Safe harbor statement

This presentation includes forward -looking statements within the meaning of the "Safe-Harbor" provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, which management believes are a benefit to shareholders. These statements are necessarily subject to risk and uncertainty and actual results could differ materially due to certain risk factors, including those set forth from time to time in Umpqua's filings with the SEC. You should not place undue reliance on forward -looking statements and we undertake no obligation to update any such statements. Specific risks in this presentation include whether shareholders approve the merger, whether the companies receive regulatory approvals, the timing of closing, whether the companies have accurately predicted acquisition and consolidation expenses, the timing and amount of savings from consolidation, the expected earnings contributions of both companies and management's ability to effectively integrate the companies.

This presentation may be deemed to be offering or solicitation materials of Umpqua and Sterling in connection with the proposed merger of Sterling with and into Umpqua. Shareholders of both companies are urged to read the joint proxy statement/prospectus that will be included in the registration statement on Form S-4, which Umpqua will file with the SEC in connection with the proposed acquisition, because it will contain important information about Umpqua, Sterling, the acquisition and related matters. The directors and executive officers of Umpqua and Sterling may be deemed to be participants in the solicitation of proxies from their respective shareholders. Information regarding the participants and their security holdings can be found in each of Umpqua's and Sterling's most recent proxy statements filed with the SEC and the joint proxy statement/prospectus when it is filed with the SEC. All documents filed with the SEC are or will be available for free, both on the SEC web site (<http://www.sec.gov>) and from Umpqua by directing a request to Umpqua Holdings Corporation, Attention: Investor Relations, One Southwest Columbia, Suite 1200, Portland, OR 97258, and from Sterling by directing a request to Sterling Financial Corporation, Investor Relations, 111 North Wall Street, Spokane, WA 99201.

Merger of like -minded neighbors with a shared vision of the future

Key merger assumptions

Cost synergies: 30% of Sterling's core cash operating expenses, or 14% of combined expenses

Staggered phase-in: 50% in 2014, 100% thereafter

42 branches within two miles of each other (11% of combined)

Revenue synergies Significant achievable opportunities, but none included in merger economics

One-time charges: Pre-tax restructuring charge of $80mm

Sterling Reduce liability sensitivity with term placement on wholesale borrowings, and other balance sheet restructuring balance sheet restructuring:

Sterling branch Limited expected HHI-related branch divestitures in certain Oregon markets divestiture:

Core deposit intangible: ~1.25% of Sterling's non-time deposits amortized over 10 years (sum-of-the-years digits methodology)

Other earnings Durbin: Annual interchange -related revenue loss estimated at $6mm pre-tax once subject to Durbin(1) adjustments: Sterling branch renovation: Estimated $40.8mm pre-tax cost, depreciated over 10 years (straight-line methodology)

Credit mark: $250mm gross pre-tax mark on loans (3.2% of gross loans at closing)

Equivalent to 1.5x Q2 2013 NPAs, 16.5x LTM net charge-offs of $15mm and 17% through -the-cycle losses(2)

Rate mark: Net $(47mm) pre-tax rate mark, reflecting impacts of ($52mm) discount on loans, ($25mm) premium on time deposits, ($56mm) premium on repurchase agreements and ($5mm) premium on FHLB borrowings; and impact of $91mm discount on trust preferred

Other marks: $5mm MSR write-up, ($2mm) mark on other assets, ($33mm) mark on other liabilities

Sterling DTA: Sterling's current ~$290mm net deferred tax asset is transferrable to the pro-forma company

(1) Based on current Federal Reserve rule
