then-outstanding debt, is expected to be repaid at closing of the merger. Parent has provided the Company with an equity commitment letter from Apollo and debt commitment letters from Credit Suisse, Credit Suisse Securities (USA) LLC, Bank of America, N.A., Banc of America Securities LLC, UBS Loan Finance LLC and UBS Securities LLC that together will provide for approximately $1.4 billion of cash to finance its acquisition of the Company, which includes $935 million of funded debt and $455 million of equity investment from Apollo and its affiliates.

While Parent has agreed to acquire the Company as a whole, and the consummation of the merger is not contingent on the separate acquisitions of the Company's bath products business ("Jacuzzi Bath") and its Zurn Industries, Inc. subsidiary (the plumbing products business or "Zurn"), which, if effected, would be effected by Parent after the merger, Parent has chosen to finance the acquisition of Jacuzzi Bath and Zurn separately. The committed financing for the acquisition of Jacuzzi Bath consists of $325 million of funded debt and $130 million of equity, and the committed financing for the acquisition of Zurn consists of $610 million of funded debt and $325 million of equity.

Debt Financing

Parent has received executed debt commitment letters from a consortium of Credit Suisse, Credit Suisse Securities (USA) LLC, Bank of America, N.A., Banc of America Securities LLC, UBS Loan Finance LLC and UBS Securities LLC. The committed debt financing for the acquisition of Jacuzzi Bath consists of a $125 million asset-based first lien revolving credit facility, a $135 million first lien term loan facility and a $190 million second lien term loan facility. The committed debt financing for the acquisition of Zurn consists of a $100 million first lien revolving credit facility, a $360 million first lien term loan facility and a $250 million second lien term loan facility. The total aggregate debt commitment for the acquisition of Jacuzzi Bath and Zurn is $1.16 billion.

Equity Financing

Parent has received an executed equity commitment letter from Apollo, pursuant to which Apollo has agreed to make aggregate cash equity contributions of up to $455 million to Parent, of which $130 million relates to the acquisition of Jacuzzi Bath and $325 million relates to the acquisition of Zurn.

Debt Tender Offer and Consent Solicitation (page 50)

Under the terms of the merger agreement, the Company is required to commence an offer to purchase all of the outstanding aggregate principal amount of our 9.625% Senior Secured Notes due 2010. The terms and conditions of the tender offer will be set forth in tender offer documents that will be distributed to the holders of those notes.

In connection with the offer to purchase, we will seek the consent of the holders of the 9.625% Senior Secured Notes due 2010 to amend the indenture governing the notes. Assuming the requisite number of consents are received from the note holders to amend the notes and the indenture, the amendments with respect to such notes and indenture will become operative concurrently with the effective time of the merger, so long as all such notes validly tendered are accepted for purchase pursuant to the tender offer concurrently with completion of the merger, whereupon the amendments will apply to all such notes remaining outstanding following completion of the tender offer. The proposed terms of the amended notes and indenture will be described in the tender offer documents. Assuming that all of the conditions to the tender offer and consent solicitations are satisfied or waived, concurrently with the effective time of the merger, notes validly tendered in the tender offer will be accepted for payment.

No Solicitation (page 45)

The merger agreement contains restrictions on the Company's ability to solicit or engage in discussions or negotiations with any third party regarding a proposal to acquire a significant interest in the Company. Notwithstanding these restrictions, under certain limited circumstances, the Board of Directors may respond to an unsolicited written bona fide proposal for an alternative acquisition that constitutes or would reasonably be expected to constitute a superior proposal, and may terminate the merger agreement and enter into an acquisition agreement with respect to a superior proposal.

Conditions to the Merger (page 50)

The Company and Parent will not complete the merger unless a number of conditions are satisfied or waived. These conditions include, among others:

- the approval and adoption of the merger agreement by stockholders holding at least a majority of the outstanding shares of the Company's common stock;
- the waiting periods applicable to consummation of the merger under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, which we refer to as the HSR Act, must have expired or been terminated;
- all actions and approvals of, and filings with, governmental entities in connection with the merger must have been taken, made or obtained;
- the truth and correctness of each party's representations and warranties set forth in the merger agreement, subject to the materiality standards set forth in the merger agreement;
- the performance, in all material respects, by each party of its obligations under the merger agreement;
- the absence of any governmental orders or actions that make the merger illegal;
- the absence of any material adverse effect on the Company since October 11, 2006; and
- the receipt by Parent of the proceeds of the financings described in the debt commitment letters, or the obtainment of alternative financing sufficient, when taken together with the proceeds of the equity commitment letter, to pay the aggregate merger consideration and option consideration under the merger agreement.

Termination (page 52)

The merger agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the effective time of the merger whether before or after the Annual Meeting of the Company's stockholders to consider the adoption of the merger agreement:

- by the mutual written consent of the parties;
- by either party if:
 - the merger is not consummated on or before February 15, 2007 (provided that the terminating party's breach of the merger agreement was not the principal cause of the failure of the merger to be consummated by February 15, 2007);
 - the consummation of the merger would violate any non-appealable final order, decree or judgment (which the parties have used their reasonable best efforts to resist, resolve or lift) of any governmental entity having competent jurisdiction;
 - the Company's stockholders do not approve and adopt the merger agreement and the merger at the Annual Meeting (or at any adjournment or postponement of the Annual Meeting); or

- the other party breaches or fails to perform any representation, warranty or covenant contained in the merger agreement that (i) would result in the failure of the related condition to close and (ii) is incurable by February 15, 2007 (provided that such terminating party is not then in material breach of its covenants and agreements under the merger agreement).
- by Parent if:
 - the Board approves, endorses or recommends, or determines to approve, endorse or recommend, an alternative acquisition proposal or fails to make, withdraws or modifies in a manner adverse to Parent or Merger Subsidiary its recommendation that the Company's stockholders vote for approval and adoption of the merger agreement and the merger;
 - the Company enters into, or announces its intention to enter into, a definitive agreement or an agreement in principle with respect to an alternative acquisition proposal that is a superior proposal; or
 - the Company materially breaches its covenants contained in the merger agreement that relate to the non-solicitation of alternative proposals.
- by the Company, if the Board approves and authorizes the Company, in compliance with the terms of the merger agreement, to enter into a written agreement to effect an alternative acquisition proposal that is a superior proposal; provided that:
 - at least four business days prior to such termination, the Company notifies Parent in writing of its intention to terminate the merger agreement and to enter into such agreement, and attaches the most current version of such agreement and a description of its material terms and conditions to such notification; and
 - Parent does not, within such four-business-day period, make an irrevocable unconditional offer to adjust the terms and conditions of the merger agreement such that the modified merger agreement is at least as favorable to the Company's stockholders as such alternative acquisition proposal that is a superior proposal.

Termination Fee and Expenses (page 53)

The Company will be required to pay a termination fee of $25 million in cash if the merger agreement is terminated under the following circumstances:

- the Board approves and authorizes the Company, in compliance with the terms of the merger agreement, to enter into a written agreement to effect an alternative acquisition proposal that is a superior proposal;
- the Board approves, endorses or recommends, or determines to approve, endorse or recommend, an alternative acquisition proposal or fails to make, withdraws or modifies in a manner adverse to Parent or Merger Subsidiary, its recommendation that the Company's stockholders vote for approval and adoption of the merger agreement and the merger;

- the Company materially breaches its covenants contained in the merger agreement that relate to the non-solicitation of alternative proposals and the Company enters into a definitive agreement with respect to or consummates an alternative acquisition proposal within 12 months after termination;
- the Company (i) breaches its covenants contained in the merger agreement that relate to Parent's financing, and such breach results in the failure of the related closing condition and was incurable by February 15, 2007, and (ii) enters into a definitive agreement with respect to or consummates an alternative acquisition proposal within 12 months after termination;
- the Company's stockholders fail to approve and adopt the merger agreement and the merger at the Annual Meeting (or at any adjournment or postponement of the Annual Meeting) and (i) an alternative acquisition proposal had been made prior to the Annual Meeting and (ii) the Company enters into a definitive agreement with respect to or consummates an alternative acquisition proposal within 12 months after termination; or

- the Merger was not consummated by February 15, 2007 and (i) an alternative acquisition proposal had been made prior to termination and (ii) the Company enters into a definitive agreement with respect to or consummates an alternative acquisition proposal within 12 months after termination.

The Company will be required to reimburse Parent for its expenses in an amount not to exceed $6 million if the merger agreement is terminated because the Company's stockholders fail to approve and adopt the merger agreement and the merger at the Annual Meeting (or at any adjournment or postponement of the Annual Meeting) and, prior to termination, Parent was in material compliance with its obligations under the merger agreement. Any expenses for which Parent is reimbursed by the Company will be deducted from any termination fee payable as described in the foregoing paragraph.

When the Merger Will be Completed (page 39)

The Company and Parent are working to complete the merger as soon as possible and anticipate completing the merger by February 15, 2007, subject to receipt of stockholder approval and satisfaction of other requirements, including the conditions described above.

Material U. S. Federal Income Tax Consequences (page 36)

The merger will be a taxable transaction to stockholders for U.S. federal income tax purposes. If you are a U.S. holder of the Company's common stock, you will recognize gain or loss measured by the difference, if any, between the cash you receive in the merger and your tax basis in your shares of the Company's common stock. In addition, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, your receipt of cash in exchange for your outstanding compensatory stock options or restricted stock awards generally will cause you to recognize ordinary income equal to the amount of the cash you receive. You should consult your own tax advisor regarding the specific tax consequences of the merger applicable to you.

Regulatory Matters (page 35)

Under the provisions of the HSR Act, the Company and Parent may not complete the merger until they have filed Premerger Notification and Report Forms with the Federal Trade Commission and the United States Department of Justice and the applicable waiting period has expired or been terminated. The Federal Trade Commission granted early termination of the applicable waiting period, effective as of November 14, 2006.

The Company and Apollo conduct business in member states of the European Union. European Union Council Regulation 4064/89 requires notification of, and approval by, the European Commission of specific mergers or acquisitions involving parties with aggregate worldwide sales and individual European Union sales exceeding given thresholds before the mergers or acquisitions are implemented. The Company and Parent filed a formal notification of the merger with the European Commission on November 29, 2006. The European Commission has 25 business days after such notification to issue its decision regarding the merger, which 25-day period is, under special circumstances, extendable by the European Commission for an additional 10-day period. After such period, the European Commission may elect to enter into a "Phase II" investigation, which is 90 business days from the date of notification, extendable by the European Commission for an additional 15-business-day period.

The Company and Apollo own property and conduct operations in a number of foreign countries, including in Brazil, in addition to those described above. In connection with the completion of the merger, the Company and Parent are required to file a notification with the CADE, Brazil's regulatory authority, within 15 business days of the execution of the merger agreement. The parties duly notified CADE of the merger on November 1, 2006. Brazilian law does not require a waiting period. Thus, the parties may consummate the merger without awaiting CADE's clearance.

Except as noted above with respect to the required filings under the HSR Act and the other required filings described above, and the filing of a certificate of merger in Delaware at or before the effective date of the merger, we are unaware of any material federal, state or foreign regulatory requirements or approvals required for the execution of the merger agreement or completion of the merger.

Appraisal Rights (page 54)

Under Delaware law, if you do not vote for adoption of the merger agreement and prior to the adoption of the merger agreement at the Annual Meeting you make a written demand and you strictly comply with the other statutory requirements of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, you may elect to receive, in cash, the fair value of your shares of stock, as determined by the Delaware Court of Chancery, in lieu of the $12.50 per share merger consideration. This value could be more or less than, or the same as, the merger consideration.

In order to exercise appraisal rights, a holder must demand and perfect the rights in accordance with Section 262 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, the full text of which is set forth in Annex C to this Proxy Statement. Your failure to follow the procedures set forth in Section 262 will result in the loss of your appraisal rights.

Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger (page 32)

The Company's directors and executive officers have interests in the merger that may be in addition to, or different from, the interests of the Company's stockholders. For example, if the merger is completed, certain indemnification arrangements for the Company's directors and officers will be continued. Also, the merger agreement provides that each holder of shares of the Company's common stock, including the Company's directors and executive officers, will be entitled to receive $12.50 in cash, without interest, for each share of the Company's common stock held immediately prior to the merger.

The merger agreement also provides that, at the effective time of the merger, each option to purchase shares of the Company's common stock, including those options held by the Company's directors and executive officers, that is outstanding at the effective time of the merger will terminate at the effective time of the merger in exchange for a payment equal to the number of shares of the Company's common stock subject to such option multiplied by the amount, if any, by which $12.50 exceeds the exercise price of the option. Similarly, effective as of the effective time of the merger, all restricted stock awards, including those held by the Company's directors and executive officers, granted by the Company pursuant to any of the Company's equity or incentive compensation plans, agreements or arrangements with respect to which shares of the Company's common stock remain unvested or awarded but unissued as of the effective time of the merger will be cancelled and the holder of each such award will receive from Parent or the surviving company, at or promptly after the effective time of the merger, an amount in cash, without interest, equal to $12.50 for each share of the Company's common stock subject to such award. In each case, any such cash payment will be reduced by any required federal, state, local and foreign withholding taxes.

The Company's executive officers are also entitled to severance payments, the continuation of certain benefits and the acceleration of certain benefits in the event that their employment is terminated under certain circumstances in connection with the merger.

Certain indemnification and insurance arrangements for the Company's current and former directors and officers will be continued for six years following the closing date of the merger if the merger is consummated.

The Board was aware of these potential conflicts of interest and considered them, among other matters, in reaching its decision to approve the merger agreement and to recommend that the Company's stockholders vote in favor of adopting the merger agreement.

Payment Procedures; Exchange of Certificates (page 40)

Parent will appoint an exchange agent to coordinate the payment of the merger consideration following the merger. The exchange agent will send you written instructions for surrendering your certificates and obtaining the cash merger consideration after the Company has completed the merger. Do not send in your share certificates now.

Payment to U.K. Stockholders (page 38)

At the election of any U.K. Stockholder, the paying agent will make payment of the merger consideration to such holder in GBP, rather than in USD. The merger consideration will be converted from USD into GBP at the spot rate in effect as of the effective time of the merger. If you are a U.K. Stockholder that would like to participate in this program, you must make the election to receive your merger consideration in GBP on or prior to the date of the Annual Meeting by checking the appropriate box on your proxy card and returning the proxy card in accordance with the voting instructions.

The Company's Stock Price (page 57)

Shares of the Company's common stock are listed on the NYSE under the trading symbol "JJZ." On October 10, 2006, which was the last trading day before the announcement of the merger, the Company's common stock closed at $10.35 per share. On [_____, ____], which was the last practicable trading day before this Proxy Statement was printed, the Company's common stock closed at $[_____] per share.

PROXY STATEMENT

2007 ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE ANNUAL MEETING AND THE MERGER

The Annual Meeting

Why did I receive this Proxy Statement?

The Board of Directors of Jacuzzi Brands, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company," "we" or "us"), is soliciting proxies for the 2007 Annual Meeting of Stockholders (the "Annual Meeting") to be held on [_____, _____, ____], and at any postponement or adjournment thereof. When we ask for your proxy, we must provide you with a Proxy Statement that contains certain information specified by law. This Proxy Statement summarizes the information you need to vote at the Annual Meeting.

We are mailing the Notice of Annual Meeting, this Proxy Statement and the accompanying proxy card and voting instructions card to stockholders on or about [_____, ____]. Our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2006, including financial statements, is enclosed herewith. We will furnish any exhibit to our Annual Report on Form 10-K upon request by a stockholder directed to Jacuzzi Brands, Inc., 777 S. Flagler Drive, Suite 1100 West, West Palm Beach, Florida 33401, Attention: Secretary, for a fee limited to our reasonable expenses in furnishing such exhibits.

What will I vote on?

You will be asked to vote on the following proposals:

- to adopt the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of October 11, 2006 (the "merger agreement"), among the Company, Jupiter Acquisition, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company ("Parent"), and its wholly owned subsidiary, Jupiter Merger Sub, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("Merger Subsidiary");
- to elect three Class III directors to serve on our Board of Directors;
- to ratify the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP as our independent registered public accounting firm for fiscal 2007;
- to approve the adjournment or postponement of the Annual Meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to permit the further solicitation of proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the Annual Meeting to adopt the merger agreement; and

- to act on other matters and transact such other business, as may properly come before the Annual Meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof.

Will there be any other items of business on the agenda?

We do not expect any other items of business at the Annual Meeting. Nonetheless, if there is an unforeseen need, your proxy will give discretionary authority to the persons named on the proxy to vote on any other matters that may be brought before the Annual Meeting.

How does the Company's Board of Directors recommend that I vote on the proposals?

Our Board of Directors recommends that you vote:

- ☐FOR the proposal to adopt the merger agreement;
- ☐FOR the election of each of the nominees for director;
- ☐FOR ratification of the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP as our independent registered public accounting firm for fiscal 2007; and
- ☐FOR adjournment or postponement of the Annual Meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to permit the further solicitation of proxies.

Who is entitled to vote?

Stockholders as of the close of business on December 11, 2006 (the Record Date) may vote at the Annual Meeting.

How many votes do I have?

You have one vote for each share of common stock you hold on the Record Date.

How do I vote?

You can vote either in person at the Annual Meeting or by proxy whether or not you attend the Annual Meeting. We urge you to vote by proxy even if you plan to attend the Annual Meeting so we will know as soon as possible that enough votes will be present for us to hold the Annual Meeting on the scheduled date. If you attend the Annual Meeting in person, you may vote and your earlier proxy will not be counted.

How do I vote my shares in the Jacuzzi Brands, Inc. Retirement Savings & Investment Plan?

You may instruct the Trustee of the Jacuzzi Brands, Inc. Retirement Savings & Investment Plan (the 401(k) Plan) on how to vote your shares in the 401(k) Plan by completing the accompanying voting instruction card. Your card must be duly signed and received by [_____, ____]. The Trustee will vote the number of shares for which no instructions are received in the same proportion as those shares in the 401(k) Plan for which instructions have been received.

The total number of shares in the 401(k) Plan as of the Record Date represents approximately [_____] % of the shares of common stock outstanding on the Record Date. Attendance at the Annual Meeting will not, in itself, constitute revocation of a previously granted proxy.

If you also own shares outside of the 401(k) Plan, you must return both the proxy card and the voting instruction card as indicated on those cards.

Can I change my vote?

Edgar Filing: JACUZZI BRANDS INC - Form PRER14A

Yes. If you are a stockholder of record, you have the right to revoke your proxy at any time before the Annual Meeting by: (1) sending an appropriate written notice to Jacuzzi Brands, Inc., 777 South Flagler Drive, Suite 1100 West, West Palm Beach, Florida 33401, Attention: Secretary, or (2) delivering a later-dated proxy in writing. You may also revoke your proxy by voting in person at the Annual Meeting.

If you are a beneficial owner (that is, if your shares are held for you in "street name" by your bank, broker or other holder of record) please refer to the information forwarded by your bank, broker or other holder of record for procedures on revoking or changing your proxy.

What are the costs of soliciting these proxies and who will pay them?

We will pay all costs of soliciting these proxies. Officers and regular employees of ours may, but without compensation other than their regular compensation, solicit proxies by further mailing or personal conversations, or by telephone, e-mail or facsimile. We will, upon request, reimburse brokerage firms and others for their reasonable expenses in forwarding solicitation material to the beneficial owners of the Company's common stock.

In addition, the Company has retained Georgeson Inc. to assist in the solicitation of proxies by mail, telephone or other electronic means, or in person, for a fee of approximately $125,000 plus expenses relating to the solicitation.

How many votes are required for the approval of each item?

Adoption of the Merger Agreement □ The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of the Company's common stock entitled to vote is required in order to adopt the merger agreement. Abstentions and broker non-votes will have the same effect as a vote "against" the adoption of the merger agreement.

Election of Directors □ The three nominees for director receiving a plurality of the votes cast at the Annual Meeting in person or by proxy will be elected. Abstentions and instructions to withhold authority to vote for one or more of the nominees will result in those nominees receiving fewer votes but will not count as votes against a nominee.

Ratification of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm □ The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the votes cast is required to ratify the appointment of our independent registered public accounting firm for fiscal 2007. Abstentions will have the same effect as a vote "against" the ratification. Broker non-votes will not be counted as either "for" or "against" the ratification, but will reduce the number of shares needed for a majority decision.

Adjournment or Postponement of Meeting □ The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the votes cast is required to adjourn or postpone the 2007 Annual Meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to permit the further solicitation of proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the Annual Meeting to adopt the merger agreement. Abstentions will have the same effect as a vote "against" the proposal to adjourn or postpone the Annual Meeting. Broker non-votes will not be counted as either "for" or "against" the proposal to adjourn or postpone the Annual Meeting, but will reduce the number of shares needed for a majority decision.

What constitutes a quorum for the Annual Meeting?

A quorum is necessary to conduct business at the Annual Meeting. A quorum requires the presence at the Annual Meeting of a majority of the outstanding shares on the Record Date entitled to vote, in person or represented by proxy. You are part of the quorum if you have voted by proxy. As of the Record Date, [] shares of the Company's common stock were issued and outstanding.

Are abstentions and broker non-votes part of the quorum? What are broker non-votes?

Abstentions, broker non-votes and votes withheld from director nominees count as "shares present" at the Annual Meeting for purposes of determining a quorum.

Broker non-votes. If your shares are held by a broker, the broker may require your instructions in order to vote your shares. If you give the broker instructions, your shares will be voted as you direct. If you do not give instructions, one of two things can happen depending on the type of proposal. For the election of directors and the ratification of the appointment of our independent registered public accounting firm, the broker may vote your shares in its discretion. For the approval of certain proposals, including the adoption of the merger agreement, the broker is not permitted to vote your shares at all. When that happens, it is called a "broker non-vote."Broker non-votes will have the same effect as a vote "against" the adoption of the merger agreement.

Who will count the vote?

Votes at the Annual Meeting will be counted by an independent inspector of election appointed by the Board.

What if I don't vote for some or all of the matters listed on my proxy card?

If you are a registered stockholder and you return a signed proxy card without indicating your vote for some or all of the matters, your shares will be voted as follows for any matter you did not vote on:

- ☐FOR the proposal to adopt the merger agreement;
- ☐FOR the election of each of the nominees for director;
- ☐FOR ratification of the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP as our independent registered public accounting firm for fiscal 2007; and
- with respect to any other matter that may properly come before the Annual Meeting, including adjourning or postponing the Annual Meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to permit the further solicitation of proxies in favor or the approval and adoption of the merger agreement and the merger (in the event that there are not sufficient votes for such approval and adoption), in the discretion of the persons voting the respective proxies.

How do I submit a stockholder proposal for the 2008 Annual Meeting?

If the merger is consummated, we will not have public stockholders and there will be no public participation in any future meetings of stockholders. However, if the merger is not completed, we expect to hold our 2008 Annual Meeting of Stockholders. If you intend to present a proposal for action at our 2008 Annual Meeting of Stockholders and wish to have such proposal considered for inclusion in our proxy materials in reliance on Rule 14a-8 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), you must submit the proposal in writing and we must receive it by [_____, ____]. Such proposals must also meet the other requirements of the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") relating to stockholder proposals. Our by-laws establish an advance notice procedure with regard to certain matters, including stockholder proposals and nominations of individuals for election to the Board.

What is "householding"?

We have adopted "householding," a procedure under which beneficial owners who have the same address and last name will receive only one copy of our Annual Report and Proxy Statement unless one or more of these stockholders notifies us that they wish to continue receiving individual copies. This procedure reduces duplicate mailings and thus reduces our printing costs and postage fees. Stockholders who participate in householding will continue to receive separate proxy cards.

What if I want to receive a separate copy of the Proxy Statement?

We will promptly deliver, upon oral or written request, a separate copy of the Proxy Statement to any stockholders residing at an address to which only one copy was mailed. Additionally, stockholders residing at the same address and currently receiving only one copy of the Proxy Statement may request multiple copies of the Proxy Statement in the future. Either of these requests should be directed to Investor Relations by phone at (561) 514-3850, by mail to Jacuzzi Brands, Inc., 777 S. Flagler Drive, Suite 1100 West, West Palm Beach, Florida 33401 or by e-mail to ir@jacuzzibrands.com.

Where can I find the voting results?

We will publish the voting results in our Form 10-Q following the Annual Meeting. To view it online, go to our website at www.jacuzzibrands.com, and click on the SEC Filings link.

What should I do if I want to attend the Annual Meeting?

All of our stockholders may attend the Annual Meeting. The Annual Meeting will be held at the [] and will begin promptly at [] (EST). You may be asked to present photo identification before being admitted to the Annual Meeting. If you have questions about attending the Annual Meeting, you may call Investor Relations at (561) 514-3850.

Can a stockholder communicate directly with the Board? If so, how?

The Board provides a process for you to send communications to the Board or any of the directors. You may send written communications to the Board or any of the directors c/o Office of the General Counsel, Jacuzzi Brands, Inc., 777 S. Flagler Drive, Suite 1100 West, West Palm Beach, Florida 33401. All communications will be compiled by the Office of the General Counsel and submitted to the Board or the individual directors on a periodic basis.

The Merger

What is the proposed transaction?

The proposed transaction is the acquisition of the Company by Parent pursuant to the merger agreement. In the merger, Merger Subsidiary will merge with and into the Company, and the Company will be the surviving corporation. When the merger is completed, the Company will cease to be a publicly traded company and will instead become a wholly owned subsidiary of Parent. Parent and Merger Subsidiary are entities affiliated with Apollo Fund VI, L.P., an affiliate of Apollo Management, L.P. (collectively, “Apollo”).

If the merger is completed, what will I be entitled to receive for my shares of the Company’s common stock and when will I receive it?

Upon completion of the merger, you will be entitled to receive $12.50 in cash, without interest, for each share of the Company’s common stock that you own. For example, if you own 100 shares of the Company’s common stock, you will be entitled to receive $1,250.00 in cash in exchange for your shares of the Company’s common stock. In addition, if you hold options to acquire shares of the Company’s common stock immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, all such options that are not exercised prior to the merger will be cancelled and, upon consummation of the merger, you will be entitled to receive a cash payment equal to the amount, if any, by which $12.50 exceeds the exercise price for each share of the Company’s common stock underlying the options. Similarly, upon consummation of the merger, all restricted stock awards granted by us pursuant to any of our equity or incentive compensation plans, agreements or arrangements with respect to which shares of the Company’s common stock remain unvested or awarded but unissued as of the effective time of the merger, will be cancelled and the holder of each such award will be entitled to receive a cash payment equal to $12.50, without interest, for each share of the Company’s common stock subject to such award. In the case of compensatory stock options and restricted stock awards, any such cash payment will be reduced by any required federal, state, local and foreign withholding taxes.

At the election of any holder of the Company’s common stock who maintains a registered address in the United Kingdom (a “U.K. Stockholder”), the paying agent will make payment of the merger consideration to such holder in Great Britain pounds sterling (“GBP”), rather than in United States dollars (“USD”). The merger consideration will be converted from USD into GBP at the spot rate in effect as of the effective time of the merger. If you are a U.K. Stockholder that would like to participate in this program, you must make the election to receive your merger consideration in GBP on or prior to the date of the Annual Meeting by checking the appropriate box on your proxy card and returning the proxy card in accordance with the voting instructions.

After the merger closes, Parent will arrange for a letter of transmittal to be sent to each of our stockholders. The merger consideration will be paid to each stockholder once that stockholder submits the letter of transmittal, properly endorsed Jacuzzi Brands, Inc. stock certificates and any other required documentation.

Am I entitled to appraisal rights?

Yes. Under the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, holders of the Company's common stock who do not vote in favor of adopting the merger agreement will have the right to seek appraisal of the fair value of their shares as determined by the Delaware Court of Chancery if the merger is completed, but only if they submit a written demand for an appraisal prior to the vote on the adoption of the merger agreement and they comply with the Delaware law procedures explained in this proxy statement. This appraisal amount could be more than, the same as or less than the amount a stockholder would be entitled to receive under the terms of the merger agreement. For additional information about appraisal rights, see "Appraisal Rights," beginning on page 54 of this Proxy Statement.

Why is the Company's Board recommending the merger?

Our Board believes that the merger and the merger agreement are advisable and in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders and recommends that you vote "FOR" the adoption of the merger agreement. To review our Board's reasons for recommending the merger, see the sections entitled "The Merger" Reasons for the Merger," beginning on page 22 of this Proxy Statement and "The Merger" Recommendation of the Company's Board of Directors," beginning on page 24 of this Proxy Statement.

Will the merger be a taxable transaction to me?

The merger will be a taxable transaction to stockholders for U.S. federal income tax purposes. If you are a U.S. holder of the Company's common stock, you will recognize gain or loss measured by the difference, if any, between the cash you receive in the merger and your adjusted tax basis in your shares. Such gain or loss will be capital gain or loss if you held your shares as capital assets, and will be long-term capital gain or loss if you have held your shares for more than one year as of the date of the merger. If you are a U.S. holder of compensatory stock options or unvested or unissued restricted stock awards (for which you did not make a timely election under section 83(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code")) with respect to the Company's common stock, in each case granted in connection with the performance of services to the Company, you will recognize ordinary income equal to the amount of the cash payment, if any, that you receive upon cancellation of such compensatory stock options or restricted stock awards. If you are a non-U.S. holder of the Company's common stock, the merger will generally not be subject to U.S. federal income tax unless you have certain connections to the United States. See the section entitled "Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences," beginning on page 36 of this Proxy Statement for a more detailed explanation of the tax consequences of the merger. You should consult your tax advisor regarding the specific tax consequences of the merger, including the federal, state, local and/or non-U.S. tax consequences to you.

When is the merger expected to be completed?

We are working towards completing the merger as soon as possible. We currently expect to complete the merger as soon as possible after the Annual Meeting and after all the conditions to the merger are satisfied or waived, including stockholder adoption of the merger agreement at the Annual Meeting and a number of other closing conditions required under the merger agreement. See the sections entitled "Proposal 1 The Merger Agreement" General," beginning on page 13 of this Proxy Statement and "Proposal 1 The Merger Agreement" Conditions to the Merger," beginning on page 50 of this Proxy Statement.

Should I send in my stock certificates now?

No. Shortly after the merger is completed, you will receive a letter of transmittal from the exchange agent with written instructions for exchanging your stock certificates. You must return your stock certificates as described in the instructions. You will receive your cash payment as soon as practicable after the exchange agent receives your stock certificates and any completed documents required in the instructions. PLEASE DO NOT SEND ANY STOCK CERTIFICATES WITH YOUR PROXY.

What will happen to the directors who are up for election if the merger agreement is adopted?

If the merger agreement is adopted by our stockholders and the merger is consummated, our directors will no longer be directors of the surviving corporation after the consummation of the merger. Our current directors, including those elected at the Annual Meeting, will serve only until the merger is consummated.

What should I do if I have questions?

If you have more questions about the Annual Meeting, the merger or this Proxy Statement, or would like additional copies of this Proxy Statement or the proxy card or voting instructions card, you should contact Georgeson Inc., our proxy solicitor, toll-free at (866) 238-7667 or the Company at Jacuzzi Brands, Inc., 777 S. Flagler Drive, Suite 1100 West, West Palm Beach, Florida 33401, Attention: Investor Relations, (561) 514-3850 or by e-mail at ir@jacuzzibrands.com.

THE ANNUAL MEETING

The Company is furnishing this Proxy Statement to its stockholders as part of the solicitation of proxies by the Board of Directors for use at the Annual Meeting.

Date, Time and Place

We will hold the Annual Meeting on [_____, _____, ____], at [_____, _____], local time, at [_____].

Purpose of the Annual Meeting

At the Annual Meeting, we are asking holders of record of the Company's common stock to consider and vote on the following proposals:

- the adoption of the merger agreement (see "The Merger," beginning on page 13 of this Proxy Statement and "Proposal 1 - The Merger Agreement" beginning on page 39 of this Proxy Statement);
- the election of three Class III directors to serve on our Board of Directors, each for a term of three years (see "Proposal 2 - Election of Directors," beginning on page 58 of this Proxy Statement);
- the ratification of the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP as our independent registered public accounting firm for fiscal 2007 (see "Proposal 3 - Ratification of the Appointment of the Independent Registered Accounting Firm," beginning on page 78 of this Proxy Statement);
- the approval of the adjournment or postponement of the Annual Meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to permit the further solicitation of proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the Annual Meeting to adopt the merger agreement (see "Proposal 4 - Adjournment or Postponement of the Annual Meeting," beginning on page 79 of this Proxy Statement); and
- such other matters and transaction of such other business, as may properly come before the Annual Meeting.

Record Date; Stockholders Entitled to Vote; Quorum

The holders of record of shares of the Company's common stock as of the close of business on December 11, 2006, which is the Record Date for the Annual Meeting, are entitled to receive notice of, and to vote at, the Annual Meeting.

On the Record Date, there were [_____] shares of the Company's common stock outstanding held by approximately [_____] stockholders of record. Holders of more than 50% of the shares of the Company's common stock issued and outstanding as of the Record Date and entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting must be present in person or represented by proxy at the Annual Meeting to constitute a quorum to transact business at the Annual Meeting. Both abstentions and broker "non-votes" will be counted as present for purposes of determining the existence of a quorum. In the event that a quorum is not present at the Annual Meeting, we currently expect that we will adjourn or postpone the Annual Meeting to solicit additional proxies.

Vote Required

Set forth below are the votes required in order to adopt, effect or ratify the following proposals:

- Adoption of the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of the Company's common stock outstanding on the Record Date and entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting;
- The election of the three nominees for director requires a plurality of the votes cast at the Annual Meeting in person or by proxy;

- The ratification of the appointment of the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for fiscal 2007 requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the votes cast at the Annual Meeting; and
- The adjournment or postponement of the Annual Meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to permit the further solicitation of proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the Annual Meeting to adopt the merger agreement, requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the votes cast at the Annual Meeting.

Each holder of a share of the Company's common stock is entitled to one vote per share. Failure to vote your proxy (by returning a properly executed proxy card) or to vote in person will have the same effect as a vote ☐AGAINST☐ adoption of the merger agreement, but will not affect the outcome of the vote regarding the election of directors, the ratification of the selection of our independent registered public accounting firm or the adjournment or postponement, if necessary or appropriate, to permit further solicitation of proxies.

Brokers or other nominees who hold shares of the Company's common stock in ☐street name☐ for customers who are the beneficial owners of such shares may not give a proxy to vote those customers' shares for non-routine matters in the absence of specific instructions from those customers. These non-voted shares of the Company's common stock will not be counted as votes cast or shares voting and will have the same effect as votes ☐AGAINST☐ adoption of the merger agreement, but will not affect the outcome of the vote regarding the election of directors, the ratification of the selection of our independent registered public accounting firm or the adjournment or postponement of the Annual Meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to permit further solicitation of proxies.

Voting

Stockholders may vote their shares by attending the Annual Meeting and voting their shares of the Company's common stock in person, or by completing the enclosed proxy card, signing and dating it and mailing it in the enclosed postage-prepaid envelope. All shares of the Company's common stock represented by properly executed proxies received in time for the Annual Meeting will be voted at the Annual Meeting in the manner specified by the holder. If a written proxy card is signed by a stockholder and returned without instructions, the shares of the Company's common stock represented by the proxy will be voted ☐FOR☐ the adoption of the merger agreement, the election of directors, the ratification of the selection of our independent registered public accounting firm and the adjournment or postponement of the Annual Meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to permit further solicitation of proxies.

Stockholders who hold their shares of the Company's common stock in ☐street name,☐ meaning in the name of a bank, broker or other person who is the record holder, must either direct the record holder of their shares of the Company's common stock how to vote their shares or obtain a legal proxy from the record holder to vote their shares at the Annual Meeting.

Revocability of Proxies

You can revoke your proxy at any time before it is voted at the Annual Meeting by:

- giving written notice of revocation to any of the persons named as proxies or to the Secretary of the Company;
- submitting another properly completed proxy bearing a later date; or

- voting in person at the Annual Meeting.

If your shares of the Company's common stock are held in the name of a bank, broker, trustee or other holder of record, you must follow the instructions of your broker or other holder of record to revoke a previously given proxy. If your broker or nominee allows you to submit a proxy by telephone or through the Internet, you may be able to change your vote by submitting a proxy again by telephone or through the Internet.

Solicitation of Proxies

In addition to solicitation by mail, the Company's directors, officers and employees may solicit proxies by telephone, other electronic means or in person. These people will not receive any additional compensation for their services, but we will reimburse them for their out-of-pocket expenses. THE MERGER

The following is a description of the material aspects of the merger. While we believe that this description covers the material terms of the merger, it may not contain all of the information that is important to you. You should carefully read this entire Proxy Statement in order to fully understand the merger. The merger agreement is attached as Annex A to this Proxy Statement. We urge you to read carefully the full text of the merger agreement. The following description is subject to, and is qualified in its entirety by reference to, the merger agreement.

General; Certain Effects of the Merger

If the merger agreement is adopted by the Company's stockholders and the other conditions to the closing of the merger are either satisfied or waived, Merger Subsidiary will be merged with and into the Company, and the Company will be the surviving corporation. When the merger is completed, the Company will cease to be a publicly traded company and will instead become a wholly owned subsidiary of Parent.

Upon completion of the merger, each share of the Company's common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger (other than shares held in the Company's treasury or owned by any subsidiary of the Company or by Parent or held by a stockholder who has not voted in favor of the merger or consented to the merger in writing and who has demanded appraisal for such shares in accordance with the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, until such time as such holder fails to perfect, withdraws or otherwise loses such holder's appraisal rights under the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware) will be converted into the right to receive $12.50 in cash, without interest.

The merger agreement provides that at the effective time of the merger, each option to purchase shares of the Company's common stock, including those options held by our directors and executive officers, that is outstanding at the effective time of the merger will terminate at the effective time of the merger in exchange for a payment equal to the number of shares of the Company's common stock subject to such option multiplied by the amount, if any, by which $12.50 exceeds the exercise price of the option. The merger agreement further provides that as of the effective time of the merger, all restricted stock awards granted by the Company pursuant to any of the Company's equity or incentive compensation plans, agreements or arrangements with respect to which shares of the Company's common stock remain unvested or awarded but unissued as of the effective time of the merger will be cancelled and the holder of each such award will receive from Parent or the surviving company, at or promptly after the effective time of the merger, an amount in cash, without interest, equal to $12.50 for each share of the Company's common stock subject to such award. In each case, any such payment will be reduced by any required federal state, local and foreign withholding taxes.

At the effective time of the merger, the Company's current stockholders will cease to have ownership interests in the Company or rights as the Company's stockholders. Therefore, the Company's current stockholders will not participate in any of the Company's future earnings or growth and will not benefit from any appreciation in the Company's value.

The Company's common stock is currently registered under the Exchange Act and is listed on the NYSE under the symbol JJZ. As a result of the merger, the Company will no longer be a publicly traded company and there will be no public market for the Company's common stock. After the merger, the Company's common stock will cease to be listed on the NYSE, and price quotations with respect to sales of shares of common stock in the public market will no longer be available. In addition, registration of the Company's common stock under the Exchange Act will be terminated. This termination will make certain provisions of the Exchange Act, such as the requirement of furnishing a proxy or information statement in connection with stockholders' meetings, no longer applicable to the Company. After the effective time of the merger, the Company will also no longer be required to file periodic reports with the SEC on account of the Company's common stock.

At the effective time of the merger, the Company's certificate of incorporation will be amended in its entirety to be as set forth in Exhibit A to the merger agreement. In addition, the by-laws of Merger Subsidiary, as in effect immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, will become the by-laws of the surviving corporation. At the effective time of the merger, the directors of Merger Subsidiary will become the directors of the surviving corporation; however, the officers of the Company at the effective time will remain the officers of the surviving corporation.

Background of the Merger

Historical Background

In October 2004, the Board of Directors commenced a strategic review of the Company's business and operations and reviewed a report prepared by the Boston Consulting Group regarding the Company's operations and business strategies. At this time, the Board of Directors also determined to seek a buyer for the Company's non-core Rexair (vacuum-cleaner) business and to review how best to redeploy proceeds from any sale of Rexair, including through potential acquisitions by the Company. As a result of the proposed sale of Rexair, the Board determined to analyze and discuss several alternative strategies for the Company. These alternative strategies included acquisitions to increase the size of Jacuzzi Bath and/or Zurn Plumbing, the sale of Jacuzzi Bath to focus the Company on Zurn Plumbing, the sale of Zurn Plumbing, the sale of the Company as a whole and a recapitalization of the Company (which included refinancing the Company's debt and repurchasing shares of the outstanding common stock). In December 2004, as part of this analysis and discussion, the Company asked Lazard to prepare a review of the Company's strategic business plan, potential acquisition strategies and these other strategic alternatives for the Board of Directors, which was scheduled to meet in early February 2005.

At the meeting of the Board of Directors in February 2005, after receiving Lazard's presentation and discussing current industry conditions and the Company's operating facilities and cost structures, as well as the report prepared by the Boston Consulting Group, the Company's Board authorized its Chairman and Lazard, with oversight by the Board's Finance Committee, to gauge the potential interest of prospective buyers in the Company, Jacuzzi Bath or Zurn through discreet approaches to a number of strategic and financial parties. As a result, various parties were approached by Lazard, and eight prospective buyers received summary non-public financial information on the Company: Apollo and Companies A, B, C, D, E, F and G. (We cannot identify these companies by name due to the Company's confidentiality obligations.) Companies A, B, C, F and G declined to further explore a transaction opportunity with the Company.

With respect to the financial buyers contacted, Apollo, with whom the Company had had some recent contact as part of a potential acquisition opportunity, indicated interest and was permitted to conduct some preliminary due diligence to arrive at an indicative valuation for the Company as a whole. After preliminary due diligence, Apollo concluded that it would be unable to provide a premium acceptable to the Board of Directors over the then current share price (approximately $9.00 to $10.50 over the due diligence period).

Of the strategic parties contacted, Company D was the only one to demonstrate interest in acquiring the Company as a whole (the other strategic parties either had no interest in the Company or had interest only in certain pieces, particularly in Zurn). The Company's Chairman and the Chair of the Board's Finance Committee held high-level discussions with Company D's Chairman and senior management, during which Company D indicated a strong interest in pursuing an acquisition and requested an initial round of due diligence, including a meeting with management to discuss the Company's operations.

In early April 2005, a team of Company D senior managers visited the Company's headquarters and held two days of meetings to discuss the Company's operations, financial performance and legal position (particularly regarding the Company's potential asbestos exposure related to Zurn). Shortly thereafter, Company D's senior management reaffirmed Company D's interest in pursuing a transaction involving the whole Company and proposed a two-month period of in-depth due diligence with a view toward executing a definitive merger agreement by the end of June 2005.

Company D undertook a full review of the Company, including an extensive schedule of site visits, a review of environmental and other legacy liabilities of the Company, access to a comprehensive electronic data room and meetings with management to discuss the Company's operations and financial performance.

In parallel, the Company was holding discussions with Company E regarding its European Bath operations (Company E had in past years indicated interest in portions of Jacuzzi Bath and had over time had dialogue with the Company's Chairman regarding potential opportunities). In May 2005, Company E presented a preliminary proposal valuing the Company's European and Asian Bath operations at $250-$290 million. The preliminary proposal was subject to further due diligence.

In early May 2005, the Company publicly announced the sale of its Rexair subsidiary and, more broadly, the intention of the Company's Board to review its strategic alternatives with the assistance of Lazard. This announcement, coupled with the announced sale later that month of the Company's Eljer bath subsidiary (a line of ceramic, composite and iron sanitary ware), led to intensifying market speculation that the Company was considering a possible strategic transaction or merger, leading to a material increase in share price.

Later in May 2005, the Company solicited indications of interest for the entire Company in order to provide a framework around which to evaluate a potential proposal from Company D, which was continuing to perform its diligence. At the Board's request, Lazard contacted the following parties and provided them with summary financial information: Companies H, I and J. (We cannot identify these companies by name due to the Company's confidentiality obligations.) These parties either declined to make an offer or offered an "at market" value for the Company. In addition, following its inquiry regarding the process, Company K was invited to submit a proposal for the Jacuzzi Bath business and was provided with preliminary non-public information regarding the business.

Throughout the quarter ending June 30, 2005, the financial results for Jacuzzi Bath were deteriorating and failing to meet management's earlier expectations.

In early June 2005, Company D's senior management communicated to the Company's Chairman that, although it was still interested in the Company from a strategic standpoint, it would be unable to pay a premium price for the Company. Company D's financial advisors indicated that the Company's then current valuation in the public market and its declining financial forecasts had contributed to the decision.

During June 2005, at the Company's request, Lazard was asked to provide the most updated financial forecasts (prepared in June 2005) to Company I and Company K, which were asked to submit revised proposals for Jacuzzi Bath. In addition, Company L, which had recently purchased a competitor of Jacuzzi Bath, indicated interest in Jacuzzi Bath with a valuation range of $575 to $650 million. The Company decided not pursue a transaction with Company L because it believed that a more attractive transaction was available by selling the European and Asian operations of Jacuzzi Bath to Company E, as described below, and selling the North and South American operations of Jacuzzi Bath to Company I. After Company E determined not to make an offer for the European and Asian operations of Jacuzzi Bath, the Company did not re-open negotiations with Company L because by that time the financial results of Jacuzzi Bath had further deteriorated and the Company did not see any benefit in further disclosing the operations of Jacuzzi Bath to a competitor. Accordingly, the Board decided to focus on stabilizing Jacuzzi Bath's operations.

Company I had initially indicated a valuation range of $500 to $550 million for Jacuzzi Bath, but soon indicated to Lazard that it would have difficulty making an offer even at the low end of that range. The Company believed that this indication of interest was too low relative to other indications of interest in Jacuzzi Bath, and as a result, Lazard encouraged Company I to submit a proposal to acquire Jacuzzi Bath's North and South American operations in light of the potentially attractive indication of interest from Company E to acquire Jacuzzi Bath's European and Asian operations, as further described below. After Company E determined not to make an offer for Jacuzzi Bath's European and Asian operations, the Company did not proceed with a possible sale of the North and South American operations of Jacuzzi Bath to Company I because the Company believed that selling a portion of Jacuzzi Bath did not make sense in terms of the overall development of the Jacuzzi brand, which is international in scope.

In determining to recommend the merger to the Company's stockholders, the Board reviewed its discussions with Company I and noted that Company I had failed to make an offer acceptable to the Board. In addition, the Board of Directors noted that Jacuzzi Bath's EBITDA had declined significantly between June 2005 and September 2006, and thus the Board believed that a price within the valuation ranges for Jacuzzi Bath that Company I and Company L had indicated in June 2005 could not be obtained currently. Accordingly, for the foregoing reasons and the reasons noted in this proxy statement, the Board determined that it would be in the best interests of the Company's stockholders for the Company to enter into the merger agreement while preserving the right of the Company to terminate the merger agreement as permitted by the merger agreement if a superior proposal were to be made by a third-party, including

Company D. In this regard, the Board of Directors specifically negotiated a termination fee (approximately 2% of the transaction value of $1.25 billion) that the Board believes would not materially impair the ability of a third-party to make a superior proposal.

Concurrently, in mid-June 2005, Company D, through its financial advisors, indicated an interest in the Company's Jacuzzi Bath business and presented an initial valuation of $500 million. After further discussion between the respective senior management teams (as well as the Company's Chair of its Finance Committee), the two sides discussed a proposal valuing Jacuzzi Bath at approximately $550 million, subject to material price adjustments. Over the next several weeks, however, it became clear that there would be significant downward adjustments to this initial proposed valuation to a value for Jacuzzi Bath in the range of $450 million to $500 million. Company D also expressed concern over Jacuzzi Bath's legacy liabilities, product liabilities, environmental liabilities and underfunding of the U.K. pension plan. As a result of these issues, Company D terminated talks with the Company and did not make a definitive offer to acquire Jacuzzi Bath.

In determining to recommend the merger to the Company's stockholders, the Board reviewed its discussions with Company D and noted that Company D had conducted extensive due diligence reviews regarding the Company as a whole and Jacuzzi Bath, and in each case had failed to make an offer acceptable to the Board or had been unable to reach agreement with the Company regarding a possible sale transaction. In addition, the Board of Directors noted that Jacuzzi Bath's EBITDA had declined significantly between June 2005 and September 2006, and thus the Board believed that valuation ranges for Jacuzzi Bath that Company D had indicated in June 2005 could not be obtained currently. Accordingly, for the foregoing reasons and the reasons noted in this proxy statement, the Board determined that it would be in the best interests of the Company's stockholders for the Company to enter into the merger agreement while preserving the right of the Company to terminate the merger agreement as permitted by the merger agreement if a superior proposal were to be made by a third-party, including Company D. In this regard, the Board of Directors specifically negotiated a termination fee (approximately 2% of the transaction value of $1.25 billion) that the Board believes would not materially impair the ability of a third-party to make a superior proposal.

In the meantime, in late June 2005, Company E reiterated its strong interest in Jacuzzi Bath's European and Asian operations and proposed a preliminary, pre-diligence valuation of $320 million ($380 million), on a cash- and debt-free basis. Company E was granted a period of approximately four weeks during which to conduct in-depth due diligence, including comprehensive access to financial, legal, environmental, legacy liability and other information and detailed site visits. Following its extensive review and in light of the continuing declining financial performance of Jacuzzi Bath, Company E decided not to submit a final offer. To address the declining financial performance of Jacuzzi Bath, in early August 2005, the Board of Directors decided to focus on stabilizing and restructuring the operations of Jacuzzi Bath, to deemphasize the continuing sale process and to replace the Company's Chief Operating Officer with Alex Marini, who at that time was serving as the Chief Executive Officer of Zurn. Mr. Marini promptly implemented several changes to the operations of Jacuzzi Bath directed at stabilizing its financial performance.

Over the course of the Fall of 2005, Company K (which, as noted above, had been provided some preliminary information regarding Jacuzzi Bath) continued to reiterate, through its financial advisors, its strong interest in purchasing Jacuzzi Bath. In early 2006, the Company's Board determined to explore a potential sale of Jacuzzi Bath to Company K. The Company's Chairman met with Company K's CEO, and a process was outlined whereby Company K would undertake intensive due diligence, including extensive access to senior management and financial and legal documentation, in order to determine if Company K would make an offer at a valuation level consistent with its indication of interest from the previous summer ($575-$625 million). Through May 2006, Company K dedicated significant resources to this due diligence process and to reviewing the potential structuring implications of Zurn's asbestos exposure with respect to an acquisition of Jacuzzi Bath and Jacuzzi Bath's pension obligations in the United Kingdom and other legacy liabilities. At the end of this process in May 2006, the Board determined that Company K was not prepared to make an offer to acquire Jacuzzi Bath that was acceptable to the Board.

In determining to recommend the merger to the Company's stockholders, the Board reviewed its discussions with Company K and noted that Company K had recently concluded in May 2006 an extensive due diligence review regarding Jacuzzi Bath, and based on this due diligence, Company K was not prepared to make an offer that would be acceptable to the Board to acquire Jacuzzi Bath. Accordingly, the Board of Directors did not believe there was any further benefit in reopening discussions with Company K regarding a sale of Jacuzzi Bath.

Following its extensive review of the business, Company K did not submit a definitive proposal. At this stage, the Company's Board decided to continue to focus on stabilizing Jacuzzi Bath's operations.

Beginning in early 2005 through the date of execution of the merger agreement, the Board of Directors actively pursued and considered the sale of Jacuzzi Bath. During this period, three strategic buyers conducted extensive due diligence and negotiated with the Company regarding a sale of Jacuzzi Bath (most recently in May 2006). As noted above, the Board of Directors considered several strategic alternatives to the proposed merger, which included having the Company remain independent, selling Jacuzzi Bath and recapitalizing of the Company, including having the Company repurchase its outstanding common stock with the proceeds from a sale of Jacuzzi Bath or a recapitalization of the Company. In determining to recommend the merger to the Company's stockholders, the Board concluded that the merger was superior to these alternatives for the reasons set forth in this proxy statement. See the section entitled "Reasons for the Merger" beginning on page 21 of this Proxy Statement.

Negotiations with Apollo

In early July 2006, Apollo reiterated its interest in acquiring the Company after teaming up with George Sherman (former CEO of Danaher). On July 14, 2006 Mr. Sherman and representatives of Apollo met with David H. Clarke, the then-current Chairman and Chief Executive of the Company, and Robert R. Womack, the Chairman of the Company's Finance Committee, and representatives of Lazard to discuss Apollo's interest in the Company. Following that meeting, a confidentiality agreement with Apollo was executed on July 20, 2006. On July 21, 2006, the parties held a kick-off due diligence meeting with Lazard, representatives of the Company and Apollo at Apollo's offices in New York City, during which members of the Company's senior management team gave a presentation to Apollo regarding the Company.

Following the meeting on July 21 held at Apollo's offices, Apollo verbally indicated to Lazard an initial offer price of $11.00 per share. Over the next several days, Lazard and Apollo continued to discuss price, with Lazard indicating that Apollo's initial offer price was too low for the Company's Board to consider. Lazard noted to Apollo that the implied EBITDA multiples at the initially proposed $11.00 per share offer price were inconsistent with precedent transactions and below what other acquirors had paid for similar businesses. As a result, Apollo later verbally increased its offer price to $12.00 per share. Late in the week of July 31, and due to Lazard's request that the previously indicated offer price of $12.00 per share be further increased, Apollo verbally indicated a revised offer price of $12.50 per share. Lazard suggested that Apollo put forward its proposal to the Company's Board in writing.

On August 5, 2006, in a letter to the Board of Directors of the Company, Apollo submitted a non-binding proposal of $12.50 per share cash offer. The offer was subject to, among other things, Apollo obtaining all necessary debt financing, but Apollo expressed confidence that it would be able to do so, and completing its due diligence (including with respect to environmental and other legacy liability issues).

On August 7, 2006, the Company's Finance Committee convened and decided to recommend to the Board to allow Apollo to proceed with its due diligence, commencing with corporate level issues and asbestos, environmental and other legacy liability issues.

On August 8, 2006, the Board of Directors met and adopted the recommendation of the Finance Committee to allow Apollo to proceed with due diligence. The Board of Directors also determined that the Chairman of the Company's Finance Committee would lead negotiations with Apollo.

On August 14, 2006, Southeastern Asset Management (referred to herein as "SAM"), the Company's largest stockholder, filed a Schedule 13D with the SEC and stated in part that SAM supported the Board's decision to name Alex Marini as Chief Executive Officer of the Company and would like to work with Mr. Marini and the Board during the transition in management to assess the various long-term strategies available to maximize the Company's value. In response to this filing, the Board of Directors invited representatives of SAM to meet with the Board to permit SAM to express their views. Subsequently, representatives of SAM presented their strategic views regarding the Company to the Board of Directors at a meeting in New York City on September 13, 2006.

Edgar Filing: JACUZZI BRANDS INC - Form PRER14A

These views included SAM's belief that Mr. Marini was an excellent manager who could over time increase the value of the Company, that SAM supported the election of Mr. Waldin as Chairman of the Board and that the Board should consider selling Jacuzzi Bath and use the sale proceeds to recapitalize the Company and repurchase shares of common stock. SAM also indicated that it did not believe that the Company should be sold. SAM's views are further set forth in its Amendment No. 1 to its Schedule 13D filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on October 11, 2006. Because SAM did not want to enter into a confidentiality agreement with the Company, the Board of Directors did not engage in a substantive discussion with SAM on, or express its views with respect to, these issues at this meeting. The Board of Directors took into account and considered the views of and strategies suggested by SAM and also considered several strategic alternatives to the proposed merger, which included having the Company remain independent, selling Jacuzzi Bath and recapitalizing of the Company, including having the Company repurchase its outstanding common stock with the proceeds from any sale of Jacuzzi Bath or any recapitalization of the Company. In determining to recommend the merger to the Company's stockholders, the Board concluded that the merger was superior to these alternatives.

On August 21, 2006, Apollo met with senior management of the Company and Lazard in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania to review the corporate cost structure, Zurn's operations, the Company's full-year projections and to allow potential lenders to make due diligence inquiries.

On August 25, 2006, after Apollo confirmed that its corporate level due diligence, including with respect to environmental and other legacy liability issues, had not resulted in any modification to its initial proposal, the Company arranged with Apollo for additional due diligence and site visits (including site visits to conduct environmental due diligence). Also at this time, Apollo reaffirmed that it wanted Alex Marini, the Company's Chief Executive Officer, to have a continuing senior role running Zurn after consummation of the merger. In response, the Board of Directors requested that Apollo not make any proposal to or enter into any negotiations with Mr. Marini regarding his employment after the merger with an affiliate of Apollo. Mr. Marini was similarly instructed.

During the period of August 25, 2006 to September 25, 2006, detailed business due diligence and site visits (including site visits to conduct environmental due diligence) were conducted and concluded.

Apollo's Investment Committee met on September 11, 2006 and approved the proposed acquisition of the Company and reaffirmed its proposal of $12.50 per share in cash in a letter to the Company's Board of Directors dated September 12, 2006. Apollo's letter indicated that it needed to complete additional diligence in a few selected areas and indicated that it was in on-going discussions with its lenders regarding its debt financing. Apollo also asked for a termination fee of $39 million or $0.50 per share under certain circumstances and the reimbursement of all its expenses if the Company's stockholders failed to approve the merger proposal.

In response to the September 12 proposal from Apollo, the Company, through Lazard, asked for clarification of Apollo's acquisition structure and requested draft copies of the lenders' debt commitment letters when available.

On September 13, 2006 the Board of Directors met with representatives of SAM as described above and later received a report from the Chairman of the Finance Committee regarding the status of discussions with Apollo.

On September 14, Apollo sent a letter to the Company indicating that, after the effective time of the merger, Zurn would be acquired by Rexnord Corporation, an Apollo portfolio company, and Jacuzzi Bath would be acquired by a newly formed affiliate of Apollo (Bath Newco). The letter indicated that there would be two separate financings, one for Rexnord and one for Bath Newco. Apollo further noted that the financing structure would require separate audited financial statements to be prepared for each of Zurn and Jacuzzi Bath. Shortly thereafter, Apollo's legal advisors provided comments to the draft merger agreement previously sent to Apollo by the Company.

On September 21, Apollo sent to the Company and its advisors copies of the draft debt commitment letters which were consistent with the acquisition and financing structure described in its September 14 letter. Apollo asked that the "drop dead" date be March 31, 2007.

On September 22, the Finance Committee of the Board of Directors met to consider the Company's annual budget for fiscal year 2007 and long-range projections for the Company. All Directors were invited to attend the meeting of the Finance Committee, and most of the Directors attended. At that meeting, members of the Board also received an update regarding Apollo's merger proposal and proposed acquisition structure and financing. After consideration and discussion, the Finance Committee directed the Company's advisors to communicate to Apollo that the proposed financing structure was not acceptable because it was too conditional and created delays. In particular, the Board of Directors objected to the condition to financing that required the Company to deliver to the lenders separate audited financials for each of Zurn and Jacuzzi Bath. As an alternative, the Company proposed that in lieu of a financing condition in the merger agreement, Apollo have the right to terminate the merger agreement for an agreed termination fee if financing could not be obtained. The Company indicated that it would permit Apollo to obtain all necessary debt financing to effect the merger by no later than February 1, 2007. The Company's legal advisors also communicated the Board's view that the tightening of the no-shop and other deal protection features of the merger agreement proposed by Apollo's legal advisors were not acceptable and that the requested termination fee and expense reimbursement were too high.

On September 26, Apollo told the Company and its advisors that, after consultation with its lenders, Apollo's lenders had revised the terms of the debt financing commitment papers so that such financing would not be conditioned upon the receipt of separate audited financials for Jacuzzi Bath and Zurn, but rather only audited consolidated financial statements of the Company. Apollo reiterated its request that the merger agreement be conditioned on Apollo receiving all necessary debt financing and asked that the "drop dead" date be February 15, 2007. Apollo also made proposals regarding the conditions under which payment of the termination fee would be made, reimbursement of its expenses and the ability of the Board of Directors to terminate the merger agreement to accept a superior proposal, but did not change its position regarding the size of the termination fee or its request for all of its expenses to be reimbursed if the Company's stockholders did not approve the merger.

On September 26, the Board of Directors met with its legal advisors and Lazard. Lazard reviewed with the Board Apollo's revised proposal and the terms of Apollo's proposed debt financing. Lazard also reviewed with the Board Lazard's financial analysis of the merger consideration and rendered to the Board its oral opinion to the effect that, as of that date, the merger consideration was fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of the Company's common stock. This opinion was later confirmed in writing at the time the parties entered into the merger agreement (see the section entitled "Opinion of the Company's Financial Advisor," beginning on page 25 of this Proxy Statement). The Company's 30% equity interest in Rexair was considered by Lazard for purposes of its fairness opinion and included in Lazard's precedent transactions sum-of-the parts financial analysis presented to the Company's Board of Directors. See "Opinion of Company's Financial Advisor - Precedent Transactions Sum-of-the-Parts Analysis." In this analysis, Lazard valued the Company's interest in Rexair at $20 million. In addition, the aggregate amount of an approximate $7.6 million cash dividend that the Company received from Rexair Fiscal 2006 was included by Lazard in the calculation of the Company's outstanding indebtedness (net of cash).

On September 28, Thomas B. Waldin, Chairman-elect of the Board, Mr. Womack, representatives of senior management of the Company and representatives of Lazard flew to Memphis, Tennessee to meet with senior representatives of SAM, the Company's largest stockholder. SAM had previously executed a confidentiality agreement with the Company. At the meeting, Messrs. Waldin and Womack reviewed with SAM the proposed offer from Apollo to acquire the Company. Lazard summarized for SAM its financial analysis of the merger consideration as further described in this proxy statement. See the section entitled "Opinion of Company's Financial Advisor" beginning on page 25 of this Proxy Statement. After listening to this presentation, SAM stated that it opposed the proposal from Apollo because it believed that the Company should not be sold at this time. SAM's reasons for its opposition to the merger are set forth in its Amendment No. 1 to its Schedule 13D filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on October 11, 2006, shortly after public announcement by the Company of the proposed merger with Parent, in which SAM also acknowledged that it was bound by a standstill agreement that SAM had entered into with the Company in December 2002. See "Ownership of Common Stock" beginning on page 74 of this Proxy Statement for a summary of the standstill agreement. Except as disclosed herein or in SAM's amended Schedule 13D, the Company is not aware of any other reasons for SAM's opposition to the proposed merger with Parent. After this meeting with SAM, Lazard informed Apollo of SAM's position with respect to Apollo's proposal. Apollo later informed the Company that it would be prepared to enter into the merger agreement with the Company without the support of SAM.

Later on September 28, the Board of Directors met and received a summary from Messrs. Waldin and Womack of their visit to SAM, including SAM's objections to the proposal from Apollo. Counsel reviewed for the Board of Directors the obligations of SAM under the standstill agreement between SAM and the Company. In particular, the standstill agreement requires SAM to vote the Company's voting shares that it holds in excess of 15% of the aggregate number of outstanding voting shares in accordance with the recommendation of the Company's Board or in proportion to votes cast by the other holders of voting shares and does not permit SAM to solicit proxies or solicit proposals from third parties to acquire the Company (for further details, see the section entitled Ownership of

Common Stock of Certain Beneficial Owners, beginning on page 74 of this Proxy Statement). The Board also reviewed with its advisors the status of negotiations with Apollo on its proposal. Company counsel then reviewed with the Board the current terms of the draft merger agreement with an affiliate of Apollo, including the closing conditions to the merger and the closing conditions to the debt financing contained in the debt commitment letters. Counsel also reviewed the provisions in the draft merger agreement relating to the Board's ability to respond to unsolicited acquisition proposals in order to comply with the Board's fiduciary duties and to the terms of the termination fee and expense reimbursement. Counsel informed the Board that negotiations with Apollo had resulted in a reduction in the size of the proposed termination fee from $39 million (or $0.50 a share) to $35 million (or $0.45 a share) and that Apollo had agreed to cap its expenses that would be reimbursed under certain circumstances. Counsel also indicated the areas in the merger agreement where the Company had been unable to reach agreement with Apollo, particularly with respect to restrictions on the Company's ability to accept a superior proposal and terminate the merger agreement. At the conclusion of the meeting, the Board determined to continue deliberations the following week when all directors would be available for a meeting.

Between meetings, Apollo's and the Company's legal advisors continued to negotiate the provisions of the merger, but in certain areas, including employee benefits and the Board's ability to respond to unsolicited acquisition proposals in order to comply with the Board's fiduciary duties and the termination fee and expense reimbursement obligations of the Company in such event, these positions remained substantially unchanged. Apollo continued to complete its due diligence, including with respect to environmental and other legacy liability issues, and to finalize its financing arrangements.

On September 30, Mr. Clarke resigned as Director and Chairman of the Board in accordance with his previously agreed retirement arrangements with the Company. Mr. Waldin replaced Mr. Clarke as Chairman of the Board.

On October 5, the Board of Directors met to continue its deliberations on the proposal from Apollo. The Board received an update from Lazard and from its legal advisors regarding the current open issues, which included employee benefits and the Board's ability to respond to unsolicited acquisition proposals in order to comply with the Board's fiduciary duties and the termination fee and expense reimbursement obligations of the Company in such event. The Board also reviewed the issues associated with proceeding with the merger proposal from Apollo in light of the opposition to such proposal from SAM. At the conclusion of the meeting, the Board instructed its advisors to seek further concessions from Apollo, including a further loosening of the provisions in the merger agreement restricting the Board's ability to talk to third parties regarding acquisition proposals. These issues were communicated to Apollo and its advisors. Further discussions between the parties regarding these issues followed, including a possible increase in the merger consideration, which Apollo rejected.

In response to the issues raised by the Company, Apollo proposed reducing the termination fee to $25 million (or $0.32 per share) and agreed to cap its reimbursable expenses at $6 million should the Company's stockholders fail to approve the merger. Apollo also agreed to accept the Company's proposed wording in the merger agreement relating to material adverse effect and the Board's ability to accept a superior proposal.

On Monday, October 9, the Board of Directors met to discuss the revised proposal from Apollo. The Board of Directors also reviewed with counsel the risks associated with accepting the merger proposal from Apollo and the risks associated with having the Company remain independent. Following questions from the Board and discussion, the Board of Directors directed its advisors to conclude final negotiations with Apollo and its advisors regarding the proposed merger.

On Tuesday, October 10, the Board of Directors met to review the final terms of the merger agreement, and Lazard reiterated its opinion (which was later confirmed in writing) to the effect that, as of that date, the merger consideration was fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of the Company's common stock. Following discussion and questions by the Board, the Board of Directors (with six directors in favor and two directors abstaining) approved and declared advisable the merger agreement and the merger and resolved to recommend that the Company's stockholders adopt the merger agreement. Mr. Marini abstained based on the appearance of a conflict of interest arising from the likelihood that he would be a member of senior management of Rexnord Corporation following consummation of the merger. Mr. McAtee stated that he abstained because he believed that this was not the time to sell the Company in light of its improved prospects, the recent installation of top management experienced in, and focused on, the operations of the Company, the delays and complications he saw in the merger and the strong opposition to the transaction by SAM. Mr. McAtee stated that he also abstained (rather than voted against the merger) because the Company would not have to bring litigation against SAM under all circumstances to enforce the terms of the standstill agreement entered into on December 5, 2002 unless such enforcement was necessary, advisable or proper under applicable law to consummate the merger.

After the meeting of the Board of Directors, the Company and affiliates of Apollo executed the merger agreement, and prior to the opening of financial markets on Wednesday, October 11 the Company issued a press release announcing the merger.

Reasons for the Merger

In the course of reaching its decision to approve the merger agreement and the merger, the Board consulted with senior management and the Company's financial and legal advisors, reviewed a significant amount of information and considered a number of factors, including the following:

- The merger price proposed by Apollo represents the highest price that the Company was offered for the acquisition of the Company and the Board's belief that it is unlikely that a third party would propose to acquire the Company at a higher price per share.
- The $12.50 per share price represents a 46.4% premium to the closing price of $8.54 on August 4, 2006 (the last trading day prior to Apollo submitting its proposal); a 20.8% premium to the closing price of $10.35 on October 10, 2006 (the last trading day prior to the Board's approval of the merger); a 20.2% premium to the closing price seven days prior to October 11, 2006; a 28.5% premium to the closing price 30 days prior to October 11, 2006; a 13.9% premium over the 52-week high for the period ending October 10, 2006; and a 21.3% premium to the average closing price over the 30-day period ending October 10, 2006.
- The structure of the merger as an all cash transaction will allow the Company's stockholders to immediately realize fair value, in cash, for their investment and will provide them with certainty of value for their shares.
- The terms and conditions of the merger agreement, including:
 - The right of the Board, under certain circumstances, to furnish information and to conduct negotiations with a third party regarding an alternative acquisition proposal that may arise between the date of the merger agreement and the date of the Annual Meeting, and, upon payment of a termination fee of $25 million, to terminate the merger agreement and accept an alternative acquisition proposal in instances where the Company's directors determine that the failure to take such action would be inconsistent with their fiduciary duties to the Company's stockholders under applicable law.
 - The Board's belief that the termination fee of $25 million was reasonable.
- The likelihood that the merger will be completed, including the Board's expectation that there will not be significant antitrust or other regulatory impediments to the transaction, that the necessary financing will be obtained by Parent and that the receipt of third-party consents (other than governmental approval) is not a condition to the completion of the merger.
- The terms of the debt and equity commitment letters obtained by Parent, particularly the fact that the Company can enforce the equity commitment letter against Apollo and the fact that the commitment letters are not subject to closing conditions requiring the Company to meet specified financial tests.
- The extensive strategic review process conducted by the Board, with the assistance of its financial and legal advisors.

The Board's view that the merger is more favorable to stockholders than any other alternative reasonably available to the Company and its stockholders, including continuing to operate the business as a stand-alone, independent company in light of the uncertain returns to the Company's stockholders from the Company's business, operations, financial condition and prospects as well as the risks involved in achieving those prospects and leveraging the Company with additional debt because the values achieved would not be expected to exceed the proposed merger consideration and because of the risk associated with operating the Company with increased debt.

- The competitive landscape of the markets in which the Company operates and its position in such markets.
- The risk that the Company's business is cyclical and the Company's markets have recently been cyclically strong.
- The financial presentation of Lazard, including its opinion, dated October 11, 2006 to the Board as to the fairness, from a financial point of view and as of the date of its opinion, of the merger consideration to be received by holders of the Company's common stock.
- The fact that the Company's stockholders will have the opportunity to approve or disapprove of the merger.
- If the merger is approved, the availability of appraisal rights under Delaware law for the Company's stockholders who disagree with the merger.

The Board also considered a number of potentially negative factors, including the following:

- The all-cash purchase price will not allow the Company's stockholders to participate in the future growth of the Company, if any.
- The receipt of cash by the Company's stockholders in exchange for their shares will generally be a taxable transaction for U.S. federal income tax purposes.
- The Company is restricted from soliciting alternative acquisition proposals.
- A termination fee of $25 million or reimbursement of documented expenses of Parent not to exceed $6 million are payable to Parent under specified circumstances.

- The objection of SAM to the merger.
- While the merger is expected to be completed, there is no assurance that all conditions to the parties' obligations to complete the merger will be satisfied or waived, and as a result, it is possible that the merger might not be completed even if approved by the Company's stockholders.
- The risk that the merger might not be approved by the appropriate governmental authorities.
- The risk that Parent will not be able to obtain all necessary financing to consummate the merger.
- The risks and costs to the Company if the merger is not consummated, including the diversion of management and employee attention and potential employee attrition.
- The restrictions contained in the merger agreement on the conduct of the Company's business prior to completion of the merger, which may delay or prevent the Company from undertaking business opportunities that may arise pending consummation of the merger.

The foregoing discussion of the factors considered by the Board is not intended to be exhaustive, but does set forth the principal factors considered by the Board. The Board collectively reached the conclusion to approve the merger agreement and the merger in light of the various factors described above and other factors that each member of the Board felt were appropriate. In view of the wide variety of factors considered by the Board in connection with its evaluation of the merger and the complexity of these matters, the Board did not consider it practical, and did not attempt, to quantify, rank or otherwise assign relative values to the specific factors it considered in reaching its decision and did not undertake to make any specific determination as to whether any particular factor, or any aspect of any particular factor, was favorable or unfavorable to the ultimate determination of the Board. Rather, the Board made its recommendation based on the totality of information presented to it and on the investigation conducted by

it. In considering the factors discussed above, individual directors may have given different weights to different factors.

Recommendation of the Company's Board of Directors

After careful consideration of many factors, including those described above, and consultation with its legal counsel and its financial advisor, the Board determined that the merger agreement and the merger are advisable and in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders. Accordingly, the Board has approved the merger agreement and the merger. The Board recommends that the Company's stockholders vote "FOR" the adoption of the merger agreement.

Projections

Other than historically providing periodic near-term earnings guidance, the Company does not as a matter of course make public its management's forecasts or projections of future performance or earnings. In connection with the proposed merger, the Company has determined to make available to its stockholders projections of the Company's anticipated future operating performance for the fiscal years ending 2007 and 2008 that the Company prepared in September 2006. These projections were provided to Apollo in September 2006 (and relied upon by Lazard in its fairness opinion) in connection with its due diligence review in anticipation of a potential acquisition of the Company. These projections were not prepared with a view towards public disclosure or compliance with published guidelines of the SEC, the guidelines established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants for prospective financial information or generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP"). The Company's independent registered public accounting firm has not compiled or examined any of the projections or expressed any conclusion or provided any form of assurance with respect to the projections and, accordingly, assumes no responsibility for them.

The projections included below are forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Exchange Act, and are subject to risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those statements and should be read with caution. They are subjective in many respects and thus susceptible to interpretations and periodic revisions based on actual experience and recent developments. While presented with numerical specificity, the projections were not prepared by the Company in the ordinary course and are based upon a variety of estimates and hypothetical assumptions made by the Company's management with respect to, among other things, the nature of the housing markets where the Company sells its products, general economic, market, interest rate and financial conditions, the domestic commercial and institutional construction activity, the availability and cost of capital for future investments, the Company's ability to lease or re-lease space at current or anticipated rents, changes in the supply of and demand for the Company's products, competition within the Company's industry and other market conditions, and other matters. None of the assumptions underlying the projections may be realized, and they are inherently subject to significant business, economic and competitive uncertainties and contingencies, all of which are difficult to predict and many of which are beyond the Company's control. Accordingly, there can be no assurance that the assumptions made in preparing the projections will prove accurate, and actual results may materially differ. In addition, the projections do not take into account any of the transactions contemplated by, or permitted under, the merger agreement, including the merger itself, which may also cause actual results to materially differ.

For these reasons, as well as the bases and assumptions on which the projections were compiled, the inclusion of the information set forth below should not be regarded as an indication that the projections will be an accurate prediction of future events or that any recipient of the projections considered, or now considers, them to be a reliable predictor of future events, and they should not be relied on as such. No one has made, or makes, any representation regarding the information contained in the projections and, except as required by applicable securities laws, neither the Company nor Parent intends to update or otherwise revise the projections to reflect circumstances existing after the date when made or to reflect the occurrences of future events even in the event that any or all of the assumptions are shown to be in error.

The major assumptions underlying the projections include:

- execution of business strategies to outperform the residential housing market, which we expect to decline but moderate while the renovation market improves;
- strong domestic commercial and institutional construction activity;
- new product introductions driving sales and market share increases for Bath;
- successful marketing initiatives to increase spa market share in a significantly declining domestic market, together with increased penetration of European markets;
- continued conversion of copper plumbing to PEX consistent with recent industry trends;
- return to profitability of the UK operations following 2-year trend of increasing losses;
- product price increases to offset continued overall inflationary cost pressures on commodities including energy;
- reductions of corporate overhead costs, showing benefits in 2008; and
- increased non-cash pension income, primarily due to a higher discount rate.

Opinion of the Company's Financial Advisor

The Company engaged Lazard to act as its financial advisor in connection with a variety of financial matters related to strategic alternatives, including a review of the Company's strategic business plan associated with remaining independent and also a potential sale of the Company. Lazard was selected to act as investment banker to the Company because of its expertise and its reputation in investment banking and mergers and acquisitions. Lazard has delivered to the Company's Board of Directors a written opinion, dated October 11, 2006, that, as of that date, and based upon and subject to various factors, assumptions and limitations set forth therein, the merger consideration to be paid to the holders of the Company's common stock in the merger was fair to such holders from a financial point of view. The Company did not give Lazard any specific instructions, including what valuation methodologies to use, with respect to Lazard's fairness opinion. In connection with its opinion, Lazard used customary valuation methodologies based on Lazard's experience and judgment in the valuation of businesses and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, recapitalizations and similar transactions.

The full text of the Lazard opinion is attached as Annex B to this Proxy Statement and is incorporated into this Proxy Statement by reference. The description of the Lazard opinion set forth in this Proxy Statement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Lazard opinion set forth in Annex B. You are urged to read the Lazard opinion in its entirety for a description of the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered, and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by Lazard in connection with the opinion. Lazard's written opinion is directed to the Company's Board of Directors and only addresses the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the merger consideration to be paid in the merger to holders of the Company's common stock as of the date of the opinion. Lazard's written opinion does not address the merits of the underlying decision by the Company with respect to the merger, does not address the relative merits of or consideration offered in any other transaction as compared to the merger and is not intended to, and does not, constitute a recommendation to any stockholder of the Company as to how such stockholder should vote with respect to the merger or any matter relating thereto. Lazard's opinion is necessarily based on economic, monetary, market, and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to Lazard as of, the date of the Lazard opinion. Lazard assumes no responsibility for updating or revising its opinion based on circumstances or events occurring after the date of the opinion. The following is only a summary of the Lazard opinion. You are urged to read the entire opinion.

In the course of performing its review and analyses in rendering its opinion, Lazard:

- Reviewed the financial terms and conditions of the merger agreement;
- Analyzed certain historical business and financial information relating to the Company;
- Reviewed various financial forecasts and other data provided to Lazard by the Company relating to its businesses;
- Held discussions with members of the senior management of the Company with respect to the businesses, prospects and strategic objectives of the Company;
- Reviewed public information with respect to certain other companies in lines of business Lazard believes to be generally comparable to the businesses of the Company;
- Reviewed the financial terms of certain business combinations involving companies in lines of business Lazard believes to be generally comparable to those of the Company, and in other industries generally;
- Reviewed the historical stock prices and trading volumes of the Company's common stock; and
- Conducted such other financial studies, analyses and investigations as Lazard deemed appropriate.

Lazard has relied upon the accuracy and completeness of the foregoing information, and did not assume any responsibility for any independent verification of such information or any independent valuation or appraisal of any of the assets or liabilities of the Company, or concerning the solvency or fair value of the Company. With respect to financial forecasts, Lazard assumed that they have been reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of management of the Company as to the future financial performance and results of operations of the Company. Lazard based its assumption upon calls with the management team responsible for preparing the financial projections, participation with management throughout the diligence process and the review and approval of the financial projections by the Finance Committee of the Board of Directors. At the direction of the Board of Directors of the Company, in rendering Lazard's opinion it relied upon the financial forecasts provided to Lazard on September 22, 2006. The Finance Committee of the Board of Directors reviewed and approved the financial projections and found Lazard's reliance to be reasonable. Lazard assumed no responsibility for and expressed no view as to any such forecasts or the assumptions on which they are based.

In rendering its opinion, Lazard assumed that the merger would be consummated on the terms described in the merger agreement, without any waiver, amendment or modification of any material terms or conditions, and that the necessary regulatory approvals would be timely received. Lazard did not express any opinion as to any tax or other consequences that might result from the merger, nor did its opinion address any legal, tax, regulatory or accounting matters, as to which Lazard understood that the Company obtained such advice as it deemed necessary from qualified professionals. In addition, Lazard did not express any opinion as to the price at which the Company's common stock may trade after any announcement of the proposed merger. Lazard's opinion is necessarily based on economic, monetary, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to Lazard as of, October 11, 2006. Lazard has no responsibility for advising any person of any change in any matter affecting this opinion or for updating or revising its opinion based on circumstances or events occurring after such date. The Company currently does not anticipate obtaining an updated or revised opinion from Lazard prior to the Annual Meeting.

The following is a summary of the material financial and comparative analyses which Lazard deemed to be appropriate for this type of transaction and that were performed by Lazard in connection with rendering its opinion. The summary of Lazard's analyses described below is not a complete description of the analyses underlying Lazard's opinion. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex analytical process involving various determinations as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analyses and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances, and, therefore, is not readily susceptible to summary description. In arriving at its opinion, Lazard considered the results of all the analyses and did not attribute any particular weight to any factor or analysis considered by it; rather, Lazard made its determination as to fairness on the basis of its experience and professional judgment after considering the results of all of the analyses.

In its analyses, Lazard also considered industry performance, general business, economic, market and financial conditions, and other matters, many of which are beyond the control of the Company. No company, transaction or business used in Lazard's analyses as a comparison is identical to the Company or the proposed merger, and an evaluation of the results of those analyses is not entirely mathematical. Rather, the analyses involve complex considerations and judgments concerning financial and operating characteristics and other factors that could affect the acquisition, public trading or other values of the companies, business segments, or transactions analyzed. The estimates contained in Lazard's analyses and the ranges of valuations resulting from any particular analysis are not necessarily indicative of actual values or predictive of future results or values, which may be significantly more or less favorable than those suggested by the analyses. In addition, analyses relating to the value of businesses or securities do not purport to be appraisals or to reflect the prices at which businesses or securities actually may be sold. Accordingly, the estimates used in, and the results derived from, Lazard's analyses are inherently subject to substantial uncertainty.

The financial analyses summarized below include information presented in tabular format. In order to fully understand Lazard's financial analyses, the tables must be read together with the text of each summary. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the financial analyses. Considering the data in the tables below without considering the full narrative description of the financial analyses, including the methodologies and assumptions underlying the analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of Lazard's financial analyses.

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis

Using projections provided by the Company, Lazard performed a discounted cash flow analysis with respect to the Company. A discounted cash flow analysis is a customary method of valuing an asset using estimates of the future cash payments from the asset, referred to as that asset's future cash flows, and taking into consideration the time value of money with respect to those future cash flows by calculating their "present value." "Present value" refers to the current value of future cash flows and is obtained by discounting those future cash flows or amounts by a discount rate, as described below.

Lazard performed an analysis of the present value of the unlevered free cash flows (or after-tax earnings before interest and taxes, plus depreciation and amortization, less capital expenditures and increases in working capital requirements and other non-cash adjustments) that the Company could generate from 2007 and beyond. Using the projections provided by the Company, Lazard performed a discounted cash flow analysis valuing the Company based on the present value of the projected unlevered free cash flow for 2007 to 2011 and the present value of the terminal value in 2011, which is designed to represent the Company's going concern value after the forecast period. This analysis assumed a perpetual growth rate ranging from 3.0% to 5.0% (which was chosen in Lazard's professional judgment and experience as a reflection of general economic growth) in the years following the financial forecast period provided by the Company's management, to calculate the terminal value, and a discount rate ranging from 10.0% to 11.0%, which was based on an analysis of selected public companies with analyst coverage that Lazard viewed as reasonably comparable to the Company's Jacuzzi Bath division or Zurn business including featuring a similar product line and geographic presence to the Company. Based upon the projections and assumptions set forth above, Lazard calculated the following range of implied per share equity values for the Company's common stock, and Lazard noted a range of implied per share equity values, using a discount rate of 10.5%, of approximately $8.50 to $12.00. Lazard noted that the per share merger consideration of $12.50 was higher than the range implied by the foregoing analysis.

Discount Rate	Perpetual Free Cash Flow Growth Range
	3.0%	4.0%	5.0%
10.0%	$9.48	$11.19	$13.60
10.5%	8.59	10.04	12.02
11.0%	7.81	9.05	10.71

Present Value of Future Stock Price

Lazard performed a discounted equity value analysis, which is designed to provide an indication of the future value of a company's equity as a function of the company's future earnings and its current price to earnings per share multiple. The resulting value is then discounted to arrive at a present value for the Company's future stock price. Lazard first calculated implied 2008 and 2009 per share equity values for the Company's common stock by applying price-to-earnings per share multiples ranging from 15.0x to 17.0x to estimates by the Company of 2008 and 2009 earnings per share, respectively. Lazard then calculated implied per share equity values for the Company's common stock based on the present value (at a discount rate of 12% based on industry comparables, which was based on an analysis of selected public companies that Lazard viewed as reasonably comparable to the Company's Jacuzzi Bath division or Zurn business, including featuring a similar product line and geographic presence, and estimates relating to the Company's cost of equity capital) of these 2008 and 2009 per share equity values. Based upon the projections and assumptions set forth above, Lazard calculated the following range of implied per share equity values for the Company's common stock, and Lazard noted a range of implied per share equity values of approximately $11.25 to $12.75. Lazard noted that the per share merger consideration of $12.50 was within the range implied by the foregoing analysis.

	2008 (Projected)	2009 (Projected)
EPS	$0.94	$1.11
Reference P/E Multiples	15.0x-17.0x	15.0x-17.0x
Future Per Share Value	$14.06-$15.93	$16.65-$18.87
Present Value Per Share	$11.21-$12.70	$11.85-$13.43

Public Market Comparables Sum-of-the-Parts Analysis

A sum-of-the parts valuation analysis reviews a business's operating performance and outlook on a segment-by-segment basis to determine an implied market value for the enterprise as a whole. Lazard performed a sum-of-the-parts valuation analysis for the Jacuzzi Bath division of the Company and the Zurn business.

Lazard performed a "comparable public companies" analysis to calculate an implied valuation for the Company based on a valuation of comparable companies for each segment. Using publicly available information, Lazard reviewed and compared certain financial and stock market information for the Company with that of American Standard, Masco Corporation and Toto, in the case of the Jacuzzi Bath division, and Watts Water Technologies and Geberit, in the case of the Zurn business. These comparable companies were chosen because they are publicly traded companies with operations that for purposes of this analysis may be considered reasonably similar including featuring a similar product line and geographic presence to the Company. For each of these comparable companies, Lazard calculated the multiple of enterprise value to estimated 2007 EBITDA for each company (on a basis consistent with the Company's fiscal year-end). Lazard then calculated the implied per share equity values for the Company's common stock by applying 12-month EBITDA multiples of 7.0x, in the case of the Jacuzzi Bath division, reflecting Lazard's professional judgment of the growth position of the Jacuzzi Bath division with regards to the range of comparable multiples of 7.1x to 8.7x, 8.0x, in the case of the Zurn business, reflecting Lazard's professional judgment of the Zurn business premium with regards to the comparable multiple of the leading industry participant of 7.9x, and 6.0x, in the case of the unallocated corporate expenses, (which, based upon the guidance of the Company's management, were assumed to be 30% of the Company's total corporate expenses), reflecting Lazard's professional judgment that the unallocated corporate expenses will have a lower growth rate than the company's business, to the Company's projected 2007 EBITDA. In general, for purposes of this analysis, comparable public companies are compared based on projected EBITDA rather than historical EBITDA. Based upon the projections and assumptions set forth above, Lazard calculated a range of implied per share equity values for the Company's common stock of approximately $12.00 to $12.50. Lazard noted that the per share merger consideration of $12.50 was within the range implied by the foregoing analysis.

Precedent Transactions Sum-of-the-Parts Analysis

A sum-of-the parts valuation analysis reviews a business's operating performance and outlook on a segment-by-segment basis to determine an implied market value for the enterprise as a whole. Lazard performed a precedent transactions sum-of-the-parts valuation analysis for the Jacuzzi Bath division of the Company and the Zurn business by analyzing precedent acquisition transactions in both the Jacuzzi Bath and Zurn sectors.

Lazard performed a precedent transaction analysis to calculate an implied valuation for the Company based on the financial terms of selected transactions that share some characteristics with the merger. Lazard reviewed publicly available information relating to the following nine transactions in the bath and plumbing sectors that it deemed relevant based upon the acquisition of a company with reasonably comparable operations to the Company's Jacuzzi Bath division or Zurn business, including featuring a similar product line and geographic presence to the Company:

Date	Acquiror	Target
Jacuzzi Bath
December 2002	Masco Corporation	Hansgrohe AG
March 2004	J.W. Childs Associates, L.P.	MAAX Inc.
May 2004	Texas Pacific Group and Credit Suisse First Boston Private Equity	Grohe Group
February 2005	EQT IV Fund	Sanitec Corporation
Zurn
February 1998	U.S. Industries, Inc. (the Company)	Zurn Industries, Inc.
December 2003	Geberit Company	Chicago Faucet Company
December 2003	Geberit Company	Mapress Holding GmbH
December 2005	Watts Water Technologies Inc.	Dormont Manufacturing Co.
May 2006	Watts Industries Europe BV	Groupe ATS Expansion

For each selected comparable transaction, Lazard calculated the multiple of total transaction value to EBITDA of the acquired business for the latest 12-month period preceding the acquisition. Lazard then calculated implied per share equity values for the Company's common stock by applying EBITDA multiples ranging from 7.5x to 8.5x, in the case of the Bath division, and from 9.0x to 10.0x, in the case of the Zurn business, to the Company's estimated 2006 EBITDA, as adjusted for corporate expenses, a portion of which were allocated to each of the Jacuzzi Bath division and Zurn business, the potential impact of legacy liabilities of approximately $25 million, other cash liabilities of approximately $23 million and UK pension plan obligations of approximately $34 million, offset by the positive impact of non-operating assets of approximately $24 million and tax assets of approximately $25 million. Based upon the guidance of the Company's management, 30% of the corporate expenses had been unallocated, and the remaining expenses were allocated 60% to the Jacuzzi Bath division and 40% to the Zurn business (as well as 100% of the pension income to the Zurn business). In general, for purposes of this analysis, precedent transactions are compared based on historical EBITDA rather than projected EBITDA because projected EBITDA is not available for past transactions. Based upon the projections and assumptions set forth above, Lazard calculated a range of implied per share equity values for the Company's common stock of approximately $11.50 to $13.00. Lazard noted that the per share merger consideration of $12.50 was within the range implied by the foregoing analysis.

Premiums Paid Analysis

Lazard reviewed publicly available information regarding all-cash acquisition transactions completed since January 2003 with transaction values from $200 million to $2 billion. For each transaction, Lazard analyzed, as of the announcement date, the premium offered by the acquiror to the target's closing price one day, seven days and thirty days prior to the announcement of the transaction. The median of premiums for each of these periods ranged from 21% to 27% (18% to 20% in financial sponsor transactions). Based on these data, Lazard applied a range of 20%–30% to the closing price of the Company's common stock on August 4, 2006 ($8.54), prior to the submission of the Apollo proposal to the Company regarding the $12.50 per share merger price, and on the date of Lazard's presentation to the Company's Board of Directors ($10.40). Based upon the projections and assumptions set forth above, Lazard calculated a range of implied per share equity values for the Company's common stock of approximately $10.25 to $13.50. Lazard noted that the per share merger consideration of $12.50 was within the range implied by the foregoing analysis.

Miscellaneous

Lazard's opinion was not the only factor considered by the Company's Board of Directors in its evaluation of the merger and should not be viewed as determinative of the views of the Company's Board of Directors or the Company's management.

Under an engagement letter dated as of April 6, 2005, as subsequently amended, the Company is to pay Lazard a gross transaction fee of $7.27 million. The Company has a credit of $1.5 million for fees previously paid to Lazard, leading to a net transaction fee of approximately $5.77 million, the payment of which is contingent upon the completion of the merger. The Company has also agreed to reimburse Lazard for its reasonable out-of-pocket expenses, including the reasonable expenses of legal counsel, and to indemnify Lazard and related parties against liabilities, including liabilities under the federal securities laws, arising out of its engagement. In the ordinary course of Lazard's business, Lazard, Lazard Capital Markets LLC (an entity owned in large part by the managing directors of Lazard), and their respective affiliates may actively trade shares of the Company's common stock and other securities of the Company for their own account and for the accounts of their customers and, accordingly, may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities. Lazard has in the past provided investment banking services to the Company, for which it received aggregate fees in the prior two years of $0.5 million.

Lazard is an internationally recognized investment banking firm and is continually engaged in the valuation of businesses and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, private placements, leveraged buyouts, and valuations for real estate, corporate, and other purposes. Lazard was selected to act as investment banker to the Company because of its expertise and its reputation in investment banking and mergers and acquisitions.

Financing

In connection with the merger, Parent will cause approximately $990 million to be paid out to the Company's stockholders and holders of options and restricted stock awards. In addition, approximately $280 million of outstanding debt, net of cash held by the Company, representing substantially all of the Company's then-outstanding debt, is expected to be repaid at closing of the merger. Parent has provided the Company with an equity commitment letter from Apollo and debt commitment letters from Credit Suisse, Credit Suisse Securities (USA) LLC, Bank of America, N.A., Banc of America Securities LLC, UBS Loan Finance LLC and UBS Securities LLC that together will provide for approximately $1.4 billion of cash to finance its acquisition of the Company, which includes an aggregate $935 million of funded debt and $455 million of equity investment from Apollo and its affiliates. While Parent has agreed to acquire the Company as a whole, and the consummation of the merger is not contingent on the separate acquisitions of Jacuzzi Bath and Zurn, which, if effected, would be effected by Parent after the merger, Parent has chosen to finance Jacuzzi Bath and Zurn separately. The committed financing for the acquisition of Jacuzzi Bath consists of $325 million of funded debt and $130 million of equity, and the committed financing for the acquisition of Zurn consists of $610 million of funded debt and $325 million of equity.

Debt Financing

Parent and Merger Subsidiary received debt financing commitments on October 11, 2006 from Credit Suisse, Credit Suisse Securities (USA) LLC, Bank of America, N.A., Banc of America Securities LLC, UBS Loan Finance LLC and UBS Securities LLC. Pursuant to the debt financing commitments, and subject to their terms and conditions, such financial institutions have committed to provide, in a total aggregate amount of up to $1.16 billion (including $935 million of funded debt), the following amounts:

- The committed debt financing for the acquisition of Jacuzzi Bath consists of a $125 million asset-based first lien revolving credit facility, a $135 million first lien term loan facility and a $190 million second lien term loan facility; and
- The committed debt financing for the acquisition of Zurn consists of a $100 million first lien revolving credit facility, a $360 million first lien term loan facility and a $250 million second lien term loan facility.

Proceeds of the foregoing debt facilities may be used for the purpose of (i) paying the merger consideration, (ii) financing the cost of the tender offer and consent solicitation for the Company's outstanding 9.625% Senior Secured Notes due 2010 (see the section entitled "Proposal 1 - The Merger Agreement," beginning on page 39 of this Proxy Statement), (iii) financing the retirement of any other existing outstanding indebtedness of the Company and (iv) paying fees and expenses related to the foregoing.

Conditions Precedent to the Debt Commitments

The initial borrowing under each of the credit facilities described above will be subject to the satisfaction or waiver of certain other conditions precedent, including the following:

- consummation of the merger and related transactions;
- the receipt of exit consents from holders of a majority of the outstanding aggregate principal amount of the Company's outstanding 9.625% Senior Secured Notes due 2010, in connection with the tender offer and consent solicitation;
- the receipt of audited financial statements of the Company for each of the fiscal years in the three-fiscal year period ended September 30, 2006 and certain other unaudited financial statements of the Company and its subsidiaries, on a consolidated basis, for certain fiscal periods ending prior to consummation of the merger;
- there not having occurred any material adverse effect on the Company and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole;

- the accuracy of representations and warranties made by the Company and its subsidiaries pursuant to the merger agreement that are material to the interests of the lenders under the debt facilities and other specified representations and warranties; and
- other customary conditions for financings of this type, including customary definitive loan documents.

The debt financing commitments expire at 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on March 17, 2007.

Equity Financing

Parent has received an equity commitment letter dated October 11, 2006 from Apollo pursuant to which Apollo has agreed to cause certain of its affiliated investment funds, successors and assigns to contribute up to $455 million in cash equity financing to Parent, of which $130 million relates to the acquisition of Jacuzzi Bath and $325 million relates to the acquisition of Zurn.

The consummation of the equity investment contemplated by the equity commitment letter is subject to (i) the satisfaction or waiver of all of the conditions precedent to the obligations of Parent and Merger Subsidiary set forth in the merger agreement (other than any condition precedent not satisfied due solely to the failure of Apollo to consummate the equity commitment) or (ii) the rendering of a final, non-appealable judgment awarding the Company damages due to a willful and intentional breach by Parent or Merger Subsidiary of its respective obligations under the merger agreement.

The Company is an express third-party beneficiary of the equity commitment letter and may enforce the terms of it directly against Apollo.

Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger

In considering the recommendation of the Board with respect to the merger agreement, holders of shares of the Company's common stock should be aware that the Company's executive officers and directors have interests in the merger that may be different from, or in addition to, those of the Company's stockholders generally. These interests may create potential conflicts of interest. The Board was aware of these potential conflicts of interest and considered them, among other matters, in reaching its decision to approve the merger agreement and to recommend that the Company's stockholders vote in favor of adopting the merger agreement.

Stock Holdings, Stock Options and Restricted Stock Awards

The merger agreement provides that each holder of shares of the Company's common stock, including the Company's directors and executive officers, will be entitled to receive $12.50 in cash, without interest, for each share of the Company's common stock held immediately prior to the merger. The merger agreement also provides that at the effective time of the merger, each option to purchase shares of the Company's common stock, including those options held by the Company's directors and executive officers, that is outstanding at the effective time of the merger will terminate at the effective time of the merger in exchange for a payment equal to the number of shares of the Company's common stock subject to such option multiplied by the amount, if any, by which $12.50 exceeds the exercise price of the option. The merger agreement provides further that, effective as of the effective time of the merger, all restricted stock awards, including those held by the Company's directors and executive officers, granted by the Company pursuant to any of the Company's equity or incentive compensation plans, agreements or arrangements with respect to which shares of the Company's common stock remain unvested or awarded but unissued as of the effective time of the merger will be cancelled and the holder of each such award will receive from Parent or the surviving company, at or promptly after the effective time of the merger, an amount in cash, without interest, equal to $12.50 for each share of the Company's common stock subject to such award. In each case, any such cash payment will be reduced by any required federal, state, local and foreign withholding taxes.

The table below sets forth, as of [____], 2006, for each of the Company's executive officers and directors:

- the number of shares of the Company's common stock then held;
- the amount of cash that will be paid in respect of such shares upon consummation of the merger;
- the number of shares subject to options then held by such person, whether or not vested;
- the amount of cash that will be paid in respect of cancellation of such option upon consummation of the merger;

- the number of restricted stock units then held by such person, whether or not vested, with respect to which shares of the Company's common stock remain unvested or awarded but unissued;
- the amount of cash that will be paid in respect of cancellation of such restricted stock units upon consummation of the merger; and
- the total amount of cash that will be received by such person in respect of such shares, options and restricted stock units upon consummation of the merger.

All dollar amounts are gross amounts and do not reflect deductions for income taxes and other withholding. In each case with respect to options, the payment is calculated by multiplying the number of shares subject to each option by the amount, if any, by which $12.50 exceeds the exercise price of the option.

- (1) In addition, during the period between the signing of the merger agreement and the consummation of the merger, pursuant to the Company's Amended and Restated Non-Employee Director Deferred Compensation Plan (the "Deferred Compensation Plan") and subject to the limitations set forth in the merger agreement, the Company will grant additional restricted stock units to its non-employee directors who are participants in the plan in lieu of cash compensation in accordance with the terms of the plan and in the ordinary course of business consistent with the Company's past practices.

Change of Control Severance Agreements with Executive Officers

The Company has established severance arrangements that apply in the event of a change of control for the benefit of each of its executive officers — Steven C. Barre, Diana E. Burton, Marie S. Dreher, Alex P. Marini, Jeffrey B. Park and Francisco V. Puñal — that may be triggered by the merger. With respect to Messrs. Barre, Marini, Park, Puñal and Ms. Burton, these provisions are contained within the employment agreement of the executive officer; with respect to Ms. Dreher, the Company entered into a separate change of control agreement contemporaneously with the execution of her employment agreement.

Under their respective agreements, each of Messrs. Barre, Marini, Park and Puñal and Mmes. Burton and Dreher is entitled to receive, among other things, the following severance benefits if, within two years after a change of control (as defined in the applicable agreement), he or she is terminated by the Company without cause or he or she terminates his or her employment for good reason (as defined in the applicable agreement) or, if during the 30-day period beginning on the date that occurs twelve months after a change of control the executive officer (with the exceptions of Mr. Puñal and Ms. Burton) terminates his or her employment for any reason: (i) the accrued amounts (which amounts include, without limitation, any declared but unpaid bonus, any amount of base salary or deferred compensation accrued or earned but unpaid, any accrued but unused vacation pay and unreimbursed business expenses), (ii) lump sum payments equal to two times base salary and target bonus, (iii) two years of additional service and compensation credit for pension purposes, (iv) two years of the maximum Company 401(k) contribution, and (v) payment of COBRA or health coverage premiums for two years. The respective agreements further provide that if the named executive officers receive severance and other payments that exceed certain threshold amounts and result from a change in ownership (as defined in Section 280(G)(b)(2) of the Code), they will receive additional amounts to cover the federal excise tax and any interest or penalties with respect thereto on a gross-up basis.

Under their respective agreements, the executive officers are required to execute a release prior to receiving severance payments and they must comply with certain provisions relating to confidential information, non-competition and non-solicitation.

In addition, these executives participate in certain of the Company's non-qualified defined benefit pension plans that provide for the accelerated payment of benefits on a discounted basis in the event of a change of control. The Company's former Long-Term Incentive Plan (LTIP) also provides for a payout of the executive's accrued balance upon a change of control.

The amount of cash payments that each executive officer would receive under their respective severance arrangements and other accelerated benefits noted above, based on their current compensation, would be approximately $1,390,785 for Mr. Barre; $692,688 for Ms. Burton; $1,142,462 for Ms. Dreher; $2,956,998 for Mr. Marini; $1,452,196 for Mr. Park; and $769,904 for Mr. Puñal. In addition, as noted above, if these payments exceed certain threshold amounts and result from a change in ownership (as defined in Section 280(G)(b)(2) of the Code), each executive officer will receive additional amounts to cover the federal excise tax and any interest or penalties with respect thereto on a gross-up basis.

The agreements of Mr. Marini and Ms. Dreher provide that the transaction will not be deemed to constitute a change of control with respect to their severance agreements if the executive is or will be a direct or indirect equity participant in the purchasing company or group. Although Mr. Marini is not, as of the date of this Proxy Statement, an equity participant in the purchasing company or group and there is no agreement regarding this matter between Apollo and Mr. Marini, the Company currently anticipates that he will become such an equity participant. Under these circumstances, approximately $598,767 would be payable to Mr. Marini, solely in respect of the accelerated benefits noted above. Ms. Dreher is not, as of the date of this Proxy Statement, an equity participant in the purchasing company or group and the Company does not expect that she will be such an equity participant. If, however, she becomes an equity participant, approximately $68,383 would be payable to her, solely in respect of the accelerated benefits noted above.

As discussed below in "Executive Compensation" "Employment Agreements" "Retirement of David H. Clarke," beginning on page 71 of this Proxy Statement, Mr. Clarke retired from all positions with the Company on or prior to September 30, 2006. For Mr. Clarke, $8,357,840 would be payable in respect of the accelerated benefits noted above.

Indemnification of Officers and Directors

The merger agreement provides that certain indemnification and insurance arrangements for the Company's current and former directors and officers will be continued for six years following the closing date of the merger if the merger is consummated. These arrangements are described more fully in the section "Proposal 1" "The Merger Agreement" "Indemnification and Insurance," beginning on page 48 of this Proxy Statement.

Litigation Related to the Merger

We are aware of four purported class action lawsuits related to the merger filed in the Delaware Court of Chancery against the Company, each of the Company's directors and various other defendants, as the case may be, including Apollo, Parent, Merger Subsidiary and George M. Sherman (the non-executive Chairman of Rexnord Corporation, a portfolio company affiliated with Apollo), in the Court of Chancery in the State of Delaware in and for New Castle County. The lawsuits [Usheroff v. Jacuzzi Brands, Inc., et al., C. A. No. 2473-N (filed Oct. 13, 2006), Ryan v. Victor, et al., C.A. No. 2477-N (filed Oct. 13, 2006), Rubenstein v. Marini, et al., C. A. No. 2485-N (filed Oct. 20, 2006) and Worcester Retirement System v. Jacuzzi Brands, Inc., et al., C.A. No. 2531-N (filed Nov. 8, 2006)] generally allege, among other things, that the merger consideration to be paid to the Company's stockholders in the merger is unfair and grossly inadequate. In addition, the complaints allege that the Company's directors violated their fiduciary duties by, among other things, failing to take all reasonable steps to assure the maximization of stockholder value, including the exploration of strategic alternatives that will return greater or equivalent short-term value to the Company's stockholders. Certain of the complaints further allege that the preliminary proxy statement on Form 14A filed by the Company on November 2, 2006 is materially misleading and omits material facts. The complaints each seek, among other relief, certification of the lawsuit as a class action, a declaration that the merger is unfair, unjust and inequitable to the Company's stockholders, an injunction preventing completion of the merger at a price that is not fair and equitable, compensatory damages to the class, attorneys' fees and expenses, along with such other relief as the court might find just and proper.

Plaintiffs in one of the actions have sought expedited discovery and preliminary injunction proceedings. We believe that these lawsuits are without merit and plan to defend them vigorously. However, even if these lawsuits are determined to be without merit, they may potentially delay or, if the delay is substantial enough to prevent the consummation of the merger by February 15, 2007, potentially prevent the consummation of the merger. Additional lawsuits pertaining to the merger could be filed in the future.

Regulatory Matters

Mergers and acquisitions that may have an impact in the United States are subject to review by the Department of Justice and the Federal Trade Commission to determine whether they comply with applicable antitrust laws. Under the HSR Act, mergers and acquisitions that meet certain jurisdictional thresholds, such as the present transaction, may not be completed until the expiration or termination of a waiting period that follows the filing of notification forms by both parties to the transaction with the Department of Justice and the Federal Trade Commission. The initial waiting period is 30 days, but this period may be shortened if the reviewing agency grants [early termination] of the waiting period, or it may be lengthened if the reviewing agency determines that an in-depth investigation is required and issues a formal request for additional information and documentary material. The Company and Parent filed merger notifications with the U.S. antitrust authorities pursuant to the HSR Act on or about October 26, 2006, and early termination of the waiting period was granted, effective November 14, 2006.

The Company and Apollo conduct business in member states of the European Union. European Union Council Regulation 4064/89 requires notification of, and approval by, the European Commission of specific mergers or acquisitions involving parties with aggregate worldwide sales and individual European Union sales exceeding given thresholds before the mergers or acquisitions are implemented. The Company and Parent filed a final formal notification with the European Commission on November 29, 2006. The European Commission has 25 business days after such notification to issue its decision regarding the merger, which 25-day period is, under special circumstances, extendable by the European Commission for an additional 10-day period. After such period, the European Commission may elect to enter into a [Phase II] investigation, which is 90 business days from the date of notification, extendable by the European Commission for an additional 15-business-day period.

The Company and Apollo own property and conduct operations in a number of foreign countries, including in Brazil, in addition to those described above. In connection with the completion of the merger, the Company and Parent are required to file a notification with the CADE, Brazil's regulatory authority, within 15 business days of the execution of the merger agreement. The parties duly notified CADE of the merger on November 1, 2006. Brazilian law does not require a waiting period. Thus, the parties may consummate the merger without awaiting CADE's clearance.

Except as noted above with respect to the required filings under the HSR Act and the other required filings described above, and the filing of a certificate of merger in Delaware at or before the effective date of the merger, we are unaware of any material federal, state or foreign regulatory requirements or approvals required for the execution of the merger agreement or completion of the merger.

While the Company has no reason to believe it will not be possible to obtain these regulatory approvals in a timely manner and without the imposition of burdensome conditions, there is no certainty that these approvals will be obtained within the period of time contemplated by the merger agreement or on conditions that would not be detrimental. For example, at any time before or after completion of the merger, the Department of Justice or the Federal Trade Commission could take such action under the antitrust laws as it deems necessary or desirable in the public interest, including seeking to enjoin the consummation of the merger or seeking divestiture of substantial assets of Parent or the Company. Private parties may also bring actions under the antitrust laws under certain circumstances.

Under the merger agreement, the Company and Parent have each agreed to use all reasonable best efforts to take all actions to obtain all regulatory and governmental approvals necessary to consummate the merger.

Effects on the Company if the Merger is Not Completed

In the event that the merger agreement is not adopted by the Company's stockholders or if the merger is not completed for any other reason, stockholders will not receive any payment for their shares in connection with the merger. Instead, the Company will remain an independent public company and the Company's common stock will continue to be listed on the NYSE. In addition, if the merger is not completed, we expect that management will continue to operate the business and that the Company's stockholders will continue to be subject to the same risks and opportunities as they currently are, including, among other things, the nature of the housing markets where the Company sells its products and the domestic commercial and institutional construction activity on which our business largely depends, and general industry, economic and market conditions. Accordingly, if the merger is not consummated, these risks and opportunities may affect the future value of your shares of the Company's common stock. From time to time, the Board will evaluate and review the Company's business operations, properties, dividend policy and capitalization, among other things, make such changes as are deemed appropriate and continue to seek to identify strategic alternatives to maximize stockholder value. If the merger agreement is not adopted by the Company's stockholders or if the merger is not consummated for any other reason, there can be no assurance that any other transaction acceptable to us will be offered or that the Company's business, prospects or results of operations will not be adversely impacted.

If the merger agreement is terminated under certain circumstances, the Company will be obligated to pay a termination fee to Parent of $25 million.

Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences

The following are the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger. This discussion is based upon the provisions of the Code, the regulations promulgated under the Code, Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") rulings and judicial and administrative rulings in effect as of the date of this Proxy Statement, all of which are subject to change or varying interpretation, possibly with retroactive effect. Any such changes could affect the accuracy of the statements and conclusions set forth herein.

This discussion does not address all aspects of U.S. federal income taxation that may be relevant to a holder of the Company's common stock in light of such stockholder's particular circumstances, nor does it discuss the special considerations applicable to holders of the Company's common stock subject to special rules, such as U.S. Holders (as defined herein) whose functional currency is not the U.S. dollar (including U.S. Holders who maintain a registered address in the United Kingdom and elect to be paid in GBP); stockholders subject to the alternative minimum tax; stockholders who are financial institutions or broker-dealers; mutual funds; partnerships or other pass-through entities for U.S. federal income tax purposes; tax-exempt organizations; insurance companies; dealers in securities or foreign currencies; traders in securities who elect mark-to-market method of accounting; controlled foreign corporations; passive foreign investment companies; U.S. expatriates; stockholders who acquired their common stock through the exercise of compensatory stock options or similar derivative securities; or stockholders who hold the Company's common stock as part of a straddle, constructive sale or conversion transaction. This discussion also does not address the U.S. federal income tax consequences to holders of the Company's common stock who acquired their shares through stock option or stock purchase plan programs or in other compensatory arrangements, such as restricted stock awards granted by the Company. This discussion assumes that holders of the Company's common stock hold their shares as capital assets within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Code (generally property held for investment).

We intend this discussion to provide only a general summary of the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger. We do not intend it to be a complete analysis or description of all potential U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger. We also do not address foreign, state or local tax consequences of the merger. We urge you to consult your own tax advisor to determine the particular tax consequences to you (including the application and effect of any state, local or foreign income and other tax laws) of the receipt of cash in exchange for shares of the Company's common stock pursuant to the merger or upon the exercise of appraisal rights, in light of your individual circumstances.

If a partnership holds the Company's common stock, the tax treatment of a partner will generally depend on the status of the partner and activities of the partnership. If you are a partner of a partnership that holds the Company's common stock, you should consult your tax advisors.

For purposes of this discussion, we use the term "U.S. Holder" to mean:

- a U.S. citizen or individual resident of the United States for U.S. federal income tax purposes;
- a corporation, or other entity taxable as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes, created or organized in or under the laws of the United States or any state or the District of Columbia; or
- an estate or trust the income of which is subject to U.S. federal income tax regardless of its source.

A Non-U.S. Holder is a person (other than a partnership) that is not a U.S. Holder.

U.S. Holders

The receipt of cash for shares of the Company's common stock pursuant to the merger or upon the exercise of appraisal rights in connection with the merger will be a taxable transaction to U.S. Holders for U.S. federal income tax purposes. A U.S. Holder generally will recognize gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes equal to the difference, if any, between the amount of cash received and such U.S. Holder's adjusted tax basis for the shares surrendered. Generally, such gain or loss will be capital gain or loss.

Capital gain recognized from the surrender of common stock held for more than one year will be long-term capital gain. For individuals that are U.S. Holders, the maximum U.S. federal income tax rate applicable to long-term capital gains is 15%. Capital gain recognized from the disposition of common stock held for one year or less will be short-term capital gain subject to tax at ordinary income tax rates. In general, capital losses are deductible only against capital gains and are not available to offset ordinary income. However, individual taxpayers are permitted to offset a limited amount of net capital losses annually against ordinary income, and unused net capital losses may be carried forward to subsequent tax years.

U.S. Holders of the Company's common stock will be subject to information reporting on the cash received in the merger or upon the exercise of appraisal rights in connection with the merger unless such U.S. Holder is an "exempt recipient," such as a domestic corporation. In addition, such payments may be subject to backup withholding at the rates specified in the Code (currently at a rate of 28%), unless the stockholder or other payee (1) establishes that it is an exempt recipient or (2) provides its correct taxpayer identification number (social security number, in the case of an individual, or employer identification number in the case of other stockholders) and certain other information under penalties of perjury. To avoid backup withholding, each of our stockholders and, if applicable, each other payee, should complete, sign and return to the exchange agent for the merger the substitute Form W-9 that such stockholder will receive with the letter of transmittal following completion of the merger. Any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules are not additional taxes and may be refunded or credited against a stockholder's U.S. federal income tax liability, if any, provided that the required information is furnished to the IRS in a timely manner.

Non-U.S. Holders

Non-U.S. Holders generally will not be subject to U.S. federal income tax on any gain realized on the receipt of cash in the merger or upon the exercise of appraisal rights in connection with the merger unless:

- the gain is effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business of the Non-U.S. Holder (and if an applicable income tax treaty so provides, is also attributable to a permanent establishment or a fixed base in the United States maintained by such Non-U.S. Holder), in which case the Non-U.S. Holder generally will be taxed at the graduated U.S. federal income tax rates applicable to United States persons (as defined under the Code) and, if the Non-U.S. Holder is a foreign corporation, the additional 30% branch profits tax (or such lower rate as may be specified by an applicable income tax treaty) may apply;

- the Non-U.S. Holder is a nonresident alien individual who is present in the United States for 183 days or more in the taxable year of the merger and certain other conditions are met, in which case the Non-U.S. Holder may be subject to a 30% tax on the net gain realized in connection with the merger, which may be offset by U.S. source capital losses of the Non-U.S. Holder, if any; or
- the Company is or has been during the five-year period ending on the date of the merger, a "United States real property holding corporation" for U.S. federal income tax purposes and certain other circumstances apply, in which event the purchaser of our stock may withhold 10% of the cash payable to a Non-U.S. Holder in connection with the merger and a Non-U.S. Holder generally will be subject to the rules applicable to "effectively connected" income, as described above.

We do not believe that we are or have been a "United States real property holding corporation" for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

Non-U.S. Holders will be subject to information reporting and may be subject to backup withholding at the rates provided in the Code (currently at a rate of 28%) on the cash received in the merger or upon the exercise of appraisal rights in connection with the merger, unless the Non-U.S. Holder certifies under penalties of perjury that it is not a U.S. person under the Code (and the payor does not have actual knowledge or reason to know otherwise) or such holder otherwise establishes an exemption. Amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules are not additional taxes and may be refunded or credited against a Non-U.S. Holder's U.S. federal income tax liability, if any, provided that such Non-U.S. Holder furnishes the required information to the IRS in a timely manner.

Payment to U.K. Stockholders

At the election of any U.K. Stockholder, the paying agent will make payment of the merger consideration to such holder in GBP, rather than in USD. The merger consideration will be converted from USD into GBP at the spot rate in effect as of the effective time of the merger. If you are a U.K. Stockholder that would like to participate in this program, you must make the election to receive your merger consideration in GBP on or prior to the date of the Annual Meeting by checking the appropriate box on your proxy card and returning the proxy card in accordance with the voting instructions. A U.K. Stockholder should consult such U.K. Stockholder's tax advisor with respect to the tax consequences, if any, of receiving payment in GBP rather than in USD.

PROPOSAL 1 THE MERGER AGREEMENT

The following is a summary of the material terms of the merger agreement. This summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the merger agreement, which is attached to this Proxy Statement as Annex A and incorporated by reference in this section of the Proxy Statement. We urge you to read carefully the full text of the merger agreement.

General

If all of the conditions to the merger are satisfied or waived in accordance with the merger agreement, Merger Subsidiary, a wholly owned subsidiary of Parent created solely for the purpose of engaging in the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, will merge with and into the Company. The separate corporate existence of Merger Subsidiary will cease, and the Company will continue as the surviving corporation and will become a wholly owned subsidiary of Parent.

The merger will become effective upon the filing of a certificate of merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware or such later time as is set forth in the certificate of merger. The closing of the merger will occur as soon as practicable after the conditions to effect the merger set forth in the merger agreement have been satisfied or waived. Although the Company expects to complete the merger by February 15, 2007, we cannot specify when, or assure you that, the Company, Parent and Merger Subsidiary will satisfy or waive all conditions to the merger.

At the effective time of the merger, the Company's certificate of incorporation will be amended in its entirety to be as set forth in Exhibit A to the merger agreement. In addition, the by-laws of Merger Subsidiary, as in effect immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, will become the by-laws of the surviving corporation.

The directors of Merger Subsidiary immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will be the initial directors of the surviving corporation. The officers of the Company immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will be the initial officers of the surviving corporation.

The merger agreement and the summary of its terms have been included in this Proxy Statement to provide you with information regarding the terms of the merger agreement and are not intended to modify or supplement any factual disclosures about the Company in its reports filed with the SEC. In particular, the merger agreement and related summary are not intended to be, and should not be relied upon as, disclosures regarding any facts and circumstances relating to the Company or Parent. The representations and warranties have been negotiated with the principal purpose of establishing the circumstances in which a party may have the right not to close the merger if the representations and warranties of the other party prove to be untrue due to a change in circumstance or otherwise, and allocating risk between the parties, rather than establishing matters as facts. The representations and warranties may also be subject to a contractual standard of materiality different from those generally applicable to stockholders.

Merger Consideration

At the effective time of the merger, each share of the Company's common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will automatically be canceled and converted into the right to receive $12.50 in cash, without interest, other than shares of common stock:

- owned by the Company as treasury stock or owned by any subsidiary of the Company or by Parent immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, all of which will be cancelled without any payment; and

- held by a stockholder who has not voted in favor of the merger or consented to the merger in writing and who has demanded appraisal for such shares in accordance with the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, until such time as such holder fails to perfect, withdraws or otherwise loses such holder's appraisal rights under the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware.

As a result, after the merger is completed, the Company's stockholders of record will have only the right to receive this consideration, and will no longer have any rights as the Company's stockholders, including voting or other rights with respect to the shares.

Parent and the surviving corporation shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from the consideration otherwise payable to any holder of shares of the Company's common stock any amounts that are required to be deducted and withheld with respect to making such payment under the Code, or any other applicable state, local or foreign tax law.

Shares of the Company's common stock outstanding immediately prior to the effective time and held by a holder who has not voted in favor of, or consented in writing to, the merger and who has demanded appraisal for such shares in accordance with the Delaware General Corporation Law and as to which the right to appraisal has not failed to be perfected, been withdrawn or otherwise been lost in accordance with the provisions of the Delaware General Corporation Law will not be converted into a right to receive the merger consideration. Instead, the holder of such shares will be entitled to receive the fair value of such shares, as determined by the Delaware Court of Chancery, which may be more, the same or less than the per share merger consideration. See "Appraisal Rights," beginning on page 54 of this Proxy Statement. However, if, after the effective time, such holder fails to perfect, withdraws or loses the right to appraisal, such shares will be treated as if they had been converted as of the effective time into a right to receive the merger consideration.

Payment Procedures; Exchange of Certificates

Prior to the effective time of the merger, Parent will select an exchange agent for the purpose of exchanging certificates representing shares of the Company's common stock or uncertificated shares of the Company's common stock, in each case for the merger consideration. Prior to the effective time of the merger, Parent will make available to the exchange agent the merger consideration to be paid in respect of the certificates and uncertificated shares (other than the portion of the aggregate merger consideration allocable to dissenting shares). Within two business days after the date on which the merger is consummated, Parent will send, or will cause the exchange agent to send, to each holder of shares of the Company's common stock at the effective time a letter of transmittal and instructions for use in such exchange. Each holder of shares of the Company's common stock that have been converted into the right to receive the merger consideration will be entitled to receive, upon surrender to the exchange agent of a certificate, together with a properly completed letter of transmittal, or receipt of an "agent's message" by the exchange agent (or such other evidence, if any, of transfer as the exchange agent may reasonably request) in the case of a book-entry transfer of uncertificated shares, the merger consideration in respect of the Company's common stock represented by such certificate or uncertificated share. The surviving corporation and Parent are each entitled to deduct and withhold any applicable taxes from the merger consideration that would otherwise be payable.

If any portion of the merger consideration is to be paid to a person other than the person in whose name the surrendered certificate or the transferred uncertificated share is registered, either the certificate surrendered must be properly endorsed or otherwise in proper form for transfer, or such uncertificated share must be properly transferred, and the person requesting such payment must pay to the exchange agent any transfer or other taxes required as a result of such payment to a person other than the registered holder of such certificate or uncertificated share, or must establish to the satisfaction of the exchange agent that such tax has been paid or is not payable.

After the effective time of the merger, there will be no further registration of transfers of shares of the Company's common stock. If, after the effective time of the merger, certificates or uncertificated shares are presented to the surviving corporation, they will be canceled and exchanged for the merger consideration.

If your Company stock certificates have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact and, if required by the surviving corporation, posting a bond in such reasonable amount as the surviving corporation may direct as indemnity against any claim with respect to your certificates, the exchange agent will issue merger consideration to you in exchange for your lost, stolen or destroyed certificates.

Cash-Out of Stock Options and Restricted Stock Awards

At or immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, each option to purchase shares of the Company's common stock granted under any of the Company's employee stock option or compensation plans or arrangements, including each such option held by the Company's directors and executive officers, that is outstanding as of the effective time of the merger will be cancelled as of the effective time of the merger and the holder of each such option will receive from Parent or the surviving company, at or promptly after the effective time of the merger, an amount in cash, without interest, equal to the product of:

- the excess, if any, of $12.50 over the exercise price per share of common stock subject to such option, multiplied by
- the number of shares of the Company's common stock such holder could have purchased had such holder exercised such option in full immediately prior to the effective time of the merger.

Effective as of the effective time of the merger, all restricted stock awards (including restricted stock units) granted by the Company pursuant to any of the Company's equity or incentive compensation plans, agreements or arrangements with respect to which shares of the Company's common stock remain unvested or awarded but unissued as of the effective time of the merger will be cancelled and the holder of each such award will receive from Parent or the surviving company, at or promptly after the effective time of the merger, an amount in cash, without interest, equal to $12.50 for each share of the Company's common stock subject to such award.

In each case, such cash payment will be reduced by any required federal, state, local and foreign withholding taxes.

Representations and Warranties

The merger agreement contains representations and warranties that the Company made to Parent and Merger Subsidiary regarding, among other things:

- the Company's and its subsidiaries' organization, good standing and corporate power to operate its business;
- the Company's corporate power and authority to enter into the merger agreement and to consummate the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, and the enforceability of the merger agreement;

- the Company's insurance policies; and

In addition, Parent and Merger Subsidiary made representations and warranties to the Company regarding, among other things:

- the absence of conflicts with or violations of the organizational documents of Parent and Merger Subsidiary, applicable law and certain agreements as a result of the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;
- the accuracy of information supplied by Parent and Merger Subsidiary for inclusion in this Proxy Statement;
- the absence of undisclosed brokers' fees; and
- the debt and equity commitment letters received by Parent, including that such commitment letters are in full force and effect.

Many of these representations and warranties are qualified as to "materiality" or "material adverse effect." For the purposes of the merger agreement, "material adverse effect" means, with respect to the Company, Parent or Merger Subsidiary, as the case may be, any occurrence, condition, change, event or effect that has a material adverse effect on the ability of such party to perform its respective obligations under the merger agreement in all material respects or to consummate the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. In addition, with respect solely to the Company, "material adverse effect" also means any occurrence, condition, change, event or effect that has a material adverse effect on the business, financial condition, assets, properties, liabilities or results of operations of the Company and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, other than any material adverse effect to the extent occurring after October 11, 2006 and resulting from:

- changes in circumstances or conditions generally affecting the industry in which the Company and its subsidiaries operate, except to the extent such changes have a materially disproportionate effect on the Company and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, as compared to other persons in the industries in which the Company or its subsidiaries operate;
- changes in general economic or business conditions or in markets in the United States or in financial markets in which the Company or its subsidiaries operate, except to the extent such changes have a materially disproportionate effect on the Company and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, as compared to other persons in the industries in which the Company or its subsidiaries operate;

- changes in law or generally accepted accounting principles, except to the extent such changes have a materially disproportionate effect on the Company and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, as compared to other persons in the industries in which the Company or its subsidiaries operate;
- the negotiation, execution, announcement, pendency or performance of the merger agreement or the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement; and
- any action required or expressly contemplated to be taken or any action not taken which is prohibited from being taken pursuant to the merger agreement.

Stockholders Meeting

The merger agreement requires the Company to cause a meeting of its stockholders to be duly called and held as promptly as practicable for the purpose of voting on the approval and adoption of the merger agreement and the merger. Subject to the provisions described below under "No Solicitation," the Board is required to recommend approval and adoption of the merger agreement by the Company's stockholders and the merger at such meeting. The Company has further agreed to:

- promptly prepare and file this Proxy Statement with the SEC, use reasonable best efforts to have it cleared by the SEC, and then mail it to its stockholders as promptly as practicable;
- use reasonable best efforts to obtain the requisite approval of its stockholders necessary to approve and adopt the merger agreement and the merger; and
- otherwise comply with all legal requirements applicable to such meeting.

No Solicitation

Upon the signing of the merger agreement, the Company agreed to, and agreed to cause its subsidiaries and its and their respective advisors, employees and other agents to, cease immediately and cause to be terminated any and all activities, discussions or negotiations, if any, with any third party conducted on or prior to October 11, 2006 with respect to any acquisition proposal (as defined below) or any proposal or discussion that would reasonably be expected to lead to an acquisition proposal. The Company has further agreed not to terminate, waive, amend or modify in any material respect any provision of any existing standstill or confidentiality agreement to which the Company or any of its subsidiaries is a party, and to, and cause its subsidiaries to, enforce the provisions of any such agreement. Except as set out below, the Company has also agreed that neither the Company nor any of its subsidiaries will, and the Company will cause its officers, directors, employees, investment bankers, attorneys, accountants, consultants or other agents, representatives and advisors not to, directly or indirectly:

- solicit, initiate or take any action to facilitate or encourage the submission of any inquiries, offers or proposals relating to an acquisition proposal;

- initiate, enter into or participate in any discussions or negotiations with or furnish or disclose any nonpublic information relating to the Company or any of its subsidiaries or afford access to the business, properties, assets, personnel, books or records of the Company or its subsidiaries to, or otherwise cooperate in any way with, or knowingly assist, participate in, facilitate or encourage any effort by any third-party that would reasonably be expected to make, or has made, an acquisition proposal;
- approve, endorse or recommend, or determine to approve, endorse or recommend, an acquisition proposal or fail to make, withdraw or modify in a manner adverse to Parent or Merger Subsidiary the recommendation of the Board that the Company's stockholders vote for approval and adoption of the merger agreement and the merger; or
- approve, endorse or recommend, or determine to approve, endorse or recommend, or enter into any agreement in principle, understanding, letter of intent, term sheet or other similar instrument relating to, an acquisition proposal.

The merger agreement also provides that, notwithstanding the prohibitions described above, the Board, directly or indirectly, through advisors, agents or other intermediaries, may prior to the Company's stockholders approving and adopting the merger agreement and the merger:

- engage in negotiations or discussions with any third party that has made a bona fide acquisition proposal, other than as a result of a breach by the Company of the no solicitation provisions of the merger agreement, that constitutes or would reasonably be expected to lead to a superior proposal (as defined below);
- then furnish to such third party nonpublic information relating to the Company or any of its subsidiaries pursuant to a confidentiality agreement with terms no less favorable to the Company than those contained in the confidentiality agreement between the Company and Parent;
- approve, endorse or recommend, or determine to approve, endorse or recommend, an acquisition proposal or fail to make, withdraw or modify in a manner adverse to Parent the Board's recommendation that the Company's stockholders vote for approval and adoption of the merger agreement and the merger; and
- subject to the termination of the merger agreement in compliance with its provisions, enter into an agreement with respect to a superior proposal;

but in the case of each of the four bullets above, only if the Board determines in good faith by a majority vote, after considering the advice of the Company's outside legal counsel, that the failure to take such action would be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties under applicable law.

The merger agreement defines the term acquisition proposal as, other than the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, any offer, proposal, contract or inquiry relating to, or any third-party indication of interest in any:

- direct or indirect acquisition, exchange, transfer or purchase of 22.6% or more of the Company's consolidated assets or over 22.6% or more of any class of the Company's equity or voting securities (or the equity or voting securities of any of its subsidiaries whose assets, individually or in the aggregate, constitute more than 22.6% of our consolidated assets);
- direct or indirect acquisition, exchange, transfer or purchase of the assets comprising all or substantially all of the plumbing business or bath business of the Company and its subsidiaries;
- tender offer (including a self-tender offer) or exchange offer that, if consummated, would result in such third party beneficially owning 22.6% or more of any class of the Company's equity or voting securities (or the equity or voting securities of any of its subsidiaries whose assets, individually or in the aggregate, constitute more than 22.6% of the Company's consolidated assets); or
- merger, consolidation, share exchange, business combination, sale of substantially all of the assets, reorganization, recapitalization, liquidation, dissolution or other similar transaction involving the Company

(or any of its subsidiaries whose assets, individually or in the aggregate, constitute 22.6% of the Company's consolidated assets).

The merger agreement defines the term superior proposal as any bona fide, unsolicited written acquisition proposal:

- for at least 75% of the voting power of the outstanding shares of the Company's common stock;
- on terms and conditions that the Board determines in good faith by a majority vote, after considering the advice of a financial advisor of nationally recognized reputation, are more favorable from a financial point of view to the Company's stockholders than as provided under the merger agreement (taking into account any proposals by Parent to amend the terms of the merger agreement during the four-business-day period described under "Termination" below);
- the conditions to the consummation of which are all reasonably expected to be satisfied without undue delay relative to the merger (taking into account all legal, regulatory and other aspects of such proposal); and
- that is fully financed or is, in the Board's good faith judgment, reasonably likely to be fully financed by means of a commitment letter from a reputable person capable of financing such deal.

The Company has agreed that the Board will not take any of the actions described above unless the Company has delivered to Parent prior written notice advising Parent that the Board intends to take such action. The Company has also agreed to promptly notify Parent, orally and in writing, after receipt by it or any of its subsidiaries (including through notification by its representatives) of any (i) acquisition proposal, inquiry or request for nonpublic information relating to, or access to the business, properties, assets, personnel, books or records of the Company or any of its subsidiaries by any third party who would reasonably be expected to make, or has made, an acquisition proposal or (ii) request for discussions or negotiations regarding, or which would be reasonably expected to lead to, an acquisition proposal.

The Company is further required to:

- promptly provide to Parent a copy of any such proposal, offer or request and any written materials submitted in connection therewith (or if such proposal, offer or request was not in writing, a description of the material terms thereof);
- keep Parent reasonably informed on a prompt basis of the status of any such proposal, offer or request, and any discussions or communications related thereto (including with respect to any changes in the financial or other material terms of any such proposal, offer or request and whether such proposal, offer or request has been withdrawn);

- provide Parent promptly with copies of all material correspondence between it, its subsidiaries or its or their respective directors, employees, agents or representatives and any third party or its directors, employees, agents or representatives in connection with any such offer, proposal or request; and
- promptly provide any material information to Parent provided by it to any third party that has not previously been provided or otherwise made available to Parent.

Nothing in the merger agreement prohibits the Company from taking any action necessary to comply with Rules 14d-9 and 14e-2 under the Exchange Act with regard to an acquisition proposal or from making any required disclosure to its stockholders, if, in the good faith judgment of the Board, after considering advice of outside legal counsel, failure to so disclose would be inconsistent with its obligations under applicable law.

Access to Information

The Company has agreed to afford Parent and its counsel, financial advisors, auditors, lenders and other authorized representatives reasonable access, prior to the effective time of the merger or termination of the merger agreement, to the offices, properties, books and records of the Company and its subsidiaries and to furnish to Parent and its counsel, financial advisors, auditors, lenders and other authorized representatives such financial and operating data and other information as such Persons may reasonably request. The Company has also agreed to instruct the employees, counsel, financial advisors, auditors and other authorized representatives of the Company and its subsidiaries to cooperate with all reasonable requests of Parent in its investigation of the Company and its subsidiaries, including in connection with the identification of the assets (real and personal, tangible and intangible), personnel and liabilities comprising each of the bath products division and the plumbing products division of the Company and its subsidiaries.

Indemnification and Insurance

Parent has agreed that, for a period of six years following the effective time of the merger, it will cause the surviving corporation to indemnify and hold harmless the present and former officers and directors of the Company in respect of acts or omissions occurring at or prior to the effective time of the merger (including acts or omissions in connection with the merger agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated thereby) to the fullest extent permitted under the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware or any other applicable law or provided under the Company's certificate of incorporation and by-laws currently in effect.

Parent has also agreed to cause the surviving corporation to maintain in effect, at no expense to the beneficiaries, for six years following the effective time of the merger, directors' and officers' liability insurance policies covering each indemnified person in an amount and scope no less favorable than those of such policies in effect on October 11, 2006. However, if such policies cannot reasonably be procured at an annual premium of 300% of the premium paid by the Company in respect of the current year as of October 11, 2006, then the surviving corporation will provide insurance with the greatest coverage and amount reasonably procurable for such a premium.

Parent has agreed that, for a period of six years following the effective time of the merger, the provisions of the certificate of incorporation and by-laws of the surviving corporation will contain provisions no less favorable with respect to indemnification, advancement of expenses and exculpation of the Company's current and former directors and officers than the provisions of the Company's certificate of incorporation and by-laws in effect on October 11, 2006.

The surviving corporation will pay on an as-incurred basis the reasonable and documented fees and expenses of the indemnified persons, including the reasonable fees and expenses of counsel, in advance of the final disposition of any proceeding that is subject to the right of indemnification under the merger agreement. However, any person to whom expenses are advanced must provide an undertaking to repay the advances if it is ultimately determined by a court of competent jurisdiction, by a final, non-appealable order, that such person is not entitled to indemnification. The surviving corporation will also pay all reasonable and documented expenses, including reasonable fees and expenses of counsel, that an indemnified person may incur in enforcing the indemnity provided for in the merger agreement. The indemnified person will be entitled to control the defense of any proceeding with counsel of its own choosing reasonably acceptable to the surviving corporation and the surviving corporation will cooperate in such defense.

Employee Benefit Matters

Parent has agreed that, for a period of 12 months following the effective time of the merger, it will, or will cause its subsidiaries, including the surviving corporation to, (i) continue, without any change adverse to continuing employees certain specified severance plans, programs and agreements and (ii) provide to continuing employees compensation and benefits that are substantially comparable in the aggregate to the total compensation and benefits (excluding pension benefits provided under any defined benefit and similar plans, equity-based and most other long-term incentive plans and awards and retiree welfare benefits) provided to such employees immediately prior to the effective time of the merger.

Parent has agreed to cause the surviving corporation to honor the obligations of the surviving corporation and its subsidiaries under the provisions of each compensation or benefit agreement, plan or arrangement, including all change of control plans and agreements (provided that, except as required by applicable law or as expressly provided in the merger agreement, Parent retains the right to terminate or amend any such plan in accordance with its terms). Parent has also agreed to provide continuing employees with credit for their service to the Company and its subsidiaries for purposes of vesting, eligibility and benefit levels under any employee benefit plan in which such continuing employees participate after the effective time of the merger (except that no credit will be given for purposes of benefit accruals under any defined benefit pension plan).

Parent also agrees, for purposes of its employee benefit plans providing medical, dental, health, pharmaceutical or vision benefits to any employee of the Company or its subsidiaries, to cause its employee benefit plans to waive all pre-existing condition exclusions or good health and actively-at-work requirements to the same extent such exclusions or requirements were waived or satisfied under a comparable plan of the Company or its subsidiaries and take into account any eligible expenses incurred by such employees and their dependents for purposes of satisfying all deductible, co-insurance and maximum out-of-pocket requirements applicable to such employees and their covered dependents under the applicable employee benefit plan of Parent.

Continuing employees are those of the Company's employees who continue as employees of the surviving corporation or Parent following the effective time of the merger.

Financing

Parent and Merger Subsidiary received debt financing commitments on October 11, 2006 from Credit Suisse, Credit Suisse Securities (USA) LLC, Bank of America N.A., Banc of America Securities LLC, UBS Loan Finance LLC and UBS Securities LLC. Pursuant to the debt financing commitments, and subject to their terms and conditions, such financial institutions have committed to provide debt financing, in a total aggregate amount of up to $1.16 billion.

Parent has agreed to use reasonable best efforts to comply with all of its covenants, agreements, representations and warranties contained in the debt commitment letters and not to take any action specifically prohibited pursuant to the terms of the debt commitment letters or agree to amend the debt commitment letters in a manner adverse to the Company. If any of the debt commitment letters expire or are terminated prior to the effective time of the merger, Parent has agreed to use reasonable best efforts to promptly arrange for alternative debt financing (upon terms and subject to conditions no less favorable to the Company in any material respect than those contained in the debt commitment letters).

The Company has agreed to provide, and has agreed to request that its officers, directors, officers, directors, employees, accountants, counsel, consultants, advisors and agents provide, all cooperation reasonably requested by Parent (provided that such requested cooperation does not unreasonably interfere with the ongoing operations of the Company and its subsidiaries) in connection with the arrangement of the debt financing described above, including using reasonable best efforts to:

- meet with prospective lenders and investors in meetings, presentations, road shows and due diligence sessions;
- assist with the preparation of disclosure documents;
- cause its independent accountants to provide reasonable assistance to Parent, at Parent's expense;
- cause its attorneys to provide reasonable assistance to Parent, at Parent's expense;

- obtain landlord waivers, mortgagee waivers, bailee acknowledgements and other similar third party documents required by the financial institutions providing the debt financing; and
- execute and deliver any commitment letters, underwriting or placement agreements, registration statements, pledge and security documents, other definitive financing documents, or other requested certificates or documents.

The Company has also agreed to use reasonable best efforts to make available to Parent and Merger Subsidiary or their representatives, at Parent's expense, as promptly as reasonably practicable, certain financial statements of the plumbing products division of the Company and of the bath products division of the Company for certain fiscal periods ending prior to the consummation of the merger. Parent has agreed that in the event of any conflict (including with respect to allocation of management time or other resources) between the preparation of such financial statements and the preparation of the Company's annual report on Form 10-K for its fiscal year ended September 30, 2006, the preparation of such Form 10-K shall take precedent.

Debt Tender Offer and Consent Solicitation

Under the terms of the merger agreement, the Company is required to commence an offer to purchase all of the outstanding aggregate principal amount of our 9.625% Senior Secured Notes due 2010. The terms and conditions of the tender offer will be set forth in tender offer documents that will be distributed to the holders of those notes.

In connection with the offer to purchase, we will seek the consent of the holders of the 9.625% Senior Secured Notes due 2010 to amend the indenture governing the notes. Assuming the requisite number of consents is received from the note holders to amend the notes and the indenture, the amendments with respect to such notes and indenture will become operative concurrently with the effective time of the merger, so long as all such notes validly tendered are accepted for purchase pursuant to the tender offer concurrently with completion of the merger, whereupon the amendments will apply to all such notes remaining outstanding following completion of the tender offer. The proposed terms of the amended notes and indenture will be described in the tender offer documents. Assuming that all of the conditions to the tender offer and consent solicitations are satisfied or waived, concurrently with the effective time of the merger, notes validly tendered in the tender offer will be accepted for payment.

Agreement to Take Further Action and to Use Reasonable Best Efforts

Each party has agreed that each will use all reasonable best efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions and to do, or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper or advisable under applicable law to consummate the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including to:

- prepare and to file as promptly as practicable with any governmental authority or other third party all documentation to effect all necessary filings, notices, petitions, statements, registrations, submissions of information, applications and other documents; and
- obtain and to maintain all required approvals, consents, registrations, permits, authorizations and other confirmations required to be obtained from any governmental authority or other third party that are necessary, proper or advisable to consummate the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

The Company and Parent have also agreed to make an appropriate filing of a Notification and Report Form pursuant to the HSR Act with respect to the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement as promptly as practicable and in any event by October 25, 2006, supply as promptly as practicable any additional information and documentary material that may be requested pursuant to the HSR Act and take all commercially reasonable actions necessary to cause the expiration or termination of the applicable waiting periods under the HSR Act.

Other Covenants

The merger agreement contains additional mutual covenants, including covenants relating to cooperation regarding filings with governmental agencies and obtaining any governmental or third party consents, approvals or waivers, public announcements, further assurances, mutual notification of particular events, confidential treatment of non-public information and conveyance taxes. The merger agreement also contains additional covenants of the Company, including covenants relating to stockholder litigation, certain tax matters and certain specified agreements.

Conditions to the Merger

The obligations of the Company, Parent and Merger Subsidiary to consummate the merger are subject to the satisfaction of the following conditions:

- the approval and adoption of the merger agreement and the merger by stockholders holding at least a majority of the outstanding shares of the Company's common stock;
- the absence of any applicable law prohibiting the consummation of the merger;
- the expiration or termination of the waiting period under the HSR Act; and
- the completion of any actions by or in respect of, or required filings with, any governmental body, agency, official or authority.

The obligations of Parent and Merger Subsidiary to consummate the merger are subject to the satisfaction or waiver, at or prior to the effective time of the merger, of the following further conditions:

- the Company must have performed in all material respects all of its obligations under the merger agreement;
- the Company's representations and warranties set forth in the merger agreement (disregarding any qualifications as to materiality or any material adverse effect on the Company) must be true and correct at and as of the effective time of the merger (or, if applicable, as of an earlier date), with only such exceptions as would not individually or in the aggregate reasonably be expected to result a material adverse effect; however, with respect to those representations and warranties relating to the capitalization of the Company contained in Section 4.05 of the merger agreement, such representations and warranties must be true and correct in all respects (disregarding all restricted stock units awarded on or prior to October 11, 2006 and issued after October 11, 2006 pursuant to the Deferred Compensation Plan and consistent with the Company's schedule of director's fees and retainers in effect as of October 11, 2006) with only such exceptions as would not, individually or in the aggregate, result in the payment of additional amounts under the merger agreement in excess of $100,000;
- the Company must have delivered to Parent a certificate signed by one of the Company's executive officers certifying that the conditions in the preceding two bullets have been satisfied;
- there must not have occurred after October 11, 2006 any event, change, effect or development that has had or would reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a material adverse effect on the Company; and

- Parent must have received the proceeds of the financings described in the debt commitment letters, or must have obtained alternative financing sufficient, when taken together with the proceeds of the equity commitment letter, to pay the aggregate merger consideration and option consideration as provided in the merger agreement.

The obligations of the Company to consummate the merger are subject to the satisfaction or waiver at or prior to the effective time of the merger, of the following further conditions:

- each of Parent and Merger Subsidiary must have performed in all material respects all of its obligations under the merger agreement;
- the representations and warranties of each of Parent and Merger Subsidiary contained in the merger agreement (disregarding all qualifications and exceptions contained therein relating to materiality or material adverse effect) must be true and correct at and as of the effective time of the merger (or, if applicable, as of an earlier date) with only such exceptions as would not reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on Parent or Merger Subsidiary, as applicable; and
- the Company must have received a certificate signed by the executive officer of each of Parent and Merger Subsidiary certifying that the conditions in the preceding two bullets have been satisfied.

The Company does not currently anticipate any facts under which it would waive any condition of its obligations to consummate the merger. See the section entitled "Amendment and Waiver" beginning on page 58 of this Proxy Statement.

Termination

The merger agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the effective time of the merger whether before or after the meeting of the Company's stockholders to consider the adoption of the merger agreement:

- by the mutual written consent of the parties;
- by either party if:
 - the merger is not consummated on or before February 15, 2007 (provided that the terminating party's breach of the merger agreement was not the principal cause of the failure of the merger to be consummated by February 15, 2007);
 - consummation of the Merger would violate any non-appealable final order, decree or judgment (which the parties have used their reasonable best efforts to resist, resolve or lift) of any governmental entity having competent jurisdiction;
 - the Company's stockholders do not approve and adopt the merger agreement and the merger at the Annual Meeting (or at any adjournment or postponement of the Annual Meeting); or
 - the other party breaches or fails to perform any representation, warranty or covenant contained in the merger agreement that (i) would result in the failure of the related condition to close and (ii) is incurable by February 15, 2007 (provided that such terminating party is not then in material breach of its covenants and agreements under the merger agreement).
- by Parent if:
 - the Board approves, endorses or recommends, or determines to approve, endorse or recommend, an alternative acquisition proposal or fails to make, withdraws or modifies in a manner adverse to Parent or Merger Subsidiary its recommendation that the Company's stockholders vote for approval and adoption of the merger agreement and the merger;
 - the Company enters into, or announces its intention to enter into, a definitive agreement or an agreement in principle with respect to an alternative acquisition proposal that is a superior proposal; or
 - the Company materially breaches its covenants contained in the merger agreement that relate to the non-solicitation of alternative proposals.
- by the Company if, prior to the adoption of the merger agreement by the Company's stockholders, the Board approves and authorizes the Company, in compliance with the terms of the merger agreement, to enter into a written agreement to effect an alternative acquisition proposal that is a superior proposal, provided that:
 - at least four business days prior to such termination, the Company notifies Parent in writing of its intention to terminate the merger agreement and enter into such agreement, and attaching the most current version of such agreement and a description of its material terms and conditions; and
 - Parent does not, within such four-business-day period, make an irrevocable unconditional offer to adjust the terms and conditions of the merger agreement such that the modified merger agreement is at least as favorable to the Company's stockholders as such alternative acquisition proposal that is a superior proposal.

Termination Fee and Expenses

The Company will be required to pay a termination fee of $25 million in cash if the merger agreement is terminated under the following circumstances:

- the Board approves and authorizes the Company, in compliance with the terms of the merger agreement, to enter into a written agreement to effect an alternative acquisition proposal that is a superior proposal;
- the Board approves, endorses or recommends, or determines to approve, endorse or recommend, an alternative acquisition proposal or fails to make, withdraws or modifies in a manner adverse to Parent or Merger Subsidiary its recommendation that the Company's stockholders vote for approval and adoption of the merger agreement and the merger;
- the Company materially breaches its covenants contained in the merger agreement that relate to the non-solicitation of alternative proposals and the Company enters into a definitive agreement with respect to or consummates an alternative acquisition proposal within 12 months after termination;
- the Company (i) breaches its covenants contained in the merger agreement that relate to Parent's financing, and such breach results in the failure of the related closing condition and was incurable by February 15, 2007, and (ii) enters into a definitive agreement with respect to or consummates an alternative acquisition proposal within 12 months after termination;
- the Company's stockholders fail to approve and adopt the merger agreement and the merger at the Annual Meeting (or at any adjournment or postponement of the Annual Meeting) and (i) an alternative acquisition proposal had been made prior to the Annual Meeting and (ii) the Company enters into a definitive agreement with respect to or consummates an alternative acquisition proposal within 12 months after termination; or
- the Merger was not consummated by February 15, 2007 and (i) an alternative acquisition proposal had been made prior to termination and (ii) the Company enters into a definitive agreement with respect to or consummates an alternative acquisition proposal within 12 months after termination.

The Company will be required to reimburse Parent for its expenses in an amount not to exceed $6 million if the merger agreement is terminated because the Company's stockholders fail to approve and adopt the merger agreement and the merger at the Annual Meeting (or at any adjournment or postponement of the Annual Meeting) and, prior to termination, Parent was in material compliance with its obligations under the merger agreement. Any expenses for which Parent is reimbursed by the Company are deducted from any termination fee payable as described in the foregoing paragraph.

Amendment and Waiver

Any provision of the merger agreement may be amended or waived before the effective time if, but only if, the amendment or waiver is in writing and signed, in the case of an amendment, by each party to the merger agreement or, in the case of a waiver, by each party against whom the waiver is to be effective. However, after adoption of the merger agreement by the Company's stockholders and without their further approval, no amendment or waiver may reduce the amount or change the kind of consideration to be received in exchange for the Company's common stock. Except in the foregoing circumstances, the Company does not currently anticipate seeking the further approval of its stockholders after their adoption of the merger agreement.

APPRAISAL RIGHTS

Delaware law entitles the holders of shares of the Company's common stock, who follow the procedures specified in Section 262 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, to have their shares appraised by the Delaware Court of Chancery, which we refer to as the Chancery Court, and to receive "fair value" of these shares, exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger, together with a fair rate of interest, if any, as of completion of the merger in place of the merger consideration, as determined by the court.

In order to exercise appraisal rights, a holder must demand and perfect the rights in accordance with Section 262. If you fail to comply with the specific requirements of Section 262, you will be entitled to receive the cash payment for your shares as provided in the merger agreement, but you will have no appraisal rights with respect to your shares.

The following description is intended as a brief summary of the material provisions of the Delaware statutory procedures required to be followed in order to dissent from the merger and perfect appraisal rights. This summary, however, is not a complete statement of all applicable requirements and is qualified in its entirety by reference to Section 262 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, the full text of which appears in Annex C to this proxy statement. This summary does not constitute legal advice, nor does it constitute a recommendation that you exercise your rights to appraisal under Section 262.

Section 262 requires that, where a merger agreement is to be submitted for adoption at a stockholders' meeting, stockholders on the record date for the meeting be notified not less than 20 days before the meeting that appraisal rights will be available. A copy of Section 262 must be included with the notice. This Proxy Statement constitutes our notice to the holders of shares of the Company's common stock of the availability of appraisal rights in connection with the merger in compliance with the requirements of Section 262. If you wish to consider exercising your appraisal rights, you should carefully review the text of Section 262 contained in Annex C to this Proxy Statement since failure to timely and properly comply with the requirements of Section 262 will result in the loss of your appraisal rights under Delaware law.

If you elect to demand appraisal of your shares, you must:

- be a holder of record of shares of the Company's common stock on the date that the written demand for appraisal is made, and you must continue to hold the shares of record through the date of the merger;
- deliver to us a written demand for appraisal of your shares of the Company's common stock before the vote of stockholders with respect to the merger is taken; and
- not vote in favor of the merger.

Neither voting (in person or by proxy) against, abstaining from voting on nor failing to vote on the proposal to adopt the merger agreement will constitute a written demand for appraisal within the meaning of Section 262 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware. The written demand for appraisal must be in addition to and separate from any proxy or vote. If the written demand for appraisal is made in accordance with the requirements of Delaware law, failure to vote against the merger (i.e., abstaining) will not operate as a waiver of the stockholder's appraisal rights.

Only a holder of record of shares of the Company's common stock who continuously holds such shares through the date of the merger is entitled to assert appraisal rights for the shares of common stock registered in that holder's name. A demand for appraisal should be executed by or on behalf of the holder of record, fully and correctly, as his, her or its name appears on his, her or its stock certificates, and must state that such person intends thereby to demand appraisal of his, her or its shares of the Company's common stock in connection with the merger. If the shares of the Company's common stock are owned of record in a fiduciary capacity, such as by a trustee, guardian or custodian, execution of the demand should be made in that capacity, and if the shares of common stock are owned of record by more than one person, as in a joint tenancy and tenancy in common, the demand should be executed by or on behalf of all joint owners. An authorized agent, including two or more joint owners, may execute a demand for appraisal on behalf of a holder of record; however, the agent must identify the record owner or owners and expressly disclose the fact that, in executing the demand, the agent is agent for such owner or owners. A record holder, such as a broker who holds shares of the Company's common stock as nominee for several beneficial owners, may exercise appraisal rights with respect to the shares of the Company's common stock held for one or more beneficial owners while not exercising such rights with respect to the shares of the Company's common stock held for other beneficial owners; in such case, however, the written demand should set forth the number of shares of the Company's common stock as to which appraisal is sought and where no number of shares of the Company's common stock is expressly mentioned the demand will be presumed to cover all shares of the Company's common stock which are held in the name of the record owner. A beneficial owner who does not hold the shares of record may not make an appraisal demand but must have the record holder submit such demand.

Stockholders who hold their shares of the Company's common stock in brokerage accounts or other nominee forms and who wish to exercise appraisal rights are urged to consult with their brokers to determine the appropriate procedures for the making of a demand for appraisal by such a nominee.

All demands for appraisal should be made in writing and addressed to the Secretary of Jacuzzi Brands, Inc. at 777 S. Flagler Drive, Suite 1100 West, West Palm Beach, Florida 33401, before the stockholder vote on the merger is taken at the Annual Meeting. The demand must reasonably inform us of the identity of the holder and the intention of the holder to demand appraisal of his, her or its shares of common stock. If your shares of the Company's common stock are held through a broker, bank, nominee or other third party, and you wish to demand appraisal rights you must act promptly to instruct the applicable broker, bank, nominee or other third party to follow the steps summarized in this section.

Within ten days after the effective date of the merger, the surviving corporation must give written notice of the date the merger became effective to each holder who has properly filed a written demand for appraisal and has not voted in favor of the merger. At any time within 60 days after the effective date, any holder who has demanded an appraisal has the right to withdraw the demand and to accept the cash payment specified by the merger agreement for his or her shares of the Company's common stock. Within 120 days after the effective date, either the surviving corporation or any holder who has complied with the requirements of Section 262 and who is otherwise entitled to appraisal rights, may file a petition in the Delaware Court of Chancery demanding a determination of the fair value of the shares of the Company's common stock held by all holders entitled to appraisal. Neither Parent nor the Company have any intention or obligation to file such a petition. Accordingly, the failure of a holder to file a petition in the Chancery Court demanding a determination of the fair value of the shares within 120 days after the effective time could nullify the holder's previously written demand for appraisal. Within 120 days after the effective time of the merger, any holder of the Company's common stock who has complied with the requirements for exercise of appraisal rights under Section 262 will be entitled, upon written request, to receive from the surviving corporation a statement setting forth the aggregate number of shares not voted in favor of the merger and with respect to which demands for appraisal have been received and the aggregate number of holders of such shares. The statement must be mailed to such holder within ten days after a written request for the statement has been received by the surviving corporation or within ten days after the expiration of the period for delivery of demands for appraisal, whichever is later.

If a petition for appraisal is duly filed by a holder and a copy of the petition is delivered to the surviving corporation, the surviving corporation will then be obligated, within 20 days after receiving service of a copy of the petition, to provide the Chancery Court with a duly verified list containing the names and addresses of all holders who have demanded an appraisal of their shares of the Company's common stock and with whom agreements as to the value of their shares of the Company's common stock have not been reached by the surviving corporation. After notice to dissenting holders of the time and place of the hearing of the petition, the Chancery Court is empowered to conduct such a hearing. At the hearing, the Chancery Court will determine those holders who have complied with Section 262 and who have become entitled to appraisal rights. The Chancery Court may require the holders who have demanded an appraisal for their shares of the Company's common stock to submit their stock certificates to the Register in Chancery of the Chancery Court for notation of the pendency of the appraisal proceedings; and if any stockholder fails to comply with that direction, the Chancery Court may dismiss the proceedings as to that holder.

After determination of the holders entitled to appraisal of their shares of the Company's common stock, the Chancery Court will appraise the shares, determining their fair value exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger, together with a fair rate of interest, if any. When the fair value is determined, the Chancery Court will direct the payment of the value, with interest, if any, to the holders entitled to receive payment, upon surrender by such holders of the certificates representing the applicable shares of the Company's common stock.

In determining fair value and the fair rate of interest, if any, the Chancery Court is required to take into account all relevant factors. In Weinberger v. UOP, Inc., the Supreme Court of Delaware discussed the factors that could be considered in determining fair value in an appraisal proceeding, stating that "proof of value by any techniques or methods that are generally considered acceptable in the financial community and otherwise admissible in court" should be considered, and that "fair price obviously requires consideration of all relevant factors involving the value of a company." The Delaware Supreme Court stated that, in making this determination of fair value, the court must consider market value, asset value, dividends, earnings prospects, the nature of the enterprise and any other facts that could be ascertained as of the date of the merger that throw any light on future prospects of the merged corporation. Section 262 provides that fair value is to be "exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger." In Cede & Co. v. Technicolor, Inc., the Delaware Supreme Court stated that such exclusion is a "narrow exclusion [that] does not encompass known elements of value," but which rather applies only to the speculative elements of value arising from such accomplishment or expectation. In Weinberger, the Supreme Court of Delaware also stated that "elements of future value, including the nature of the enterprise, which are known or susceptible of proof as of the date of the merger and not the product of speculation, may be considered." You should be aware that the fair value of your shares of the Company's common stock as determined under Section 262 could be more, the same, or less than the value that you are entitled to receive under the terms of the merger agreement.

Costs of the appraisal proceeding may be imposed upon the parties participating in the appraisal proceeding by the Chancery Court as the Chancery Court deems equitable in the circumstances. Upon the application of a holder, the Chancery Court may order all or a portion of the expenses incurred by any holder in connection with the appraisal proceeding, including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and the fees and expenses of experts, to be charged pro rata against the value of all shares of the Company's common stock entitled to appraisal.

Any holder who has demanded appraisal rights will not, from and after the effective date of the merger, be entitled to vote shares of the Company's common stock subject to that demand for any purpose or to receive payments of dividends or any other distribution with respect to those shares, other than dividends or other distributions payable to our stockholders of record at a date prior to the effective date; however, if no petition for appraisal is filed within 120 days after the effective date of the merger, or if the holder delivers a written withdrawal of his or her demand for appraisal and an acceptance of the merger within 60 days after the effective date of the merger, then the right of that holder to appraisal will cease and that holder will be entitled to receive the cash payment for his, her or its shares of the Company's common stock pursuant to the merger agreement. Any withdrawal of a demand for appraisal made more than 60 days after the effective date of the merger may only be made with the written approval of the surviving corporation. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no appraisal proceeding in the Chancery Court will be dismissed without the approval of the Chancery Court and may be subject to conditions the Chancery Court deems just.

In view of the complexity of Section 262, holders of shares of the Company's common stock who may wish to pursue appraisal rights should promptly consult their legal advisors.

Since 2001, the Company has not declared or paid any cash dividend on its capital stock. The Company currently intends to retain future earnings, if any, and does not expect to pay any cash dividends for the foreseeable future.

PROPOSAL 2
ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The Board of Directors is presently divided into three classes, with each class serving three years, subject to the Company's retirement policy for directors. The term of office of directors in Class III expires at the Annual Meeting.

The Board has determined that Class III will consist of three directors, and proposes that Messrs. Marini and Womack and Ms. Morf, each of whom are currently serving as Class III directors, be elected to Class III for a term of three years until their successors are duly elected and qualified.

The Board has no reason to believe that any of the nominees will not serve if elected, but if any of them should become unavailable to serve as a director, and if the Board designates a substitute nominee, the persons named as proxies will vote for the substitute nominee designated by the Board.

Directors will be elected by a plurality of the votes cast at the Annual Meeting. If elected, Messrs. Marini and Womack's, and Ms. Morf's term will continue until the 2010 Annual Meeting and until their successors are duly elected and qualified. Messrs. Marini and Womack and Ms. Morf would be expected to serve their full terms. However, if the merger agreement is adopted by the Company's stockholders and the merger is consummated, the Company's current directors will no longer be directors of the surviving corporation after the consummation of the merger. The Company's current directors, including those elected at the Annual Meeting, will serve only until the merger is consummated.

Set forth below is biographical information as of a recent date concerning each nominee as well as each director whose term of office does not expire at the Annual Meeting.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

Organization of the Board and Its Committees

The Company's common stock is listed on the NYSE. The SEC has approved corporate governance rules adopted by the NYSE (the "NYSE Rules") that require the Company to comply with certain corporate governance guidelines, including establishing certain standards for the Company's various board committees. The Board has therefore adopted Corporate Governance Guidelines that give effect to the NYSE Rules and various other matters. The Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines are available on the Company's website at www.jacuzzibrands.com and the information is available in print to any stockholder who requests it. The Company's Chief Executive Officer submitted his most recent annual certification to the NYSE under Section 303A.12 of the NYSE Listing Standards on March 14, 2006.

The NYSE Rules regarding director independence require that a majority of the directors be independent directors. Generally, the NYSE Rules would prohibit a director from qualifying as an independent director if the director (or in some cases, members of the director's immediate family) has, or in the past three years has had, certain relationships or affiliations with the Company, the Company's external or internal auditors, or other companies that do business with the Company. The Board has not adopted categorical standards in making its determination of independence and instead relies on the standards of "independence" set forth in the corporate governance standards of the NYSE. The Board has affirmatively determined that each of the Company's directors, other than Mr. Beazer and Mr. Marini, are independent directors under the corporate governance standards of the NYSE.

The Board provides a process for stockholders to send communications to the Board or to any of the directors. Stockholders may send written communications to the Board or to any of the directors c/o Office of the General Counsel, Jacuzzi Brands, Inc., 777 S. Flagler Drive, Suite 1100 West, West Palm Beach, Florida 33401. All communications will be compiled by the Office of the General Counsel and submitted to the Board or the individual directors on a periodic basis.

To promote open discussion among the independent directors, the Board schedules regular executive sessions in which the independent directors meet without management participation. The Board rotates the presiding director for each executive session among the chairs of the various board committees. In order to communicate directly with the independent directors, stockholders should follow the procedures set forth in the above paragraph.

In accordance with the Corporate Governance Guidelines, the Board has established four standing committees, a Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee (the "NCG Committee"), an Audit Committee, a Compensation Committee and a Finance Committee, each of which is briefly described below. The charters of the NCG Committee, the Audit Committee and the Compensation Committee are available on the Company's website at www.jacuzzibrands.com and available in print to any stockholder who requests it.

Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee

The NCG Committee is responsible for recommending nominees for the Board and the committees of the Board and for advising the Board on corporate governance matters. Each member of the NCG Committee satisfies the independence requirements under the NYSE Rules. The NCG Committee will consider director nominee recommendations by stockholders provided the names of such nominees, accompanied by relevant biographical information, are properly submitted in accordance with the Company's by-laws in writing to the Company's Secretary in accordance with the manner described for stockholder nominations under the section entitled "Future Stockholder Proposals," beginning on page 86 of this Proxy Statement.

In making its nominations, the NCG Committee identifies candidates who meet the current challenges and needs of the Board. The Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines provide that the NCG Committee shall determine whether it may be appropriate to add or remove individuals after considering issues of judgment, diversity, age, skills, background and experience. In making such decisions, the Board considers, among other things, an individual's business experience, industry experience, financial background and experiences and whether the individual meets the independence requirements of the NYSE Rules.

The NCG Committee uses multiple sources for identifying and evaluating nominees for directors including referrals from current directors, recommendations by stockholders and input from third-party executive search firms. There are no differences in the manner in which the NCG Committee evaluates nominees for directors based on whether the nominee is recommended by a stockholder.

Audit Committee

The Board has an Audit Committee. Information regarding the functions performed by the Audit Committee is set forth in the "Report of the Audit Committee," beginning on page 63 of this Proxy Statement. The Board determined that each of the Audit Committee members qualifies, and was designated, as an "audit committee financial expert" under applicable SEC regulations. In making such decision, the Board noted their familiarity with the experience of the Audit Committee members and that each had significant industry experience, had strong financial backgrounds and had been involved with (from a financial and other standpoint) a number of diverse companies of varying size and complexity and in various industries. Such experience included analysis and evaluation of financial statements. Also, each member was determined to have the ability to assess the application of generally accepted accounting principles as it relates to estimates, accruals and reserves, an understanding of internal controls and an understanding of audit committee functions.

Compensation Committee

The Compensation Committee sets the compensation of all executive officers and administers the incentive plans for executive officers (including the making of awards under such plans). Each member of the Compensation Committee satisfies the independence requirements under the NYSE Rules. Mr. Womack, one of the members of the Compensation Committee, receives payments under the Company's Supplemental Retirement Plan and therefore recuses himself on issues that may involve Internal Revenue Code Section 162(m) rules.

Finance Committee

The Finance Committee has been authorized to oversee all of the Company's financial activities, including financings, the evaluation of strategic alternatives for the Company and the conduct of the sales of certain of the Company's assets and businesses.

Code of Business Conduct and Ethics

The Company has adopted a Code of Business Conduct and Ethics that applies to the Company's officers, directors and employees. The Code is available on the Company's website at www.jacuzzibrands.com and the information is available in print to any stockholder who requests it.

Membership and Meetings of the Board and Its Committees

In fiscal 2006, no director attended fewer than 97% percent of the aggregate of the total number of meetings of the Board and the Committees on which he or she served. All of the Company's directors are encouraged to attend the Company's Annual Meeting. Seven of the Company's directors were in attendance at the Company's 2006 Annual Meeting of Stockholders. Current committee membership and the number of meetings of the full Board and each Committee held during fiscal 2006 are shown in the table below.

Compensation of Directors

Directors who are also full-time employees of the Company receive no additional compensation for their services as directors. Upon joining the Board, each non-employee director is entitled to an initial grant of 1,500 shares of the Company's common stock and options to purchase 7,500 shares of common stock. In fiscal 2006, each non-employee director was also entitled to a retainer consisting of cash, the Company's common stock, options to purchase the Company's common stock, annual committee fees and meeting fees as set forth below.

Cash Retainer and Meeting Fees

Each non-employee director received an annual cash retainer of $15,000 and was also entitled to a fee of $1,500 payable in cash for each Board or committee meeting attended. Directors are permitted to defer all or a portion of their cash retainer or meeting fees in the form of restricted stock units ("RSUs") under the Deferred Compensation Plan (as discussed below). Mr. Waldin also receives a cash Chairman's retainer of $100,000 per year, payable quarterly.

Stock Retainer

At the non-employee director's option, each non-employee director was entitled to an annual grant of either (i) $30,000, payable in RSUs under the Deferred Compensation Plan, or (ii) $25,000, payable in shares of the Company's common stock. In both cases, the number of RSUs or shares of common stock was calculated based on $8.16 per share, the closing price of the Company's common stock on the NYSE on October 3, 2005 (the first business day of fiscal 2006). Proportionate amounts of RSUs or common stock, as the case may be, are credited on the first business day of each fiscal quarter. For fiscal 2006, all non-employee directors have elected to defer 100% of their annual board retainer fees that are payable in the form of RSUs under the Deferred Compensation Plan. Certain Directors have also elected to defer their committee retainers and meeting fees under this Plan.

An RSU is a unit of measurement equivalent to one share of common stock, but with none of the attendant rights of a stockholder of a share of the Company's common stock until shares are ultimately distributed in payment of the deferred obligation (other than rights to additional unit equivalents for dividends and other distributions on the shares). Unless otherwise elected by the director pursuant to the terms of the Deferred Compensation Plan, any shares of common stock that are deferred in the form of RSUs under the Deferred Compensation Plan will be distributed in the form of common stock to a director in two installments: (i) 50% upon a director's termination of his or her directorship with the Company and (ii) 50% one year after termination of his or her directorship with the Company. Similarly, unless otherwise elected, any cash fees that are deferred in the form of RSUs will be distributed upon the termination of the director's directorship with the Company. All amounts that are deferred in the form of RSUs under the Deferred Compensation Plan will be distributed in the form of common stock. The Deferred Compensation Plan was amended during fiscal 2004 to permit the directors to elect the timing of their distribution of cash fees and common stock that are deferred in the form of RSUs to be distributed at any date which is in a future Plan Year. A change to such election is not effective until two years after such change is made and must be made in compliance with Internal Revenue Code Section 409A.

Options

Each non-employee director is entitled to an annual grant of options to purchase 3,750 shares of the Company's common stock.

Annual Committee Fees

Each non-employee member of the various board committees was entitled to annual retainers as follows: $8,000 for the Chairman of the Audit Committee and $5,000 for each other member of the Audit Committee; $5,000 for the Chairman of each other committee of the Board and $3,000 for each other member of each such other committee.

Other Expenses

The Company reimburses all reasonable expenses incurred by both employee and non-employee directors in connection with such meetings and pays the premiums on directors' and officers' liability and travel accident insurance policies insuring both employee and non-employee directors.

Report of the Audit Committee

The Audit Committee oversees the Company's accounting and financial reporting process and audits of the Company's financial statements on behalf of the Board and consists of four directors, all of whom are independent within the meaning of the NYSE Rules. Management has the primary responsibility for the financial statements and the reporting process including the systems of internal controls. In fulfilling its oversight responsibilities, the Audit Committee reviewed and discussed with management the audited financial statements in the Annual Report including the quality, not just the acceptability, of the accounting principles, the reasonableness of significant judgments, and the clarity of disclosures in the financial statements. The Board has approved a written charter which governs the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee met nine times during fiscal 2006.

The Audit Committee discussed with the Company's independent registered public accounting firm, which is responsible for expressing an opinion on the conformity of those audited financial statements with generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP), the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61 (Communication with Audit Committees). In addition, the Audit Committee has received in writing information concerning the Company's registered public accounting firm's independence from management and the Company, including the matters in the written disclosures and in the letter required by the Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, and has considered the compatibility of non-audit services with the Company's registered public accounting firm's independence.

The Audit Committee discussed with the Company's independent registered public accounting firm the overall scope and plans for their audit. The Audit Committee met with the Company's independent registered public accounting firm, with and without management present, to discuss the results of their examinations, their evaluations of the Company's internal controls and the overall quality of the Company's financial reporting.

In reliance on the reviews and discussions referred to above, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board (and the Board has approved) that the audited financial statements be included in the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended September 30, 2006 for filing with the SEC. The Audit Committee and the Board have also recommended, subject to stockholder ratification, the selection of Ernst & Young LLP as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for fiscal 2007.

EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Compensation Committee Report on Executive Compensation

Executive Officer Compensation

The Company's executive compensation program is designed to promote corporate performance by aligning the executive's compensation with the creation of stockholder value. The Board believes that base compensation of the Company's executive officers should be generally competitive with that provided by public companies of similar size. The Compensation Committee strongly believes that a considerable portion of the executive officers' compensation should be contingent upon the Company's operating results. To this end, overall compensation strategies have been developed to tie executive compensation to the successful achievement of performance goals. The three components of the executive compensation program are base salary, annual incentives and equity grants. These components are designed to (i) attract and retain high caliber executive talent, (ii) recognize individual accountability and performance, (iii) align management compensation with the achievement of operational and strategic goals and (iv) reward executives for both short- and long-term value creation for stockholders.

Base Compensation

The minimum base compensation levels of the Company's executive officers and certain other aspects of their compensation were originally established under employment agreements. The Compensation Committee has not yet awarded executive officers merit increases in base salary effective January 1, 2007.

Incentive Compensation

Under the Company's 2005 Annual Performance Incentive Plan (the "2005 Annual Plan"), the Compensation Committee selects the executive officers eligible for participation and determines the targets and associated levels (e.g., entry level, a mid-point and a maximum level) for awards under the plan. The bonus level achieved for each fiscal year under the 2005 Annual Plan is determined based on the pre-established performance targets determined by the Compensation Committee and actual achievement of the targets is then confirmed by the Compensation Committee, prior to any bonuses being awarded.

At a meeting on October 17, 2005, the Compensation Committee finalized the fiscal 2006 performance targets for the then-executive officers and individual incentive targets as a percentage of base pay ranging from 55% to 100% and set performance targets that included EBITDA, a computation based on primary working capital and on earnings per share. In addition to the performance targets, 10% of the individual incentive targets are based upon personal objectives established by the Compensation Committee for the executive officers.

Section 162(m) of the Code

The Compensation Committee generally has analyzed the particular type of benefit or award and the rationale for granting such benefit or award in deciding whether it will seek to qualify the benefit or award as performance-based compensation under Section 162(m) of the Code and expects to continue to do so in the future. Amounts awarded to the Chief Executive Officer and the Company's other executive officers under the 2005 Annual Plan, as well as the portion of such awards deferred under the former LTIP, are based on performance factors determined by the Compensation Committee that are predominately intended to qualify such bonuses for the "[performance-based compensation]" exception of Section 162(m) of the Code. It is also intended that the compensatory stock options awarded under the 2004 Plan will qualify for the performance-based compensation exception of Section 162(m) of the Code; restricted stock is discussed below.

Restricted Stock

The Compensation Committee granted 484,571 shares of restricted stock in fiscal 2006. The majority of these shares were awarded to selected key executives under the Company's Long-Term Equity Participants Plan (the "LTEP") based upon a combination of (1) 30% of the annual bonus awarded to the executive and (2) a percentage of the executive's base pay. The Compensation Committee awarded the balance of these shares on the basis of qualitative factors. These awards, along with certain restricted stock awards in prior years, were not principally intended to and may not qualify as performance-based compensation under Section 162(m) of the Code.

Stock Options

In fiscal 2006, the Compensation Committee granted an aggregate of 53,250 options to purchase the Company's common stock with an exercise price equal to the fair market value of the Company's common stock on the date of grant. These options were granted to key employees other than executive officers. Management makes recommendations to the Compensation Committee, other than for the Chief Executive Officer, as to how many options will be granted to eligible executives of the Company and its subsidiaries. The Compensation Committee sets the grant, if any, for the Chief Executive Officer.

Chief Executive Officer's Compensation

The compensation of the Chief Executive Officer is primarily based on the employment agreement entered into with him. David H. Clarke retired as Chief Executive Officer of the Company on August 31, 2006 and resigned as a Director and Chairman of the Board on September 30, 2006. For a summary of Mr. Clarke's retirement arrangements please refer to the section entitled "Executive Compensation" Employment Agreements "Retirement of David H. Clarke," beginning on page 71 of this Proxy Statement. Alex P. Marini became the Company's President and Chief Operating Officer on August 11, 2005 and President and Chief Executive Officer on September 1, 2006. In connection with his promotion to President and Chief Executive Officer, Mr. Marini entered into a revised employment agreement and the Compensation Committee adjusted his compensation after reviewing compensation terms for comparable chief executive officers, as well as his overall benefits, severance terms (including those applicable in the event of a change of control) and equity ownership. For a summary of Mr. Marini's employment agreement please refer to the section entitled "Executive Compensation" Employment Agreements "Existing Employment Agreements," beginning on page 70 of this Proxy Statement. The Compensation Committee believes that he has sufficient equity arrangements that have created the desired mutuality of interest between the CEO and the stockholders, as his ultimate reward from these equity arrangements is primarily based upon the Company's success.

Jacuzzi Brands Master Pension Plan

The Jacuzzi Brands Master Pension Plan (the "Retirement Plan") provides pension benefits to the Company's eligible employees, including the Company's executive officers. Participants will become vested in their benefits under the Retirement Plan after completing five years of service. Normal retirement is the later of age 65 or five years of service; however, employees who retire earlier may receive a reduced benefit.

Under the Retirement Plan, the annual retirement benefits of the Company's eligible corporate office employees, including the Company's executive officers, calculated as a single life annuity, is (i) the sum of (a) 1.95% of an employee's Final Average Earnings plus (b) 0.65% of that portion of the employee's Final Average Earnings in excess of Covered Compensation, multiplied by the employee's years of Credited Service (up to a maximum of 25); if the Participant entered the Retirement Plan before December 31, 1992 (the "Freeze Date") the benefit, if greater than (i) above will be, (ii) the product of (a) 2.67% of an employee's Final Average Earnings minus 2% of such employee's Social Security Benefit, multiplied by the number of years of Credited Service the employee would have been credited with through his or her Normal Retirement Date (up to a maximum of 25) and (b) a fraction, the numerator of which is the actual number of years of Credited Service through, and the denominator of which is the number of years of Credited Service the employee would have been credited with through his Normal Retirement Date (the "Offset Formula"). Credited service for all eligible corporate office employees, including the Company's executive officers, includes years of service under predecessor plans sponsored by Hanson PLC and the Company. All defined terms have the same meanings as in the Retirement Plan or as stated herein.

The following table shows the estimated annual retirement benefits that would be payable under the Retirement Plan to the Company's corporate office employees, including the Company's executive officers, assuming retirement at age 65 on the basis of a straight-life annuity. The table also includes benefits payable under the SRP, an unfunded supplemental retirement plan applicable to the Company's executive officers, which is described below.

Supplemental Retirement Plans

The Jacuzzi Brands Supplemental Retirement Plan (the "SRP") is a non-qualified, unfunded, deferred compensation plan administered by the Compensation Committee. In general terms, the purpose of the SRP is to restore to certain of the Company's executive officers any benefits in excess of the benefits accrued under the Retirement Plan that would have accrued under the Offset Formula without regard to the Freeze Date (up to a maximum of 25 years of Credited Service). In addition, the SRP provides for benefits in excess of the limitations on the amount of benefits accrued and compensation taken into account in any given year imposed by Sections 415 and 401(a)(17) of the Code, respectively, with respect to a qualified plan such as the Retirement Plan. Under the SRP, a participant's annual benefit is equal to 66 2/3% of his or her Average Final Compensation (bonuses and other awards are excluded) less 50% of his or her Primary Social Security Benefit, multiplied by the number of years of Credited Service (up to a maximum of 25) divided by 25, less the vested benefit under the Retirement Plan. Provisions relating to vesting, retirement and forms of payment are the same as the provisions of the Retirement Plan, other than the early retirement age, which is age 60 (and 5 years of Credited Service) for the SRP and age 55 (and 10 years of Vesting Service) for the Retirement Plan. Although Mr. Clarke had declined to be considered for increases in his base salary from the demerger from Hanson PLC in 1995 through calendar year 2004, under the terms of the SRP he was deemed to receive a salary increase for purposes of the SRP for each of the years equal to the average salary increase for the Company's executive officers. As of the end of fiscal year 2006, the calculated amount of Mr. Clarke's Average Final Compensation under the SRP was $1,227,958.70. Capitalized terms used in this paragraph have the meanings defined for them in the SRP or in the Retirement Plan, as applicable.

Mr. Marini participates in the Retirement Plan and the Zurn Supplemental Pension Plan ("Zurn SUP"). Zurn SUP provides Mr. Marini with benefits in excess of the benefits accrued under the Retirement Plan, similar to the SRP described above. In addition, Mr. Marini's employment agreement provides Mr. Marini with a minimum retirement benefit. Pursuant to the employment agreement, if Mr. Marini's employment terminates no earlier than age 62, and so long as such termination is not for cause, Mr. Marini shall be provided a minimum monthly retirement benefit ("Minimum Retirement Benefit") payable in the form of a joint and survivor annuity in an amount equal to $20,000 per month with the survivor benefit equal to 60% of such amount. The Minimum Retirement Benefit is reduced by any monthly benefits accrued or payable under any qualified or non-qualified pension plans covering Mr. Marini during his employment with the Company and/or Zurn and/or the actuarial equivalent of such benefits, including the Retirement Plan and the Zurn SUP.

Employment Agreements

Existing Employment Agreements

The following is a summary of the existing employment agreements between the Company and each of the named executive officers. The employment agreements provide for each named executive to serve in the respective capacities indicated in the Summary Compensation Table set forth on page 66 above.

Employment Agreements with Messrs. Marini, Barre, Park and Puñal and Ms. Dreher

The existing employment agreements specify the base salary in effect when signed by Messrs. Marini, Barre, Park and Puñal and Ms. Dreher ($575,000, $285,000, $310,000, $155,000 and $280,000, respectively) provide for annual review of salaries by the Board or Compensation Committee and further provide that the base salaries may be increased from time to time but decreased only in limited circumstances. As provided in the employment agreements, each executive is eligible to receive an annual cash bonus, with a target bonus percentage equal to at least 100% of base salary for Mr. Marini, 70% of base salary for Messrs. Barre and Park and Ms. Dreher, and 55% of base salary for Mr. Puñal, pursuant to the Company's annual incentive bonus plan or a successor plan (the Target Bonus). The employment agreements also entitle the executives to participate generally in all pension, retirement, savings, welfare and other employee benefit plans and arrangements and fringe benefits and perquisites maintained by the Company from time to time for senior executives of a comparable level.

The employment agreements with Messrs. Barre, Marini, Park and Puñal and Ms. Dreher provide that upon a termination by reason of death or disability, the executives or their legal representatives will receive only the accrued amounts and any other amounts or benefits owed to them under the then-applicable employee benefit plans, long-term incentive plans or equity plans and programs of the Company, which will be paid in accordance with such plans and programs.

The employment agreements with Messrs. Barre, Marini, Park and Puñal provide that on a termination by the executive for good reason (as defined in the applicable employment agreement), by the Company without cause (as defined in the applicable employment agreement) or nonextension of the employment term by the Company, they will receive among other things (i) the accrued amounts and (ii) equal monthly payments of the executive's then monthly rate of base salary for twelve months, in the case of Messrs. Barre, Park and Puñal, and twenty four months, in the case of Mr. Marini. The employment agreement with Ms. Dreher provides that on a termination by the executive for good reason (as defined in the applicable employment agreement), by the Company without cause (as defined in the applicable employment agreement) or nonextension of the employment term by the Company, she will receive among other things (i) the accrued amounts and (ii) a lump sum payment equal to her base salary, (iii) health and dental coverage premiums for Ms. Dreher and her dependents until December 31, 2007 or payment of COBRA premiums for Ms. Dreher and her dependents, and (iv) any other amounts or benefits owed to Ms. Dreher under the then-applicable employee benefit plans, long-term incentive plans or equity plans and programs of the Company, which will be paid in accordance with such plans and programs.

The Company has also established severance arrangements that apply in the event of a change of control for the benefit of each of its executive officers — Steven C. Barre, Marie S. Dreher, Alex P. Marini, Jeffrey B. Park and Francisco V. Puñal — that may be triggered by the merger. With respect to Messrs. Barre, Marini, Park and Puñal, these provisions are contained within the employment agreement of the named executive officer; with respect to Ms. Dreher, the Company entered into a separate change of control agreement contemporaneously with the execution of her employment agreement.

Under their respective agreements, each of Messrs. Barre, Marini, Park, Puñal and Ms. Dreher is entitled to receive, among other things, the following severance benefits if, within two years after a change of control (as defined in the applicable agreement), he or she is terminated by the Company or terminates his or her employment for good reason (as defined in the applicable agreement) or, if during the 30-day period beginning on the date that occurs twelve months after a change of control the executive officer (with the exception of Mr. Puñal) terminates his or her employment for any reason: (i) the accrued amounts (which amounts include, without limitation, any declared but unpaid bonus, any amount of base salary or deferred compensation accrued or earned but unpaid, any accrued but unused vacation pay and unreimbursed business expenses), (ii) lump sum payments equal to two times base salary and target bonus, (iii) two years of additional service and compensation credit for pension purposes, (iv) two years of the maximum Company 401(k) contribution, and (v) payment of COBRA or health coverage premiums for two years. The employment agreements further provide that if the named executive officers receive severance and other payments that exceed certain threshold amounts and result from a change in ownership (as defined in Section 280(G)(b)(2) of the Code), they will receive additional amounts to cover the federal excise tax and any interest or penalties with respect thereto on a gross-up basis.

Under their respective agreements, the executive officers are required to execute a release prior to receiving severance payments and they must comply with certain provisions relating to confidential information, non-competition and non-solicitation.

The agreements of Mr. Marini and Ms. Dreher provide that the transaction will not be deemed to constitute a change of control with respect to their severance agreements if the executive is or will be a direct or indirect equity participant in the purchasing company or group.

The employment agreements of each of the named executive officers also provide for indemnification for actions in their corporate capacity, directors' and officers' liability insurance and coverage in most instances for legal fees incurred in enforcing their rights under their respective employment agreements.

The term of each of the agreements is subject to automatic extension for additional one-year terms, unless either party gives at least ninety days' prior written notice of non-extension and sixty days' prior written notice, in the case of Ms. Dreher, or the agreement is terminated earlier as discussed above.

Retirement of David H. Clarke

In connection with his retirement from the Company, David H. Clarke resigned his position as the Company's Chief Executive Officer on September 1, 2006, and resigned his position as Chairman of the Board, and as a member of the Board entirely, on September 30, 2006. Mr. Clarke's retirement occurred pursuant to a transition agreement dated as of December 8, 2004 (as amended on August 10, 2005 and July 17, 2006), between the Company and Mr. Clarke, in order to provide for an orderly succession as he planned to retire. Under the terms of Mr. Clarke's original transition agreement, his term of employment was to expire on, and his existing employment agreement was to remain in effect until, the planned retirement date (October 2, 2005) following which he was to continue to serve as the Company's Chairman of the Board. On August 10, 2005, the Company amended the transition agreement for the first time so that the retirement date would be a mutually agreed upon later date between the parties, instead of the October 2, 2005 date.

On July 17, 2006, the Company amended the transition agreement with Mr. Clarke for a second time and determined the retirement date for purposes of his position as Chief Executive Officer to be August 31, 2006 and for purposes of his position as a member and Chairman of the Board to be September 30, 2006 (the "Retirement Date"). Under this amendment, Mr. Clarke received on the Retirement Date a lump sum cash payment of $808,000 as consideration for the delay in his retirement date. In addition, under this amendment, the payments described in (i) and (ii) below were eliminated and the Company would no longer be obligated to make premium payments for Mr. Clarke under the Company's group life insurance policies as described in (v) below. The Company would, however, still be obligated to reimburse Mr. Clarke for certain reasonable and necessary office expenses as described in (vi) below, in an amount not to exceed $150,000. Also, this amendment allowed for the vesting of options and restricted stock held by Mr. Clarke on the Retirement Date, as required by the relevant plans and Mr. Clarke's original employment agreement. All of Mr. Clarke's options to purchase shares of the Company's common stock will be exercisable until one year from the Retirement Date in accordance with the plan under which such options were issued.

Mr. Clarke's original transition agreement provided that he would retire as Chief Executive Officer on October 2, 2005 but remain Chairman, and that, for as long as he remained Chairman, (i) the Company would pay him a base annual salary of $125,000, (ii) on October 1 of each year, the Company would grant him $100,000 of restricted stock which will vest on the earliest of the date set forth in the restricted stock award, the date Mr. Clarke ceases to be chairman for any reason or a change in control (as defined in Mr. Clarke's existing employment agreement), (iii) as of the Retirement Date, Mr. Clarke's benefits under the Retirement Plan, the SRP and the 401(k) plan would be paid in accordance with the terms thereof; (iv) the Company would continue to provide Mr. Clarke (and his spouse and dependents, if applicable), with the same medical, health, vision, dental benefits, etc. (Welfare Benefits) during his lifetime, at the Company's expense, as those provided to the Company's other senior executives; (v) the Company would continue to make premium payments under the Company's group life insurance policies, to the extent coverage is available, until the date on which Mr. Clarke ceases to be the Chairman for any reason whatsoever (the Separation Date); and (vi) for a period of twelve months following the Separation Date, the Company would reimburse Mr. Clarke for certain reasonable and necessary office expenses, in an amount not to exceed $50,000 per year and continue to provide him with the services of an executive assistant, at the Company's expense. The Company also agreed in the original transition agreement to establish a special retirement arrangement (the SRA) that provides Mr. Clarke with a monthly benefit for the remainder of his life in the amount of $3,216 in April 2006. The amounts Mr. Clarke receives under the SRP is adjusted, pursuant to the August 2005 amendment, as necessary so that the amounts he receives under the SRP and under the SRA are in the aggregate no greater than the amounts he would have received if he actually retired on October 2, 2005. Upon Mr. Clarke's death, the SRA will provide a monthly benefit to Mr. Clarke's spouse for the remainder of her life, subject to certain exceptions, along with the benefits that she would receive under the Retirement Plan and the SRP. Pursuant to the transition agreement, Mr. Clarke's spousal death benefit under the Retirement Plan (to the extent permissible under the Retirement Plan), the SRP and the SRA combines to constitute a survivor benefit under a joint and one hundred percent lifetime survivor annuity with no actuarial adjustment to the lifetime benefit of Mr. Clarke.

During the term of the transition agreement and after the Retirement Date, for the period of the applicable statute of limitations with regard to any claim which may be asserted against him arising from his duties as an officer or director, Mr. Clarke will continue to retain his rights to indemnification by the Company, or through any D&O insurance policies purchased by the Company, to the maximum extent that Mr. Clarke would have been entitled to indemnification at any time during his employment by the Company. In the event of a change in control, the Company (or the surviving corporation, as the case may be) will buy a directors' and officers' liability policy tail providing comparable coverage covering Mr. Clarke as an officer or director of the Company for a period of six years from the effective date of the change in control, unless the acquiring company has purchased a tail policy providing comparable coverage for all of the Company's present and former officers and directors.

Mr. Clarke's LTIP account balance as in effect when it was terminated following fiscal 2003, in the amount of $236,273, was scheduled to be paid to him in four equal installments in accordance with the terms under which the LTIP was terminated. For fiscal 2004 and 2005, the transition agreement provided that Mr. Clarke would be granted comparable amounts as he would have been allocated under the prior LTIP ($225,000 and $0, respectively) which will be paid to him in four equal annual installments following the six month anniversary of the Separation Date.

For purposes of determining the amount of any compensation, or vesting of any benefit or other rights or options payable to or exercisable by Mr. Clarke hereunder, Mr. Clarke will be deemed and treated as though he had retired on July 2, 2006, at age sixty-five, under all company pension, welfare and benefit plans.

Effective on the execution date of the transition agreement, if there is a change in control, prior to the date on which all amounts payable under the transition agreement have been made, such remaining amounts, will be paid in a lump sum within five days after such change in control.

Mr. Clarke executed releases in connection with the execution of the transition agreement and the July 2006 amendment and he must comply with certain provisions relating to confidential information, non-competition and non-solicitation.

Mr. Clarke's employment agreement, that preceded the transition agreement, specified a base salary of $750,000 in effect when signed and provided for an annual salary review by the Board or Compensation Committee and further provided that the base salary may be increased from time to time but decreased only in limited circumstances. As provided in the employment agreement, Mr. Clarke was eligible to receive an annual cash bonus, with a target bonus percentage equal to at least 100% of base salary for Mr. Clarke, pursuant to the Company's annual incentive bonus plan or a successor plan. The employment agreement also entitled Mr. Clarke to participate generally in all pension, retirement, savings, welfare and other employee benefit plans and arrangements and fringe benefits and perquisites maintained by the Company from time to time for senior executives of a comparable level. The employment agreement provided that if he voluntarily resigns or the Company retires him at or after his sixty-fifth birthday, he will receive the accrued amounts and the benefits under the transition agreement described above. The employment agreement for Mr. Clarke also provided for indemnification for actions in his corporate capacity, directors' and officers' liability insurance and coverage in most instances for legal fees incurred in enforcing his rights under his employment agreement.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act requires the Company's directors and executive officers to file initial reports of ownership and reports of changes in ownership of the Company's common stock with the SEC. Directors and executive officers are required to furnish the Company with copies of all Section 16(a) forms that they file. PERFORMANCE GRAPHComparison of Cumulative Total Return

The following graph compares the Company's five-year cumulative total stockholder return (including reinvestment of dividends) with the cumulative total return on the Standard & Poor's 500 Composite Stock Price Index (the "S&P 500 Index") and the Company's peer group index. The Company's Peer Group consists of the Company, American Standard Companies, Inc., Black & Decker Corp., Fortune Brands, Inc., Masco Corp., Newell Rubbermaid Inc., Pentair Inc. and Watts Water Technologies Inc.

The graph assumes that $100 was invested on September 30, 2001 in each of the Company's common stock, the S&P 500 Index and the Peer Group index, and that all dividends were reinvested into additional shares of the same class of equity securities at the frequency with which dividends are paid on such securities during the applicable fiscal year. The peer group weighs the returns of each constituent company according to its stock market capitalization at the beginning of each period for which a return is indicated.

ADJOURNMENT OR POSTPONEMENT OF THE ANNUAL MEETING

If we fail to receive a sufficient number of votes to adopt the merger agreement, we may propose to adjourn or postpone our 2007 Annual Meeting, if a quorum is present, for a period of not more than 30 days for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies to adopt the merger agreement. We currently do not intend to propose adjournment or postponement at the Annual Meeting if there are sufficient votes to adopt the merger agreement. If approval of the proposal to adjourn or postpone the Annual Meeting for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies is submitted to the Company's stockholders for approval, such approval requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast at the Annual Meeting by holders of shares of the Company's common stock present or represented by proxy and entitled to vote thereon.

FUTURE STOCKHOLDER PROPOSALS

If the merger is consummated, the Company will not have public stockholders and there will be no public participation in any future meetings of stockholders. However, if the merger is not completed, the Company expects to hold its 2008 Annual Meeting of stockholders. If you intend to present a proposal for action at the 2008 Annual Meeting of Stockholders and wish to have such proposal considered for inclusion in the Company's proxy materials in reliance on Rule 14a-8 under the Exchange Act, you must submit the proposal in writing and the Company must receive it by [_____], 2007. Such proposals must also meet the other requirements of the rules of the SEC relating to stockholders' proposals. The Company's by-laws establish an advance notice procedure with regard to certain matters, including stockholder proposals and nominations of individuals for election to the Board.

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will also consider nominations that comply with the procedures set forth below. In general, notice of a stockholder proposal or a director nomination for an Annual Meeting must be received by the Company 120 days or more before the date of the anniversary of the Company's last Annual Meeting and must contain specified information and conform to certain requirements, as set forth in the Company's by-laws. Notice of a stockholder proposal or a director nomination for a special meeting must be received by the Company no later than the 15th day following the day on which notice of the date of a special meeting of stockholders was given. If the presiding officer at any stockholders' meeting determines that a stockholder proposal or director nomination was not made in accordance with the by-laws, the Company may disregard such proposal or nomination.

In addition, if you submit a proposal outside of Rule 14a-8 for the 2008 Annual Meeting of Stockholders, and the proposal fails to comply with the advance notice procedure prescribed by the by-laws, then the Company's proxy may confer discretionary authority on the persons being appointed as proxies on behalf of management to vote on the proposal. Proposals and nominations should be addressed to Jacuzzi Brands, Inc., 777 S. Flagler Drive, Suite 1100 West, West Palm Beach, Florida 33401, Attention: Secretary.

OTHER MATTERS

As of the date of this Proxy Statement, the Board knows of no business that will be presented for consideration at the Annual Meeting other than the items specifically identified in the Notice of Annual Meeting. Proxies in the enclosed form will be voted in respect of any other business that is properly brought before the Annual Meeting in accordance with the judgment of the person or persons voting the proxies.

Some banks, brokers and other nominee record holders may be participating in the practice of "householding" proxy statements and annual reports. This Proxy Statement contains a description of representations and warranties made in the merger agreement. This is intended to provide information about the terms of the merger. The terms and information in the merger agreement and the summary thereof should not be relied on as disclosures about the contracting parties without consideration of the entirety of public disclosure including this document, the merger agreement and all public reports filed by the Company with the SEC. The terms of the merger agreement (such as the representations and warranties) govern the contractual rights and relationships, and allocate risks, between the parties in relation to the merger. In particular, the representations and warranties may be subject to a contractual standard of materiality different from those generally applicable to shareholders under federal securities laws. Moreover, the representations and warranties made by the parties to each other in the merger agreement have been negotiated between the parties with the principal purpose of setting forth their respective rights with respect to their obligation to close the merger should events or circumstances change or be different from those stated in the representations and warranties, and not to establish these matters as facts. The Company will provide additional disclosure in their public reports to the extent that they are aware of the existence of any material facts that are required to be disclosed under federal securities laws and that might otherwise contradict the terms and information contained in the merger agreement and will update such disclosure as required by federal securities laws.

ARTICLE 2 THE MERGER

Section 2.01. The Merger. (a) At the Effective Time, Merger Subsidiary shall be merged (the "Merger") with and into the Company in accordance with Delaware Law, whereupon the separate existence of Merger Subsidiary shall cease, and the Company shall be the surviving corporation (the "Surviving Corporation").

(b) As soon as practicable after satisfaction or, to the extent permitted hereunder, waiver of all conditions to the Merger, the Company and Merger Subsidiary shall file a certificate of merger with the Delaware Secretary of State and make all other filings or recordings required by Delaware Law in connection with the Merger. The Merger shall become effective at such time (the "Effective Time") as the certificate of merger is duly filed with the Delaware Secretary of State (or at such later time as may be specified in the certificate of merger).

(c) From and after the Effective Time, the Surviving Corporation shall possess all the rights, powers, privileges and franchises and be subject to all of the obligations, liabilities, restrictions and disabilities of the Company and Merger Subsidiary, all as provided under Delaware Law.

Section 2.02. Conversion of Shares. At the Effective Time, by virtue of the Merger and without any further action on the part of any party:

(a) except as otherwise provided in Section 2.04, each share of Company Stock outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be converted into the right to receive $12.50 in cash, without interest (the Merger Consideration). All such shares of Company Stock, when so converted, shall cease to be outstanding and shall automatically be cancelled and cease to exist;

(b) each share of Company Stock held by the Company as treasury stock or owned by any Subsidiary of the Company or by Parent immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be canceled, and no payment shall be made with respect thereto; and

(c) each share of common stock of Merger Subsidiary outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be converted into and become one share of common stock of the Surviving Corporation with the same rights, powers and privileges as the shares so converted and shall constitute the only outstanding shares of capital stock of the Surviving Corporation.

Section 2.03. Surrender and Payment. (a) Prior to the Effective Time, Parent shall appoint an agent (the Exchange Agent) reasonably acceptable to the Company for the purpose of exchanging the (i) certificates representing shares of Company Stock (the Certificates) or (ii) uncertificated shares of Company Stock (the Uncertificated Shares) in each case for the aggregate Merger Consideration payable to each holder of shares of Company Stock. Prior to the Effective Time, Parent shall make available to the Exchange Agent the Merger Consideration to be paid in respect of the Certificates and the Uncertificated Shares; provided, however, that the portion of the aggregate Merger Consideration allocable to the dissenting shares shall not be required to be deposited with the Exchange Agent. The Exchange Agent shall invest the funds provided by Parent in the manner specified by Parent, and interest payable thereon shall be solely for the account of Parent or the Surviving Corporation. Not later than two Business Days after the date of consummation of the Merger and the other transactions contemplated hereby (the Closing; such date, the Closing Date), Parent shall send, or shall cause the Exchange Agent to send, to each holder of shares of Company Stock at the Effective Time (other than treasury shares or shares held by any Subsidiary of the Company or by Parent), a letter of transmittal and instructions (which shall specify that the delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss and title shall pass, only upon proper delivery of the Certificates or transfer of the Uncertificated Shares to the Exchange Agent) for use in such exchange. All documents to be sent to the holders of Company Stock by the Exchange Agent shall be in a form reasonably agreed to by Parent and the Company.

(b) Each holder of shares of Company Stock that have been converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration shall be entitled to receive, upon (i) surrender to the Exchange Agent of a Certificate, together with a properly completed letter of transmittal, or (ii) receipt of an agent's message by the Exchange Agent (or such other evidence, if any, of transfer as the Exchange Agent may reasonably request) in the case of a book-entry transfer of Uncertificated Shares, the Merger Consideration in respect of the Company Stock represented by such Certificate or Uncertificated Share. Until so surrendered or transferred, as the case may be, each such Certificate or Uncertificated Share shall represent after the Effective Time for all purposes only the right to receive such Merger Consideration.

(c) If any portion of the Merger Consideration is to be paid to a Person other than the Person in whose name the surrendered Certificate or the transferred Uncertificated Share is registered, it shall be a condition to such payment that (i) either such Certificate shall be properly endorsed or shall otherwise be in proper form for transfer or such Uncertificated Share shall be properly transferred and (ii) the Person requesting such payment shall pay to the Exchange Agent any transfer or other taxes required as a result of such payment to a Person other than the registered holder of such Certificate or Uncertificated Share or establish to the satisfaction of the Exchange Agent that such tax has been paid or is not payable.

(d) After the Effective Time, there shall be no further registration of transfers of shares of Company Stock. If, after the Effective Time, Certificates or Uncertificated Shares are presented to the Surviving Corporation, they shall be canceled and exchanged for the Merger Consideration provided for, and in accordance with the procedures set forth, in this Article 2.

(e) Any portion of the Merger Consideration (including any interest thereon) made available to the Exchange Agent pursuant to Section 2.03(a) that remains unclaimed by the holders of shares of Company Stock six months after the Effective Time shall be returned to Parent by the Exchange Agent, and any such holder who has not exchanged shares of Company Stock for the Merger Consideration in accordance with this Section 2.03 prior to that time shall thereafter look only to Parent for payment of the Merger Consideration in respect of such shares without any interest thereon. Notwithstanding the foregoing, none of Parent, Merger Subsidiary, the Surviving Corporation or the Exchange Agent shall be liable to any holder of shares of Company Stock for any amounts paid to a public official pursuant to applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar laws. Any amounts remaining unclaimed by holders of shares of Company Stock two years after the Effective Time (or such earlier date, immediately prior to such time when the amounts would otherwise escheat to or become property of any Governmental Authority) shall become, to the extent permitted by Applicable Law, the property of Parent free and clear of any claims or interest of any Person previously entitled thereto.

Section 2.04. Dissenting Shares. Notwithstanding Section 2.02, shares of Company Stock outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time and held by a holder who has not voted in favor of the Merger or consented thereto in writing and who has demanded appraisal for such shares in accordance with Delaware Law shall not be converted into a right to receive the Merger Consideration, unless such holder fails to perfect, withdraws or otherwise loses the right to appraisal. If, after the Effective Time, such holder fails to perfect, withdraws or loses the right to appraisal, such shares shall be treated as if they had been converted as of the Effective Time into a right to receive the Merger Consideration. The Company shall give Merger Subsidiary prompt notice of any demands received by the Company for appraisal of shares of Company Stock, attempted withdrawals of such demands and any other instruments served pursuant to the Delaware Law that are received by the Company for appraisal of any shares of Company Stock, and Merger Subsidiary shall have the right to participate in and control all negotiations and proceedings with respect to such demands. Except with the prior written consent of Merger Subsidiary, the Company shall not make any payment with respect to, or offer to settle or settle, any such demands.

Section 2.05. Stock Options; Restricted Stock Awards. (a) At or immediately prior to the Effective Time, each option to purchase shares of Company Stock granted under any employee stock option or compensation plan or arrangement of the Company (a "Company Stock Option") outstanding at the Effective Time, whether or not then vested or exercisable, shall be canceled, and Parent shall, or shall cause the Surviving Corporation to, pay to each holder of any Company Stock Option at or promptly after the Effective Time for each Company Stock Option an amount in cash (without interest) determined by multiplying (i) the excess, if any, of the Merger Consideration per share of Company Stock over the applicable exercise price of such Company Stock Option by (ii) the number of shares of Company Stock such holder could have purchased (assuming full vesting of such option) had such holder exercised such Company Stock Option in full immediately prior to the Effective Time (the "Option Consideration").

(b) Effective as of the Effective Time, each Restricted Stock Award with respect to which shares of Company Stock remain unvested or awarded but unissued as of the Effective Time shall be canceled, and Parent shall, or shall cause the Surviving Corporation to, pay to each holder of any Restricted Stock Award at or promptly after the Effective Time for each share of Company Stock subject to such award, an amount equal to the Merger Consideration; provided, that no such payment shall be made as to any outstanding share of Company Stock for which payment is to be made pursuant to Section 2.02.

(c) Prior to the Effective Time, the Company shall (i) use its reasonable best efforts to obtain any consents from holders of Company Stock Options and (ii) make any amendments to the terms of any stock option or compensation plan or arrangement that, in the case of either clauses (i) or (ii), are necessary to give effect to the transactions contemplated by Section 2.05(a) .

Section 2.06. Adjustments. If, during the period between the date hereof and the Effective Time, any change in the outstanding shares of Company Stock shall occur, including by reason of any reclassification, recapitalization, stock split or combination, exchange or readjustment of shares, or any stock dividend thereon with a record date during such period, but excluding any change that results from any exercise of Company Stock Options, the Merger Consideration shall be appropriately adjusted.

Section 2.07. Withholding Rights. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, each of Parent and the Surviving Corporation shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from the consideration otherwise payable to any Person pursuant to this Article 2 such amounts as it is required to deduct and withhold with respect to the making of such payment under any provision of federal, state, local or foreign tax law. If the Surviving Corporation or Parent, as the case may be, so withholds amounts, such amounts shall be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the holder of the shares of Company Stock, Company Stock Options or Restricted Stock Awards, as the case may be, in respect of which the Surviving Corporation or Parent, as the case may be, made such deduction and withholding.

Section 2.08. Lost Certificates. If any Certificate shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the Person claiming such Certificate to be lost, stolen or destroyed and, if required by the Surviving Corporation, the posting by such Person of a bond, in such reasonable amount as the Surviving Corporation may direct, as indemnity against any claim that may be made against it with respect to such Certificate, the Exchange Agent will pay, in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed Certificate, the Merger Consideration to be paid in respect of the shares of Company Stock represented by such Certificate, as contemplated by this Article 2.

ARTICLE 3 THE SURVIVING CORPORATION

Section 3.01. Certificate of Incorporation. At the Effective Time, the certificate of incorporation of the Surviving Corporation shall be amended to read in its entirety in the form of Exhibit A hereto, and, as so amended, shall be the certificate of incorporation of the Surviving Corporation until amended in accordance with Applicable Law.

Section 3.02. Bylaws. The bylaws of Merger Subsidiary in effect at the Effective Time shall be the bylaws of the Surviving Corporation until amended in accordance with Applicable Law.

Section 3.03. Directors and Officers. From and after the Effective Time, until successors are duly elected or appointed and qualified in accordance with Applicable Law, (i) the directors of Merger Subsidiary at the Effective Time shall be the directors of the Surviving Corporation and (ii) the officers of the Company at the Effective Time shall be the officers of the Surviving Corporation. Section 6.03. No Solicitation; Other Offers. (a) Subject to Section 6.03(c), neither the Company nor any of its Subsidiaries shall, nor shall the Company or any of its Subsidiaries authorize or permit any of its or their officers, directors, employees, investment bankers, attorneys, accountants, consultants or other agents, representatives or advisors to, directly or indirectly, (i) solicit, initiate or take any action to facilitate or encourage the submission of any inquiries, offers or proposals relating to an Acquisition Proposal, (ii) initiate, enter into or participate in any discussions or negotiations with or furnish or disclose any nonpublic information relating to the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or afford access to the business, properties, assets, personnel, books or records of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries to, otherwise cooperate in any way with, or knowingly assist, participate in, facilitate or encourage any effort by any Third Party that would reasonably be expected to make, or has made, an Acquisition Proposal, (iii) approve, endorse or recommend, or determine to approve, endorse or recommend, an Acquisition Proposal or fail to make, withdraw or modify in a manner adverse to Parent or Merger Subsidiary the Company Board Recommendation (any of the foregoing in this clause (iii), an Adverse Recommendation Change) or (iv) approve, endorse or recommend, or determine to approve, endorse or recommend, or enter into any agreement in principle, understanding, letter of intent, term sheet or other similar instrument relating to, an Acquisition Proposal.

(b) The Company will promptly notify Parent, orally and in writing, after receipt by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries (including through a notification by its representatives) of any (i) Acquisition Proposal, (ii) inquiry or request for nonpublic information relating to, or access to the business, properties, assets, personnel, books or records of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries by any Third Party who would reasonably be expected to make, or has made, an Acquisition Proposal or (iii) request for discussions or negotiations regarding, or which would be reasonably expected to lead to, an Acquisition Proposal. The Company shall (A) promptly provide to Parent a copy of any such proposal, offer or request and any written materials submitted in connection therewith (or if such proposal, offer or request was not in writing, a description of the material terms thereof), (B) keep Parent reasonably informed on a prompt basis of the status of any such proposal, offer or request, and any discussions or communications related thereto (including with respect to any changes in the financial or other material terms of any such proposal, offer or request and whether such proposal, offer or request has been withdrawn), (C) provide Parent promptly with copies of all material correspondence between the Company, its Subsidiaries or their respective directors, employees, agents or representatives and any Third Party or its directors, employees, agents or representatives in connection with any such offer, proposal or request and (D) promptly provide any material information to Parent provided by it to any Third Party pursuant to this Section 6.03 that has not previously been provided or otherwise made available to Parent. The Company agrees that it shall not, and shall cause its Subsidiaries not to, (1) enter into any confidentiality agreement with any Third Party after the date hereof that prohibits the Company or any of its Subsidiaries from providing such information to Parent or (2) subject to Section 8.01, terminate, waive, amend or modify in any material respect any provision of any existing standstill or confidentiality agreement to which it or any of its Subsidiaries is a party, and the Company shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries to, enforce the provisions of any such agreement.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, prior to receipt of the Company Stockholder Approval, the Board of Directors of the Company, directly or indirectly through advisors, agents or other intermediaries, may (i) engage in negotiations or discussions with any Third Party that, subject to the Company's compliance with Section 6.03(a), has made an unsolicited bona fide Acquisition Proposal that constitutes or would reasonably be expected to lead to a Superior Proposal, (ii) thereafter furnish to such Third Party nonpublic information relating to the Company or any of its Subsidiaries pursuant to a confidentiality agreement with terms no less favorable to the Company than the Confidentiality Agreement and (iii) make an Adverse Recommendation Change, but in each case referred to in the foregoing clauses (i) through (iii) only if the Board of Directors of the Company determines in good faith by a majority vote, after considering advice from outside legal counsel to the Company, that the failure to take such action would be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties to the Company's stockholders under Applicable Law. The Board of Directors of the Company shall not take any of the actions referred to in clauses (i) through (iii) of the preceding sentence unless prior to taking such action the Company shall have delivered to Parent written notice advising Parent that it intends to take such action. The Company shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries and the advisors, employees and other agents of the Company and any of its Subsidiaries to, cease immediately and cause to be terminated any and all existing activities, discussions or negotiations, if any, with any Third Party conducted on or prior to the date hereof with respect to any Acquisition Proposal or any proposal or discussion that would reasonably be expected to lead to an Acquisition Proposal. The Company agrees that it will take the necessary steps to promptly inform the Persons referred to in the first sentence of Section 6.03(a) of the terms of this Section 6.03.

(d) Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Board of Directors of the Company shall be permitted to take any action necessary to comply with Rule 14d-9 or Rule 14e-2(a) under the 1934 Act with regard to an Acquisition Proposal and to make any disclosure to the stockholders of the Company if, in the good faith judgment of the Board of Directors of the Company, after considering advice from outside legal counsel to the Company, failure so to disclose would be inconsistent with its obligations under Applicable Law; provided, however, that the fact that a disclosure or other action may be deemed permissible by virtue of this sentence does not in and of itself mean that any such disclosure or other action constitutes an Adverse Recommendation Change.

Section 6.04. Access to Information. From the date hereof until the Effective Time, and subject to Applicable Law and the Confidentiality Agreement dated as of July 20, 2006, between the Company and Parent (the "Confidentiality Agreement") and the terms of this Agreement, the Company shall (i) give Parent, its counsel, financial advisors, auditors, lenders and other authorized representatives reasonable access, subject to Parent's and the Company's compliance with Applicable Law, to the offices, properties, books and records of the Company and the Subsidiaries, (ii) furnish to Parent, its counsel, financial advisors, auditors, lenders and other authorized representatives such financial and operating data and other information as such Persons may reasonably request and (iii) instruct the employees, counsel, financial advisors, auditors and other authorized representatives of the Company and its Subsidiaries to cooperate with all reasonable requests of Parent in its investigation of the Company and its Subsidiaries. Any investigation pursuant to this Section shall be conducted during normal business hours in such manner as not to interfere unreasonably with the conduct of the business of the Company and its Subsidiaries and shall not include any invasive environmental testing. No information or knowledge obtained by Parent, Merger Subsidiary or any of its or their representatives in any investigation pursuant to this Section 6.04 shall affect or be deemed to modify any representation or warranty made by the Company hereunder. In addition, the Company shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries and its and their officers, employees and other representatives to, provide Parent with all cooperation reasonably requested in connection with the identification of the assets (real and personal, tangible and intangible), personnel and liabilities comprising each of the bath products division and the plumbing products division of the Company and its Subsidiaries.

Section 6.05. Stockholder Litigation. The Company shall give Parent the opportunity to participate in the defense or settlement of any stockholder litigation against the Company or its directors relating to the Merger or the other transactions contemplated hereby; provided, that no such settlement shall be agreed to without Parent's consent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.

Section 6.06. Tax Matters. The Company shall use commercially reasonable efforts (a) to obtain all applicable regulatory approvals and clearances that are necessary to permit the purchase by the Company of the stock of USI American Holdings, Inc. from JBI Holdings, Ltd. (the "USIAH Transfer") to occur as a tax-free transaction for United Kingdom income tax purposes, (b) upon receipt, and subject to the terms, of such regulatory approvals, to cause the USIAH Transfer to occur as a tax-free transaction for United Kingdom income tax purposes and (c) to keep Parent informed of any material developments with respect to, or correspondence relating to, the USIAH Transfer.

ARTICLE 7
COVENANTS OF PARENT AND MERGER SUBSIDIARY

Parent and Merger Subsidiary agree that:

Section 7.01. Director and Officer Liability. Parent shall cause the Surviving Corporation, and the Surviving Corporation hereby agrees, to do the following:

(a) For six years after the Effective Time, the Surviving Corporation shall indemnify and hold harmless the present and former officers and directors of the Company (each an "Indemnified Person") in respect of acts or omissions occurring at or prior to the Effective Time (including acts or omissions in connection with this Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby) to the fullest extent permitted by Delaware Law or any other Applicable Law or provided under the Company's certificate of incorporation and bylaws in effect on the date hereof.

(b) For six years after the Effective Time, the Surviving Corporation shall provide officers and directors liability insurance in respect of acts or omissions occurring prior to the Effective Time covering each such Indemnified Person currently covered by the Company's officers and directors liability insurance policy on terms with respect to coverage and amount no less favorable than those of such policy in effect on the date hereof, provided that if such a policy cannot reasonably be procured for an annual premium of 300% of the premium paid by the Company in respect of the current year as of the date hereof, then the Surviving Corporation shall provide insurance with the greatest coverage and amount reasonably procurable for such a premium. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing (and notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement), prior to the Effective Time and without the consent of any other Person, the Company shall be entitled to obtain prepaid insurance policies providing for the coverage contemplated by this Section. If such prepaid policies have been obtained prior to the Effective Time, Parent shall not cancel such policies or permit such policies to be canceled.

(c) If Parent, Merger Subsidiary, the Surviving Corporation or any of its successors or assigns (i) consolidates with or merges into any other Person and shall not be the continuing or surviving corporation or entity of such consolidation or merger, or (ii) transfers or conveys all or substantially all of its properties and assets to any Person, then, and in each such case, to the extent necessary, proper provision shall be made prior to such transaction so that the successors and assigns of Parent, Merger Subsidiary or the Surviving Corporation, as the case may be, shall assume the obligations set forth in this Section 7.01.

(d) The certificate of incorporation and bylaws of the Surviving Corporation shall include provisions for exculpation of director and officer liability and indemnification on the same basis as set forth in the Company's certificate of incorporation and bylaws in effect on the date hereof. For six years after the Effective Time, the Surviving Corporation shall maintain in effect the provisions in its certificate of incorporation and bylaws providing for indemnification of Indemnified Persons with respect to the facts or circumstances occurring at or prior to the Effective Time to the fullest extent permitted from time to time under Delaware Law, which provisions shall not be amended except as required by changes in Applicable Law or except to make changes permitted by applicable law that would enlarge the scope of the Indemnified Persons' indemnification rights thereunder.

(e) The Surviving Corporation shall pay all reasonable and documented expenses, including reasonable fees and expenses of counsel, that an Indemnified Person may incur in enforcing the indemnity and other obligations provided for in this Section 7.01. The Indemnified Person shall be entitled to control the defense of any Proceeding with counsel of its own choosing reasonably acceptable to the Surviving Corporation and the Surviving Corporation shall cooperate in the defense thereof; provided that, for each separate Proceeding, the Surviving Corporation shall not be liable for the fees of more than one counsel for all Indemnified Persons, other than local counsel, unless a conflict of interest shall be caused thereby; and provided further that the Surviving Corporation shall not be liable for any settlement effected without its written consent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld).

(f) The Surviving Corporation shall pay on an as-incurred basis the reasonable and documented fees and expenses of such Indemnified Person (including the reasonable fees and expenses of counsel) in advance of the final disposition of any Proceeding that is the subject of the right to indemnification; provided that such Person shall undertake to reimburse the Surviving Corporation for all amounts so advanced if a court of competent jurisdiction determines, by a final, nonappealable order, that such Person is not entitled to indemnification.

(g) The rights of each Indemnified Person under this Section 7.01 shall be in addition to any rights such Person may have under the certificate of incorporation or bylaws of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, under Delaware Law or any other Applicable Law or under any agreement of any Indemnified Person with the Company or any of its Subsidiaries. All such rights shall survive consummation of the Merger and are intended to benefit, and shall be enforceable by, each Indemnified Person against the Surviving Corporation.

Section 7.02. Employee Benefits. (a) For 12 months following the Effective Time, Parent shall, or shall cause its Subsidiaries (including the Surviving Corporation) to, provide each employee of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries (a "Company Employee") with compensation and benefits that are substantially comparable in the aggregate to the compensation and benefits provided to such employee immediately prior to the Effective Time; provided, that in determining such compensation and benefits provided to such employee immediately prior to the Effective Time, the following types of compensation and benefits shall be excluded: (i) pension benefits provided under any defined benefit and similar plans; (ii) equity-based and other long-term incentive plans and awards (other than the Company's annual incentive plan which shall be included); and (iii) retiree welfare benefits.

(b) For 12 months following the Effective Time, Parent shall continue, without any change adverse to the Company Employees, each severance plan, program or agreement identified on Schedule 7.02(b) of the Company Disclosure Schedule.

(c) Parent agrees to honor, or shall cause the Surviving Corporation and its Subsidiaries to honor, the obligations of the Surviving Corporation and its Subsidiaries under the provisions of each Employee Plan, including all change in control plans and agreements. Notwithstanding the foregoing, subject to Applicable Law and except as explicitly provided for herein, nothing is intended to prevent Parent from amending or terminating any such Employee Plan in accordance with its terms.

(d) Each Company Employee will receive service credit for all periods of employment with the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or any predecessor thereof prior to the Effective Time for purposes of vesting, eligibility and benefit levels under any employee benefit plan in which such employee participates after the Effective Time, to the extent that such service was recognized under any analogous plan of the Company or its Subsidiaries in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time; provided that no such service credit shall be given for purposes of benefit accruals under any defined benefit pension plan.

(e) If on or after the Effective Time any Company Employee becomes covered under any benefit plan providing medical, dental, health, pharmaceutical or vision benefits (a "Successor Plan"), other than the plan in which he or she participated immediately prior to the Effective Time

(a “Prior Plan”), any such Successor Plan shall not include any restrictions or limitations with respect to any pre-existing condition exclusions and actively-at-work requirements (except to the extent such exclusions or requirements were applicable under the corresponding Prior Plan), and any eligible expenses incurred by such Company Employee and his or her covered dependents during the calendar year in which the Company Employee becomes covered under any Successor Plan shall be taken into account under any such Successor Plan for purposes of satisfying all deductible, coinsurance and maximum out-of-pocket requirements applicable to such employee and/or his or her covered dependents for that year, to the extent that such expenses were incurred during a period in which the Company Employee or covered dependent was covered under a corresponding Prior Plan.

(f) No Company Employee shall have any third party beneficiary rights or rights to any specific levels of compensation or benefits as a result of the application of this Section 7.02 and nothing contained in this Section 7.02 shall be treated as an amendment to any Employee Plan.

(g) Prior to the first to occur of the Effective Time or the occurrence of a “Change in Control” (as such term is defined in the Company Group Welfare & Flexible Benefits Plan), the Company shall amend the Company Group Welfare & Flexible Benefits Plan to delete Article IV thereof in its entirety so that the Company will have no obligation under such Article IV (and the Company’s rights with respect to such plan shall otherwise not be limited by the provisions of such Article IV that would otherwise take effect upon the occurrence of such a “Change in Control”), and no participant in such plan shall have any right under such Article IV, from and after the Effective Time.

(h) If and to the extent that under Part III of the Pensions Act 2004 the Company has the power to do so, the Company shall use reasonable best efforts to obtain an agreement with any applicable plan trustees as to any updated contribution schedules required under Part III of the Pensions Act 2004 or under the applicable plan rules for any Non-U.S. Benefit Plan maintained, contributed to or sponsored by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries that provides benefits to employees in the United Kingdom and, if requested by Parent, shall collaborate with Parent in connection with such efforts, such collaboration to include (i) providing the Parent with access (subject only to the trustees’ consent) to all meetings of or with the trustees and (ii) if Parent so elects and the Company agrees (such agreement not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed) permitting Parent (and such of its Affiliates and such of its or their officers, directors and employees as Parent may elect) be a party to any application by the Company or any of its Affiliates to the UK Pensions Regulator for clearance in respect of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and if Parent is a party to such application, for Parent to agree to the terms of any such joint application, such agreement not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

Section 7.03. Obligations of Merger Subsidiary. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, Parent shall take all action necessary to cause Merger Subsidiary to perform its obligations under this Agreement and to consummate the Merger on the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement.

ARTICLE 8 COVENANTS OF PARENT, MERGER SUBSIDIARY AND THE COMPANY

The parties hereto agree that:

Section 8.01. Reasonable Best Efforts. (a) Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the Company, Parent and Merger Subsidiary shall use reasonable best efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions and to do, or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper or advisable under Applicable Law to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, including (i) preparing and filing as promptly as practicable with any Governmental Authority or other third party all documentation to effect all necessary filings, notices, petitions, statements, registrations, submissions of information, applications and other documents and (ii) obtaining and maintaining all approvals, consents, registrations, permits, authorizations and other confirmations required to be obtained from any Governmental Authority or other third party that are necessary, proper or advisable to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

(b) In furtherance and not in limitation of the foregoing, each of Parent and the Company shall make an appropriate filing of a Notification and Report Form pursuant to the HSR Act with respect to the transactions contemplated hereby as promptly as practicable and in any event within ten Business Days after the date hereof and to supply as promptly as practicable any additional information and documentary material that may be requested pursuant to the HSR Act and to take all commercially reasonable actions necessary to cause the expiration or termination of the applicable waiting periods under the HSR Act.

Section 8.02. Certain Filings. The Company and Parent shall cooperate with one another (i) in determining whether any action by or in respect of, or filing with, any Governmental Authority is required, or any actions, consents, approvals or waivers are required to be obtained from parties to any material contracts, in connection with the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and (ii) in taking such actions or making any such filings, furnishing information required in connection therewith and seeking timely to obtain any such actions, consents, approvals or waivers.

Section 8.03. Public Announcements. Parent and the Company shall consult with each other before issuing, and will provide each other the opportunity to review and comment on, any press release, making any other public statement or scheduling any press conference or conference call with investors or analysts with respect to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby and, except as may be required by Applicable Law or any listing agreement with or rule of any national securities exchange or association (in which case such party will promptly inform the other parties hereto of such compelled disclosure), shall not issue any such press release, make any such other public statement or schedule any such press conference or conference call before such consultation, if practicable.

Section 8.04. Further Assurances. At and after the Effective Time, the officers and directors of the Surviving Corporation shall be authorized to execute and deliver, in the name and on behalf of the Company or Merger Subsidiary, any deeds, bills of sale, assignments or assurances and to take and do, in the name and on behalf of the Company or Merger Subsidiary, any other actions and things to vest, perfect or confirm of record or otherwise in the Surviving Corporation any and all right, title and interest in, to and under any of the rights, properties or assets of the Company acquired or to be acquired by the Surviving Corporation as a result of, or in connection with, the Merger.

Section 8.05. Notices of Certain Events. Each of the Company and Merger Subsidiary shall promptly notify the other of:

(a) any notice or other communication from any Person alleging that the consent of such Person is or may be required in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement;

(b) any notice or other communication from any Governmental Authority in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement; and

(c) any Proceedings commenced or, to its knowledge, threatened against, relating to or involving or otherwise affecting the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or Parent or any of its Subsidiaries, as the case may be, that, if pending on the date hereof, would have been required to have been disclosed pursuant to Articles 4 or 5, as the case may be, or that relate to the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

Section 8.06. Confidentiality. Prior to the Effective Time and after any termination of this Agreement, each of Parent, Merger Subsidiary and the Company shall hold, and shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause its officers, directors, employees, accountants, counsel, consultants, advisors and agents to hold, in confidence, unless compelled to disclose by Applicable Law, all confidential documents and information concerning the other party furnished to it or its Affiliates in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, all in accordance with the terms of the Confidentiality Agreement.

Section 8.07. Financing Assistance. (a) From the date hereof until the Effective Time, the Company shall, and shall request its officers, directors, employees, accountants, counsel, consultants, advisors and agents to, provide all cooperation reasonably requested by Parent (provided that such requested cooperation does not unreasonably interfere with the ongoing operations of the Company and its Subsidiaries) in connection with the arrangement of the Debt Financing, including using reasonable best efforts to (i) cause appropriate officers and employees to be available, on a customary basis and upon reasonable advance notice, to meet with prospective lenders and investors in meetings, presentations, road shows and due diligence sessions, (ii) assist with the preparation of disclosure documents in connection therewith (including a customary high yield offering memorandum and a "bank book" covering each of the bath products division and the plumbing products division), (iii) use reasonable best efforts to cause its independent accountants to provide reasonable assistance to Parent, at Parent's expense, including requesting its independent accountants to provide consent to Parent to prepare and use their audit reports and SAS 100 reviews relating to the Company and its Subsidiaries and to provide any necessary "comfort letters", (iv) use reasonable best efforts to cause its attorneys to provide reasonable assistance to Parent, at Parent's expense, including requesting its attorneys to provide any necessary and customary legal opinions, (v) use reasonable best efforts to obtain landlord waivers, mortgagee waivers, bailee acknowledgements and other similar third party documents required by the financiers providing the Debt Financing and (vi) execute and deliver any commitment letters, underwriting or placement agreements, registration statements, pledge and security documents, other definitive financing documents, or other requested certificates or documents, including a certificate of the chief financial officer of the Company with respect to solvency or other matters; provided, that none of the letters, agreements, registration statements, documents and certificates referenced in the immediately preceding clause (vi) shall be executed and delivered except in connection with the Closing (and the effectiveness thereof shall be conditioned upon, or become operative after, the occurrence of the Closing) and shall impose no personal liability on the officers or employees involved. Parent and Merger Subsidiary recognize and agree that the Company cannot "require" its accountants, attorneys or officers to provide or execute any documents and any failure by such accountants, attorneys or officers to provide such consents or opinions does not affect the obligations of Parent and Merger Subsidiary hereunder.

(b) The Company shall use reasonable best efforts to make available to Parent and Merger Subsidiary or their representatives, at Parent's expense, as promptly as reasonably practicable: (i) the audited combined balance sheet of the plumbing products division of the Company as of September 30, 2006, 2005 and 2004, and the audited combined statements of income, cash flows and shareholders' equity of such division for each of the fiscal years ended September 30, 2006, 2005 and 2004, together with the related notes thereto, accompanied by the reports thereon of the Company's accountants, (ii) the audited combined balance sheet of the bath products division of the Company as of September 30, 2006, 2005 and 2004, and the audited combined statements of income, cash flows and shareholders' equity of such division for each of the fiscal years ended September 30, 2006, 2005 and 2004, together with the related notes thereto, accompanied by the reports thereon of the Company's accountants, (iii) following the end of each fiscal month ending on or after September 30, 2006, the unaudited consolidating balance sheet of the Company reflecting the plumbing products division and the bath products division of the Company as of the last day of such fiscal month, and the consolidating statements of income of each such division for such fiscal month and (iv) the unaudited combined income statement of the plumbing products division of the Company for (A) the twelve months ended March 31, 2006 and (B) the six months ended September 30, 2006 and September 30, 2005. Parent understands and agrees that in the event of any conflict (including with respect to allocation of management time or other resources) between the preparation of the financial statements required to be prepared pursuant to this Section 8.07(b) and the preparation of the Company's annual report on Form 10-K for its fiscal year ended September 30, 2006, the preparation of such Form 10-K shall take precedent.

(c) shall (i) use its reasonable best efforts to comply with all of its covenants, agreements, representations and warranties contained in any of the Debt Commitment Letters, (ii) not take any action specifically prohibited pursuant to the terms of the Debt Commitment Letters or agree to amend the Debt Commitment Letters in a manner adverse to the Company and (iii) if any of the Debt Commitment Letters expire or are terminated prior to the Closing, use its reasonable best efforts to promptly arrange for alternative debt financing (upon terms and subject to conditions no less favorable to the Company in any material respect than those contained in the Debt Commitment Letters).

Section 8.08. Debt Tender. (a) On such date designated by Parent (which shall be at least three Business Days after the date on which the Company received such notice from Parent), the Company shall commence a tender offer and Consent Solicitation (the "Debt Offer") for all of the outstanding ~~9~~ Senior Secured Notes due 2010 of the Company (the "Notes") upon the terms and conditions set forth in Schedule 8.08 of the Company Disclosure Schedule, and otherwise in compliance with Applicable Law and SEC rules and regulations, and Parent and Merger Subsidiary shall assist the Company in connection therewith.

(b) Promptly after the date of this Agreement, Parent shall prepare all necessary and appropriate documentation in connection with the Debt Offer, including the offer to purchase, related letters of transmittal and other related documents (collectively, the "Offer Documents"). Parent and the Company shall cooperate with each other in the preparation of the Offer Documents. All mailings to the holders of the Notes in connection with the Debt Offer shall be subject to the prior review and comment by each of the Company and Parent and shall be reasonably acceptable to each of them. The Company, Parent and Merger Subsidiary shall cooperate in connection with the Debt Offer in order to cause the consent date under the Consent Solicitation and initial settlement of the Debt Offer to occur simultaneously with the Closing. The Company shall, and shall cause its applicable Subsidiaries to, waive any of the conditions to the Debt Offer (other than that the conditions to the consummation of the Merger shall have been satisfied or waived and that there shall be no order or injunction prohibiting consummation of the Debt Offer) as may be reasonably requested by Parent and shall not, without the consent of Parent, waive any condition to the Debt Offer or make any changes to the terms and conditions of the Debt Offer other than as agreed between Parent and the Company. Notwithstanding the immediately preceding sentence, the Company need not make any change to the terms and conditions of the Debt Offer requested by Parent that decreases the price per Note payable in the Debt Offer or imposes conditions to the Debt Offer in addition to those set forth in Schedule 8.08 of the Company Disclosure Schedule that are materially adverse to holders of the Notes, unless such change is approved by the Company in writing. If, at any time prior to the completion of the Debt Offer, any information in the Offer Documents should be discovered by the Company or Parent that should be set forth in an amendment or supplement to the Offer Documents, so that the Offer Documents shall not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading, the party that discovers such information shall promptly notify the other party, and an appropriate amendment or supplement describing such information shall be disseminated by the Company to the holders of the Notes. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 8.08(b), the Company shall comply with the requirements of Rule 14e-1 under the 1934 Act and any other Applicable Law to the extent such laws are applicable in connection with the Debt Offer. To the extent that the provisions of any Applicable Law conflict with this Section 8.08(b), the Company shall comply with the Applicable Law and shall not be deemed to have breached its obligations hereunder by such compliance.

(c) Promptly upon the receipt of the Requested Consents with respect to the indenture for the Notes, the Company shall enter into a supplemental indenture reflecting the amendments to such indenture approved by such Requested Consents and will use its reasonable best efforts to cause the indenture trustee to promptly enter into such supplemental indenture; provided, that the amendments contained in such supplemental indenture shall become operative upon the acceptance of the Debt Offer. The closing of the Debt Offer shall be conditioned on the simultaneous occurrence of the Closing. Simultaneously with the Closing and in accordance with the terms of the Debt Offer, Parent shall provide to the Company the funds necessary to consummate the Debt Offer and Consent Solicitation (including the payment of all applicable premiums, consent fees and all related fees and expenses) and the Company shall accept for purchase and use such funds to purchase the Notes tendered in the Debt Offer.

(d) If requested by Parent, the Company shall enter into one or more dealer manager agreements with such Persons as Parent shall reasonably request. Parent shall pay the reasonable fees and expenses of any dealer manager, information agent, depository or other agent retained in connection with the Debt Offer.

(e) For purposes of this Agreement, Consent Solicitation shall mean a solicitation of the Requested Consents from the holders of the Notes; and Requested Consents shall mean the consents of holders of a majority in principal amount of the Notes to the amendments to the indenture in respect of the Notes described in Schedule 8.08 of the Company Disclosure Schedule.

(f) Parent shall promptly reimburse the Company and any dealer-manager under any dealer-manager agreement for any out-of-pocket costs, fees, and expenses incurred by the Company in connection with the Debt Offer. Parent and Merger Subsidiary shall, on a joint and several basis, indemnify and hold harmless the Company and its Subsidiaries and their respective officers and directors, any dealer-manager and each Person, if any, who controls the Company within the meaning of Section 20 of the 1934 Act for and against any and all liabilities, losses, damages, claims, costs, expenses, interest, awards, judgments and penalties suffered or incurred by them in connection with the Debt Offer and the Offer Documents; provided, however, that neither Parent nor Merger Subsidiary shall have any obligation to indemnify and hold harmless any such Person to the extent that any such liabilities, losses, damages, claims, costs, expenses, interest, awards, judgments and penalties suffered or incurred arises from disclosure provided by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries (including disclosures incorporated by reference in the Offer Documents) that is determined to have contained a material misstatement or omission.

Section 8.09. Conveyance Taxes. The Company and Parent will (a) cooperate in the preparation, execution and filing of all Tax Returns, questionnaires, applications or other documents regarding any real property transfer or gains, sales, use, transfer, value added, stock transfer and stamp Taxes, any transfer, recording, registration and other fees and any similar Taxes which become payable in connection with the Transactions, (b) cooperate in the preparation, execution and filing of all applications or other documents regarding any applicable exemptions to any such Tax or fee and (c) each pay any such Tax or fee which becomes payable by it on or before the due date therefor.

Section 8.10. Certain Agreements. From the date hereof until the date on which the Company Stockholder Approval is obtained, the Company (i) upon becoming aware of any actual or threatened breach of any agreement set forth on Schedule 8.10 of the Company Disclosure Schedule (each, a Specified Agreement), shall promptly notify Parent of such breach and (ii) shall not, without the prior written consent of Parent, consent or otherwise agree to or permit any amendment, waiver, modification or assignment of, any Specified Agreement.

ARTICLE 10
TERMINATION

Section 10.01. Termination. This Agreement may be terminated and the Merger may be abandoned at any time prior to the Effective Time (notwithstanding any approval of this Agreement by the stockholders of the Company):

(a) by mutual written agreement of the Company and Parent; or

(b) by either the Company or Parent, if:

(i) the Merger has not been consummated on or before February 15, 2007 (the "End Date"); provided that the right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 10.01(b)(i) shall not be available to any party whose breach of any provision of this Agreement has been a principal cause of or resulted in the failure of the Merger to be consummated by such time;

(ii) consummation of the Merger would violate any nonappealable final order, decree or judgment (which the parties hereto shall have used their reasonable best efforts to resist, resolve or lift) of any Governmental Authority having competent jurisdiction; or

(iii) at the Company Stockholder Meeting (including any adjournment or postponement thereof), the Company Stockholder Approval shall not have been obtained upon a vote taken thereon; or

(c) by Parent, if:

(i) an Adverse Recommendation Change shall have occurred;

(ii) the Company shall have entered into a definitive agreement or an agreement in principle with respect to a Superior Proposal or the Company or the Board of Directors of the Company shall have publicly announced its intention to do so;

(iii) the Company shall have materially breached its obligations under Section 6.02 and Section 6.03; or

(iv) a breach of any representation or warranty or failure to perform any covenant or agreement on the part of the Company set forth in this Agreement shall have occurred that would cause the condition set forth in either Section 9.02(a), (b) or (e) not to be satisfied, and such condition is incapable of being satisfied by the End Date; provided, that Parent is not then in material breach of any of its covenants or agreements hereunder; or

(d) by the Company, if:

(i) prior to receipt of the Company Stockholder Approval, the Board of Directors of the Company approves and authorizes the Company, subject to complying with the terms of this Agreement, to enter into a written agreement to effect a Superior Proposal; provided, that (A) at least four Business Days prior to such termination, the Company notifies Parent in writing of the Company's intention to terminate this Agreement and to enter into a binding written agreement concerning an Acquisition Proposal that constitutes a Superior Proposal, attaching the most current version of such definitive agreement (including any amendments, supplements or modifications) and a description of the material terms and conditions thereof, and (B) Parent does not, within four Business Days of receipt of such notice, make an irrevocable unconditional offer to adjust the terms and conditions of this Agreement such that the terms and conditions of the Merger, as so modified, would be at least as favorable to the stockholders of the Company as such Superior Proposal, it being understood that the Company shall not enter into any such binding agreement during such four Business Days; or

(ii) a breach of any representation or warranty or failure to perform any covenant or agreement on the part of Parent or Merger Sub set forth in this Agreement shall have occurred that would cause the condition set forth in either Section 9.03(a) or (b) not to be satisfied, and such condition is incapable of being satisfied by the End Date; provided, that the Company is not then in material breach of any of its covenants or agreements hereunder.

(e) The party desiring to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 10.01 (other than pursuant to Section 10.01(a)) shall give notice of such termination, and the specific basis therefor, to the other party.

(B) pursuant to Section 10.01(c)(i) or 10.01(c)(ii);

(D) pursuant to Section 10.01(c)(iv) because the Company shall have failed to perform in any material respect any covenant or agreement set forth in Section 8.07 or Section 8.08 and, within 12 months following the date of such termination, the Company enters into a definitive agreement with respect to or consummates an Acquisition Proposal with any Third Party;

(E) pursuant to Section 10.01(b)(iii) but only if, prior to such Company Stockholder Meeting, an Acquisition Proposal shall have been made and, within 12 months following the date of such termination, the Company enters into a definitive agreement with respect to or consummates an Acquisition Proposal with any Third Party; or

(F) pursuant to Section 10.01(b)(i) but only if, prior to such termination, an Acquisition Proposal shall have been made and, within 12 months following the date of such termination, the Company enters into a definitive agreement with respect to or consummates an Acquisition Proposal with any Third Party.

(c) The Company shall promptly reimburse Parent for the Parent Expenses if the Agreement is terminated pursuant to Section 10.01(b)(iii) but only if, prior to termination, each of Parent and Merger Subsidiary was in compliance in all material respects with its obligations hereunder.

Parent Expenses means the reasonable and documented out-of-pocket fees and expenses (including the reasonable legal fees and expenses) actually incurred by Parent, Merger Subsidiary and their Affiliates and representatives and advisors on or prior to the termination of this Agreement in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement up to a maximum amount not exceed $6 million.

(d) The Company acknowledges that the fee provided for in this Section 11.04 is an integral part of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and shall not be asserted by it to be or be construed as a penalty, and that, without such fee, Parent and Merger Subsidiary would not enter into this Agreement.

(b) No party may assign, delegate or otherwise transfer any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement without the consent of each other party hereto, except that Parent or Merger Subsidiary may transfer or assign its rights and obligations under this Agreement, in whole or from time to time in part, to (i) one or more of their Affiliates at any time, (ii) any financing source at any time and (iii) after the Effective Time, to any Person; provided that no such transfer or assignment shall relieve Parent or Merger Subsidiary from any of its obligations hereunder or enlarge, alter or change any obligation of any other party hereto or due to Parent or Merger Subsidiary.

Section 11.06. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware, without regard to the conflicts of law rules of such state.

Section 11.07. Jurisdiction. The parties hereto agree that any suit, action or proceeding seeking to enforce any provision of, or based on any matter arising out of or in connection with, this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby shall be brought in any federal court located in the State of Delaware or any Delaware state court, and each of the parties hereby irrevocably consents to the jurisdiction of such courts (and of the appropriate appellate courts therefrom) in any such Proceeding and irrevocably waives, to the fullest extent permitted by law, any objection that it may now or hereafter have to the laying of the venue of any such Proceeding in any such court or that any such Proceeding brought in any such court has been brought in an inconvenient forum. Process in any such Proceeding may be served on any party anywhere in the world, whether within or without the jurisdiction of any such court. Without limiting the foregoing, each party agrees that service of process on such party as provided in Section 11.01 shall be deemed effective service of process on such party.

Section 11.08. Counterparts; Effectiveness. This Agreement may be signed in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be an original, with the same effect as if the signatures thereto and hereto were upon the same instrument. This Agreement shall become effective when each party hereto shall have received a counterpart hereof signed by all of the other parties hereto. Until and unless each party has received a counterpart hereof signed by the other party hereto, this Agreement shall have no effect and no party shall have any right or obligation hereunder (whether by virtue of any other oral or written agreement or other communication).

Section 11.09. Entire Agreement. This Agreement and the Confidentiality Agreement constitute the entire agreement between the parties with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement and supersedes all prior agreements and understandings, both oral and written, between the parties with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement. Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 4 or any other provision contained in this Agreement to the contrary, Parent understands and agrees that the Company is not making any representation or warranty with respect to (a) the restructuring of the bath and plumbing businesses of the Company and its Subsidiaries to be effected by Parent at or after consummation of the Merger or (b) the Financing and the transactions contemplated thereby.

Section 11.10. Severability. If any term, provision, covenant or restriction of this Agreement is held by a court of competent jurisdiction or other Governmental Authority to be invalid, void or unenforceable, the remainder of the terms, provisions, covenants and restrictions of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect and shall in no way be affected, impaired or invalidated so long as the economic or legal substance of the transactions contemplated hereby is not affected in any manner materially adverse to any party. Upon such a determination, the parties shall negotiate in good faith to modify this Agreement so as to effect the original intent of the parties as closely as possible in an acceptable manner in order that the transactions contemplated hereby be consummated as originally contemplated to the fullest extent possible.

Section 11.11. Specific Performance. The parties hereto agree that irreparable damage would occur in the event any provision of this Agreement were not performed in accordance with the terms hereof and that the parties shall be entitled to an injunction or injunctions to prevent breaches of this Agreement or to enforce specifically the performance of the terms and provisions hereof in any federal court located in the State of Delaware or any Delaware state court, in addition to any other remedy to which they are entitled at law or in equity.

Section 11.12. WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES ANY AND ALL RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY LEGAL PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATED TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused this Agreement to be duly executed by their respective authorized officers as of the day and year first above written.

ANNEX B

LAZARD

OPINION OF LAZARD FRÈRES & CO. LLC

October 11, 2006

The Board of Directors
Jacuzzi Brands, Inc.
777 South Flagler Drive
West Palm Beach, Florida 33401

Dear Members of the Board:

We understand that Jacuzzi Brands, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), Jupiter Acquisition, LLC ("Buyer"), a Delaware corporation and affiliate of Apollo Management VI, L.P., and Jupiter Merger Sub, Inc., a Delaware corporation and wholly-owned subsidiary of Buyer ("Merger Sub"), have entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of October 11, 2006 (the "Agreement"), pursuant to which Merger Sub will merge with and into the Company (the "Merger") with the Company continuing as the surviving corporation in the Merger and a wholly-owned subsidiary of Buyer. Pursuant to the Agreement, at the effective time of the Merger each share of common stock, par value $0.01 per share ("Company Common Stock"), of the Company issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Merger (other than shares held by the Company, any of its subsidiaries or Buyer or any shares for which appraisal rights are perfected under Delaware law) will be converted into the right to receive $12.50 in cash, without interest (the "Merger Consideration"). The terms and conditions of the Merger are more fully set forth in the Agreement.

You have requested our opinion as of the date hereof as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Company Common Stock of the Merger Consideration to be paid to such holders in the Merger. In connection with this opinion, we have:

- (i) Reviewed the financial terms and conditions of the Agreement;
- (ii) Analyzed certain historical business and financial information relating to the Company;
- (iii) Reviewed various financial forecasts and other data provided to us by the Company relating to its businesses;
- (iv) Held discussions with members of the senior management of the Company with respect to the businesses, prospects and strategic objectives of the Company;
- (v) Reviewed public information with respect to certain other companies in lines of business we believe to be generally comparable to the businesses of the Company;
- (vi) Reviewed the financial terms of certain business combinations involving companies in lines of business we believe to be generally comparable to those of the Company, and in other industries generally;
- (vii) Reviewed the historical stock prices and trading volumes of Company Common Stock; and
- (viii) Conducted such other financial studies, analyses and investigations as we deemed appropriate.

We have relied upon the accuracy and completeness of the foregoing information, and have not assumed any responsibility for any independent verification of such information or any independent valuation or appraisal of any of the assets or liabilities of the Company, or concerning the solvency or fair value of the Company. With respect to financial forecasts, we have assumed that they have been reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of management of the Company as to the future financial performance and results of operations of the Company. At your direction, in rendering our opinion we relied upon the financial forecasts provided to us on September 22, 2006. We assume no responsibility for and express no view as to any such forecasts or the assumptions on which they are based.

Further, our opinion is necessarily based on economic, monetary, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to us as of, the date hereof. We assume no responsibility for advising any person of any change in any matter affecting this opinion or for updating or revising our opinion based on circumstances or events occurring after the date hereof. We do not express any opinion as to the price at which shares of Company Common Stock may trade at any time subsequent to the announcement of the Merger. We do not express any opinion as to any tax or other consequences that might result from the Merger, nor does our opinion address any legal, tax, regulatory or accounting matters, as to which we understand that the Company has obtained such advice as it deemed necessary from qualified professionals.

In rendering our opinion, we have assumed that the Merger will be consummated on the terms described in the Agreement, without any waiver, amendment or modification of any material terms or conditions of the Agreement and the timely receipt of the necessary regulatory approvals for the Merger.

Lazard Frères & Co. LLC (["Lazard"]) is acting as investment banker to the Company in connection with the Merger and will receive a fee for our services, which is contingent upon the closing of the Merger. Also, we have in the past provided investment banking services to the Company, for which we have received customary fees. In addition, in the ordinary course of their respective businesses, affiliates of Lazard and LFCM Holdings LLC (an entity owned in large part by managing directors of Lazard) may actively trade securities of the Company for their own accounts and for the accounts of their customers and, accordingly, may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities.

Our engagement and the opinion expressed herein are for the benefit of the Company's Board of Directors in connection with its consideration of the Merger. Our opinion does not address the merits of the underlying decision by the Company to engage in the Merger or the relative merits of the Merger as compared to other business strategies or transactions that might be available to the Company. We express no opinion or recommendation as to how the holders of Company Common Stock should vote at any stockholders meeting to be held in connection with the Merger. It is understood that this letter may not be disclosed or otherwise referred to, in whole or in part, without our prior consent, except that this letter in its entirety may be sent to the stockholders of the Company in connection with any stockholders meeting to be held in connection with the Merger.

Based on and subject to the foregoing, we are of the opinion that as of the date hereof the Merger Consideration to be paid to the holders of Company Common Stock in the Merger is fair to such holders, from a financial point of view.

Very truly yours,

LAZARD FRERES & CO. LLC

B-2

GENERAL CORPORATION LAW OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE

SECTION 262. APPRAISAL RIGHTS.

(a) Any stockholder of a corporation of this State who holds shares of stock on the date of the making of a demand pursuant to subsection (d) of this section with respect to such shares, who continuously holds such shares through the effective date of the merger or consolidation, who has otherwise complied with subsection (d) of this section and who has neither voted in favor of the merger or consolidation nor consented thereto in writing pursuant to Section 228 of this title shall be entitled to an appraisal by the Court of Chancery of the fair value of the stockholder's shares of stock under the circumstances described in subsections (b) and (c) of this section. As used in this section, the word "stockholder" means a holder of record of stock in a stock corporation and also a member of record of a nonstock corporation; the words "stock" and "share" mean and include what is ordinarily meant by those words and also membership or membership interest of a member of a nonstock corporation; and the words "depository receipt" mean a receipt or other instrument issued by a depository representing an interest in one or more shares, or fractions thereof, solely of stock of a corporation, which stock is deposited with the depository.

(b) Appraisal rights shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock of a constituent corporation in a merger or consolidation to be effected pursuant to Section 251 (other than a merger effected pursuant to Section 251(g) of this title), Section 252, Section 254, Section 257, Section 258, Section 263 or Section 264 of this title:

(1) Provided, however, that no appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock, which stock, or depository receipts in respect thereof, at the record date fixed to determine the stockholders entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the meeting of stockholders to act upon the agreement of merger or consolidation, were either (i) listed on a national securities exchange or designated as a national market system security on an interdealer quotation system by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. or (ii) held of record by more than 2,000 holders; and further provided that no appraisal rights shall be available for any shares of stock of the constituent corporation surviving a merger if the merger did not require for its approval the vote of the stockholders of the surviving corporation as provided in subsection (f) of Section 251 of this title.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1) of this subsection, appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock of a constituent corporation if the holders thereof are required by the terms of an agreement of merger or consolidation pursuant to Sections 251, 252, 254, 257, 258, 263 and 264 of this title to accept for such stock anything except:

a. Shares of stock of the corporation surviving or resulting from such merger or consolidation, or depository receipts in respect thereof;

b. Shares of stock of any other corporation, or depository receipts in respect thereof, which shares of stock (or depository receipts in respect thereof) or depository receipts at the effective date of the merger or consolidation will be either listed on a national securities exchange or designated as a national market system security on an interdealer quotation system by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. or held of record by more than 2,000 holders;

c. Cash in lieu of fractional shares or fractional depository receipts described in the foregoing subparagraphs a. and b. of this paragraph; or

d. Any combination of the shares of stock, depository receipts and cash in lieu of fractional shares or fractional depository receipts described in the foregoing subparagraphs a., b. and c. of this paragraph.

(3) In the event all of the stock of a subsidiary Delaware corporation party to a merger effected under Section 253 of this title is not owned by the parent corporation immediately prior to the merger, appraisal rights shall be available for the shares of the subsidiary Delaware corporation.

C-1

(c) Any corporation may provide in its certificate of incorporation that appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of its stock as a result of an amendment to its certificate of incorporation, any merger or consolidation in which the corporation is a constituent corporation or the sale of all or substantially all of the assets of the corporation. If the certificate of incorporation contains such a provision, the procedures of this section, including those set forth in subsections (d) and (e) of this section, shall apply as nearly as is practicable.

(d) Appraisal rights shall be perfected as follows:

(1) If a proposed merger or consolidation for which appraisal rights are provided under this section is to be submitted for approval at a meeting of stockholders, the corporation, not less than 20 days prior to the meeting, shall notify each of its stockholders who was such on the record date for such meeting with respect to shares for which appraisal rights are available pursuant to subsection (b) or (c) hereof that appraisal rights are available for any or all of the shares of the constituent corporations, and shall include in such notice a copy of this section. Each stockholder electing to demand the appraisal of such stockholder's shares shall deliver to the corporation, before the taking of the vote on the merger or consolidation, a written demand for appraisal of such stockholder's shares. Such demand will be sufficient if it reasonably informs the corporation of the identity of the stockholder and that the stockholder intends thereby to demand the appraisal of such stockholder's shares. A proxy or vote against the merger or consolidation shall not constitute such a demand. A stockholder electing to take such action must do so by a separate written demand as herein provided. Within 10 days after the effective date of such merger or consolidation, the surviving or resulting corporation shall notify each stockholder of each constituent corporation who has complied with this subsection and has not voted in favor of or consented to the merger or consolidation of the date that the merger or consolidation has become effective; or

(2) If the merger or consolidation was approved pursuant to Section 228 or Section 253 of this title, then either a constituent corporation before the effective date of the merger or consolidation or the surviving or resulting corporation within 10 days thereafter shall notify each of the holders of any class or series of stock of such constituent corporation who are entitled to appraisal rights of the approval of the merger or consolidation and that appraisal rights are available for any or all shares of such class or series of stock of such constituent corporation, and shall include in such notice a copy of this section. Such notice may, and, if given on or after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, shall, also notify such stockholders of the effective date of the merger or consolidation. Any stockholder entitled to appraisal rights may, within 20 days after the date of mailing of such notice, demand in writing from the surviving or resulting corporation the appraisal of such holder's shares. Such demand will be sufficient if it reasonably informs the corporation of the identity of the stockholder and that the stockholder intends thereby to demand the appraisal of such holder's shares. If such notice did not notify stockholders of the effective date of the merger or consolidation, either (i) each such constituent corporation shall send a second notice before the effective date of the merger or consolidation notifying each of the holders of any class or series of stock of such constituent corporation that are entitled to appraisal rights of the effective date of the merger or consolidation or (ii) the surviving or resulting corporation shall send such a second notice to all such holders on or within 10 days after such effective date; provided, however, that if such second notice is sent more than 20 days following the sending of the first notice, such second notice need only be sent to each stockholder who is entitled to appraisal rights and who has demanded appraisal of such holder's shares in accordance with this subsection. An affidavit of the secretary or assistant secretary or of the transfer agent of the corporation that is required to give either notice that such notice has been given shall, in the absence of fraud, be prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein. For purposes of determining the stockholders entitled to receive either notice, each constituent corporation may fix, in advance, a record date that shall be not more than 10 days prior to the date the notice is given, provided, that if the notice is given on or after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, the record date shall be such effective date. If no record date is fixed and the notice is given prior to the effective date, the record date shall be the close of business on the day next preceding the day on which the notice is given.

(e) Within 120 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, the surviving or resulting corporation or any stockholder who has complied with subsections (a) and (d) hereof and who is otherwise entitled to appraisal rights, may file a petition in the Court of Chancery demanding a determination of the value of the stock of all such stockholders. Notwithstanding the foregoing, at any time within 60 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, any stockholder shall have the right to withdraw such stockholder's demand for appraisal and to accept the terms offered upon the merger or consolidation. Within 120 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, any stockholder who has complied with the requirements of subsections (a) and (d) hereof, upon written request, shall be entitled to receive from the corporation surviving the merger or resulting from the consolidation a statement setting forth the aggregate number of shares not voted in favor of the merger or consolidation and with respect to which demands for appraisal have been received and the aggregate number of holders of such shares. Such written statement shall be mailed to the stockholder within 10 days after such stockholder's written request for such a statement is received by the surviving or resulting corporation or within 10 days after expiration of the period for delivery of demands for appraisal under subsection (d) hereof, whichever is later.

(f) Upon the filing of any such petition by a stockholder, service of a copy thereof shall be made upon the surviving or resulting corporation, which shall within 20 days after such service file in the office of the Register in Chancery in which the petition was filed a duly verified list containing the names and addresses of all stockholders who have demanded payment for their shares and with whom agreements as to the value of their shares have not been reached by the surviving or resulting corporation. If the petition shall be filed by the surviving or resulting corporation, the petition shall be accompanied by such a duly verified list. The Register in Chancery, if so ordered by the Court, shall give notice of the time and place fixed for the hearing of such petition by registered or certified mail to the surviving or resulting corporation and to the stockholders shown on the list at the addresses therein stated. Such notice shall also be given by 1 or more publications at least 1 week before the day of the hearing, in a newspaper of general circulation published in the City of Wilmington, Delaware or such publication as the Court deems advisable. The forms of the notices by mail and by publication shall be approved by the Court, and the costs thereof shall be borne by the surviving or resulting corporation.

(g) At the hearing on such petition, the Court shall determine the stockholders who have complied with this section and who have become entitled to appraisal rights. The Court may require the stockholders who have demanded an appraisal for their shares and who hold stock represented by certificates to submit their certificates of stock to the Register in Chancery for notation thereon of the pendency of the appraisal proceedings; and if any stockholder fails to comply with such direction, the Court may dismiss the proceedings as to such stockholder.

(h) After determining the stockholders entitled to an appraisal, the Court shall appraise the shares, determining their fair value exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger or consolidation, together with a fair rate of interest, if any, to be paid upon the amount determined to be the fair value. In determining such fair value, the Court shall take into account all relevant factors. In determining the fair rate of interest, the Court may consider all relevant factors, including the rate of interest which the surviving or resulting corporation would have had to pay to borrow money during the pendency of the proceeding. Upon application by the surviving or resulting corporation or by any stockholder entitled to participate in the appraisal proceeding, the Court may, in its discretion, permit discovery or other pretrial proceedings and may proceed to trial upon the appraisal prior to the final determination of the stockholder entitled to an appraisal. Any stockholder whose name appears on the list filed by the surviving or resulting corporation pursuant to subsection (f) of this section and who has submitted such stockholder's certificates of stock to the Register in Chancery, if such is required, may participate fully in all proceedings until it is finally determined that such stockholder is not entitled to appraisal rights under this section.

(i) The Court shall direct the payment of the fair value of the shares, together with interest, if any, by the surviving or resulting corporation to the stockholders entitled thereto. Interest may be simple or compound, as the Court may direct. Payment shall be so made to each such stockholder, in the case of holders of uncertificated stock forthwith, and the case of holders of shares represented by certificates upon the surrender to the corporation of the certificates representing such stock. The Court's decree may be enforced as other decrees in the Court of Chancery may be enforced, whether such surviving or resulting corporation be a corporation of this State or of any state.

(j) The costs of the proceeding may be determined by the Court and taxed upon the parties as the Court deems equitable in the circumstances. Upon application of a stockholder, the Court may order all or a portion of the expenses incurred by any stockholder in connection with the appraisal proceeding, including, without limitation, reasonable attorney's fees and the fees and expenses of experts, to be charged pro rata against the value of all the shares entitled to an appraisal.

(k) From and after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, no stockholder who has demanded appraisal rights as provided in subsection (d) of this section shall be entitled to vote such stock for any purpose or to receive payment of dividends or other distributions on the stock (except dividends or other distributions payable to stockholders of record at a date which is prior to the effective date of the merger or consolidation); provided, however, that if no petition for an appraisal shall be filed within the time provided in subsection (e) of this section, or if such stockholder shall deliver to the surviving or resulting corporation a written withdrawal of such stockholder's demand for an appraisal and an acceptance of the merger or consolidation, either within 60 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation as provided in subsection (e) of this section or thereafter with the written approval of the corporation, then the right of such stockholder to an appraisal shall cease. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no appraisal proceeding in the Court of Chancery shall be dismissed as to any stockholder without the approval of the Court, and such approval may be conditioned upon such terms as the Court deems just.

(l) The shares of the surviving or resulting corporation to which the shares of such objecting stockholders would have been converted had they assented to the merger or consolidation shall have the status of authorized and unissued shares of the surviving or resulting corporation.
