Subject: Additional information on proposed Intervoice/Convergys merger agreement

Thank you to all employees for your thoughts and feedback on the proposed merger with Convergys. The senior leadership team meets regularly to discuss this topic, and rest assured your thoughts, hopes and questions related to the merger are being heard and carefully considered. We know that many of you have specific questions related to personal employee issues that are not addressed in the published FAQ document. We are working with Convergys to obtain more detailed information, where available, and aim to report back to all employees within two weeks.

Also, the Integration Team has made great progress in planning for the integration since July 17th. Functional leaders from Intervoice and Convergys have been involved in daily discussions on how to make the integration optimal for both company's employees and seamless for our customers and partners around the world.

As always, a final reminder that we continue to operate as two separate companies. As we head into August it's critical to deliver on our Q2 objectives and business plan. Thank you to all employees for your hard work, dedication and patience throughout this process.

Sincerely,

Bob Ritchey

Jim Milton
