Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers

Article Eighth of the Company's fifth amended and restated certificate of incorporation limits the personal liability of directors for breach of fiduciary duty to the maximum extent permitted by the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware (the Delaware General Corporation Law). Except to the extent such exemption from liability is not permitted under the Delaware General

Table of Contents

Corporation Law, the Company's fifth amended and restated certificate of incorporation provides that no director will have personal liability to the Company or to the Company's stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director. However, these provisions do not eliminate or limit the liability of any of our directors:

for any breach of their duty of loyalty to the Company or to the Company's stockholders;

for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law;

for voting or assenting to unlawful payments of dividends or other distributions; or for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit.

Any amendment to or repeal of these provisions will not adversely affect any right or protection of the Company's directors occurring prior to any amendment or repeal or adoption of an inconsistent provision. If the Delaware General Corporation Law is amended to provide for further limitations on the personal liability of directors of corporations, then the personal liability of the Company's directors will be further limited to the greatest extent permitted by the Delaware General Corporation Law.

In addition, the Company's by-laws provide that the Company must indemnify the Company's directors and officers and the Company must advance expenses, including attorneys' fees, to the Company's directors and officers in connection with legal proceedings, subject to very limited exceptions. Acting pursuant to the foregoing, we have entered into agreements with each of the Company's directors and officers to indemnify them to the fullest extent permitted by our fifth amended and restated certificate of incorporation, amended and restated by-laws and Delaware law.

In addition, the Company has entered into separate indemnification agreements (the "Indemnification Agreements") with some of the Company's directors and officers. The Indemnification Agreements (i) confirm to officers and directors the indemnification provided to them in the amended and restated by-laws, (ii) provide officers and directors with procedural protections in the event that they are sued in their capacity as a director or officer and (iii) provide additional indemnification rights.

The Company has purchased insurance on behalf of the Company's respective directors and officers against certain liabilities that may be asserted against, or incurred by, such persons in their capacities as the Company's directors or officers, or that may arise out of their status as the Company's directors or officers, including liabilities under the federal and state securities laws.

Item 7. Exemption from Registration Claimed

Not applicable.
